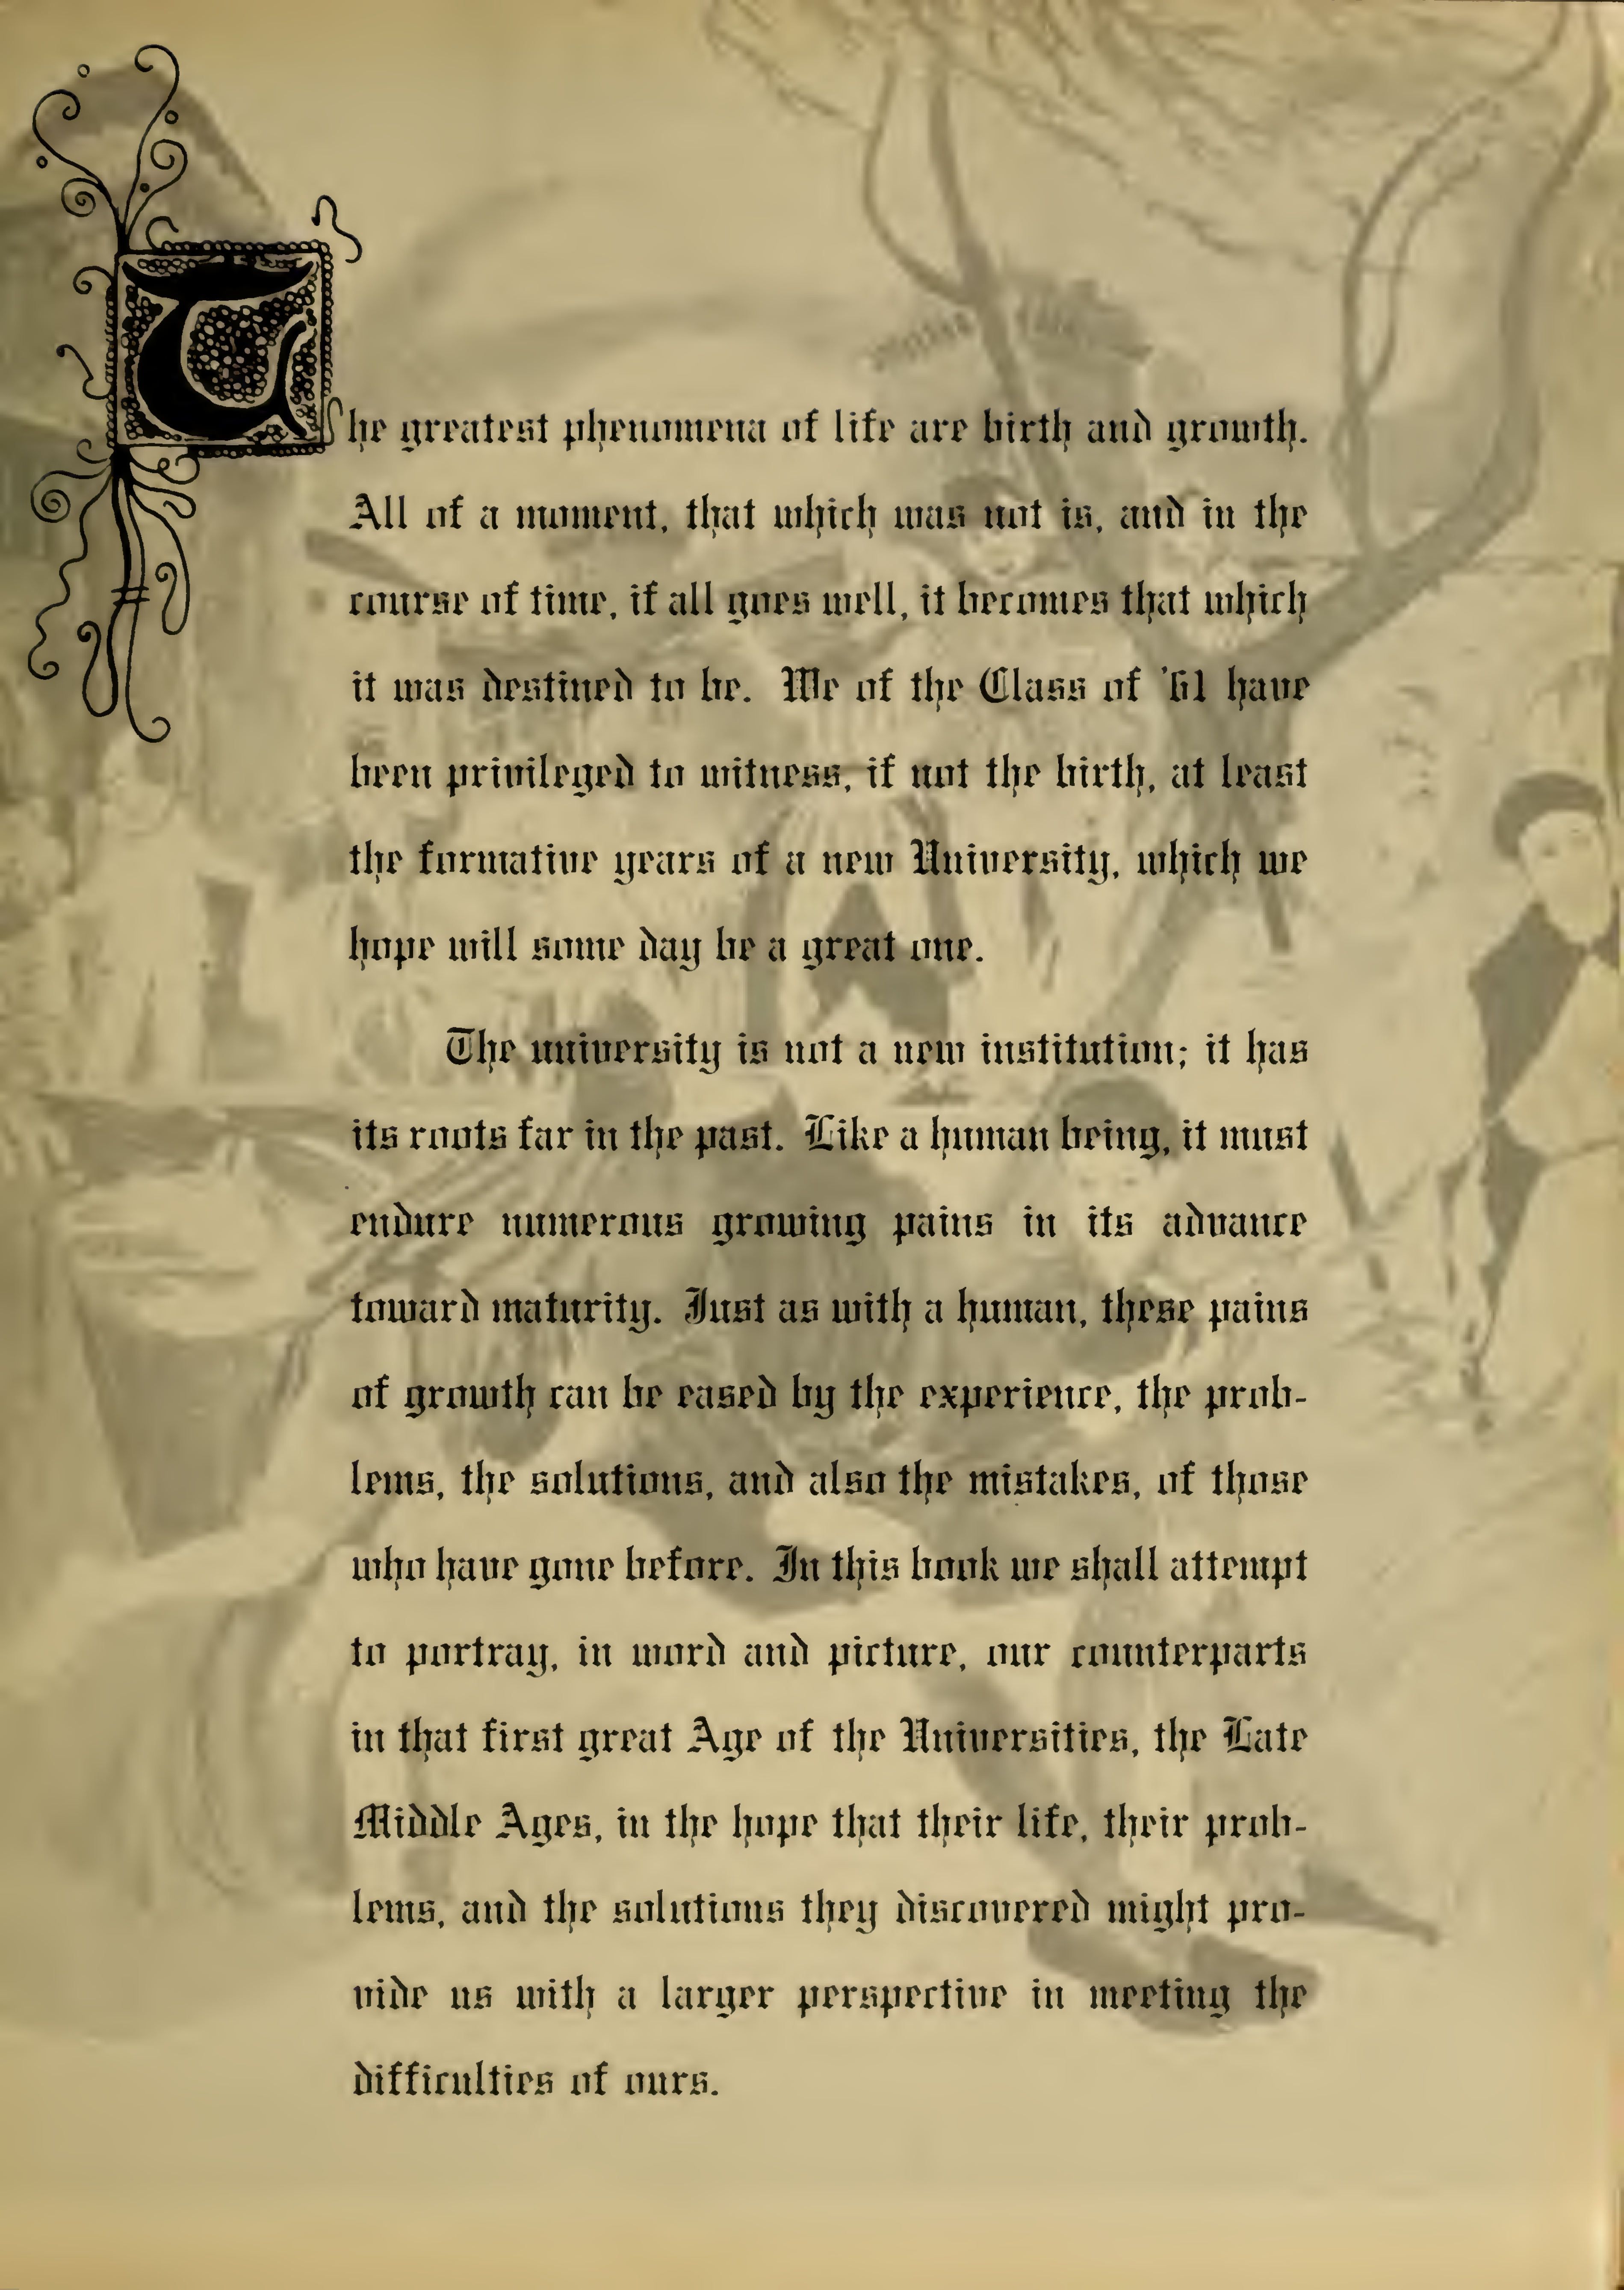
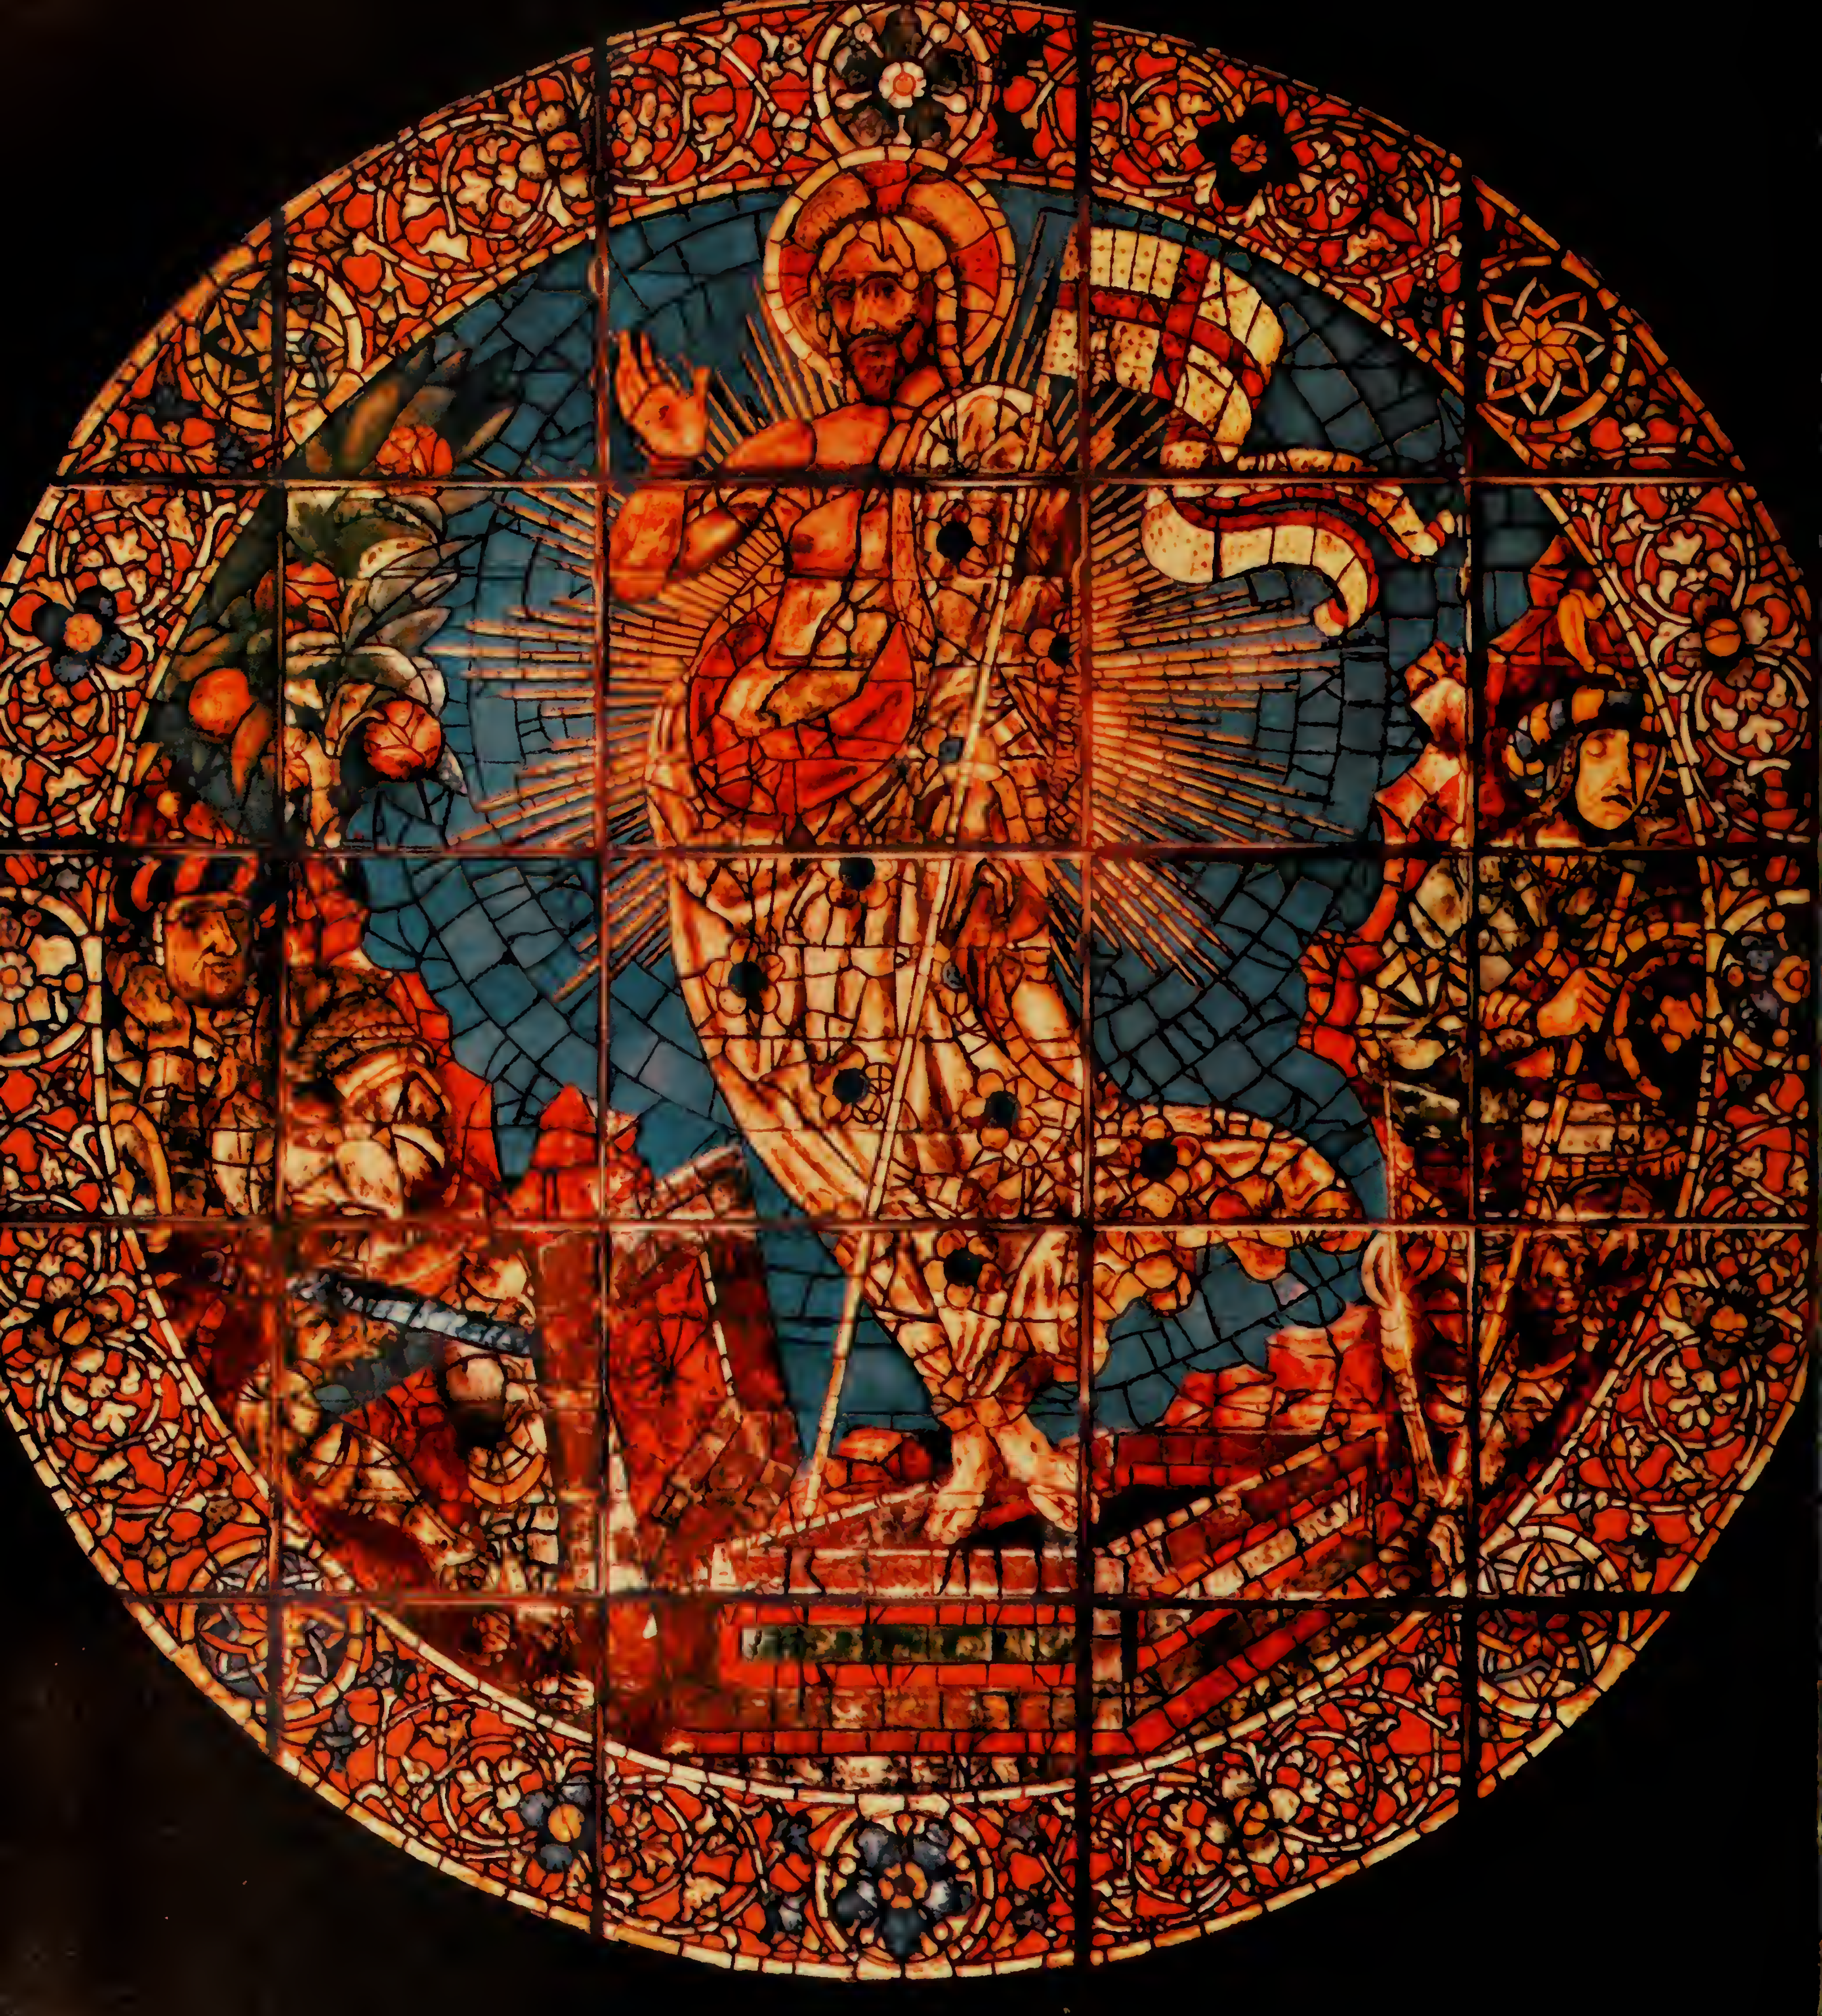
The Manor

1961



The greatest phenomena of life are birth and growth. All of a moment, that which was not is, and in the course of time, if all goes well, it becomes that which it was destined to be. We of the Class of '61 have been privileged to witness, if not the birth, at least the formative years of a new University, which we hope will some day be a great one.

The university is not a new institution; it has its roots far in the past. Like a human being, it must endure numerous growing pains in its advance toward maturity. Just as with a human, these pains of growth can be eased by the experience, the problems, the solutions, and also the mistakes, of those who have gone before. In this book we shall attempt to portray, in word and picture, our counterparts in that first great Age of the Universities, the Late Middle Ages, in the hope that their life, their problems, and the solutions they discovered might provide us with a larger perspective in meeting the difficulties of ours.



Editor-in-Chief	ARTHUR J. MANNION, JR.
Business Manager	ROBERT J. CROWLEY
Photography Editor	ARTHUR J. FUNK
Literary Editor	FRANK J. McDONALD
Layout Editor	PAUL McK. FARGIS
Art Editor	WILLIAM L. SCULLY, JR.

THE MANOR

Published by the Class of 1961
FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY
Fairfield, Connecticut

◄ The Resurrection. Paolo Uccello, ca. 1443.

When the Class of '61 arrived at Fairfield four years ago, a new stage in the University's growth was begun. Two new buildings had just been opened. The enrollment had reached a new peak, occasioned mainly by the fact that ours was the largest Freshman class to be yet admitted. And, to meet the demands of this new growth, the ranks of faculty and administration members had been greatly increased.

Among the latter was a man who, over the next four years, was to have a very intimate connection not only with the growth of the University, but especially with that of the members of our class. First as Dean of Resident Students, and later as Dean of Men, he came to know personally each one of us. His friendship for us, his interest in us, was always unbounded. His disciplines, which we often made necessary, always fulfilled the classical ideal of 'justice tempered with mercy.' With many fond recollections of our four years of life under his ever-present shadow, we proudly dedicate the 1961 MANOR to . . .

Rev. Joseph E. McCormick, S.J.

Contents

Campus 9

Administration 17

Arts 25

Sciences 65

Business 83

Underclassmen 97

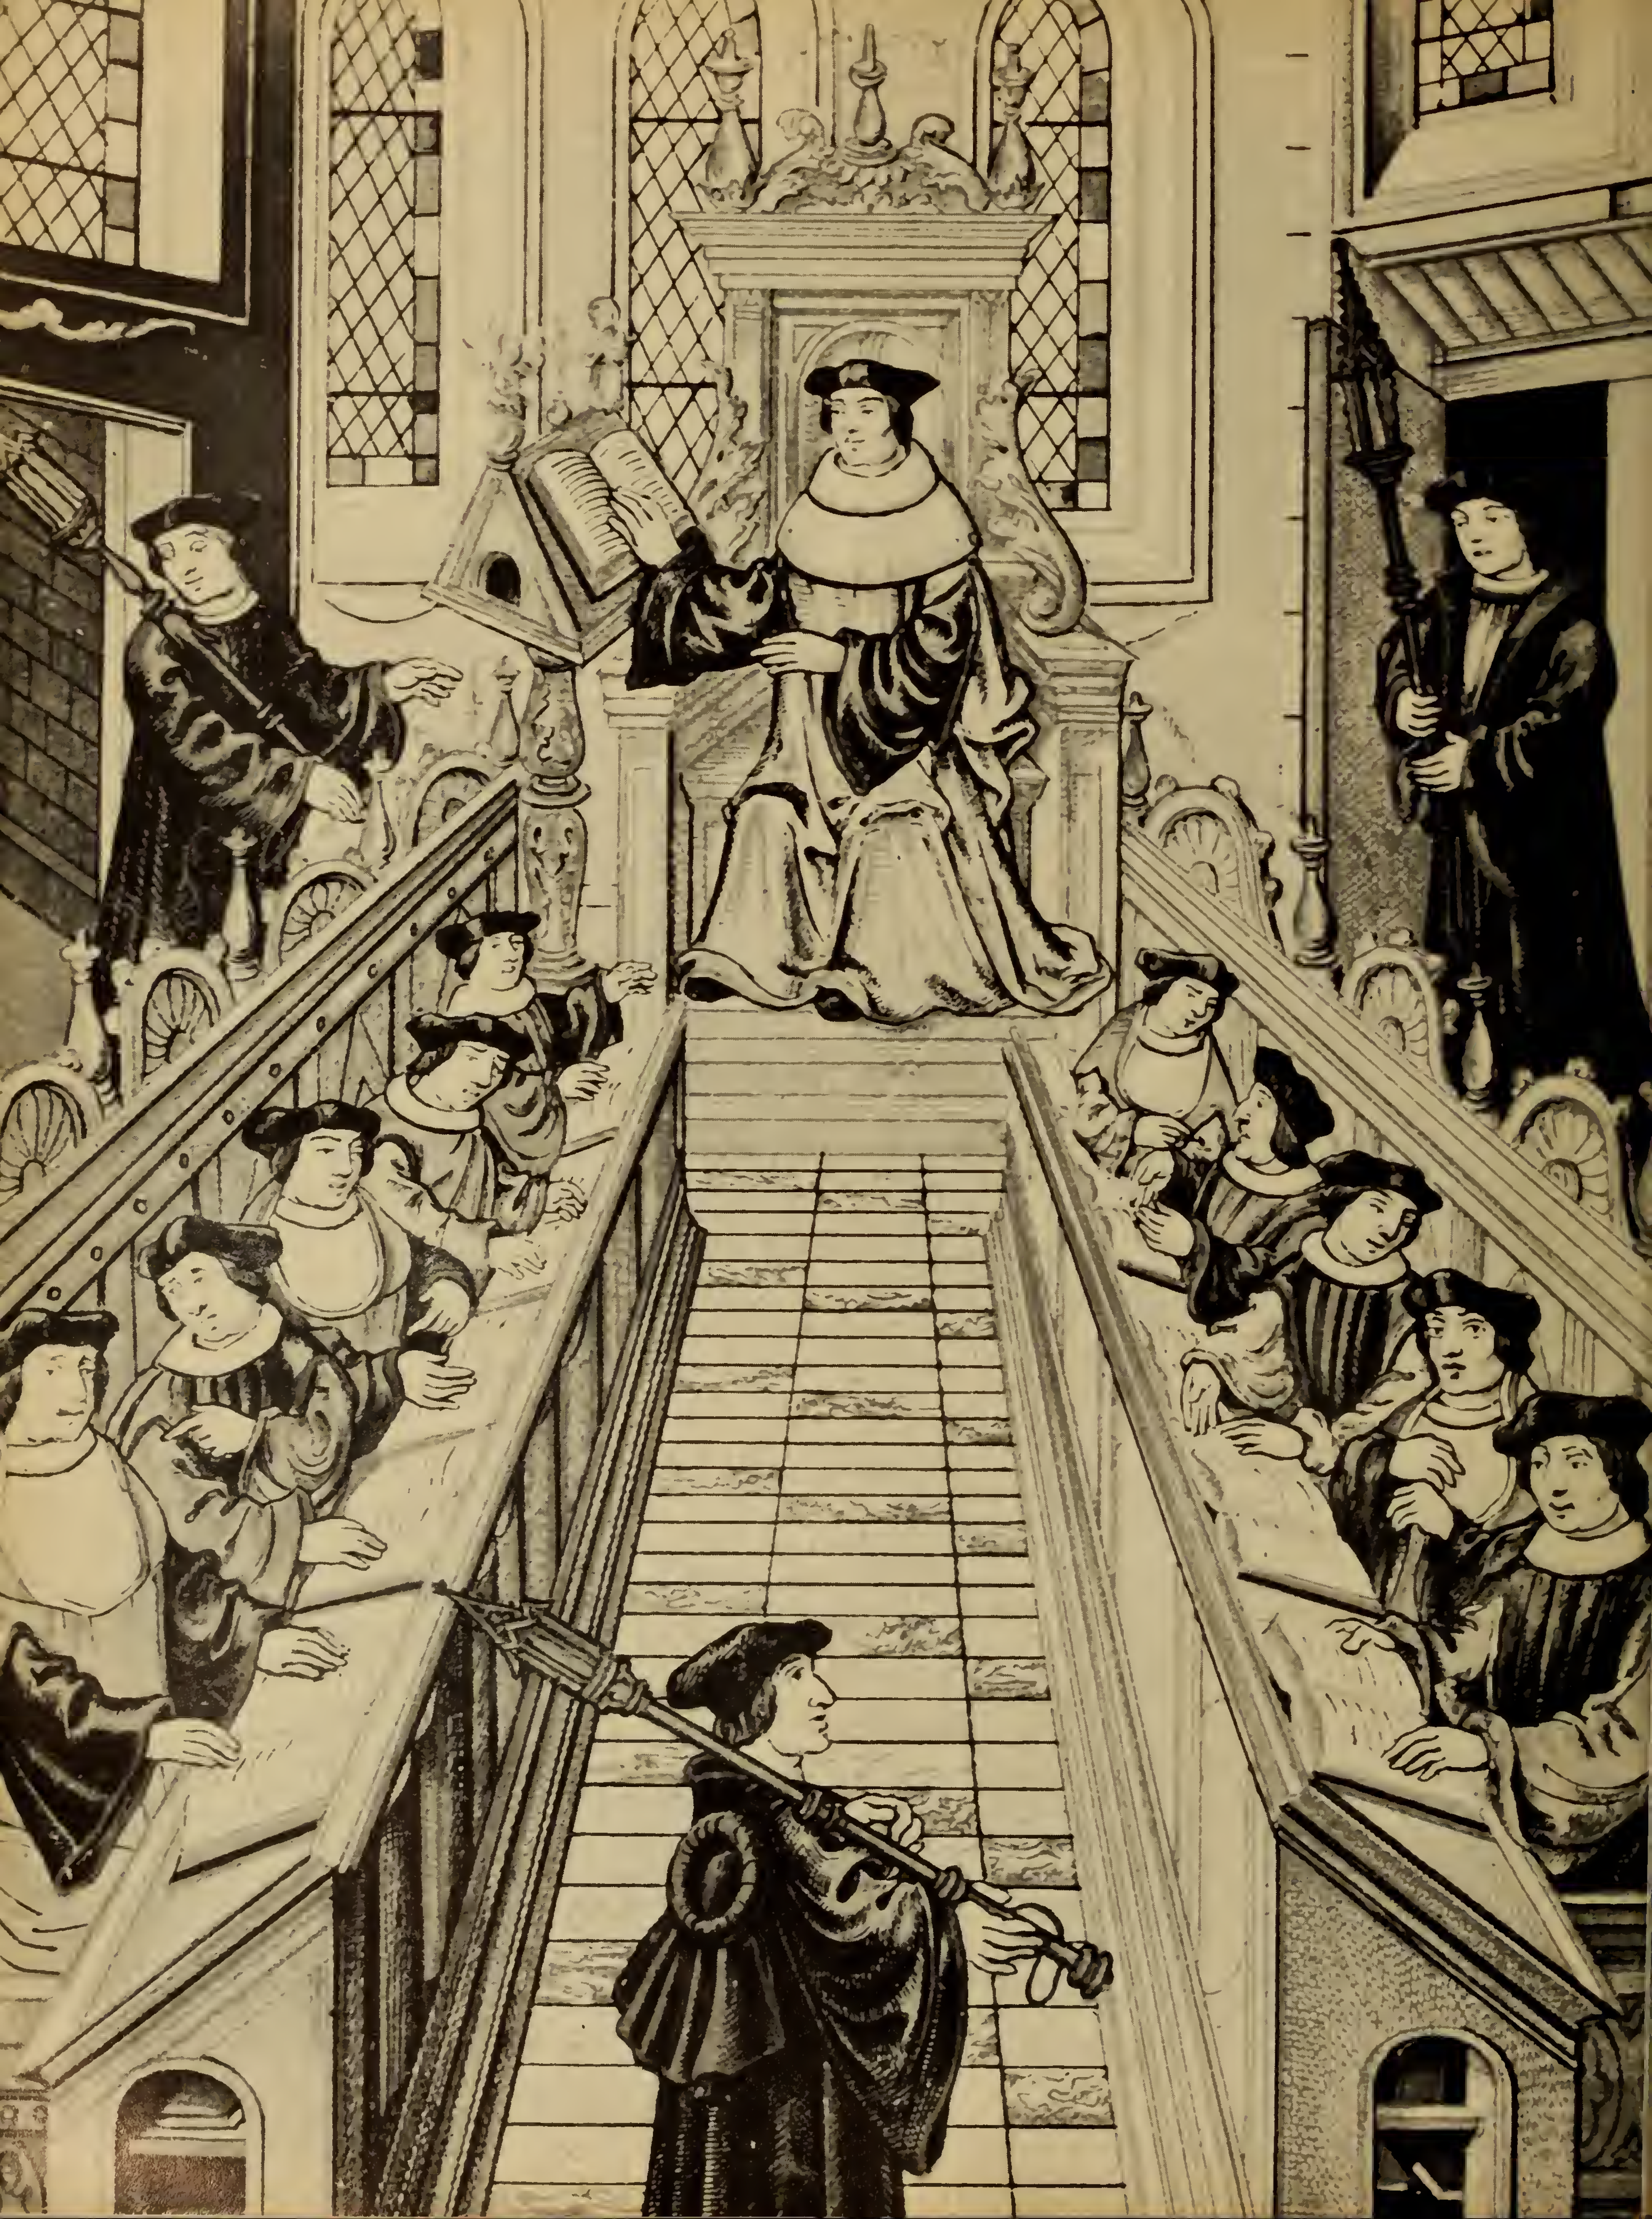
Activities 111

Sports 173

Features 193

EVANGELIVM
SECV IOANNE

Commencement 205



". . . . neither the university nor its constituent bodies assembled in a building of their own. The great medieval universities were poor corporations. . . . Wherever there were rooms to be hired for schools, and churches and convents to be borrowed for congregations, a university could soon make itself at home."

Rashdall, The Universities of Europe in the Middle Ages, i. 406

Campus

◄ A teacher leads fellow scholars in discussion at University of Paris. Engraving, ca. 1400

CANISIUS ENTRY AT NIGHT

SOUTH GATE

GONZAGA HALL

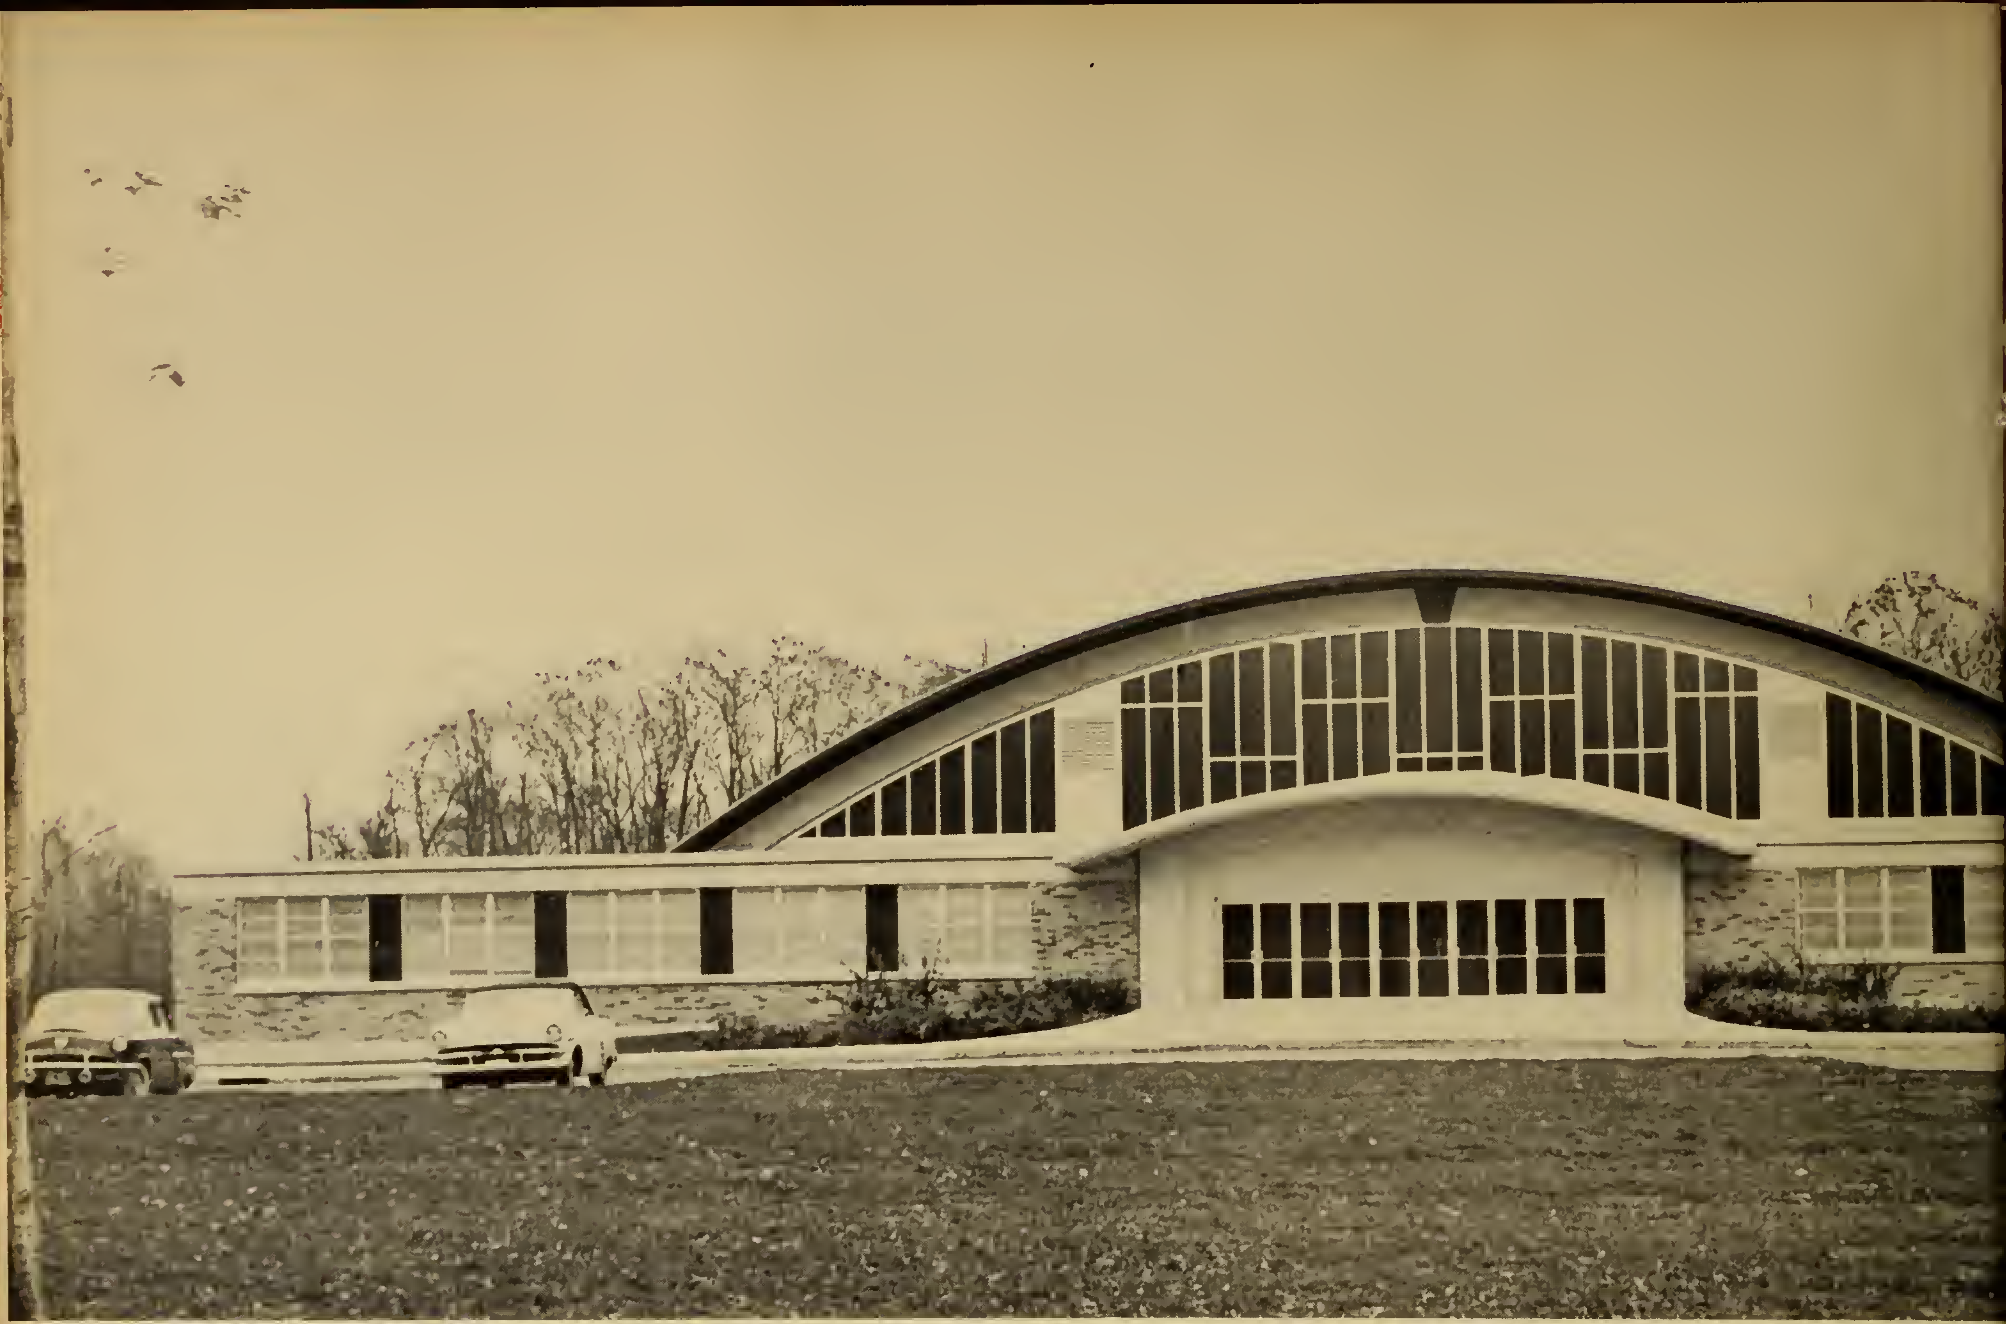
LOYOLA HALL

McAULIFFE HALL

BELLARMINE HALL

XAVIER HALL

BELLARMINE POND

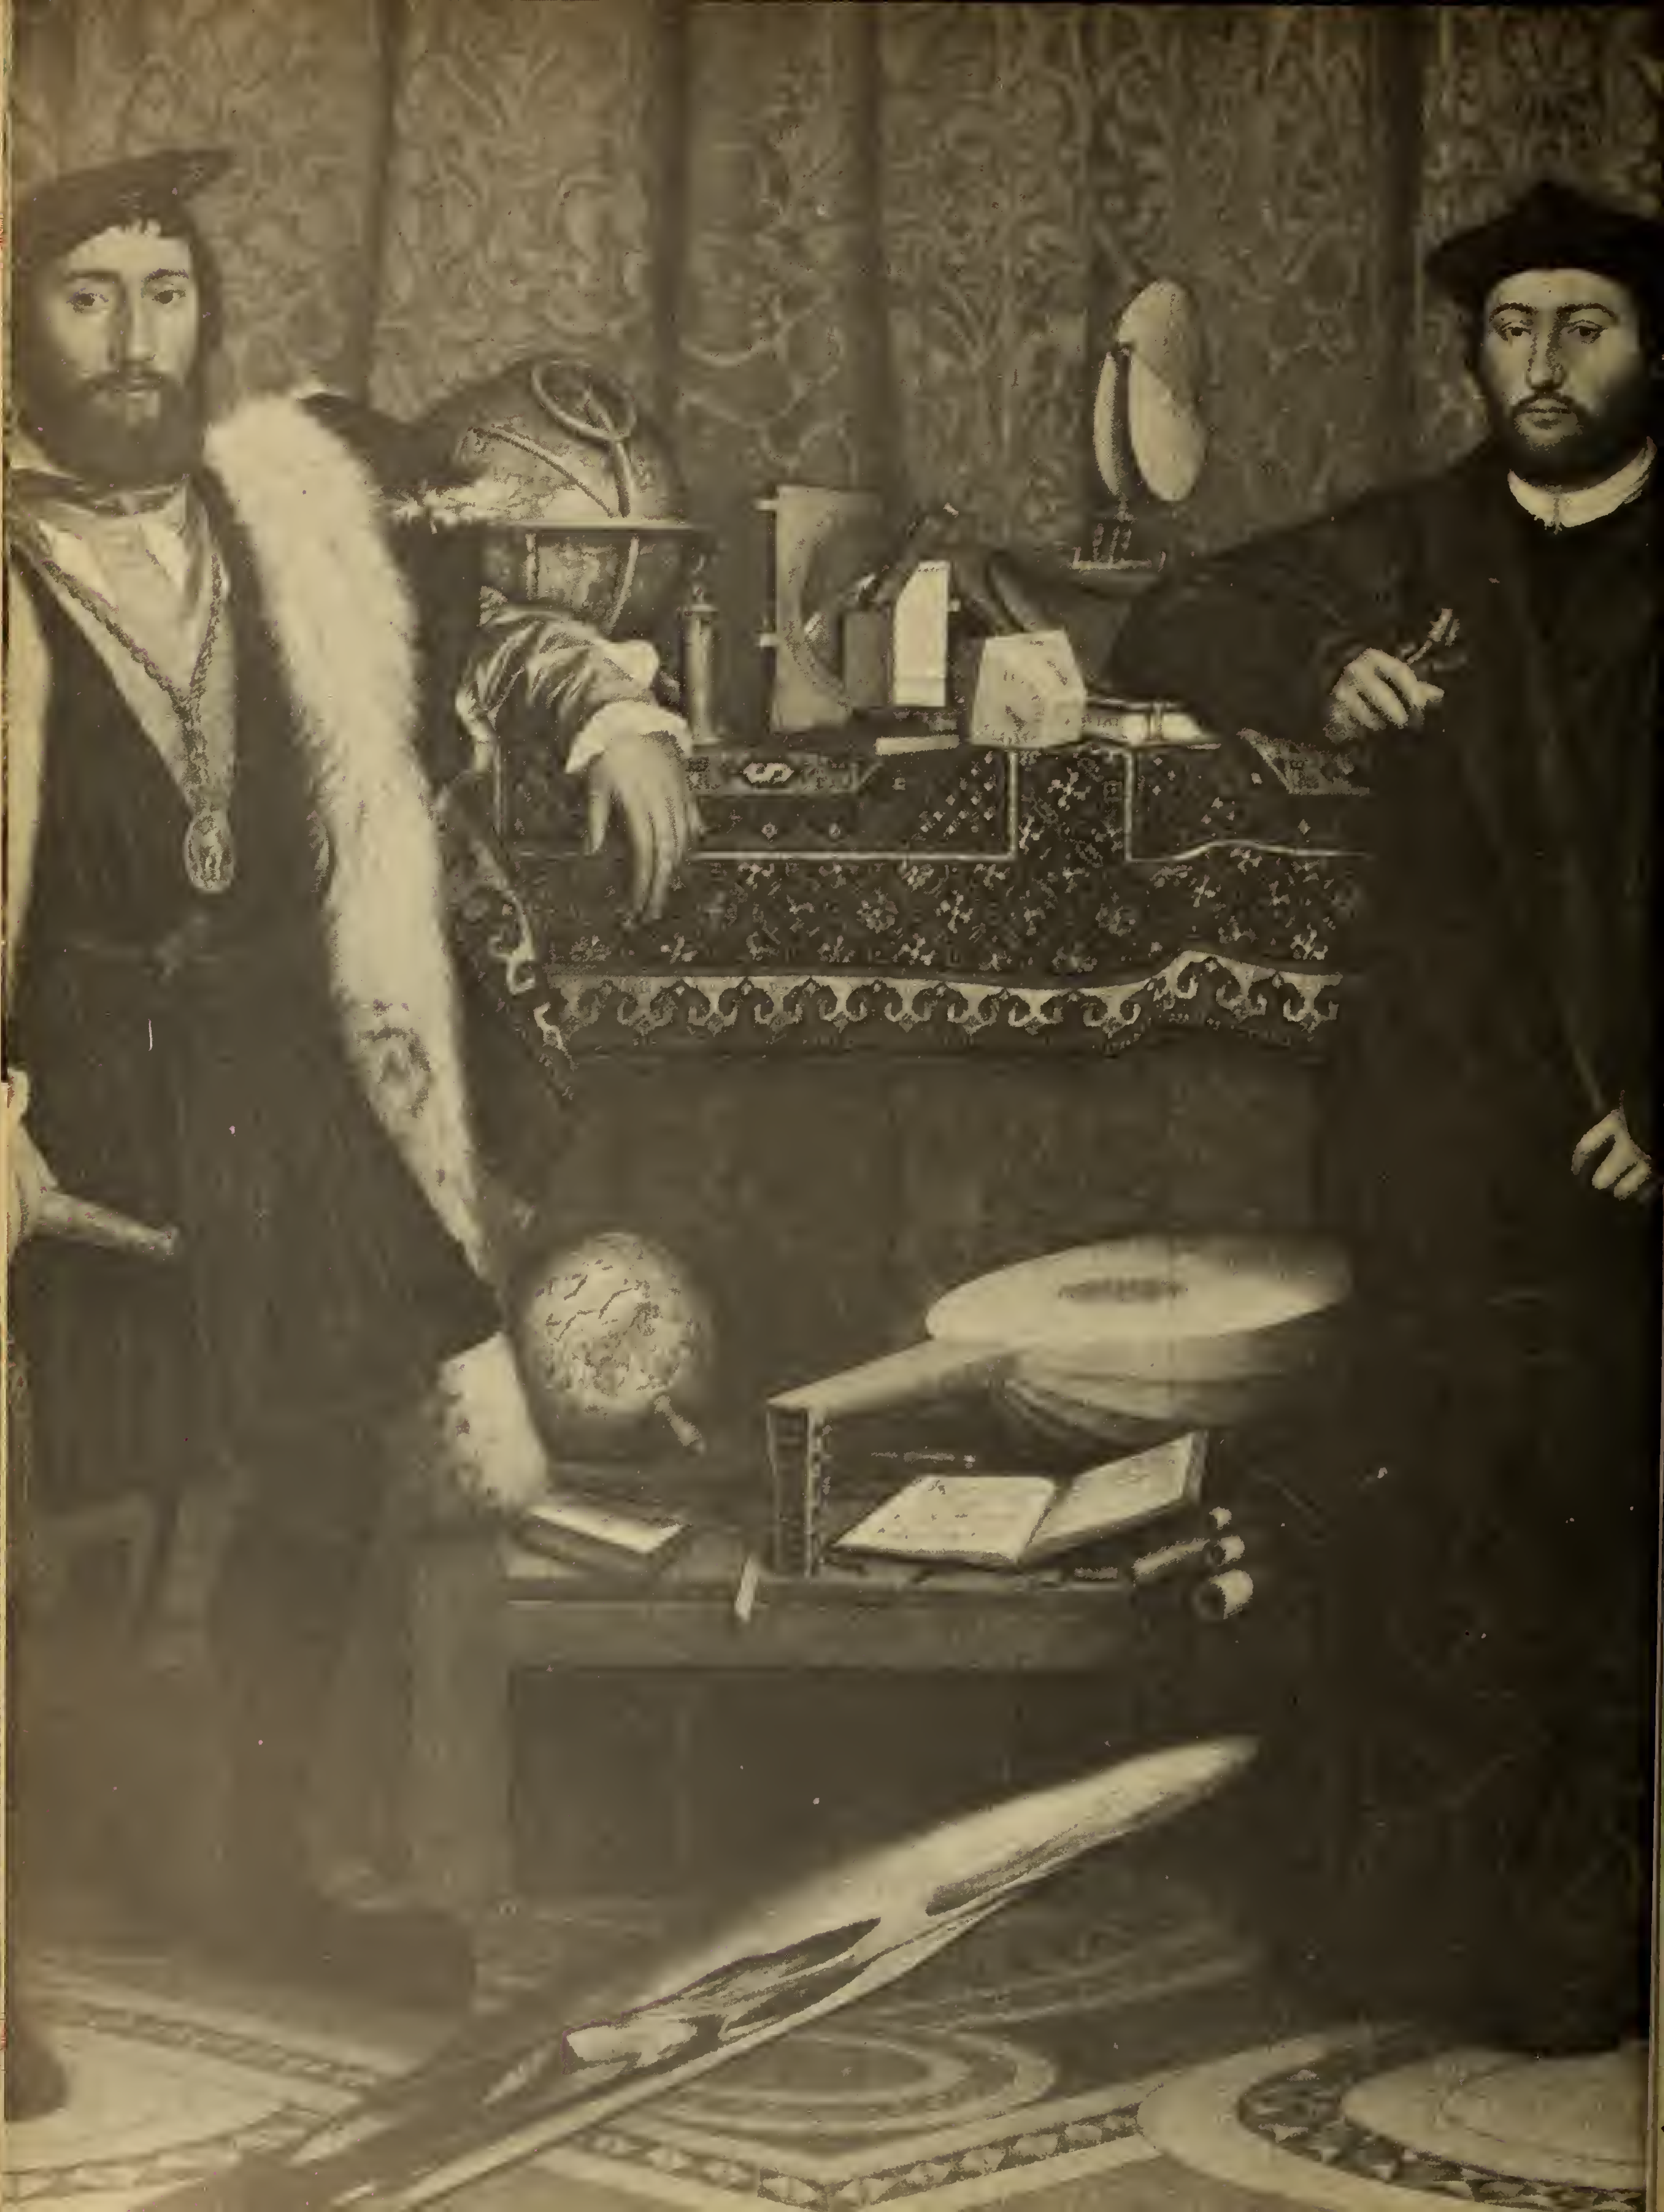


GYMNASIUM

FAIRFIELD · UNIVERSITY · OF · ST. ROBERT · BELLARMINE
+ A · D · 1942 +

FAIRFIELD · UNIVERSITY · OF · ST · ROBERT · BELLARMINE
+ A · D · 1942 +
PER FIDEM AD PLENAM VERITATEM

CANISIUS HALL



"The rector was required to be a 'secular clerk, unmarried, wearing the clerical habit,' of five years standing in the study of law, and at least twenty-four years of age. The rector took precedence over all archbishops and bishops, and even over Cardinals. . . ."

Rashdall, The Universities of Europe in the Middle Ages, ii, 184

Administration

◄ The Ambassadors. Hans Holbein, ca. 1480.

MOST REVEREND LAWRENCE J. SHEHAN, D.D.
Bishop of Bridgeport

VERY REVEREND JAMES E. FITZGERALD, S.J.
President of the University

Rev. William J. Healy, S.J.
Dean

Rev. Joseph E. McCormick, S.J.
Dean of Men and Resident Students

Rev. Henry Murphy, S.J.
Assistant Dean

Rev. George S. Mahan, S.J.
Executive Assistant to the President

Rev. Joseph J. Sweeney, S.J.
Minister of the University

Rev. Harry L. Huss, S.J.
Treasurer

Rev. John L. Gallagher, S.J.
Assistant Dean of Men and Resident Students

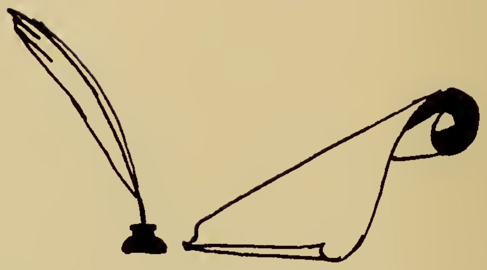
Rev. John D. Kelley, S.J.
Director of Purchases

Mr. Robert F. Pitt
Registrar

Rev. Thomas F. Lyons, S.J.
Director of Athletics

Rev. Francis A. Small, S.J.
Librarian

Mr. Frederick W. Tartaro
Director of Public Relations and Placement



Rev. Thomas A. McGrath, S.J.
Director of Psychological Services

Rev. Hugo W. Durst, S.J.
Public Relations

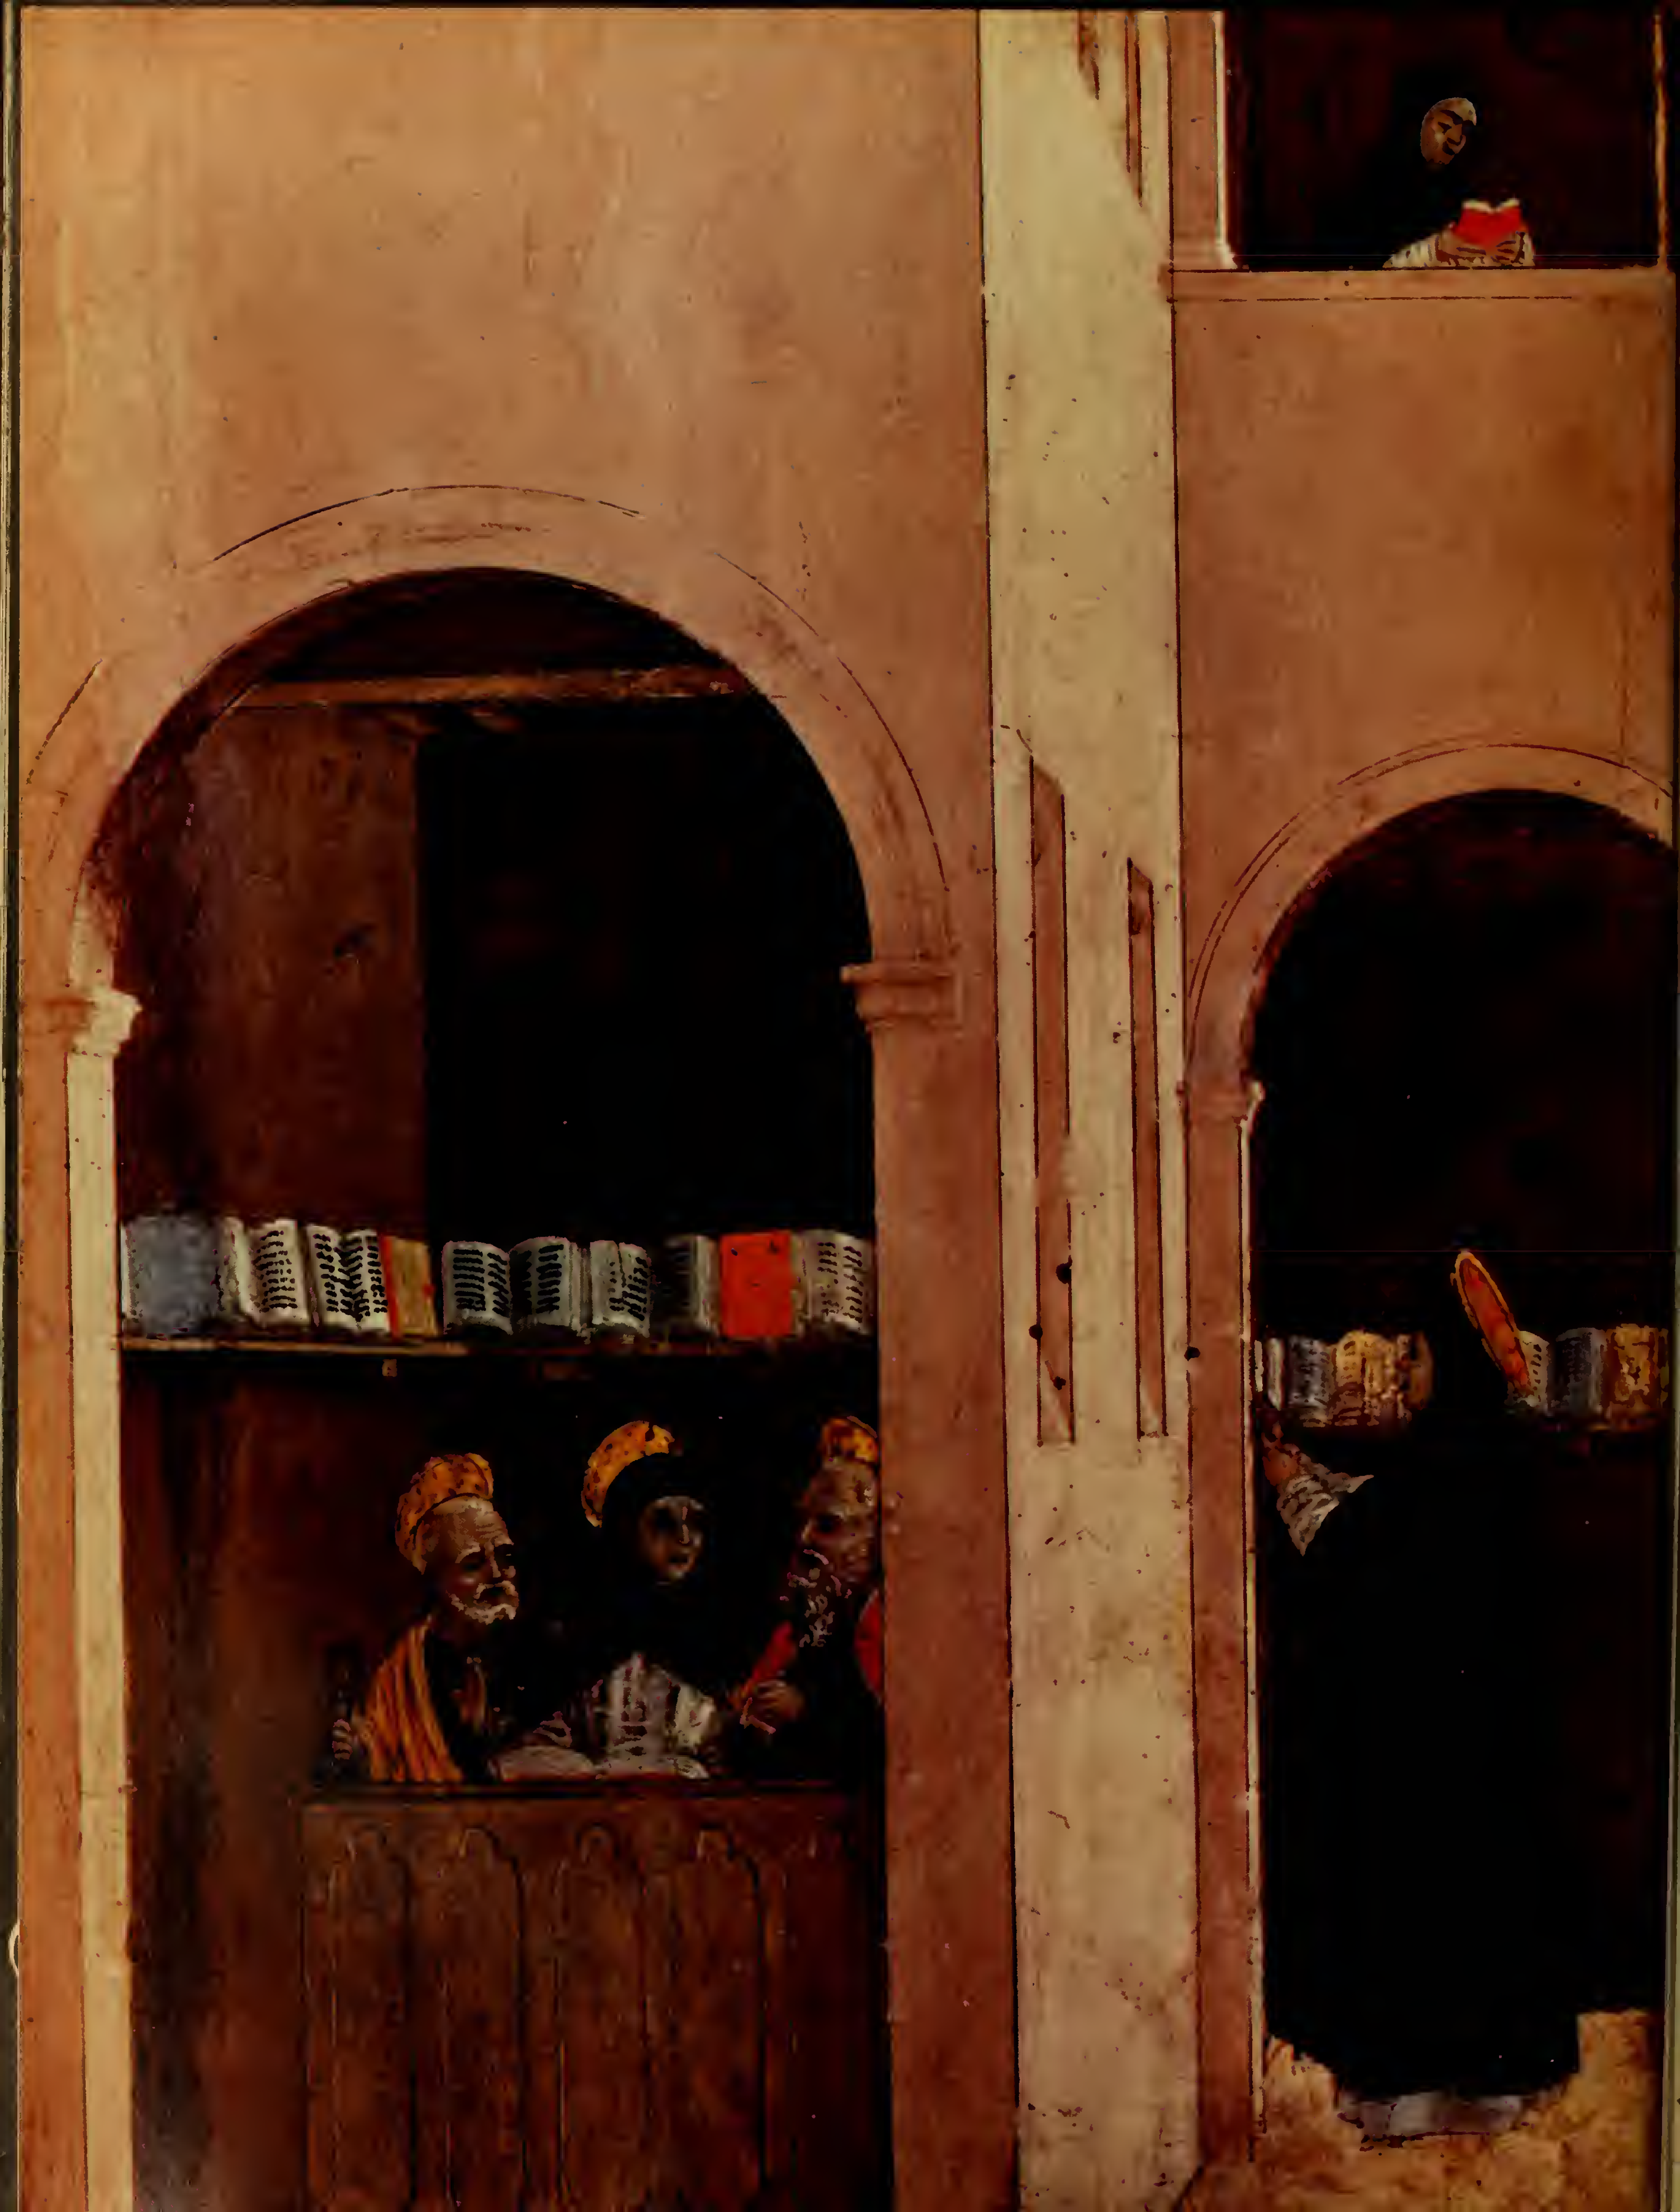
Mr. Thomas R. Maher
Assistant Treasurer

Rev. Charles F. Duffy
Custodian of the Bookstore

Miss Mary F. Kirk, R.N.
Resident Nurse

Dr. Thomas F. Davis, M.D.
Physician

Miss Suzanne Betlach
Assistant Librarian

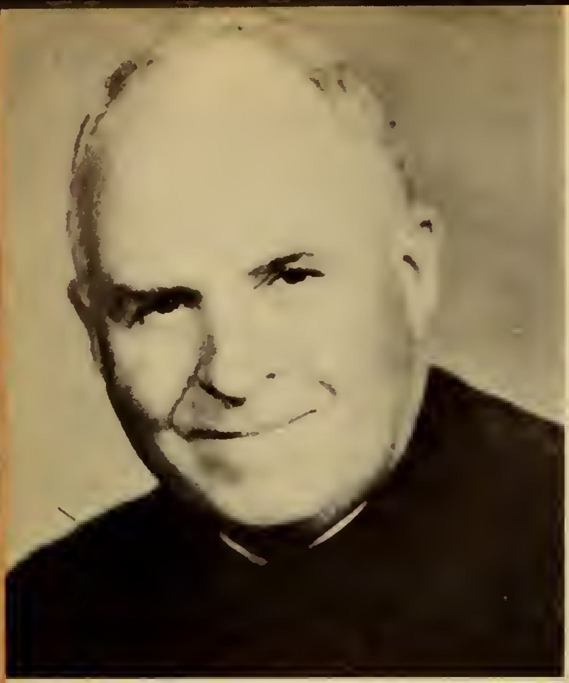


"... they are called artists from the seven liberal arts and others comprehended under these, whose exercise is only for those of subtle genius. . . . For they must collect their powers of internal vision who seek to inspect intelligently such subtle volumes on nature and to speculate profoundly both as to the different principles and the varied derivatives of the whole machine of the universe."

Thorndike, University Records And Life in the Middle Ages, 213-14

Arts

◂ Saint Thomas Aquinas aided by Saint Peter and Saint Paul. Tempera on wood, ca. 1500



Rev. John L. Clancy, S.J.
Chairman, Department of Philosophy
Professor of Philosophy

Rev. James H. Coughlin, S.J.
Chairman, Department of Education
Associate Professor of Education

Rev. William H. Hohmann, S.J.
Chairman, Departments of Sociology and Economics
Associate Professor of Economics

Faculty of the Arts

Rev. Victor F. Leeber, S.J.
Chairman, Department of Modern Languages
Assistant Professor of Modern Languages

Rev. Joseph M. Manning, S.J.
Chairman, Department of Classical Languages
Associate Professor of Classical Languages and Theology

Rev. John W. Ryan, S.J.
Chairman, Department of English
Professor of English

Rev. Francis A. Small, S.J.
Chairman, Departments of History and Government
Associate Professor of History and Government

Rev. James A. Walsh, S.J.
Chairman, Department of Theology
Professor of Theology

Rev. John L. Bonn, S.J.
Professor of English and Latin

Rev. Richard M. Brackett, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Theology

Dr. Daniel Buczek
Associate Professor of History

Rev. Augustine J. Caffrey, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Theology

Rev. William F. Carr, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Philosophy

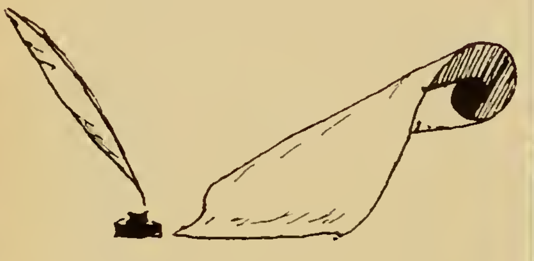
Mr. Arsene Croteau
Professor of Modern Languages

Mr. Wolfe M. Czamansky
Instructor in Russian and German

Rev. Gerard F. Dennen
Lecturer in Philosophy

Rev. William G. Devine, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Philosophy

Mr. Carmen F. Donnarumma
Associate Professor of History



Rev. John D. Donoghue, S.J.
Associate Professor of Philosophy

Rev. Hugo W. Durst, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Philosophy

Mr. Robert G. Emerich
Assistant Professor of English

Rev. John L. Gallagher, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Theology

Mr. Mario F. Guarcello
Associate Professor of Romance Languages

Rev. William W. Kennedy, S.J.
Professor of Latin and English

Mr. Rudolph J. Landry
Assistant Professor of English

Mr. Richard Lilienthal
Instructor in Government

Dr. Matthew J. McCarthy
Associate Professor of History and Government

Dr. Gerard B. McDonald
Professor of Modern Languages

Mr. Philip H. C. McIntyre
Assistant Professor of Economics

Rev. T. Everett McPeake, S.J.
Associate Professor of Education

Rev. Laurence S. Mullin, S.J.
Associate Professor of Philosophy

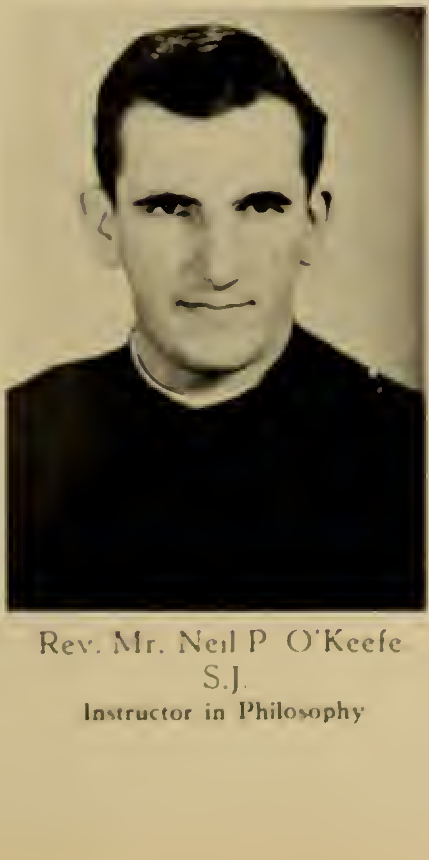
Rev. Joseph W. Murphy, S.J.
Associate Professor of Theology

Mr. Paul J. Nagy
Lecturer in Philosophy

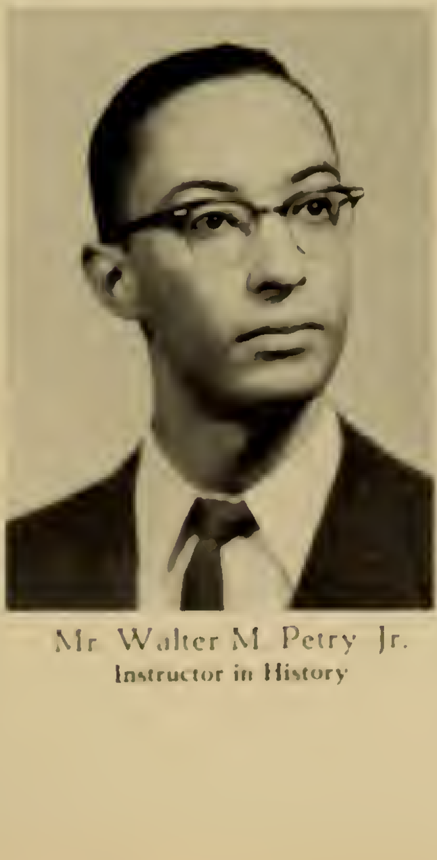
Rev. Oliver E. Nickerson, S.J.
Assistant Professor of English

Dr. John Norman
Professor of History and Government

Rev. John A. O'Brien, S.J.
Professor of Philosophy



Rev. Mr. Neil P. O'Keefe S.J.
Instructor in Philosophy



Mr. Walter M. Petry Jr.
Instructor in History

Mr. Richard Preto-Rodas
Instructor in English

Rev. Albert F. Reddy, S.J.
Assistant Professor of English

Mr. Arthur R. Riel, Jr.
Associate Professor of English

Dr. Maurice E. Rogalin
Professor of Education; Director of Teacher Training

Rev. Richard L. Rooney, S.J.
Associate Professor of Theology

Rev. Richard W. Rousseau, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Theology

Rev. Cornelius F. Shea, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Philosophy

Mr. Chester J. Stuart
Associate Professor of German and Education

Rev. J. Christopher Sullivan, S.J.
Associate Professor of Philosophy

Dr. James P. Vail
Associate Professor of Sociology

Seniors in Arts

Fred J. Abbate, A.B.

Government
171 Circular Avenue
Hamden, Connecticut

Manor 4; Cardinal Key Society 4; Aquinas Academy 4 President; Stag 2, 3, 4; Bellarmine Debating Society 2, 3, 4 Vice-President; Freshman Orientation 3; Democratic Club 3, 4; St. Ives Guild 4; New Haven Area Club 2, 3, 4 Vice-President.

Kenneth E. Agnello, B.S.S.

English
424 Hart Street
New Britain, Connecticut

Democratic Club 4; Education Club 3; St. Ives Guild 3, 4; S.A.M. 4; Hartford Area Club 3, 4; Intramurals 3, 4.

Robert E. Aherne, A.B.

English
8015 Colonial Road
Brooklyn, New York

Manor 4; Marketing Club 3, 4; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Lester P. Albee, B.S.S.

English
73 Lawndale Avenue
Bristol, Connecticut

Glee Club 1; Spanish Club 1 President; St Ives Guild 4; Education Club 4; Hartford Area Club 4

Gregory S. Baker, A.B.
Education
Old Post Road
East Setauket, New York
Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

John A. Barbieri, B.S.S.
Economics
160 South Cherry Street
Wallingford, Connecticut
Glee Club 2, 3, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 2, 3 Trustee, 4 Trustee; St. Ives Guild 4; New Haven Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Bruce D. Beaudin, A.B.
English
21 Fairview Drive
Farmington, Connecticut
Cardinal Key Society 3, 4; Glee Club 3, 4; Aquinas Academy 3, 4 Secretary; Hartford Area Club 3, 4.

James C. Bebie, B.S.S.
Economics
100 Glenwood Avenue
Leonia, New Jersey
New Frontiers 3 Circulation Manager, 4 Business Manager; Jersey Club 2, 3, 4.

Paul J. Best, A.B.
Government
137 Middlebrook Drive
Fairfield, Connecticut
Manor 3, 4; Biology Club 1; Education Club 3, 4; Republican Club 3, 4; Freshman Orientation 3; Russian Circle 3 Chairman, 4 Chairman; German Club 2; Bridgeport Area Club 2, 3, 4.

Peter G. Bill, B.S.S.
English
396 Church Street
Wethersfield, Connecticut
Dramatic Society 2; Republican Club 2.

Robert J. Bitar, B.S.S.

Economics
529 Riverside Drive
Fairfield, Connecticut
Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4 Treasurer; Dramatic Society 2, 3 Vice-President, 4; Freshman Track 1; Varsity Track 2, 3, 4; Freshman Orientation 3.

Walter E. Blake, Jr., B.S.S.

Sociology
33 Hartland Street
Hartford, Connecticut
Democratic Club 4, Sociology Club 4, S.A.M. 4; K of C. Ignatian Council 4; St. Ives Guild 4, Hartford Area Club 3, 4.

Ernest J. Bleau, Jr., B.S.S.

Economics
91 Foxridge Road
West Hartford, Connecticut
Business Club 4; Bios Logos Academy 3 4, Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Hartford Area Club 2, 3, 4 Treasurer; Intramurals 3, 4.

Vincent Botarelli, Jr., A.B.

Economics
14 Belvedere Road
North Haven Connecticut
Cardinal Key Society 3, 4; Dramatic Society 3, 4, Varsity Track 2; Freshman Orientation 3, New Haven Area Club 4.

William W. Brady, B.S.S.

History
63 Rumford Street
West Hartford, Connecticut
Manor 4; Dramatic Society 3, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 2, 3, 4; Democratic Club 4; Hartford Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Peter C. Bucciarelli, B.S.S.

Economics
Weed Avenue
West Norwalk, Connecticut
Cardinal Key Society 3, 4, Sodality 1, 2, Mendel Club 1, 3, St. Ives Guild 4, Dante Academy 3, Norwalk Area Club 1 2, 3 Vice-President, 4

Robert L. Callaghan, B.S.S.
Economics
114-27 209th Street
Cambria Heights, New York
Business Club 1, 2; K. of C. Ignatian Council 2, 3, 4 Chancellor; Sociology Club 3; St. Ives Guild 3; S.A.M. 4; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Edward R. Carley, B.S.S.
English
1390 North Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Sociology Club 3.

Peter J. Carolan, B.S.S.
English
75 Lexington Avenue
Waterbury, Connecticut
Manor 4; New Frontiers 4; Public Affairs Club 2; Freshman Orientation 3; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; St. Ives Guild 3, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 4; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Waterbury Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 4.

Reid M. Carpenter, B.S.S.
Sociology
96 Quinlan Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Sociology Club 3, 4; Republican Club 3, 4; Bridgeport Area Club 4.

Thomas S. Catalano, A.B.
Economics
67 Allyndale Drive
Stratford, Connecticut
Freshman Track; Varsity Track 2, 4; C.I.S.L. 1, 2, 3, 4; Bridgeport Area Club 4.

Kevin J. Cavanagh, B.S.S.
Education
610 Colorado Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Business Club 1; Education Club 3, 4; Democratic Club 3, 4; French Club 2; Freshman Orientation 3; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Bridgeport Area Club 1, 2, 3 Secretary, 4 Secretary.

James E. Churchill, Jr., B.S.S.
History
1430 Parkchester Road
New York, New York
Manor 3, 4; Democratic Club 4; Dante Academy 3, 4; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

James V. Coffey, B.S.S.
Education
76 Chestnut Street
Bethel, Connecticut
Education Club 3, 4; Democratic Club 2, 3; Freshman Orientation 3; Bridgeport Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 3, 4.

Carl S. Cofini, B.S.S.
English
79 Storer Avenue
Pelham, New York
Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4 Secretary; Campus Minstrels 1, 2, 3, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 1, 2, 3 Trustee, 4 Trustee; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Manor 4.

Joseph F. Colette, B.S.S.
English
139 Oakland Street
Bristol, Connecticut
Business Club 1; French Club 2; St. Ives Guild 2, 3; Hartford Area Club 1, 4.

Charles Colomello, Jr., B.S.S.
Economics
Merritt Avenue
Millbrook, New York
Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

John F. Condon, B.S.S.
Economics
341 Brooklyn Avenue
Massapequa Park, New York
Sodality 3, 4; Dramatic Society 2; Bios Logos Academy 3, 4; Business Club 4; S.A.M. 4.

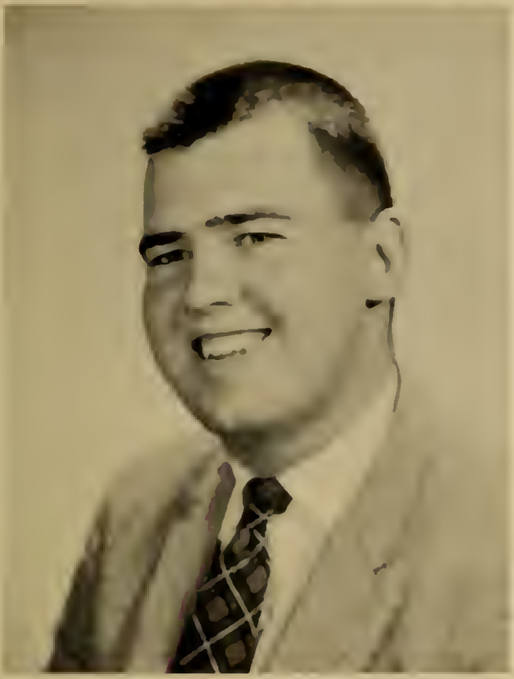
James J. Conroy, B.S.S.
Sociology
1487 Iranistan Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Vets Club 2, 3, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; Sociology Club 3, 4 Secretary; Bridgeport Area Club 2, 4.

John J. Cook, B.S.S.
Education
519 Cleveland Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Public Affairs Club 2, 3 Vice-President; St. Ives Guild 2; Republican Club 2, 3 Vice-President, 4; Bridgeport Area Club 4.

Robert L. Corcoran, B.S.S.
English
35 Cypress Street
Brookline, Massachusetts
Mendel Club 1; French Club 1, 2; New Frontiers 3, 4; St. Ives Guild 3, 4; Democratic Club 3, 4; Bay State Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

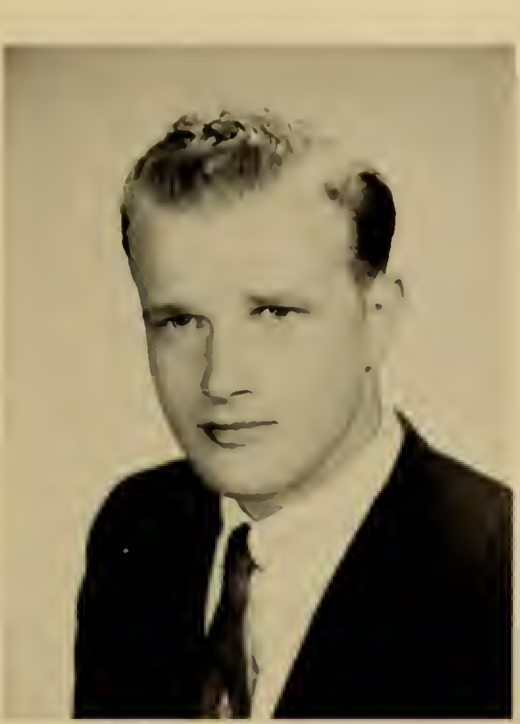
Paul M. Coughlin, B.S.S.
English
Oak Lane
Johnson City, Tennessee
Class Treasurer 3; Cardinal Key Society 4; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Marketing Club 3, 4; Jersey Club 1, 2, 3; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Arthur E. Crawford, B.S.S.
Sociology
452 Cyrus Place
New York, New York
Sociology Club 3, 4; Freshman Basketball; Varsity Basketball 2, 3, 4 Captain; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4.



John P. Creed, B.S.S.
Education
Careswell Street
Green Harbor, Massachusetts

Sodality 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Director of Intramurals 1, 2, 3; Education Club 3, 4; Resident Council 3; Basketball Statistician 1, 2, 3, 4. Baseball Statistician 1, 2, 3, 4.



William A. Cronell, A.B.
Sociology
113 Hamilton Avenue
Hastings-on-Hudson, New York

Manor 4.

Robert J. Crowley, A.B.
English
34 Chelmsford Street
Boston, Massachusetts

Manor 4 Business Manager. Sodality 1, 2, 3, 4. Student Council 1, 2; Stag 2, 3, 4 (Business Manager 2, 3, 4). K. of C. Ignatian Council 1, 2, 3, 4 Lecturer. Freshman Orientation 3. Junior Weekend Comm. 3. Winter Carnival Comm. 4. Bay State Club 1, 2, 3, 4 Treasurer. Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

James A. Czarzasty, B.S.S.
Economics
52 Herkimer Street
Waterbury, Connecticut

Manor 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 2, 3 Recorder, 4 Treasurer; Resident Council 3 Treasurer; Waterbury Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Henry H. Dausch, B.S.S.
English
520 East 90th Street
New York, New York

St. Cecilia Society 1, 2; Spanish Club 2. Metropolitan Club 1, 2; Intramurals 1, 2, 4.

W. Gilroy Davidson, B.S.S.

Economics

136 Alden Avenue
New Haven, Connecticut

Dramatic Society 2, 3; Democratic Club 4; New Haven Area Club 1, 2, 3 Treasurer, 4 President.

Gaston G. deBearn, B.S.S.

Government

Ridgefield Farms
Ridgefield, Connecticut

Varsity Baseball 4; Varsity Golf 4; Democratic Club 3, 4; Intramurals 3, 4.

Robert R. DeCanio, B.S.S.

History

29-15 214th Place
Bayside, New York

Sodality 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Secretary 3; Spanish Club 1, 2 Vice-President; Bios Logos Academy 3; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Stephen J. Dempsey, B.S.S.

English

125 Douglas Street
Hartford, Connecticut

Manor 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4 President; Cardinal Key Society 3 Secretary, 4 Treasurer; Dramatic Society 2; Freshman Track; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Hartford Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

James A. Devlin, A.B.

English

71 Straw Avenue
Florence, Massachusetts

Sodality 1, 2, 3 Vice-Prefect, 4 Prefect; Aquinas Academy 3, 4; Bios Logos Academy 3; Education Club 4; N.F.C.C.S. 3.

Paul T. DiFazio, B.S.S.
English
81 Cedarwood Drive
New Britain, Connecticut
Varsity Golf 2, 3, 4 Captain; Democratic Club 2, 3, 4; St. Ives Guild 3, 4; Education Club 4; S.A.M. 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Winter Carnival Comm. 3, 4; Hartford Area Club 2, 3, 4.

John G. Doherty, B.S.S.
Economics
167 Plymouth Street
Stratford, Connecticut
Business Club 4; Bridgeport Area Club 3, 4, Intramurals 3, 4.

John P. Donnelley, B.S.S.
History
Sachem's Head Road
Guilford, Connecticut

Matthew J. Donofrio, B.S.S.
English
11 Old Sawmill Road
Trumbull, Connecticut
Education Club 3, 4; Democratic Club 3, 4; Bridgeport Area Club 1, 2, 4.

John M. Dowd, B.S.S.
Economics
45 Secatogue Avenue
East Islip, New York
Democratic Club 3; Varsity Tennis 2, 3, 4; Freshman Basketball; Athletic Association 3, 4; Metropolitan Club 1, 2; Intramurals 2, 3, 4.

George H. Doyle, B.S.S.
Government
164 Wayland Street
North Haven, Connecticut
St. Ives Guild 3, 4; New Haven Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4 Vice-President; Intramurals 3, 4

Gerald Duff, B.S.S.

Government
73 Margin Street
Peabody, Massachusetts

N.F.C.C.S. 1, 2, 3; Democratic Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Birdwatchers 1, 2; Vets Club 3, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 1; Bay State Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Carl C. Eppig, B.S.S.

Economics
Harbor Road
Sands Point, New York

Business Club 4; Metropolitan Club 3, 4.

Gerald Falvey, B.S.S.

Economics
294 Vine Street
Hartford, Connecticut

Hartford Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Paul McK. Fargis, B.S.S.

English
125 Paine Avenue
New Rochelle, New York

Manor 4 Layout Editor; Stag Circulation Editor 2, 3, 4; Glee Club Manager 2, 3, 4; N.F.C.C.S. 2, 3; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Metropolitan Club 2, 3, 4.

John E. Faulkner, B.S.S.

English
919 Worthington Street
Springfield, Massachusetts

Stag 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Dean's List 2, 3, 4; N.F.C.C.S. 2, 3 Regional Commission Chairman, 4 Senior Delegate; New Frontiers 3, 4 Literary Editor; Varsity Tennis 3, 4; Bay State Club 2, 3, 4.

Francis P. Feehan, B.S.S.

English
1110 West North Street
Bethlehem, Pennsylvania

Glee Club 1, 2; Marketing Club 3, 4; Jersey Club 3; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Gerard F. Ferris, B.S.S.
English
225 First Street
Mineola, New York
Manor 4; Stag 4; Freshman Track and Cross-Country; Varsity Track and Cross-Country 2; Spike Shoe Club 1, 2; French Club 1; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

John D. Fitzgerald, A.B.
English
18 Belden Avenue
Norwalk, Connecticut
Manor 3, 4; New Frontiers 4; Democratic Club 2, 3, 4; Freshman Orientation 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 3; Norwalk Area Club 1, 2, 3 President, 4 President.

Edwin R. Fletcher, B.S.S.
Sociology
135 Evergreen Avenue
Hamden, Connecticut
Sodality 4; Bios Logos Academy 3, 4 President; Stag 3; Sociology Club 3, 4; New Haven Area Club 3, 4 Secretary.

Richard J. Fleurant, B.S.S.
French
833 Hartford Avenue
Johnston, Rhode Island
Manor 4; Sodality 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Campus Minstrels 3, 4; Stag 2, 3, 4; French Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Orientation 3.

Thomas F. Foley, B.S.S.
Economics
168 Algonquin Road
Fairfield, Connecticut
S.A.M. 3, 4; Business Club 4, St. Ives Guild 4; Bridgeport Area Club 4

Michael J. Fratantuno, Jr., B.S.S.
English
37 South Center Street
South Orange, New Jersey
Manor 4; Stag 2, 3, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; Dramatic Society 3, 4; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Jersey Club 1, 2, 3 Treasurer, 4.

Robert W. Gaboury, B.S.S.
Sociology
148 French Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut
French Club 1, 2; Vets Club 1, 2, 3, 4; St. Ives Guild 3, 4; Sociology Club 2, 3, 4 President; Bridgeport Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Brian J. Gallagher, B.S.S.
History
5601 Highland Drive
Vancouver, Washington
Democratic Club 2; Bellarmine Debating Society 2, 3, 4; St. Ives Guild 3, 4; Junior Class Publicity Chairman; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Dominick S. Gallagher, B.S.S.
Government
31 Lorma Avenue
Trumbull, Connecticut
C.I.S.L. 3, 4; St. Ives Guild 3, 4; Winter Carnival Comm. 2, 3; Bridgeport Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

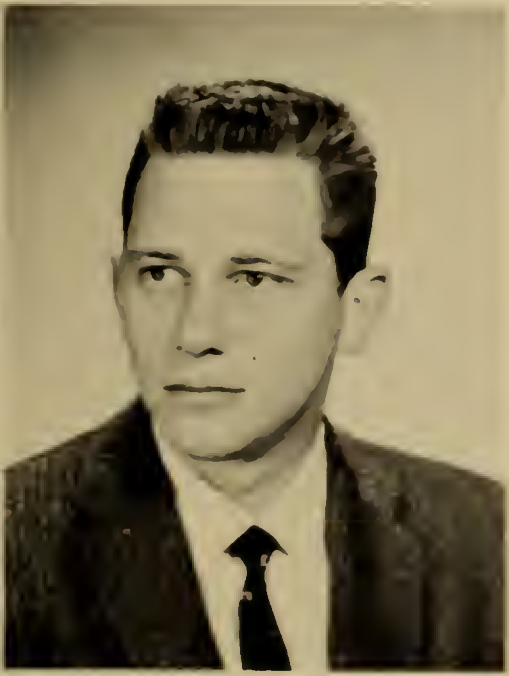
Denis E. Gannon, A.B.
Economics
291 Long Hill Road
Wallingford, Connecticut
Manor 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Dean's List 1, 2, 3, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 2, 3 Guard, 4; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; New Haven Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

John H. Garity, B.S.S.
English
23 Clifford Court
Malverne, New York
S.A.M. 3; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Freshman Track and Cross Country; Varsity Track and Cross Country 2, 3; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Robert L. Garofalo, B.S.S.
Spanish
46 Tenth Street
Derby, Connecticut
Manor 4, Sodality 2, 3, 4, Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Education Club 3, 4; Dante Academy 2, 3, 4 Secretary; Dramatic Society 4; Freshman Orientation 3, K. of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Junior Prom Comm. 3; Valley Club 1, 2, 3 Treasurer, 4.

Richard D. Germano, B.S.S.
Government
19 Victory Court
East Norwalk, Connecticut
Sodality 3, 4; Cardinal Key Society 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Dean's List 3, Aquinas Academy 3, 4; Canisius Academy 3, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; Business Club 1; Bellarmine Debating Society 4, French Club 2; Norwalk Area Club 2, 3, 4.

William L. Gerstner, B.S.S.
Government
100 McClellan Avenue
Mineola, New York
Manor 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; French Club 2; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.



Edward J. Gniadek, B.S.S.
Economics
980 Mill Hill Road
Southport, Connecticut
Business Club 1, 4; Sociology Club 3; French Club 2; Bridgeport Area Club 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

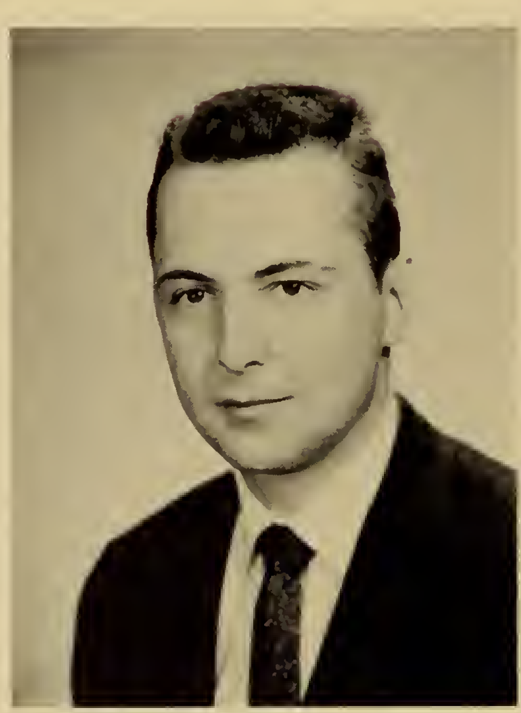
Roger W. Haigh, B.S.S.
Government
158 Lakeview Avenue
Waterbury, Connecticut

Gerald J. Heffernan, B.S.S.
Education
68 Howard Avenue
Ansonia, Connecticut
Education Club 3, 4; Democratic Club 4; Valley Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

J. Robert Heller, B.S.S.
Economics
23 Innes Road
Scarsdale, New York
Manor 3, 4; Stag 2, 3, 4; Republican Club 2, 3 Corresponding Secretary, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 2, 3 Advocate, 4 Trustee; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 3, 4.

Thomas E. Hintelmann, A.B.
Education
38 Irving Place
Red Bank, New Jersey
Education Club 2, 3, 4; Democratic Club 2, 3, 4; Jersey Club 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 3, 4.

Rodney M. Jaros, B.S.S.
English
21 Maple Street
Terryville, Connecticut
Stag 2, 3; New Frontiers 2, 3 Editor Sociology-Economics Department; St. Ives Guild 3, 4 President; French Club 2.



Marc G. Jasmin, B.S.S.
Sociology
67 Montauk Street
Fairfield, Connecticut
Varsity Basketball Manager 2; Sociology Club 2, 3, 4 Treasurer; Winter Carnival Comm. 3, 4; Democratic Club 2; Bridgeport Area Club 1, 2, 3 Vice-President, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3.

Paul D. Jones, A.B.
English
1710 Yates Avenue
New York, New York
Manor 4; Stag 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Campus Minstrels 1, 2, 3, 4; Bensonians 2, 3, 4; Dean's List 3; Aquinas Academy 3, 4; St. Ives Guild 4; Freshman Orientation 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 3; Metropolitan Club 1, 2.

Richard A. Jontos, B.S.S.
Sociology
100 Edna Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut

Robert L. Julianelle, B.S.S.
History
379 Miles Road
Orange, Connecticut
Republican Club 4; French Club 1, 2; St. Ives Guild 3, 4; New Haven Area Club 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2.

Henry W. Jurkowski, B.S.S.
Education
4 Hill Street
Seymour, Connecticut
Education Club 2, 3, 4; Valley Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Edward J. Kane, B.S.S.
Sociology
57 East Thorme Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Glee Club 1, 2, 3 Treasurer, 4 Vice-President; Sociology Club 3, 4.

William P. Kane, A.B.
Education
54 Dover Road
West Hartford, Connecticut
Education Club 3, 4, German Club 3 Vice-President, 4, Democratic Club 4, St. Cecilia Society 4, NFCCS 4; Hartford Area Club 3, 4.

Edward C. Kavanagh, B.S.S.
Economics
75 Sherwood Place
Greenwich, Connecticut
Greenwich-Stamford Area Club 1, 4.

James M. Keane, B.S.S.
Government
39 Lake Drive
Riverside, Connecticut
Democratic Club 2, 3, 4; Chem. Club 3; St. Ives Guild 4; Sociology Club 2; Bridgeport Area Club 2, 3; Greenwich-Stamford Area Club 4 Secretary.

Caron J. Keenan, A.B.
Education
2 Circle Street
South Norwalk, Connecticut
Education Club 3, 4; French Club 3, 4; Norwalk Area Club 2, 3 Secretary, 4 Secretary.

Daniel E. Kiley, B.S.S.
Education
28 Maple Street
Adams, Massachusetts
Manor 4; Class Secretary 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; Education Club 2, 3, 4; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Bay State Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

J. Brady Kilfoyle, A.B.
Economics
27 Noyes Road
Fairfield, Connecticut
K. of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; Bridgeport Area Club 4.

Thomas J. Kmetzo, A.B.
English
74 Maybrook Road
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Math-Physics Club 1, 2 Treasurer, 3 Vice-President, 4; New Frontiers 4; Bridgeport Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Arthur J. Koines, B.S.S.
Economics
44 Florence Avenue
West Haven, Connecticut
Business Club 4; New Haven Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Edmund J. Korpas, A.B.
History
526 West 173rd Street
New York, New York
Manor 4; N.F.C.C.S. 3; Freshman Orientation 3; Metropolitan Club 1.

George N. Kourkounas, B.S.S.
Sociology
225 Grove Street
Manchester, New Hampshire
Manor 4; Stag 3, 4; Varsity Track 3, 4; Varsity Cross-Country 4; Dramatic Society 3, 4; Public Affairs Club 3; New Frontiers 3; Bay State Club 3, 4; Intramurals 3, 4.

Stephen G. Kristofak, B.S.S.
English
32 Woodruff Road
West Hartford, Connecticut
Cardinal Key Society 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Bensonians 3, 4; Campus Minstrels 3, 4; Resident Council 1; St. Ives Guild 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 1; Hartford Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Karl W. Kronenberger, B.S.S.
Economics
Compo Beach
Westport, Connecticut
Mendel Club 3; Intramurals 1, 2, 3.

Peter T. Kujawski, B.S.S.

Government

129 North Fulton Avenue
Mount Vernon, New York

Freshman Track and Cross Country; Varsity Track and Cross Country 2; Republican Club 4; St. Ives Guild 3, 4; Spike Shoe Club 1, 2; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Vincent A. LaBella, B.S.S.

English

42 Columbus Avenue
Middletown, Connecticut

Manor 3, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Democratic Club 4; Dramatic Society 4; Dante Academy 2, 3, 4 Vice-President; St. Ives Guild 4; Hartford Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Patrick M. LaConte, A.B.

Economics

93 Beauvue Terrace
Bridgeport, Connecticut

K of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; Bridgeport Area Club 3, 4.

Michael J. Lacopo, B.S.S.

English

501 West 113th Street
New York, New York

Metropolitan Club 3, 4; Intramurals 3, 4.

John J. LaTerra, Jr., B.S.S.

Economics

308 Vernon Avenue
Paterson, New Jersey

Manor 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Campus Minstrels 3, 4; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Freshman Track and Cross Country; Varsity Track 2; Varsity Cross Country 2, 3; Mendel Club 4; Jersey Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Brian J. Lawler, B.S.S.

Economics

3914 Acushnet Avenue
New Bedford, Massachusetts

Student Council 2; Stag 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Orientation 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 3; Bay State Club 1, 2, 3, 4 President; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

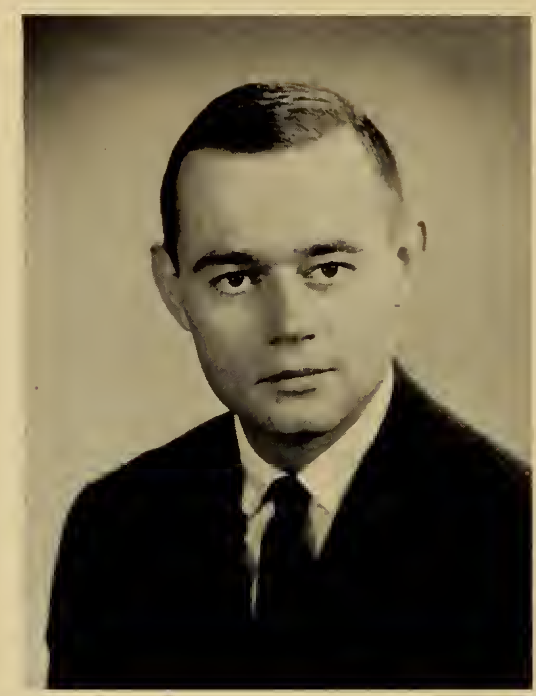
Dennis K. Locke, B.S.S.
English
Pine Street
Stockbridge, Massachusetts
French Club 1; St. Ives Guild 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Joseph P. Lojko, Jr., A.B.
Education
R.F.D. #1
Jewett City, Connecticut
Education Club 4; St. Cecilia Society 4.

Charles R. Lops, B.S.S.
English
33-76 167th Street
Flushing, New York
Manor 4. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Campus Minstrels 3, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 2, 3, 4; St. Ives Guild 4. St. Cecilia Society 1, 2, 3, 4. Dante Academy 1, 2, 3 Vice-President, 4. Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Richard M. Loughlin, B.S.S.
Sociology
First Street
Piermont, New York
Varsity Baseball 2, 3; Freshman Basketball; Sociology Club 3, 4; Spanish Club 1, 2; Jersey Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

E. Robert Lucas, A.B.
Economics
4 Eastern Drive
Wethersfield, Connecticut
Glee Club 1, 2; K. of C. Ignatian Council 4, Republican Club 4, S.A.M. 4, New Frontiers 1, 2; Hartford Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

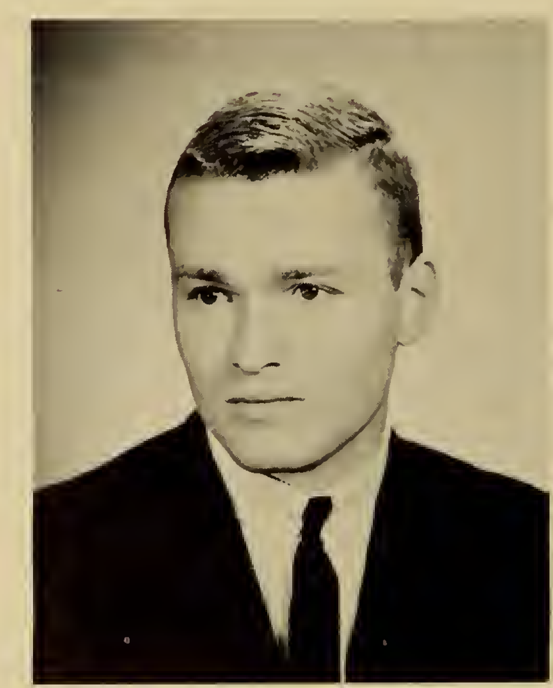


Alan D. MacDonald, B.S.S.
English
27 High Street
Chicopee Falls, Massachusetts
Democratic Club 1; Bay State Club 1, 2, 4.

Brendan J. MacDonnell, B.S.S.
Sociology
1521 Parker Street
Springfield, Massachusetts
Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Sociology Club 3, 4; French Club 1, 2; Bay State Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Michael E. Madden, B.S.S.
Economics
226 South Bayview Avenue
Freeport, New York
Glee Club 1; Dramatic Society 4; Varsity Baseball 2, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 4; N.F.C.C.S. 3; Spanish Club 1, 2; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

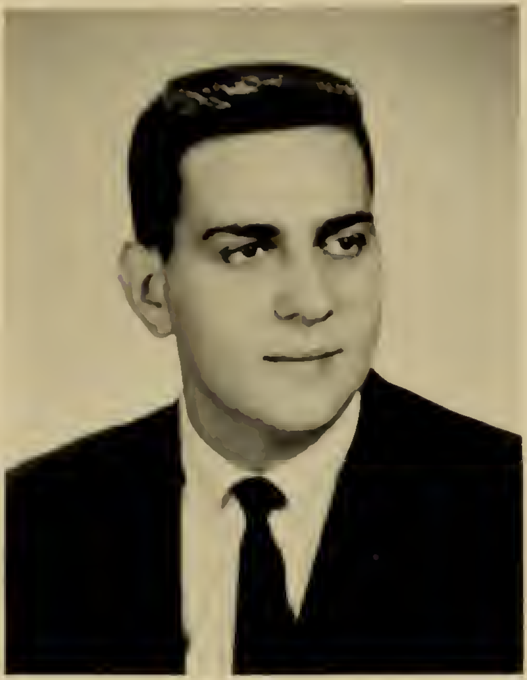
Michael W. Maher, B.S.S.
History
589 Clarendon Court
River Edge, New Jersey
Class Vice-President 3; Student Council 4; Dramatic Society 1, 2, 3 Business Manager; Republican Club 1; Freshman Orientation 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Jersey Club 1, 2; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.



Arthur J. Mannion, Jr., A.B.
English
7 Grand Street
Bethel, Connecticut
Manor 4 Editor-in-Chief; Alpha Sigma Nu 4; Honor Society 4; Dean's List 3; Cardinal Key Society 3, 4; Stag 2, 3, 4; New Frontiers 2, 3, 4 Associate Editor; Freshman Orientation Comm., General Chairman 3; Bellarmine Debating Society 1, 2, 3, 4; C.I.S.L. 3, 4; Aquinas Academy 4; Varsity Basketball Announcer 3, 4.

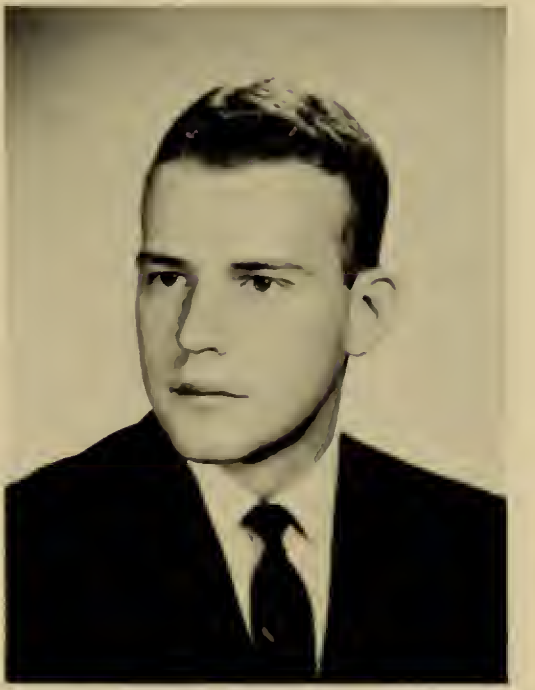
William M. Mansfield, Jr., B.S.S.
Economics
39 Warren Street
New London, Connecticut
Democratic Club 4; French Club 4; Intramurals 3.

Frank F. Marcucio, B.S.S.
Education
38 Chatfield Street
Derby, Connecticut
Sodality 2, 3; Education Club 3, 4; Democratic Club 4; French Club 1, 2; Valley Club 1, 2, 3, 4.



James E. Marran, A.B.
English
200 South Little East Neck Road
Babylon, New York
Glee Club 3, 4; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Clifford E. Marvin, Jr., B.S.S.
History
128 Dover Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Education Club 3 Corresponding Secretary, 4 Vice-President; Democratic Club 2, 3 Vice-President, 4 Vice-President; French Club 2; Bridgeport Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.



Robert E. McCarthy, B.S.S.
Economics
112 North Cliff Street
Ansonia, Connecticut
Sodality 2, 3, 4; Business Club 3, 4; Marketing Club 4; S.A.M. 4; Valley Club 1, 2, 3 Vice President, 4 President.

James F. McConville, B.S.S.
Economics
593 Haig Street
Baldwin, New York
Manor 4; Freshman Track and Cross-Country; Varsity Track 2; Democratic Club 4; St. Ives Guild 3, 4; C.I.S.L. 1; Spanish Club 2; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Russell J. McCreven, B.S.S.
Education
297 Park Street
West Haven, Connecticut
Education Club 3, 4; Spanish Club 4; New Haven Area Club 3, 4.

Frank J. McDonald, A.B.
English
80 Norman Road
Newark, New Jersey
Manor 3, 4 Literary Editor; Alpha Sigma Nu 4 President; Honor Society 4; Dean's List 1, 2, 3, 4; Sodality 1, 2, 3; Canisius Academy 2, 3 Treasurer, 4; Aquinas Academy 3, 4; N.F.C.C.S. 3; K. of C. Ignatian Council 1, 2, 3, 4; German Club 3; Freshman Orientation 3; Jersey Club 1; Intramurals 1.

Robert F. McGraw, B.S.S.
History
1740 Highland Avenue
Rochester, New York
Dramatic Society 3, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

William C. McNulty, A.B.
Economics
118 Coe Avenue
East Haven, Connecticut
Democratic Club 3, 4; New Haven Area Club 3, 4.

Francis P. McTigue, B.S.S.
History
77 Blackhall Street
New London, Connecticut

Richard B. Medve, B.S.S.
History
1014 North Benson Road
Fairfield, Connecticut
Glee Club 1; Freshman Track; Varsity Track 2, 3, 4; Spike Shoe Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Business Club 3; French Club 1; Bridgeport Area Club 3, 4.

Robert L. Melican, B.S.S.

History

11 Patten Drive

Loudonville, New York

N.F.C.C.S. 2, 3 Junior Delegate, 4 New England Regional Treasurer; Sodality 4; Stag 4; Dramatic Society 4; Varsity Tennis 2, 3, 4; Bellarmine Debating Society 2, 3, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; Freshman Orientation 3.

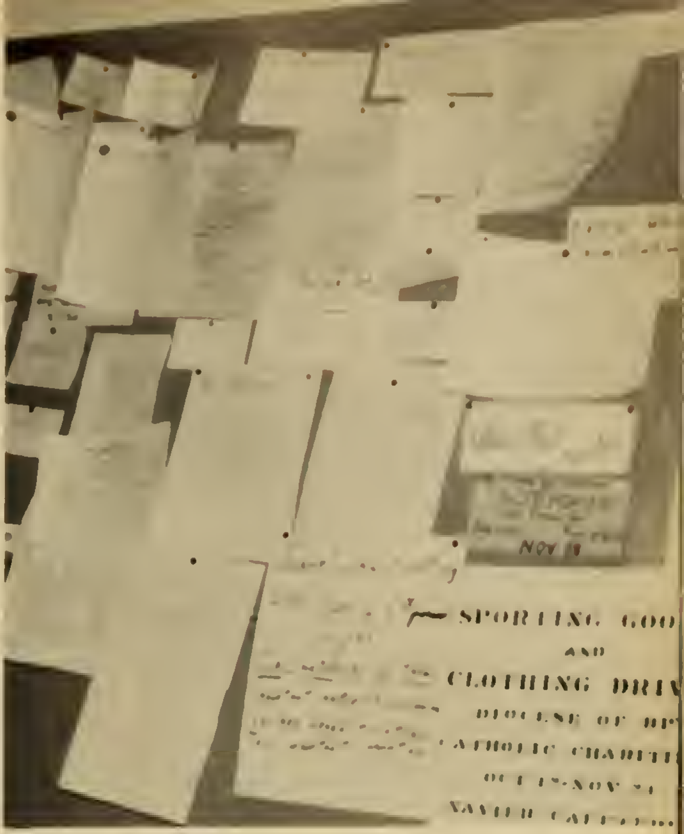
Ned F. Mencio, B.S.S.

Economics

804 Hamilton Avenue

Waterbury, Connecticut

Class Treasurer 4; Vets Club 4; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Waterbury Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4 Treasurer; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.



Lawrence J. Merly, B.S.S.

Economics

37 Wakeman Street

Bridgeport, Connecticut

Business Club 3, 4; S.A.M. 4, K. of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; St. Ives Guild 3, 4; Bridgeport Area Club 3, 4.

Robert J. Michael, B.S.S.

Sociology

29 Stone Street

Danbury, Connecticut

Sodality 1, 2, 3; Student Council 3 Treasurer; Dean's List 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Glee Club 2; N.F.C.C.S. 2; Sociology Club 3, 4 Vice-President; St. Ives Guild 4; Freshman Orientation 3; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Joseph A. Monaco, B.S.S.

Government

221 North Washington Avenue

Bridgeport, Connecticut

Winter Carnival Comm. 1, Bridgeport Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Robert E. Morse, A.B.
Social Science
15 Woodridge Circle
Trumbull, Connecticut
Education Club 4; Russian Circle 3, 4; Freshman Orientation 3; Bridgeport Area Club 2, 3, 4.

Kevin R. Mulcahy, B.S.S.
History
18 Main Street
East Hampton, Connecticut
Education Club 3, 4; French Club 1, 2; Hartford Area Club 2, 3; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Raymond F. Nalewajk, A.B.
English
2454 Broadbridge Avenue
Stratford, Connecticut
Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Stag 1, 2, 3, 4; Bellarmine Debating Society 1, 2 Treasurer; Freshman Orientation 2, 3.

Frank E. Nash, B.S.S.
Economics
493 Roosevelt Avenue
Lyndhurst, New Jersey
Student Council 4 Recording Secretary; Dramatic Society 2, 3; Republican Club 2, 4; Freshman Orientation 3; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Jersey Club 2, 3 Corresponding Secretary, 4 President.

Michael D. Oates, A.B.
French
61 New Street
Shelton, Connecticut
Sodality 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 4; Education Club 1, 2, 3 Vice-President, 4; French Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Valley Club 1, 2, 3 Secretary, 4 Secretary; Intramurals 1, 2, 3.

Eric W. O'Brien, B.S.S.
History
55 Mossfield Road
Waban, Massachusetts
Glee Club 1; Bellarmine Debating Society 2; S.A.M. 3, 4; Bay State Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

James T. O'Brien, B.S.S.
English
135 Tanners Pond Road
Garden City, New York
Resident Council 3; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3 Vice-President, 4 President; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

J. Riley O'Donnell, B.S.S.
English
181 Zion Street
Hartford, Connecticut
Hartford Area Club 1, 2, 4.

Henry O'Hagan, B.S.S.
English
301 Warwick Avenue
Douglaston 63, New York
Dramatic Society 1, 2, 3 Treasurer, 4 President; K. of C. Ignatian Council 2, 3, 4 Advocate; Metropolitan Club 1.

Gerald P. O'Keeffe, B.S.S.
English
124 Pemberton Avenue
Plainfield, New Jersey
Manor 4; Class Vice-President 4; Freshman Basketball; Resident Council 1; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; Freshman Orientation 3; General Chairman of Junior Weekend 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Jersey Club 1, 2, 3 Vice-President, 4, Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Paul Paluha, A.B.
Philosophy
174 Winthrop Avenue
New Haven, Connecticut
Business Club 4; New Haven Area Club 4.

Richard M. Panuczak, B.S.S.

Economics
548 Granfield Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Business Club 2, 3, 4; Freshman Basketball; Varsity Basketball 2, 3, 4; Varsity Baseball 2, 3, 4; Spanish Club 2; Bridgeport Area Club 4.

William R. Pascucci, A.B.

Economics
58 Everett Street
Stratford, Connecticut
Bridgeport Area Club 4.

Joseph H. Pavlis, B.S.S.

Economics
450 Dunham Road
Fairfield, Connecticut
Business Club 4; Republican Club 4; Bridgeport Area Club 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 3, 4.

John F. Perrine, B.S.S.

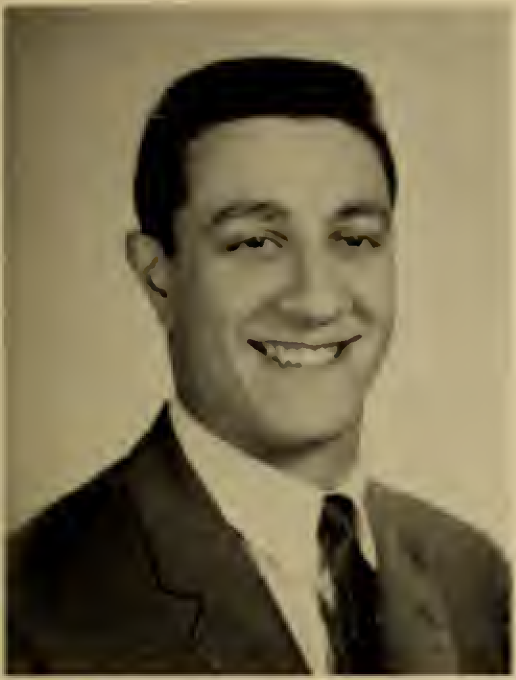
Economics
182 Biltmore Boulevard
Massapequa, New York
Manor 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 1, 2, 3, 4; Business Club 2, 3, 4; French Club 1, 2; Freshman Track; Varsity Track 2, 4; Athletic Association 1, 2, 4; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Freshman Orientation 3; S.A.M. 4; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Henry J. Pronovost, B.S.S.

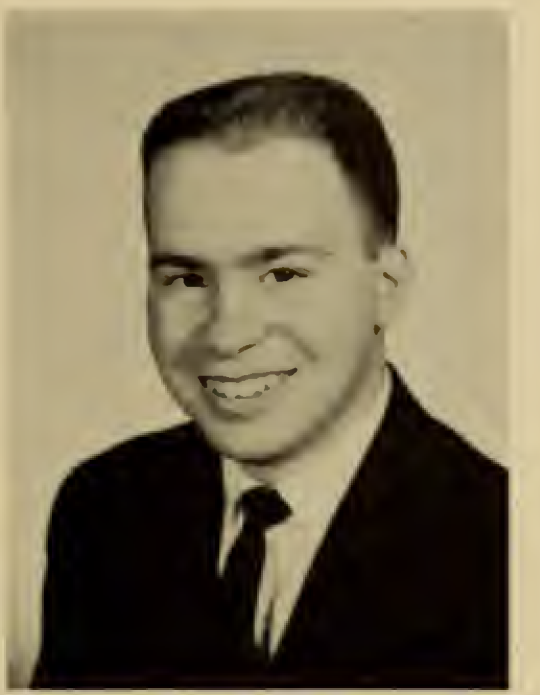
Education
236 Hill Street
Waterbury, Connecticut
Manor 4; Stag 1, 2; French Club 1, 2; Education Club 3 Secretary, 4 Treasurer; Freshman Orientation 3; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Waterbury Area Club 1, 2 Corresponding Secretary, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3.

Richard H. Pruchnicki, B.S.S.

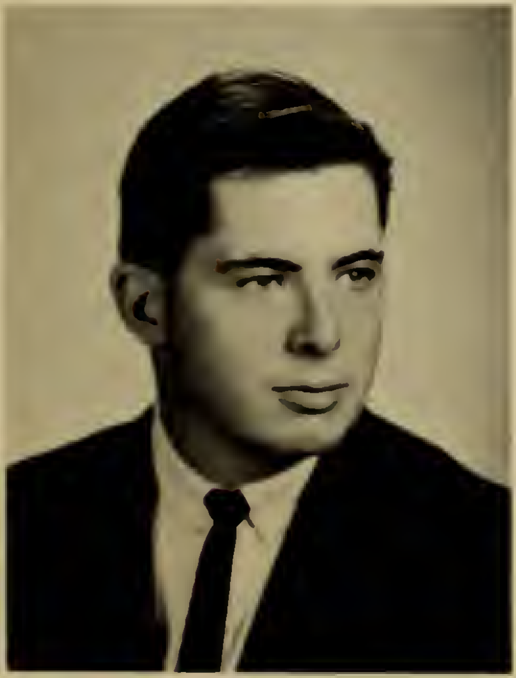
Economics
1432 Highland Avenue
Waterbury, Connecticut
Math-Physics Club 1, 2; Varsity Baseball 2; Waterbury Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.



Mathew A. Pugliese, B.S.S.
Government
27 Scribner Avenue
South Norwalk, Connecticut
Sodality 1, 2, 3; Varsity Track 2, 3; St. Ives Guild 2, 3, 4 Corresponding Secretary; Norwalk Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

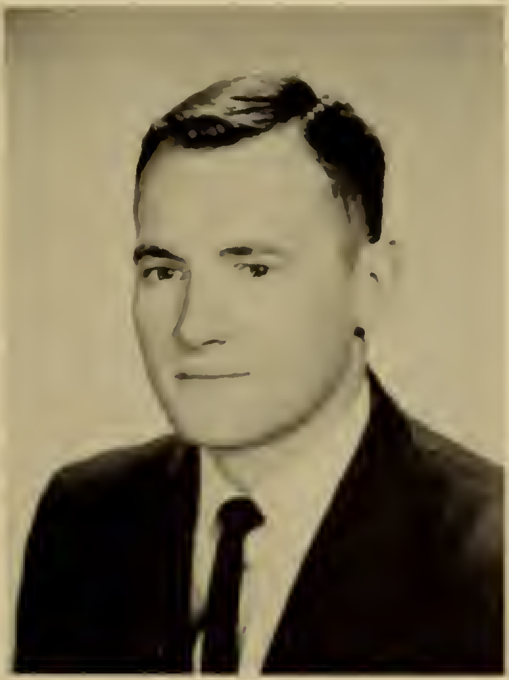


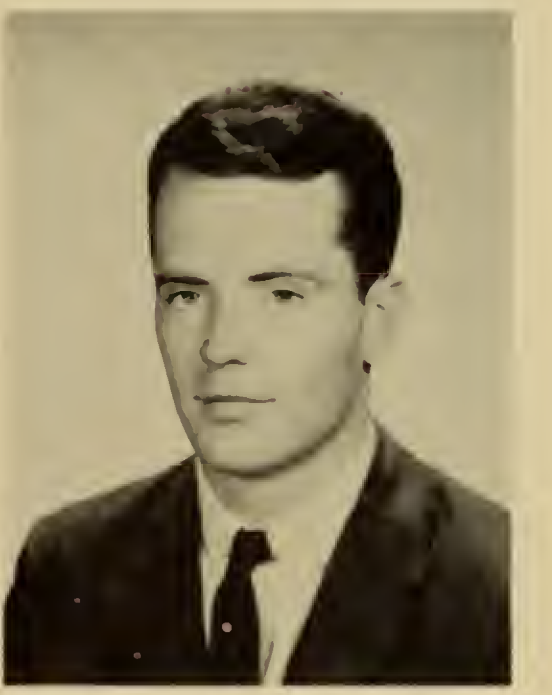
Rocco M. Pugliese, B.S.S.
History
192 Fairfield Avenue
Waterbury, Connecticut
Honor Society 4; Dean's List 3, 4; St. Ives Guild 2, 3, 4 Treasurer; Democratic Club 3, 4; Bellarmine Debating Society 1; Canisius Academy 2; Freshman Orientation 3; Waterbury Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4 Secretary.



John T. Reilly, B.S.S.
History
Sussex Hall
Dobbs Ferry, New York
Manor 4, Stag 2; K of C Ignatian Council 1, 2, 3, 4; Spanish Club 1; St. Ives Guild 3, 4; Democratic Club 2, 3, 4; Freshman Orientation 3, Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Joseph A. Renaud, B.S.S.
Sociology
45 Winnipoge Drive
Fairfield, Connecticut
Sociology Club 3, 4; Republican Club K. of C. Ignatian Council 4.

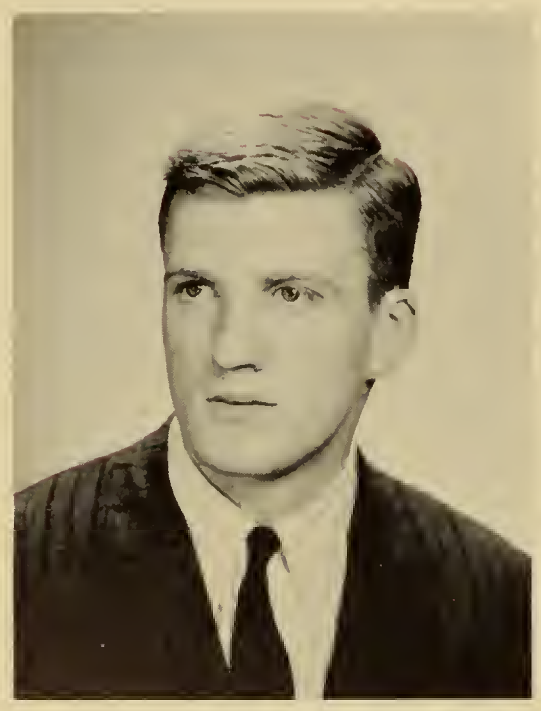




Kevin T. Reynolds, B.S.S.
English
25 Overlook Road
Chatham, New Jersey
Freshman Track, Marketing Club 3, Freshman Orientation 3, French Club 2; Junior Weekend Comm 3, Jersey Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4

Robert W. Ritter, B.S.S.
History
27 Gray Rock Lane
Chappaqua, New York
Stag 4; Varsity Baseball 3, 4; Freshman Basketball; Bellarmine Debating Society 3; Freshman Orientation 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 4.

Robert J. Ross, B.S.S.
Education
157 Marcellus Road
Mineola, New York
Stag 2, 3; Resident Council 3; Education Club 2, 3, 4; Freshman Track and Cross-Country; Varsity Cross-Country 2; Spike Shoe Club 3, 4; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 2, 3, 4.



David M. Royston, A.B.
Government
71 Lorraine Terrace
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Manor 4; Student Council 3 Vice-President, 4 President; Cardinal Key Society 4; Bellarmine Debating Society 1 Vice-President, 2 Vice-President, 3 President, 4 President; Aquinas Academy 4; Democratic Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Orientation 3; Bridgeport Area Club 1, 2 Secretary, 3 Vice-President, 4.

William P. Russell, A.B.
Economics
71 Spruce Street
Southport, Connecticut
Manor 4; Business Club 2, 3, 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Orientation 3; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Winter Carnival General Chairman 4; Athletic Association 1, 2; Bridgeport Area Club 2, 3, 4.

Thomas J. Ryan, B.S.S.
History
38 Mountain Road
Cheshire, Connecticut
Resident Council 2; K. of C. Ignatian Council 1, 2, 3, 4; St. Ives Guild 4; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Bay State Club 1, 2, 3; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Anthony J. Salcito, B.S.S.
Economics
1346 Baldwin Street
Waterbury, Connecticut
Sodality 2, 3; Business Club 4; French Club 1, 2, 3. Republican Club 2, 3, 4; Waterbury Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Alexander W. Samor, A.B.
Economics
740 Kossuth Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Business Club 3, 4; S.A.M. 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; Bridgeport Area Club 2, 3, 4.

Gerald T. Sargent, Jr., A.B.
Economics
27 Polk Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut
K. of C. Ignatian Council 2, 3, 4; Bridgeport Area Club 4.

William L. Scully, Jr., B.S.S.
History
345 Cypress Avenue
New York, New York
Manor 4 Art Editor; Cardinal Key Society 3 4. Glee Club 1; Republican Club 1, 2, 3 President, 4; Public Affairs Club 3; C.I.S.L. 4. French Club 2, 3, 4; Dante Academy 2, 3, 4. Freshman Orientation 3; Junior Week-end Comm. 3; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Andrew J. Sedensky, Jr., A.B.
English
120 Sherwood Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Sodality 1, 2, 3, 4; Democratic Club 4.

George A. Sender, B.S.S.
English
Mary Street
Shelton, Connecticut
Dramatic Society 4; Education Club 2, 3, 4; Democratic Club 4; French Club 1, 2; Valley Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 3, 4.

David L. Serafin, B.S.S.
Education
36 East Lake Road
Trumbull, Connecticut
Education Club 3, 4; Democratic Club 2, 3, 4; Bridgeport Area Club 2, 3, 4.

Robert T. Sherwin, B.S.S.
English
675 Cleveland Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Education Club 4; Democratic Club 2, 3, 4 President; C.I.S.L. 3, 4; Bridgeport Area Club 2, 3, 4.

Jerome F. Simpson, B.S.S.
Education
990 Arlington Avenue
Plainfield, New Jersey
Dramatic Society 2, 3; Freshman Track and Cross Country; Varsity Track and Cross Country 2; Education Club 2, 3, 4; Bellarmine Debating Society 1; Republican Club 1, 3, 4; Cheerleaders 1 Co-Captain, 2 Captain, 3 Captain; Athletic Association 1, 2, 3; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Jersey Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 3, 4.

Paul C. Slason, B.S.S.
Education
Philo-Curtis Road
Sandy Hook, Connecticut
Education Club 2, 3, 4 President; Vets Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Republican Club 3, 4; Waterbury Area Club 1; Bridgeport Area Club 3.

Brian G. Slayne, A.B.
History
72 Rodney Place
Rockville Centre, New York
Glee Club 1; Stag 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3, 4; Mendel Club 1; Dante Academy 2; Freshman Orientation 3; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Metropolitan Club 1, 2 Secretary, 3, 4 Treasurer.

Craig W. Smith, B.S.S.
Economics
34 Vincent Street
West Hartford, Connecticut
Glee Club 1; Business Club 1, 3, 4; Republican Club 3, 4; Manager Varsity Basketball Team 3; Athletic Association 3; Hartford Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Michael F. Speer, B.S.S.
Sociology
450 Wilmot Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Sociology Club 2, 3, 4; Democratic Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Bridgeport Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Geoffrey C. Stokes, A.B.
English
36 Oak Avenue
Larchmont, New York
Stag 1, 2, 3 Feature Editor, 4 Feature Editor; New Frontiers 2, 3, 4 Editor; Honor Society 4; Dean's List 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Society 4; Glee Club 1, 2; Bellarmine Debating Society 1, 2, 3 Secretary, 4; Democratic Club 1, 2, 3; Aquinas Academy 4; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 4.

Edward B. Sullivan, B.S.S.
Economics
2 Oakfield Drive
Norwalk, Connecticut
Manor 3; Republican Club 2, 3, 4 Treasurer; St. Ives Guild 3, 4; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 3, 4.

John L. Tiscornia, B.S.S.
Economics
55 Forest Road
Tenafly, New Jersey
Manor 4; Stag 1, 2, 3, 4; Business Club 3, 4; Spanish Club 1; Freshman Orientation 2; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Jersey Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Francis J. Tracy, B.S.S.
Economics
60 Lyman Avenue
Meriden, Connecticut
Business Club 3, 4; Varsity Baseball 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Fairfield University

James D. Tuite, B.S.S.
English
950 First Avenue
New York, New York
Sodality 1, 2, 3, 4; Dante Academy 2, 3, 4; Italian Club 1; French Club 1, 2 President, 3 President, 4 Vice-President; K. of C. Ignatian Council 1, 2, 3, 4; St. Cecilia Society 2, 3, 4; Metropolitan Club 4.

Martin J. Twarkins, B.S.S.
History
42 Rainbow Road
Poquonock, Connecticut
Glee Club 1, 2; Business Club 1; Education Club 4; German Club 1; St. Ives Guild 4; Hartford Area Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 2, 3.

John W. Vaitkus, Jr., A.B.
English
282 Highland Avenue
Waterbury, Connecticut
Manor 4; Alpha Sigma Nu 4 Secretary; Honor Society 4; Dean's List 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Sodality 2; Aquinas Academy 4 Vice-President; French Club 2 Secretary; Freshman Orientation 3; Waterbury Area Club 1, 2, 3 Secretary, 4 Vice-President.

Walter W. Wallin, B.S.S.
Economics
391 Berkeley Road
Orange, New Jersey
Republican Club 3, 4; Varsity Baseball 2; Freshman Cross-Country; Jersey Club 1; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Robert A. Walsh, B.S.S.
Economics
1575 North Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Business Club 4.

John F. X. Warburton, A.B.

English
1068 East 40th Street
Brooklyn, New York

Manor 4, Student Council 4; Stag 2, 3, 4 Editor-in-Chief; New Frontiers 3, 4 History-Government Editor; Dramatic Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Mendel Club 2; Democratic Club 2 Bellarmine Debating Society 1, 2 Secretary, 3 President, 4; Metropolitan Club 1, 2

Anthony C. Ward, A.B.

History
33 Wildwood Road
Scarsdale, New York

Resident Council 2; New Frontiers 1, 2; Spanish Club 1, 2; Bellarmine Debating Society 1; Republican Club 4; Sociology Club 3, 4; Metropolitan Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Lee C. Williams, B.S.S.

Sociology
65 Sixth Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut

Dean's List 3; Math-Physics Club 1, 2; Democratic Club 3, 4; Sociology Club 3, 4; Freshman Orientation 2, 3; Bridgeport Area Club 2, 3, 4.

Robert B. Williams, B.S.S.

English
Cheshire Road
Bethany, Connecticut

Dramatic Society 3; Marketing Club 3; French Club 2; New Haven Area Club 4.

Neil H. Willson, B.S.S.

Economics
86 Clove Avenue
Haverstraw, New York

Business Club 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 1, 2, 3, 4; St. Cecilia Society 4; Education Club 4; Freshman Basketball Manager 1; Metropolitan Club 4; Intramurals 1, 2, 3, 4.

Robert A. Yoston, B.S.S.

Sociology
143 Chelsea Road
White Plains, New York

Democratic Club 2, 3, 4; Sociology Club 3, 4; Intramurals 3, 4.

"It is especially desirable that every Catholic should know written figures, the situation and places of the elements, their magnitude and shapes; the thickness of the celestial orbs, their magnitude; the velocity, motion, and influences of sun, moon, and other stars; and how small the earth is compared to them, and how great with respect to man; so that admiration of these may swell the praise of their Creator, and that, repelling the lust for things worldly, man may not grow proud because of all these inferior things, which are as nothing in the universe that contains them all, and should be regarded as nothing."

Thorndike, Lynn, University Records and Life in the Middle Ages, pp. 146-47

Sciences

Astronomical globe: celestial sphere on back of Pegasus.
Bronze silvered, silver and silver-gilt, ca. 1579.

Science Faculty

Rev. Gerald F. Hutchinson, S.J.
Chairman, Department of Chemistry
Associate Professor of Chemistry

Rev. William F. Burns, S.J.
Chairman, Departments of Physics and Mathematics
Professor of Physics and Mathematics

Dr. Donald J. Ross
Chairman, Department of Biology
Associate Professor of Biology

Rev. Thomas A. McGrath, S.J.
Chairman, Department of Psychology
Assistant Professor of Psychology and Education

Dr. John A. Barone
Associate Professor of Chemistry

Mr. Robert E. Bolger
Assistant Professor of Mathematics

Rev. John Devane, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Physics and Mathematics

Rev. Anthony J. Eiardi, S.J.
Associate Professor of Mathematics

Mr. Salvatore L. Fama
Instructor in Biology

Mr. Robert F. Gruss
Lecturer in Physics

Dr. John E. Klimas, Jr.
Assistant Professor of Biology

Mr. Vincent M. Murphy
Assistant Professor of Psychology

Rev. John P. Murray, S.J.
Associate Professor of Mathematics

Mr. Edward J. O'Keefe
Lecturer in Psychology

Rev. James W. Ring, S.J.
Associate Professor of Physics

Mr. Jerome J. Perez
Instructor in Chemistry

Rev. Bernard M. Scully, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Mathematics

Rev. Robert E. Varnerin, S.J.
Assistant Professor of Chemistry

Seniors in Sciences

Egbert W. Anderson, B.S.

Physics

159-70 Harlem River Drive
New York, New York

Student Council 3,4; Honor Society 4; Dean's List 2,3,4; Stag 2,3,4; Math-Physics Society 1,2,3,4 President; Freshman Basketball; Canisius Academy 3; German Club 3; Metropolitan Club 1,2; Intramurals 3.

Robert J. Bianchi, B.S.

Chemistry

140 Cooke Street
Plainville, Connecticut

Chemistry Club 1,2,3 Vice-President, 4 President; K. of C. Ignatian Council 2,3,4; Republican Club 3,4; Freshman Orientation 3; Hartford Area Club 1,3,4.

Robert V. Biroschak, B.S.

Physics

70 Parkwood Road
Stratford, Connecticut

Manor 4, Student Council 4, Stag 3,4, Math-Physics Society 1,2,3 Secretary, 4 Vice-President; Scientia 4 Editor, Democratic Club 3,4, Freshman Orientation 3, Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,3,4.

John A. Bognar, B.S.

Chemistry

705 River Drive
Passaic, New Jersey

Chemistry Club 2,3,4, Republican Club 4, St. Cecilia Society 1,2,3,4 Secretary; German Club 4, Dante Academy 4.

Robert A. Brady, B.S.
Physics
Hillside Road
Stony Brook, New York
Dramatic Society 2; Stag 3; Math-Physics Society 3,4; Mendel Club 1; French Club 2; Junior Weekend Comm. 2; Metropolitan Club 1,2,3,4; Intramurals 1,2,3,4.

Joseph A. Cannizzaro, B.S.
Biology
70 Ashland Avenue
Pleasantville, New York
Student Council 1,3,4; Cardinal Key Society 3,4; Class Secretary 2; Class President 3,4; Mendel Club 2,3,4; Freshman Orientation 3; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Metropolitan Club 1,2; Intramurals 1,2,3,4.

Francis P. Carfora, B.S.
Mathematics
22 Main Street
New Haven, Connecticut
Math-Physics Society 2,3,4; St. Cecelia Society 2; New Haven Area Club 2,3,4; Intramurals 1.

Alan M. Catalano, B.S.
Chemistry
58 Lewis Avenue
Meriden, Connecticut
Glee Club 1,2; Dramatic Society 4; Chemistry Club 1,2,3,4; St. Cecilia Society 1,2,3 Vice-President, 4 President.

Dennis C. Cipriano, B.S.
Mathematics
158 Greenwood Avenue
Waterbury, Connecticut
Math-Physics Society 3,4; Chemistry Club 1,2; Freshman Orientation 3; Waterbury Area Club 1,2,3,4.

Morris L. Clark, B.S.
Biology
6 Well Avenue
Danbury, Connecticut

Francis W. Colleran, Jr., B.S.
Biology
4505 El Mar Drive
Fort Lauderdale, Florida
Mendel Club 2.3.4; N.F.C.C.S. 2; Winter Carnival Comm. 3; Bay State Club 2.3.4.

Robert M. Cook, B.S.
Biology
51 Hillside Avenue
New Rochelle New York
Manor 4. Glee Club 1.2.3.4; Campus Minstrels 3.4; Mendel Club 2.3.4. K. of C. Ignatian Council 2.3.4 Republican Club 4; Metropolitan Club 1.2.3.4.

Arthur F. Cronin, B.S.
Chemistry
6 West Side Drive
Bennington, Vermont
Chemistry Club 2.3.4.

Anthony J. Cuomo, B.S.
Biology
1927 East 38th Street
Brooklyn, New York
Student Council 2; Stag 1.2.3. Mendel Club 1.2.3.4 Vice-President, French Club 1, Freshman Orientation 3; Metropolitan Club 1.2 Treasurer, 3.

MAJOREM
DEI
GLORIAM
CONSTITUTIONES
SOCIETATIS
JESUS

Joseph P. D'Apice, A.B.

Biology

56 Beardsley Parkway
Trumbull, Connecticut
Mendel Club 1,2,3,4 Secretary; Bridgeport Area Club 2.

Richard A. Davis, B.S.

Biology

3203 Snyder Avenue
Brooklyn, New York
Stag 3,4; Dean's List 3; Mendel Club 2,3,4 Secretary; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3,4; French Club 1,2; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Metropolitan Club 1,2 Secretary, 3 Secretary, 4; Intramurals 1,2,3,4.

William P. Desautelle, A.B.

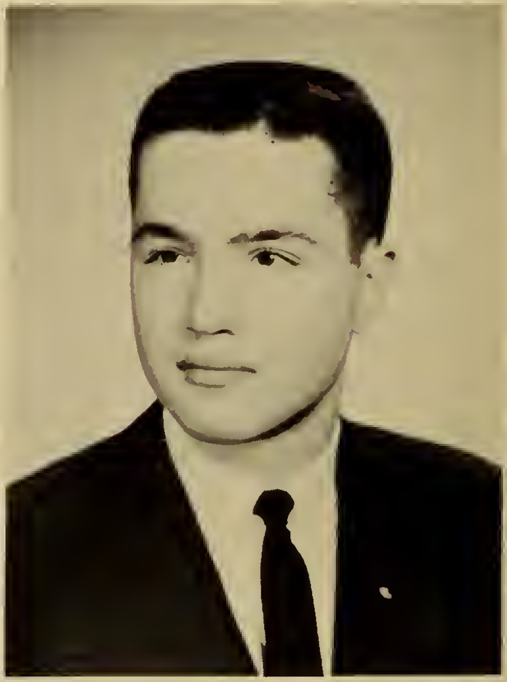
Mathematics

52 Housatonic Avenue
Milford, Connecticut
Math-Physics Society 3,4.

Lawrence C. DiGiovanna, A.B.

Biology

1391 Schenectady Avenue
Brooklyn, New York
Manor 4; Mendel Club 1,2,3,4; Chemistry Club 1,2; Education Club 3,4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3,4; Metropolitan Club 1,2, 3,4; Intramurals 1,2,3,4.



Joseph J. Distinti, B.S.

Physics

129 Berkeley Place
Brooklyn, New York
Stag 2,3,4; Math-Physics Society 1,2,3,4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 2,3,4 Recorder; Freshman Track; S.A.M. 3,4; Republican Club 1; Freshman Orientation 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 2; Metropolitan Club 1,2.

Frank N. Federico, A.B.
Biology
7 Paulina Place
Trumbull, Connecticut
Mendel Club 1,2,3,4; Canisius Academy 2,3.

Arthur J. Funk, B.S.
Physics
8608 110th Street
Richmond Hill, New York
Manor 4 Photography Editor; Stag 1,2,3 Photography Editor, 4 Photography Editor; Math-Physics Society 1,2,3,4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3,4; Freshman Orientation 3; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 2,3,4; Metropolitan Club 1,2,3,4.

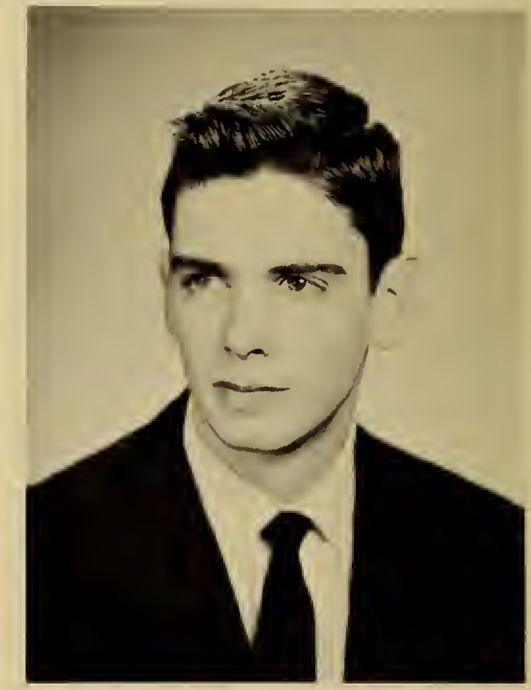
Andrew J. Fezza, B.S.
Biology
168 Blatchley Avenue
New Haven, Connecticut
Mendel Club 1,2,3 Secretary, 4 President; St. Cecilia Society 2,3,4; Freshman Orientation 4; New Haven Area Club 1,2,3,4; Intramurals 3.

Edmund T. Flanagan, Jr., B.S.S.
Psychology
255 Hamilton Avenue
Glen Rock, New Jersey
Stag 3,4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 2,3,4; Bios Logos Academy 3,4; Jersey Club 1,2,3,4; Intramurals 1,2.

Vincent J. Gamba, B.S.
Biology
388 Fairmount Avenue
Newark, New Jersey
Mendel Club, 1,2,3,4 Treasurer, Math-Physics Society 3; K. of C. Ignatian Council 2,3 Guard, 4; Jersey Club 1,2,3,4 Treasurer; Intramurals 1,2.

Thomas R. Hallen, A.B.
Psychology
65 Spruce Avenue
Floral Park, New York
Dean's List 3; Aquinas Academy 4; Vets Club 2,3,4.

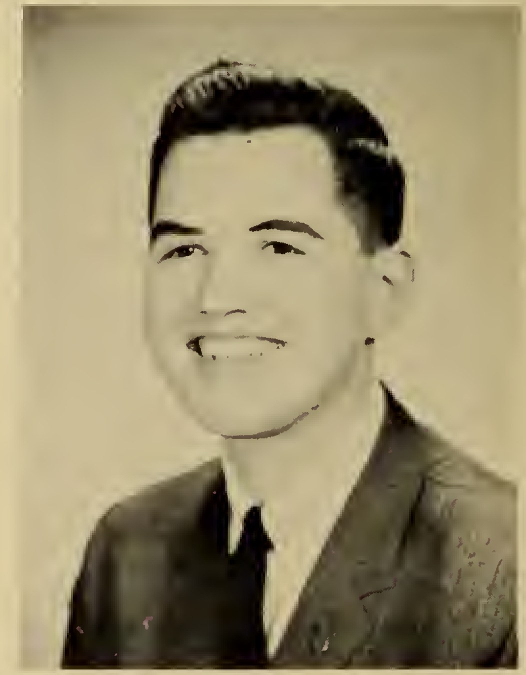
Thomas W. Hayes, B.S.
Physics
425 Bedell Street
Oceanside, New York
Math-Physics Society 1,2,3,4; Metropolitan Club 1,2,3,4.



John A. Healey, B.S.
Physics
100 Kelsey Street
Waterbury, Connecticut
Glee Club 2,3,4; Math-Physics Society 1,3,4; Freshman Orientation 3; Waterbury Area Club 1,2,3,4.

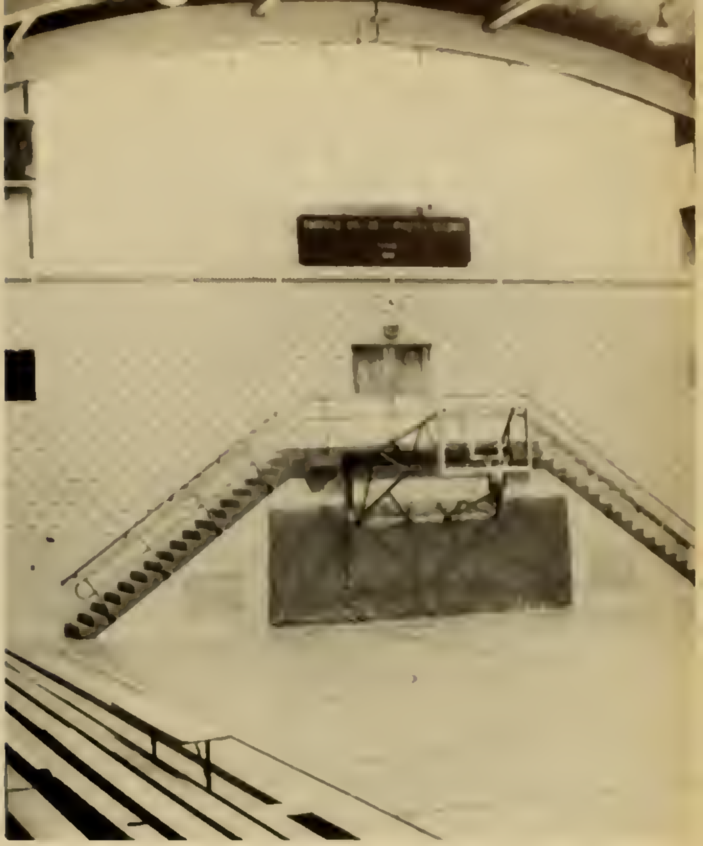
Howard J. Hickey, Jr., B.S.S.
Psychology
129 Sheehan Drive
Holyoke, Massachusetts
Class Secretary 2; Dean's List 3; Varsity Baseball 2; Freshman Basketball; Athletic Association 1,2; Aquinas Academy 3,4; N.F.C.C.S. 1,2; Bios Logos Academy 3; Vets Club 3,4.

Jeffrey S. Jalbert, B.S.
Physics
137 Waverly Road
Shelton, Connecticut
Honor Society 4; Glee Club 3,4; Math-Physics Society 1,2,3,4; Democratic Club 2,3,4; Freshman Orientation 3.



Donald J. Johnson, B.S.
Mathematics
Tartia Road
East Hampton, Connecticut

Walter J. Kaczmarczyk, B.S.
Biology
188 Gold Street
New Britain, Connecticut
Mendel Club 1,2,3,4; Democratic Club 2; Hartford Area Club 2,3; Intramurals 1,2,3,4.



Damian E. Karnasiewicz, B.S.
Chemistry
27 McClintock Street
New Britain, Connecticut

Robert A. Keough, B.S.
Physics
160 Nichols Avenue
Stratford, Connecticut
Math-Physics Society 1,2,3,4; Freshman Orientation 4; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,3,4.

Guy C. Lardizzone, B.S.
Biology
88 Church Street
Middletown, Connecticut
Mendel Club 3,4. Chemistry Club 1,2; K of C. Ignatian Council 2,3,4. Hartford Area Club 2,3,4. Intramurals 2,3,4.

Peter J. Lenart, B.S.
Physics
38 Oak Street
Derby, Connecticut
Math-Physics Society 1,2,3,4; Democratic Club 3,4; Valley Club 1,2,3,4.

John S. Lesko, B.S.
Physics
103 Caroline Street
Derby, Connecticut
Math-Physics Society 1,2,3,4; Valley Club 1,2.

Raymond R. Lund, A.B.
Biology
29 Old Elm Road
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Cardinal Key Society 4; Mendel Club 1,2,3,4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 2,3,4; Freshman Orientation 2; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,3,4; Intramurals 3,4.

Robert J. MacMurray, B.S.
Biology
1015 West Park Avenue
Long Beach, New York
Alpha Sigma Nu 4 Treasurer; Honor Society 4; Cardinal Key Society 3 Vice-President, 4; Student Council 2; Class President 2; Stag 2; Mendel Club 1,2,3,4; Freshman Orientation 3; Metropolitan Club 1,2,3,4; Intramurals 1,2.3,4.

Theodore L. Maguder, Jr., B.S.
Biology
54 Sunset Avenue
Meriden, Connecticut
Mendel Club 3,4; Hartford Area Club 3; Intramurals 3,4.

William E. Melahn, A.B.
Psychology
1242 Augustina Avenue
Far Rockaway, New York
Sodality 1,2,3; Freshman Track; Varsity Track 2,3,4 Co-Captain; Aquinas Academy 3,4; German Club 3 Secretary; Metropolitan Club 1,2,3,4.

William J. Menosky, Jr., B.S.
Physics
322 Prospect Drive
Stratford, Connecticut
Math-Physics Society 1,2,3,4.

Robert A. Metzger, A.B.
Psychology
320 Arbor Drive
Southport, Connecticut
Democratic Club 3,4; Bridgeport Area Club 3,4.

Kenneth F. Misa, B.S.S.
Psychology
102-20 217th Street
Queens Village, New York
Sociology Club 3; Bios Logos Academy 3,4; Spanish Club 1,2; Metropolitan Club 1,2,3,4.

Frank H. Murphy, B.S.
Physics
82 Buckingham Drive
Ramsey, New Jersey
Student Council 3, Cardinal Key Society 4, Math-Physics Society 1,2,3,4; Resident Council 2; Jersey Club 1,2,3 Secretary, 4

Richard E. Nanfeldt, B.S.

Chemistry

27 Young Street
New Haven, Connecticut

Manor 4; Honor Society 4; Dean's List 3; Stag 3,4; Chemistry Club 2,3,4 Treasurer; Math-Physics Society 3,4; German Club 3 President, 4 President; Freshman Orientation 3; New Haven Area Club 2,3,4.

Harold J. Phelan, B.S.S.

Psychology

66 Jarvis Street
Cheshire, Connecticut

Bios Logos Academy 3; Waterbury Area Club 3,4.

Ralph V. Resta, B.S.

Biology

838 Clark Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut

Glee Club 3,4; Mendel Club 4; Dante Academy 3.

James M. Richardson, B.S.

Biology

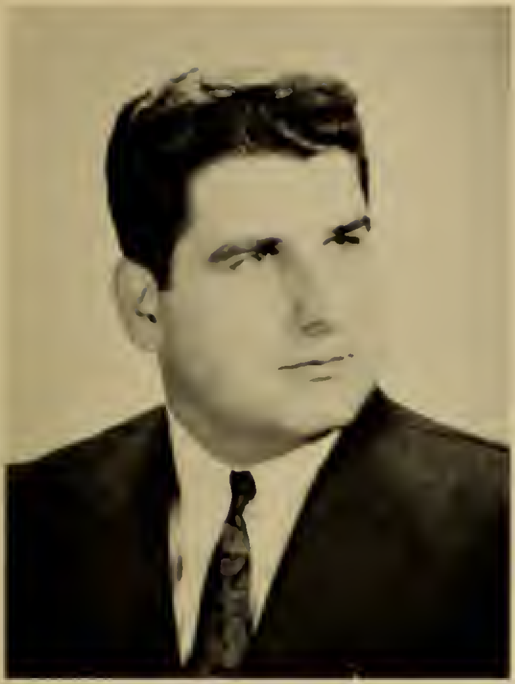
565 Orchard Street
New Haven, Connecticut

Michael J. Rinaldi, B.S.

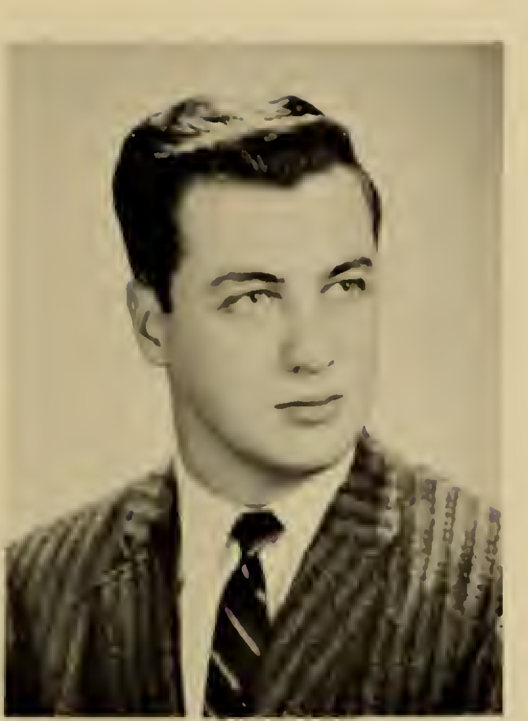
Biology

129 Platt Street
Waterbury, Connecticut

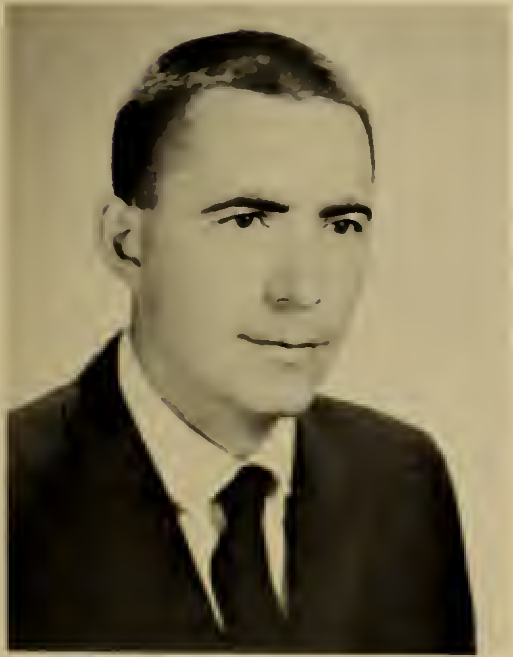
Mendel Club 2,3,4; Math-Physics Society 3; Republican Club 3; Freshman Track and Cross-Country; Freshman Orientation 3; Waterbury Area Club 1,2,3,4.



Walter O. Rinko, Jr., B.S.
Biology
33 Rocky Ridge Drive
Trumbull, Connecticut
Mendel Club 1,2,3,4; St. Cecilia Society 2,3,4.

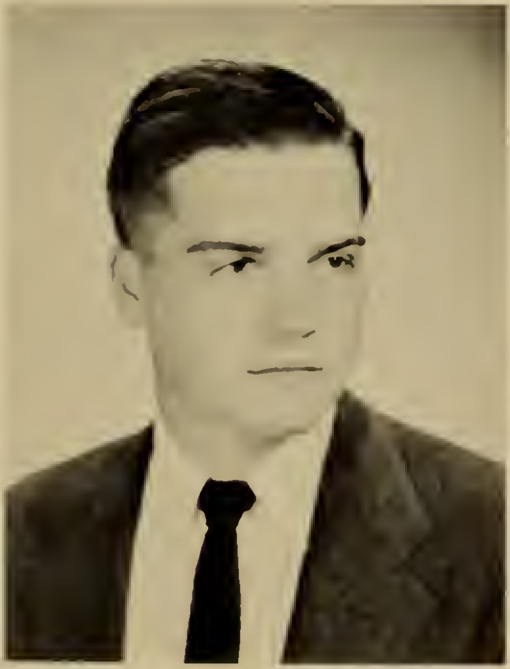


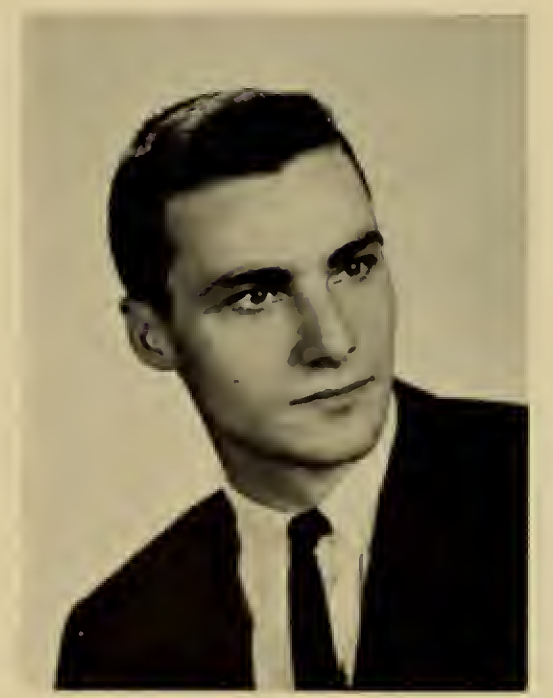
Paul Rodriguez, B.S.
Biology
142 North Main Street
Southington, Connecticut
Mendel Club 1,2,3,4; Waterbury Area Club 1; Hartford Area Club 2,3; Intramurals 1,2,3.



Raymond E. Ryan, B.S.
Physics
3 Carlson Court
East Norwalk, Connecticut

Antanas V. Saulaitis, B.S.
Chemistry
Old Colonial Road
Oakville, Connecticut
Sodality 1,2,3,4; Honor Society 4; New Frontiers 3 Science Editor, 4; Chemistry Club 1,2,3,4; Nucleus 3,4 Editor; Canisius Academy 3 Secretary, 4 Vice-President; Bellarmine Debating Society 1,2; Freshman Orientation 3; Waterbury Area Club 1,2,3,4.

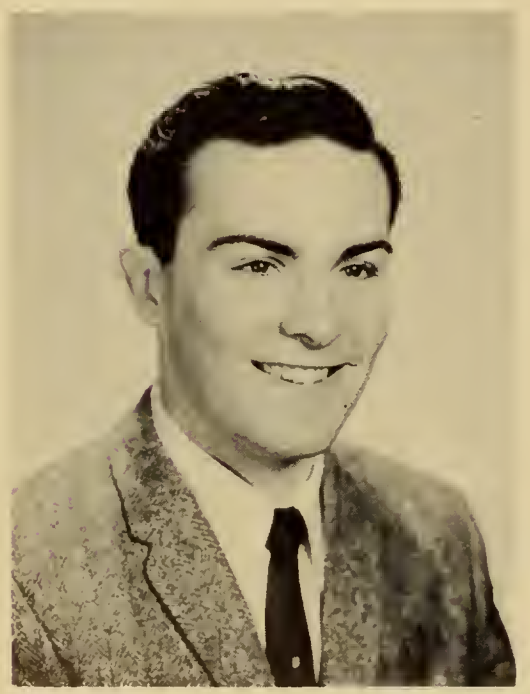




David L. Shay, A.B.
Psychology
41 Maplewood Road
New Haven, Connecticut
Student Council 3, Cardinal Key Society 3,4, Stag 2,3,4, Bios Logos Academy 3; Freshman Orientation 3, Junior Weekend Comm. 3, New Haven Area Club 2,3,4

Joseph J. Sizensky, B.S.
Chemistry
75 Vesper Street
Fairfield, Connecticut
Chemistry Club 1,2,3 Secretary, 4.

Lawrence J. Skane, A.B.
Mathematics
138 Laurel Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Glee Club 1,2,3,4; Math-Physics Society 1,2,3,4; Democratic Club 3,4; Freshman Orientation 3.



Emile G. Smith, B.S.
Physics
713 Brewster Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Glee Club 2; Math-Physics Society 2,3,4.

James R. Stanizeski, B.S.
Physics
14 Eagle Road
Norwalk, Connecticut
Math-Physics Society 1,2,3,4; Democratic Club 2,3; Freshman Orientation 3,4; Norwalk Area Club 1,2,3,4.

John T. Tokarski, Jr., B.S.
Physics
472 Wilmot Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Math-Physics Society 1,2,3 Treasurer, 4; Democratic Club 3,4; Freshman Orientation 3,4; Bridgeport Area Club 4.

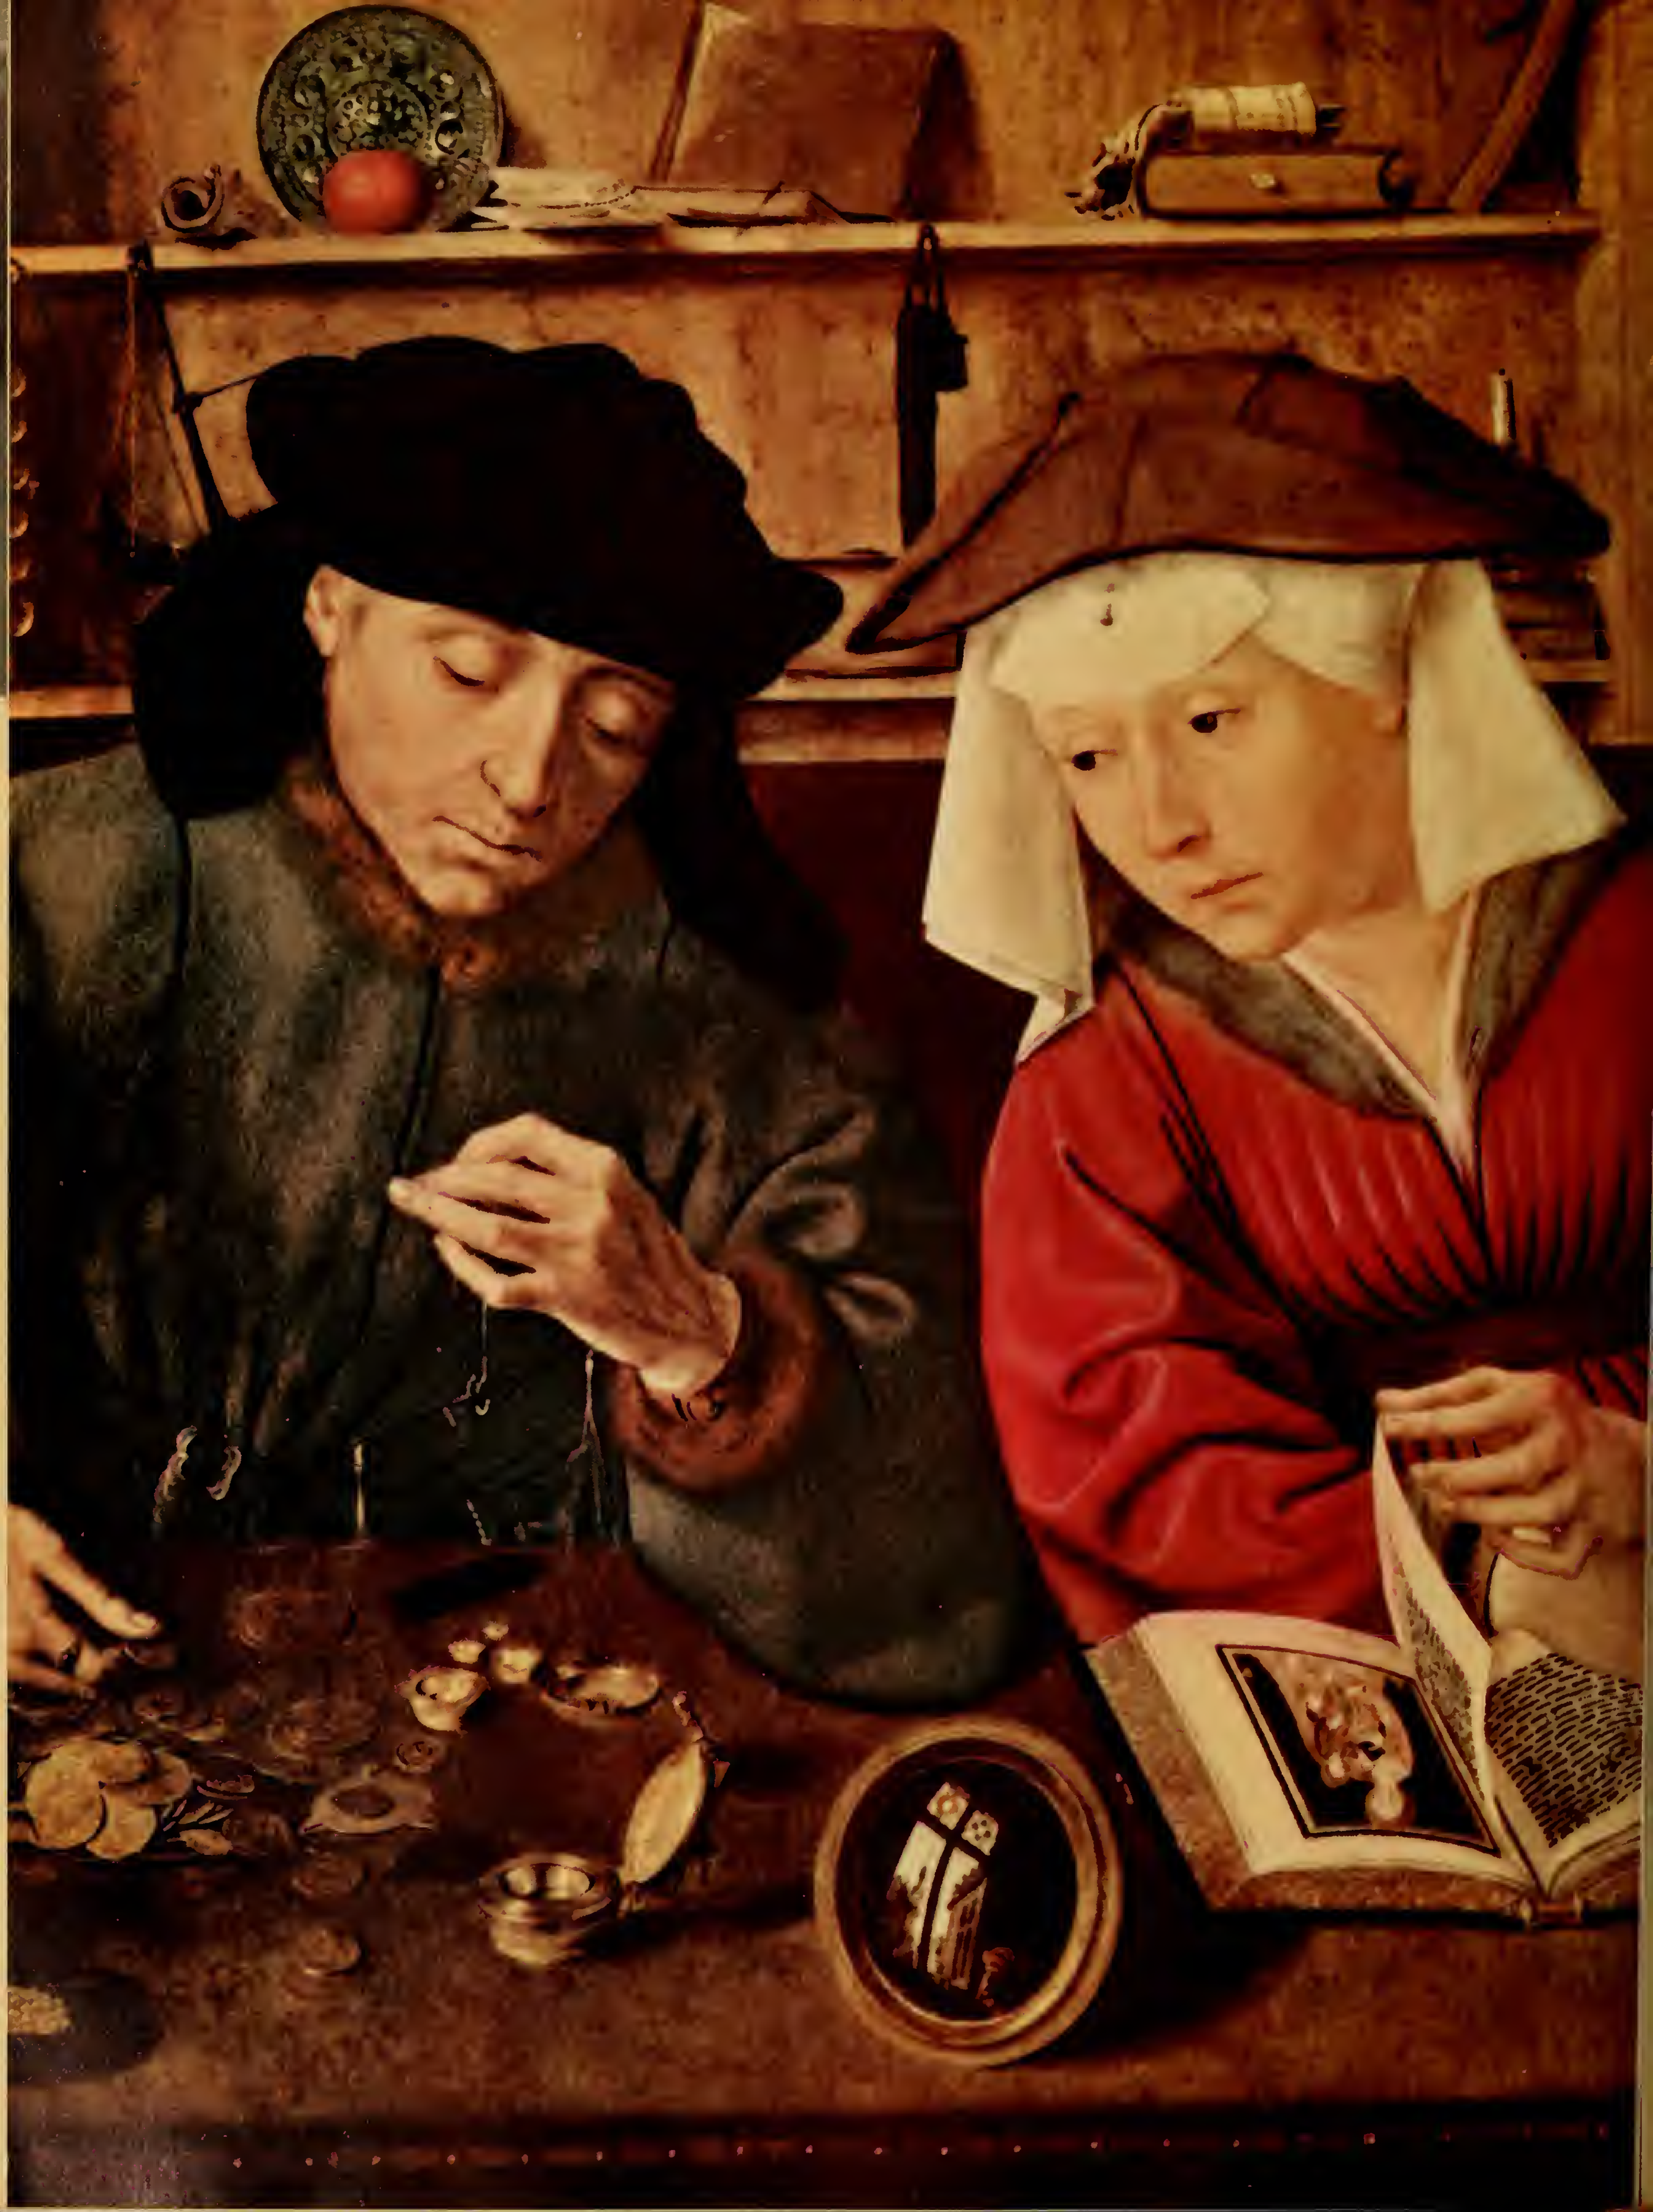
Richard E. Trabert, A.B.
Biology
8 Ohio Avenue
Norwalk, Connecticut
Manor 3; Honor Society 4; Dean's List 2,3,4; Mendel Club 1,2,3,4; Canisius Academy 2,3,4; Democratic Club 3,4; Freshman Orientation 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 3; Norwalk Area Club 1,2,3 Treasurer, 4.

Thomas J. Ungerland, B.S.
Physics
35-05 167th Street
Flushing, New York
Stag 3,4 Sports Editor; Math-Physics Society 1,2,3,4; Freshman Basketball; Varsity Basketball 2; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Metropolitan Club 1,2; Intramurals 3,4.

Anthony J. Vallone, A.B.
Biology
30 Garfield Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Mendel Club 1,2,3,4; St. Cecilia Society 3,4; Bridgeport Area Club 2.

Gustav M. Vojacsek, B.S.
Physics
775 Norman Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Math-Physics Society 1,2,3,4; German Club 1,2; Metropolitan Club 2,3.

Ned J. Wisneski, B.S.
Chemistry
169 Grand Street
Middletown, Connecticut
Sodality 2,3,4; Chemistry Club 2,3,4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3,4; Mendel Club 2,3,4; Aquinas Academy 3,4; Canisius Academy 3,4; German Club 3 Treasurer, 4; C.I.S.L. 3.



"To keep the vocational spirit out of the universities proved impossible. So manifold were the needs of the business world for men trained to write letters that a practical rhetoric shorn of linguistic and literary study came into existence. . . . The niceties of Latin writings and the curious details of Latin classics were scorned by students who demanded instruction in practical things. This vogue of the 'business rhetoric' explains, in part at least, why the study of Latin literature and language declined in the universities of the late Middle Age."

Lucas, Henry S., The Renaissance and the Reformation, p. 181

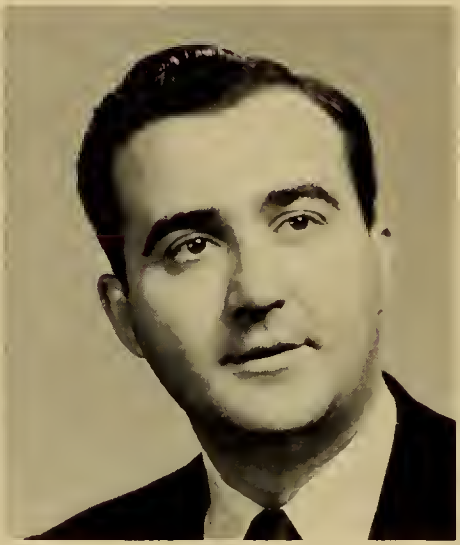
Business

◄ The Banker and His Wife. Quentin Massys.

Business Faculty



Mr. Guy R. Barbano
Assistant Professor of Accounting

Mr. Thomas J. Fitzpatrick
Chairman, Departments of Accounting and Business
Associate Professor of Accounting and Business

Mr. Kenneth M. Kunsch
Assistant Professor of Business

Mr. Stephen J. O'Brien
Assistant Professor of Business

Mr. Robert O'Neil
Instructor in Industrial Management

Mr. Thomas J. Pinkman
Lecturer in Business

Mr. Robert F. Pitt
Assistant Professor of Business

Seniors in Business

Richard D. Bacon, B.B.A.
Marketing
69 Dearfield Drive
Greenwich, Connecticut
Marketing Club 3,4; Vets Club 3,4

Robert J. Balcerzak, B.B.A.
Industrial Management
10 Homestead Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Business Club 1,2,3,4 Secretary; S.A.M. 3,4; Vets Club 1,2,3 Secretary, 4; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,3,4.

Charles R. Bard, B.B.A.
Accounting
22 Second Street
Norwalk, Connecticut
Business Club 1,3,4; Vets Club 3,4; Norwalk Area Club 2,3,4.

Richard A. Bassett, Jr., B.B.A.
Accounting
60 Camden Street
Fairfield, Connecticut
Business Club 1,2,3,4; S.A.M. 3,4; Democratic Club 2,4; St. Ives Guild 4; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,3,4.

John T. Bruzas, B.B.A.
Industrial Management
34 Elmwood Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
S.A.M. 3,4 Vice-President; Marketing Club 4; Varsity Baseball 2,3,4; Vets Club 3.

Rocco L. Calabrese, B.B.A.
Accounting
121 Wall Street
Waterbury, Connecticut
Business Club 1,2,3,4; S.A.M. 3,4; Spanish Club 1,2; Vets Club 1,2,3,4; Waterbury Area Club 1,2,3,4.

Joseph F. Charlow, Jr., B.B.A.
General Business
53 Connecticut Avenue
New Britain, Connecticut
Alpha Sigma Nu 4 Vice-President; Honor Society 4; Cardinal Key Society 4; Class Treasurer 2; Business Club 1,2,3 Treasurer, 4; S.A.M. 3 President, 4 President; Canisius Academy 2,3,4 President; K. of C. Ignatian Council 1,2,3,4; Hartford Area Club 1,2 Treasurer, 3,4.

Donald J. Ciampi, B.B.A.
Marketing
149 Bracewood Road
Waterbury, Connecticut
Business Club 4; Marketing Club 3,4; Waterbury Area Club 3,4 President.

John C. D'Angelo, B.B.A.
Marketing
783 Congress Avenue
Waterbury, Connecticut
Marketing Club 3,4; Waterbury Area Club 3,4.

John O. Dunne, B.B.A.
Marketing
125 Flagler Avenue
Cheshire, Connecticut

Thomas J. Flanagan, B.B.A.
General Business
144 Salem Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Business Club 2,3; Bridgeport Area Club 2,3,4.

Francis J. Furey, B.B.A.
Accounting
167 Pearl Street
Thompsonville, Connecticut
Student Council 4; Cardinal Key Society 3,4; Business Club 1,2,3,4; Democratic Club 3; N.F.C.C.S. 1,2; C.I.S.L. 1,2; Freshman Orientation 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 2; Vets Club 1,2 Treasurer, 3 Vice-President, 4 President; Hartford Area Club 1,2,3,4.

Joseph K. Gabriel, B.B.A.
Accounting
136 Dill Road
Fairfield, Connecticut
Business Club 1,2,3 Vice-President, 4 President; Marketing Club 4; S.A.M. 3,4; Dramatic Society 2,3; New Frontiers 4 Business Manager; St. Ives Guild 3,4 Secretary; K. of C. Ignatian Council 3,4; Freshman Orientation 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 3. Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,3,4.

Domenick J. Galluzzo, B.B.A.
Marketing
99 Beardsley Parkway
Trumbull, Connecticut
Business Club 1,2; Marketing Club 3,4 Treasurer; St. Ives Guild 4; Bridgeport Area Club 1,2,4.

Alvan F. Geisler, B.B.A.
Marketing
24 Aspen Road
Scarsdale, New York
Business Club 4 Marketing Club 3,4 Vice-President. Vets Club 2; Metropolitan Club 3,4 Intramurals 3

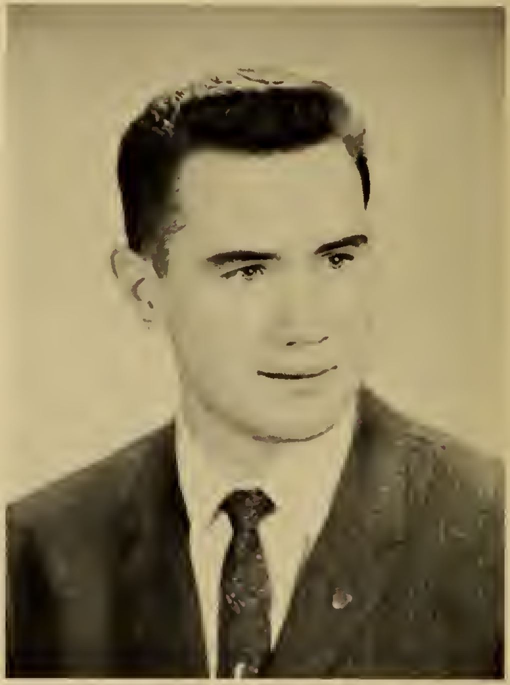
Arthur A. Gelston, B.B.A.
Accounting
1063 East 29th Street
Brooklyn, New York
Business Club 1,2,3,4; Resident Council 1; Metropolitan Club 1,2,3,4; Intramurals 1,2.

John E. Glennon, B.B.A.
Accounting
16 Pinewood Road
Plandome, New York
Business Club 3,4, Metropolitan Club 3,4, Intramurals 3,4

Raymond G. Heche, B.B.A.
Marketing
871 Westfield Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Business Club 2,3,4; Marketing Club 3 Secretary, 4; Democratic Club 4; St. Ives Guild 3,4; Bridgeport Area Club 3,4.

Peter R. Houser, B.B.A.
General Business
Candlewood Isle
New Fairfield, Connecticut
Business Club 1,4; Marketing Club 3 Secretary, 4 Secretary; Freshman Track and Cross-Country; Varsity Cross-Country 2; Varsity Track 2,3,4 Co-Captain; Spike Shoe Club 3,4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 1,2,3,4; Metropolitan Club 1,2,3 Treasurer, 4 Vice-President; Intramurals 1,3.

Edward C. Jablonsky, B.B.A.
Accounting
879 Lindley Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Business Club 1,2,3,4 Treasurer; S.A.M. 4.



Francis J. Lee, B.B.A.
General Business
2 Brookfield Street
Worcester, Massachusetts
Democratic Club 4; Winter Carnival Comm. 3; Bay State Club 3,4; Intramurals 3,4.

Richard D. Lorenzo, B.B.A.
Marketing
71 Randolph Avenue
Meriden, Connecticut
Business Club 1,2; Marketing Club 3,4; Varsity Baseball 2,3,4; Freshman Basketball.

James F. Lynch, B.B.A.
Marketing
31 Faneuil Place
New Rochelle, New York
Marketing Club 3,4; Vets Club 3,4.

John P. McGough, B.B.A.
General Business
Split Rock Road
Syosset, New York
Business Club 4; Marketing Club 4; St. Cecilia Society 4; Metropolitan Club 3,4.

Salvatore J. Menzo, B.B.A.
Marketing
215 Campbell Avenue
West Haven, Connecticut
Marketing Club 3,4. New Haven Area Club 3,4

Harold J. Millbauer, Jr., B.B.A.
Industrial Management
136 Longfellow Avenue
Fairfield, Connecticut
Business Club 1,2,3,4; S.A.M. 3,4 Secretary-Treasurer; Marketing Club 4; French Club 1,2; St. Ives Guild 4; Bridgeport Area Club 4.

John D. Mulford, B.B.A.
Accounting
340 Center Road
Easton, Connecticut
Business Club 1,2,3,4; S.A.M. 4.

John J. Murray, B.B.A.
General Business
237 Division Avenue
Massapequa, New York
Manor 4; Business Club 1,2,3; Varsity Baseball 2; Freshman Orientation 3; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Winter Carnival Comm. 4; Metropolitan Club 1,2,3,4; Intramurals 1,2,3,4

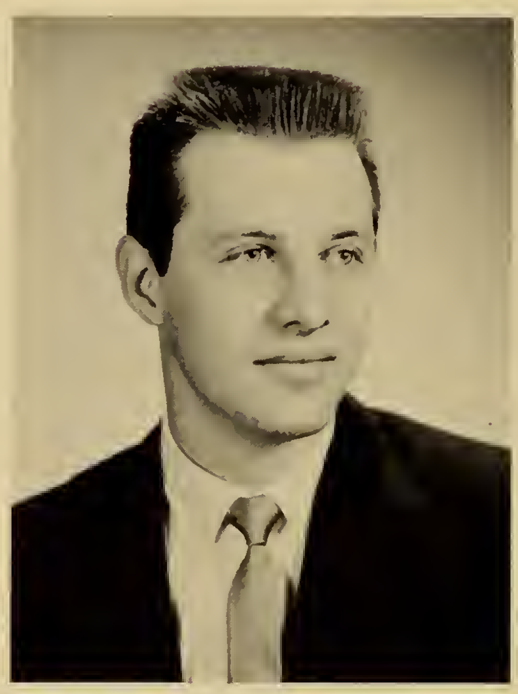
Ralph G. Okenquist, B.B.A.
General Business
1693 South Main Street
Cheshire, Connecticut
Manor 4; Business Club 1,2,3 Secretary, 4 Vice-President; Republican Club 2; K. of C. Ignatian Council 2,3,4; Athletic Association 3,4; Hartford Area Club 1,3; New Haven Area Club 4; Intramurals 2,3.

Louis F. Parent, Jr., B.B.A.
Marketing
123 Deane Street
New Bedford, Massachusetts
Cardinal Key Society 3,4 President; Honor Society 4; Stag 2 News Editor, 3 Managing Editor, 4 Managing Editor; Class Vice-President 2; Dramatic Society 2; Business Club 1,2,3,4; Marketing Club 3,4; S.A.M. 4; K. of C. Ignatian Council 1,2,3,4; Freshman Orientation 3; Junior Weekend Comm. 3; Bay State Club 1,2 Treasurer, 3 Treasurer, 4; Vets Club 1,2,3,4.

Wesley H. Paulson, B.B.A.
General Business
3636 Greystone Avenue
New York, New York
Business Club 1,2,3,4 Secretary; Spanish Club 1,2; Athletic Association 3,4; Metropolitan Club 1,2,3,4; Intramurals 1,2,3,4.

Leonard E. Romanczuk, B.B.A.
Industrial Management
229 Ledgeside Avenue
Waterbury, Connecticut
Business Club 2,3,4; S.A.M. 3,4; Vets Club 3,4.

Thomas F. Ryan, B.B.A.
Accounting
2 Homer Street
Norwalk, Connecticut
Business Club 1,2,3,4; Marketing Club 4; S.A.M. 4; Vets Club 1,2,3 Treasurer, 4; Norwalk Area Club 1,2,3,4.



Joseph S. Spodnick, B.B.A.
Accounting
183 Deacon Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Business Club 3,4.

Wallace L. Timmeny, Jr., B.B.A.
General Business
211 Louisiana Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Business Club 2,3,4; Marketing Club 3 Treasurer, 4; Republican Club 3,4; St. Ives Guild 3,4 Vice-President; Vets Club 3,4; Bridgeport Area Club 2,3,4.

Peter E. Vath, B.B.A.

General Business

71 Benqey Field Drive
East Williston, New York
Business Club 1,2,3,4; Freshman Track; Varsity Track 2,3,4; Metropolitan Club 1,2,3,4; Intramurals 1,2,3,4.

Anthony D. Verrilli, B.B.A.

Marketing

165 Horace Street
Bridgeport, Connecticut
Business Club 3,4, Stag 1. Marketing Club 3,4 President. Winter Carnival Comm 2,3,4 Bridgeport Area Club 3,4.

Peter J. Weberg, B.B.A.

Accounting

27 Cady Street
Springdale, Connecticut
Business Club 1,2,3,4; S.A.M. 4.

Robert W. Whelan, B.B.A.

General Business

81 Charles Street
Stratford, Connecticut
Business Club 1, S.A.M. 4, Bridgeport Area Club 4.

History of the Class of 1961

"Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. Sorry to have kept you waiting so long, but you know how things come up. But here I am—the fool, the hero, the clown, the psychoanalyst, the class historian—come to tell you all about your lives over the past four years. Four years is usually quite a short period of time; but when they contain and are filled by an experience which has come and has gone and will never come again, they can be quite a long time. Not that such things are relative or subjective—of course not. We all know so very very well that everything is objective in every way at every time in every place. And yet—well, you know what I mean.

"You are probably wondering how I, unfortunate mortal, happen to be here tonight. In every class there are at least two fools. I am one. The other is the man who, out of ignorance more than kindness, consents to furnish his classmates with a verbal and pictorial record of their four years at college. I encountered him recently in a frantic state of mind, i.e., him, not me. It seems that in these Memoirs of his, he had left a sprawling three page spread in which the events of the four years were to be pulled together in one two-thousand-word narrative. Some had already tried, but were unsuccessful for various sundry reasons, and now he found himself with three empty pages and a terrifyingly close deadline. Charitable being that I am, I asked if I could help in any way. One thing led to another, and—well, use your imagination.

"No sooner had the word 'Yes' passed from my lips than I was subjected to a brilliant and lucid harangue about objectivity, humor, color, etc., etc., etc., and all that is implict in these. To this I replied, 'How could I be anything else after four years of Jesuit training?' He accepted my assurances more out of desperation than confidence, and so here I am.

Joseph Cannizzaro, President

"As you all remember, it was Indian summer when we arrived at Fairfield. (Freshman year we all read a book [I was the twelfth to read my copy] by an ex-schoolteacher, ex-wife from New Hampshire which began with this same Indian summer theme. Let me assure those innocent souls who might hestitate to read on that the resemblance ends here.) The formal events of that first week—Stag Night, St. Joe's, Communion Breakfast—were commandeered by 'Jolly Phil' Guerin. During the free time our more athletic brethren gained control of the basketball courts by sheer force of numbers; those natatorially inclined found their way to Jennings Beach; and the 'aesthetes' soon instinctively discovered a high school named after Roger Ludlowe and a candy store named for Cindy. Tired out by these various pursuits, we furthered our concept of community by recuperating together at an establishment run by a fine gentleman named John Sullivan, Permittee.

"When frosh elections rolled around, we proved we were a liberal group by putting in office a man who had attained the distinction of the first weekend campus. Rumor had it that this drastic punishment was a wicked and unjust plot of that mysterious A.J.C., S.J., whose ironic (note that I do not say sarcastic) missives were continually cropping up on our bulletin boards during that first year. We experienced the trials and joys which are met with by every freshman class—classes, exams, retreat. During November we were hit by an epidemic of Asiatic flu, but thanks to the Herculean efforts of our resident nurse, Mary Kirk, with permanent residence on Loyola I, it was soon conquered. And when, in December, the Library was moved to within walking distance of the dorm, some of us even acquired the habit of using it.

"In every class history, a good deal of space must be allotted to the school's major sport. Let us take care of this all at once by a rapid survey of the basketball teams over our four years. Three things stand out during this time: the Varsity were Tri-State champs the past two years, the four year reign of Art Crawford as Stag hoop star, and '61's frosh year raid on U.B. Dick Panuczak was the freshman squad's top scorer, and Captain Crawford has been the perennial top rebounder, in addition to his many fine scoring efforts. Other '61 varsity stars were John Bruzas, Dick Panuczak, Dick Lorenzo, Bob Ritter, and Frank Tracy in baseball; Peter Houser, Bill Melahn, Pete Vath, Dick Medve, Bob Bitar, and Jay Simpson in Track; and John Dowd, Bob Melican, and John Faulkner in Tennis.

"With the Sports Department taken care of in proper style, let us return to our mainstream. Our first real experience of college social life was that memorable Winter Carnival which had snow as its main feature. This was followed by an impromptu two-day vacation. Other memorable events of freshman year were the formation of the short-lived Resident Council, the unprecedented number of campus auto accidents and fires, the Drama Society's production of Time Limit, the post-game parties sponsored by social-minded area clubs, the Junior Weekend at Longshore with Billy Butterfield, and the announcement that a new gym was to be built (at last fulfilling the promises made to so many basketball players'). With the election of Bob MacMurray, Lou Parent, Joe Cannizzaro and Joe Charlow as future class officers, the stage was set for sophomore year.

"The task of the class historian now begins to grow harder. The school year, you know, is a dreadfully boring thing. The events remain the same year after year—classes, exams, teachers, Winter Carnival, Junior Weekend, etc.; it is only the names that change. Luckily our sophomore year did see a few unusual happenings.

"When we arrived in September, we were greeted by a new rector, Rev. James E. FitzGerald, S.J., whose fierce and zealous opposition to Communism has continued to push us on to new heights for the past three years. When we returned from our abbreviated Christmas vacation, full of pride in ourselves for the sacrifice we had made, we were surprised to learn that Mike Kelly, one of our more popular members, whose teams had been runners-up in both intramural football and intramural volleyball, had chosen to escape this disgrace by entering a seminary. His memory, however, lasted no longer than the newly inaugurated Ski Weekend, an innovation with a history shorter than that of the Resident Council. This 'first of two annuals' was featured by the successes and failures (i.e., those who were caught and those who weren't) of Father Nickerson's 'Ski Patrol.' The intramural basketball league had its beginnings that year at Wakeman's Gym in Southport, largely through the efforts of two of our classmates from Worcester. Sophomore year also saw a running feud between Father Caffrey and Mike Fratantuno in the columns of the Stag. Les and Larry Elgart playing at the Winter Carnival, the Drama Society's productions of Teahouse of the August Moon and Detective Story, and the Class of '61 began to get control of the Stag with the appointment of Art Funk, Geoff Stokes, Lou Parent, Paul Fargis, and Bob Crowley to various assistant editorships, thus preparing the way for . . . but that comes next year. With the election of Joe Cannizzaro as junior class president, the stage was again set for the following year. After another spring featured by the beach, with schoolwork and exams becoming more and more of a sidelight, we bade farewell for another fourteen weeks.

"Junior year was the big one for us. It was probably the most exciting of the four. Many of us arrived early to take part in Freshman Orientation Week. This was highlighted by the memorable tug-of-war through the pond, and the dunking of chairman Art Mannion. Some of the 'minor' events of the year were the dedication of the new Gym, the formation of the Cardinal Key Society, opening game against Holy Cross, the Tri-State Championship, Father Kennealy's speech on segregation, the Drama Society's productions of Glass Menagerie and An Enemy of the People, the presentation of something called Served With an Onion, written by two members of our class who shall mercifully remain nameless, and the Bellarmine Lecture by Martin C. D'Arcy, S.J. But all this was as nothing in a year which was dominated by the personalities of John F. X. Warburton and Gerry O'Keeffe, and the successes of the University Glee Club.

Daniel Kiley, Secretary

Gerald O'Keeffe, Vice-President

"The events of the 1960 Dogwood Festival are described in detail elsewhere in this book, and shall not be repeated here. Nor is this the place to speak of the financial aspects of said weekend (this too has been mentioned elsewhere ad nauseam). The class historian's job is to detail the accomplishments of his class, and it can well be said that the 1960 Dogwood Festival saw the most ambitious of all the innovations introduced by the Class of 1961—the presentation on campus of top-flight entertainment talent in the persons of Carmen McRae and the Newport Youth Band.

"The second main event of junior year was the rejuvenation of the Stag under the editorship of John F. X. Warburton. Now this is a subject on which one must tread very lightly. It is practically impossible to utter a word about it without disagreeing in some respect or to some degree with everyone else. One fact that cannot be denied is that student interest in and perusal of the paper during John's tenure was greatly increased. Another fact that becomes evident when one is doing research for a treatise of this sort, which involves paging through all the newspapers since freshman year, is the 'before and after' character of the paper between then and now. Lest this seem like a double entendre, let me frankly state that in my opinion the school owes John a great debt of gratitude for the changes he has brought about.

"Finally, it was in 1960 that the Fairfield Glee Club won their first Catholic Intercollegiate Glee Club Festival title. The previous year we had finished second, in a hotly contested decision, to our sister republic from Worcester, but the 1960 victory, coupled with a repeat performance this year, definitively established our superiority. It would be impossible to name all the members of the Class of '61 who have contributed to the Glee Club's success. We must confine ourselves to mentioning this year's officers, Steve Dempsey, Ed Kane, Carl Cofini, and Bob Bitar,—and Paul Jones and Steve Kristofak, who, as members of the famous Bensonians, have contributed a more than proportionate share in spreading the Glee Club's fame.

Ned Mencio, Treasurer

"The last weeks of junior year saw the members of our class assume the leadership of all the major clubs on campus. Hank O'Hagan became Drama Society ruler, Steve Dempsey prexy of the Glee Club, Lou Parent president of the Cardinal Key Society, Jim Devlin prefect of the Sodality, Dave Royston president of the Student Council, Geoff Stokes editor of New Frontiers, Bert Anderson, Bob Bianchi, and Andy Fezza heads of the science clubs, Joe Charlow, Joe Gabriel, and Tony Verilli top men in the business organizations, and Art Mannion editor-in-chief of this silly book. Joe Cannizzaro was unanimously re-elected class president, with Gerry O'Keeffe, Dan Kiley, and Ned Mencio his three fellow officers. And so, for better or for worse, we were ready for the 'beginning of the end,' i.e., senior year.

"The spirit and tone of this year was much different from that of the first three. The atmosphere was much more serious. After all, the security of knowing where you would be and what you would be doing the following September was now gone, at least for most of us. Moreover, the leadership of the various campus organizations imposed new obligations which had to be fulfilled. There were not so many light-hearted moments as in earlier years, and those that there were often not so thoroughly enjoyed.

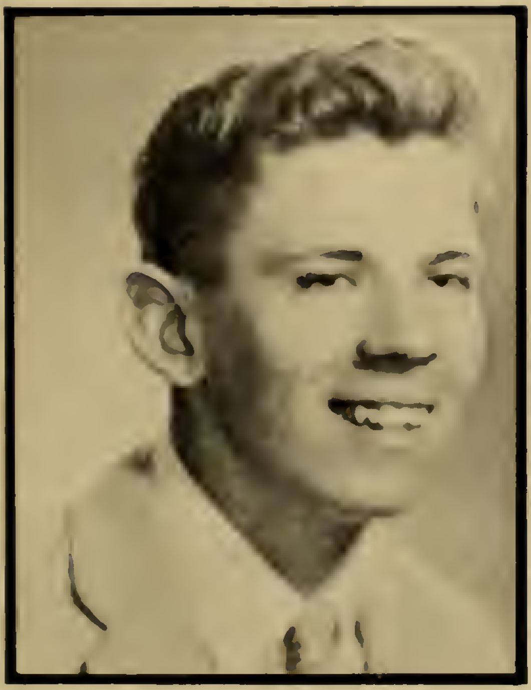
"It was in senior year that the character of our class was definitively established as intellectualist, as opposed to activist. External evidence of this was given daily by the long and serious conversations which were held in Loyola Cafeteria both between and after meals. And yet it was that healthy kind of intellectualism that leads to action. This could be seen in the institution of an Alpha Sigma Nu chapter on campus, the three second semester seminars on contemporary American problems sponsored by N.F.C.C.S., the newly formed student-faculty-administration conference, held to facilitate communication between the three strata of university society, and the founding of the Seven Arts Society, largely through the efforts of Goeff Stokes and Hank O'Hagan. This latter is especially deserving of praise. Motivated entirely by student initiative, the Society presented three programs during its first year, two of them folk concerts featuring Carolyn Hester, and the third entitled An Evening of Film Comedy, all of which were very successful. And last but far from least, the Drama Society triumphantly produced Hamlet, perhaps the greatest play ever written, and certainly the most impressive performance ever by a Fairfield drama group.

"All this is not to imply that social life underwent a marked decline. Far from it. The Winter Carnival, under the chairmanship of Bill Russell, was a great success, although even here a 'cultural' tinge crept in with the presentation of the Clancy Brothers and the Chad Mitchell Trio at the 'jazz' concert. The number of classmates making the traditional Easter trips to Florida and Bermuda reached its peak. And still to come is the wildly social Senior Week, being planned by Paul Coughlin.

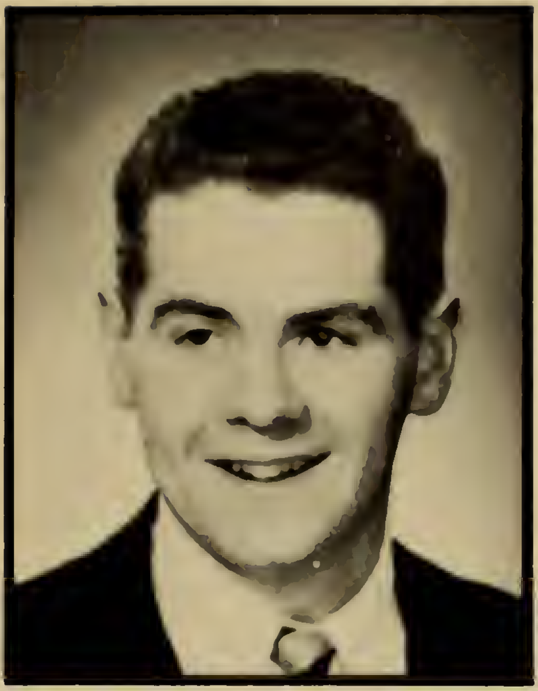
"Time (i.e., space) is now up. With Senior Week and graduation, the history of the Class of 1961 comes to an end. It is traditional to include a summation after such a treatise as this. Perhaps this can best be done by quoting two judgments of our class made by two different faculty members, one during freshman year and the other in 1961. Freshman year's careless disregard of most of the rules earned us the appellation of the 'worst class in the school's history.' By senior year the rules were still disregarded, but now it was more out of reasoned conviction that it was indefensible to demand attendance at two weekday Masses, and foolish to require seniors to be in one hour later than freshmen on weekends, rather than out of any youthful exuberance. These are just cited as two random examples, and no judgment is made as to their merit or, as in the case of the former, lack of it. But now, although we were still credited with 'very little external discipline,' we had at least earned the reputation of having 'a tremendous amount of internal discipline.' This, I think, indicates a notable step forward."

Frank J. McDonald

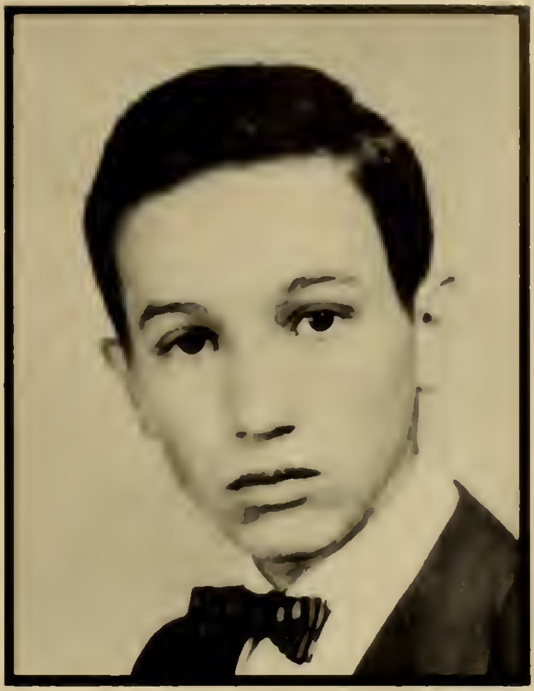
The end of the Jesuit Inquisition



Raymond J. Burke

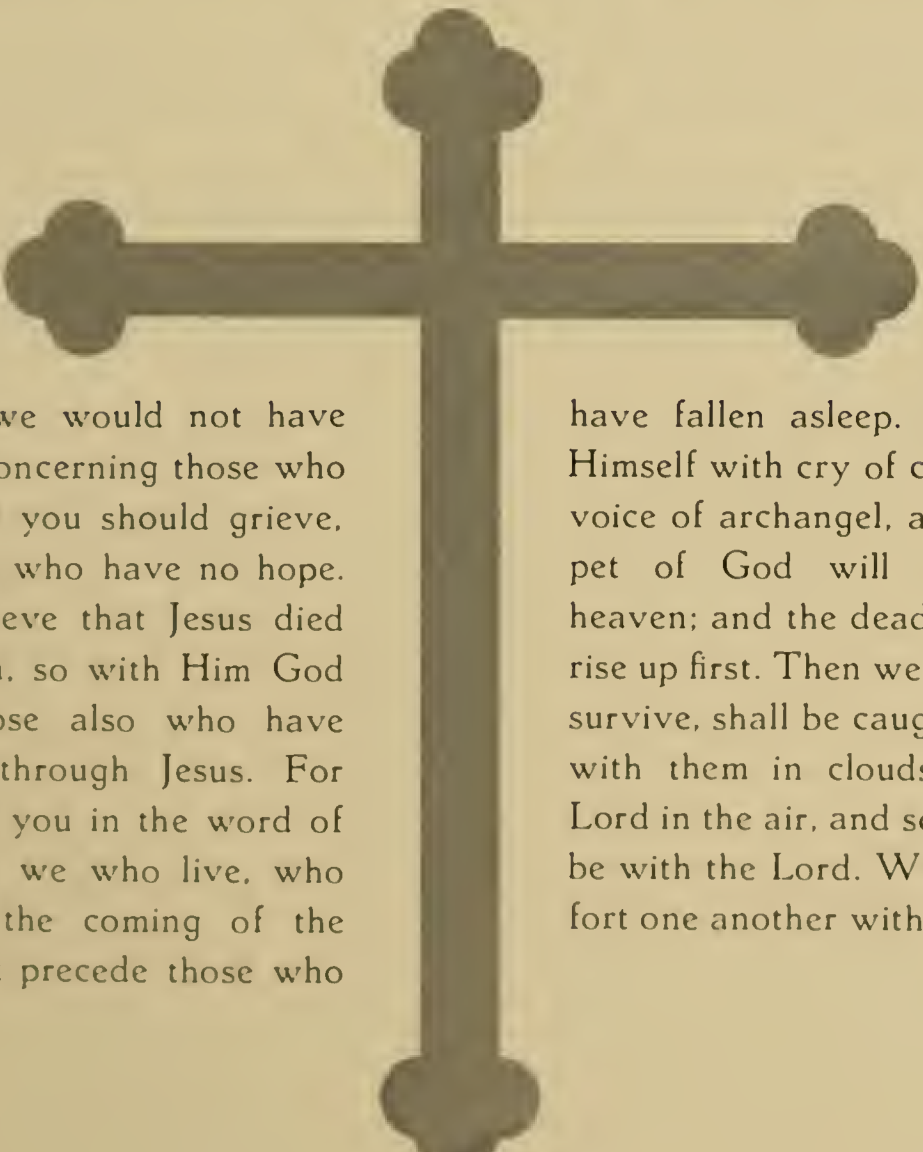


John P. Gahan



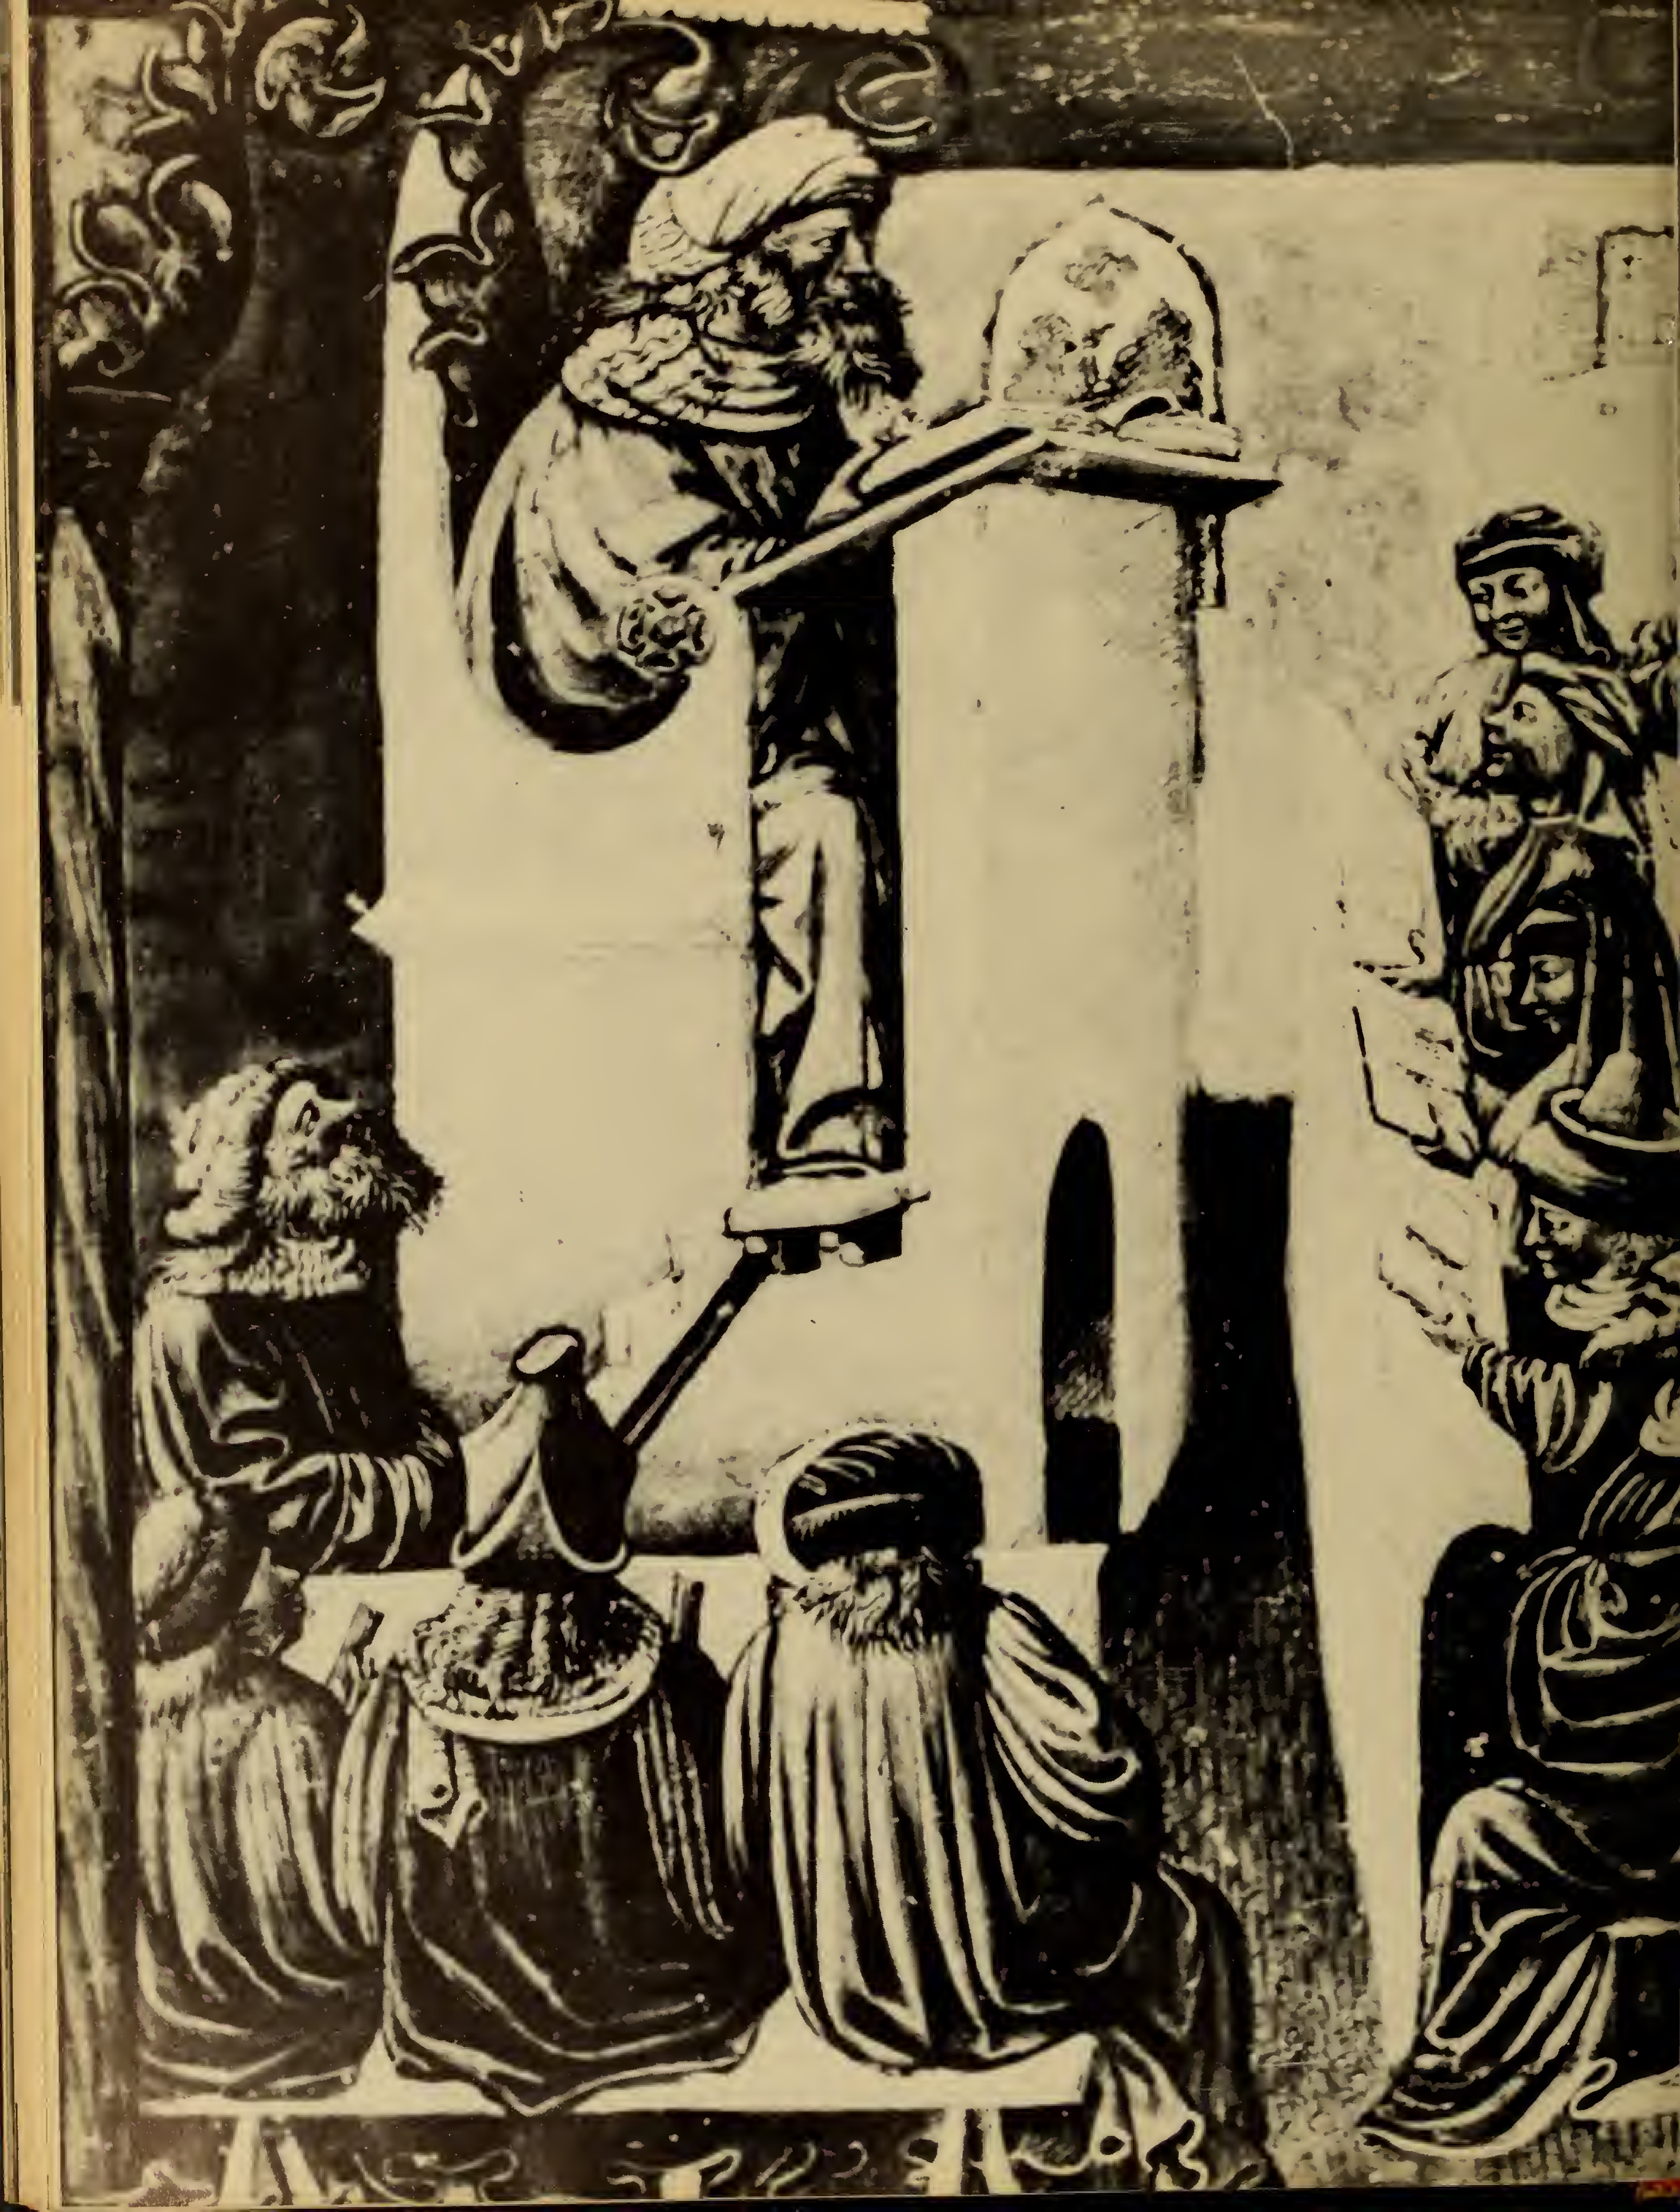
Fabrizio N. Senni

Requiem Aeternam Dona Eis, Domine



"Brethren: we would not have you ignorant concerning those who are asleep, lest you should grieve, even as others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, so with Him God will bring those also who have fallen asleep through Jesus. For this we say to you in the word of the Lord, that we who live, who survive until the coming of the Lord, shall not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord Himself with cry of command, with voice of archangel, and with trumpet of God will descend from heaven; and the dead in Christ will rise up first. Then we who live, who survive, shall be caught up together with them in clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall ever be with the Lord. Wherefore, comfort one another with these words."

1 Thess. 4, 13-18



"When the young man arrives he registers from Ulm; his parents are in moderate circumstances; he has come to study. He is then duly hazed after the German fashion, which treats the candidate as an unclean beast with horns and tusks which must be removed by officious fellow-students, who also hear his confession of sin and fix as the penance a good dinner for the crowd. He begins his studies by attending three lectures a day, and learns to champion nominalism against realism and the comedies of Terence against the law, and to discuss the advantages of various universities and the price of food and the quality of the beer in university towns. Then we find him and his room-mate quarreling over a mislaid book; rushing at the first sound of the bell to dinner, where they debate the relative merits of veal and beans. . . ."

Haskins, Charles Homer.
The Rise of the Universities, pp. 69-70

Underclassmen

◄ Instructor lecturing to his students.
Engraving, ca. 1612

Class of 1962

First Row: D. Jones, S. Sullivan, R. Badolato, J. O'Connor, M. Guglielmo, D. Doolan, M. Maloney, J. Donohue, Rev. R. Rousseau, S.J., Moderator, S. Csontos, C. Ahern, E. Lyons, J. Higgins, M. Fiore, R. Smith, J. Barrett, P. Connolly. Second Row: T. Beatty, J. Couture, A. Wilson, J. Barry, T. Tierney, J. McCall, G. Ferugia, T. Golden, R. Jenkins, D. Browne, E. Papa, P. Maher, P. Murphy, C. McDowall, P. Rudd, J. Rhatigan, R. Sullivan. Third Row: S. Dunphy, M. Tehan, L. Ockey, J. Doyle, T. Phelan, R. Widmer, R. Graziani, F. Colligan, J. Donovan, F. Hendricks, E. Coll, T. Connelly, P. Quilter, T. Nucifora, J. O'Leary, K. Dubuc, J. Crocicchia. Fourth Row: F. Phelan, W. Sangiovanni, R. Aquavia, E. Honan, G. Muller, J. Asmus, R. Cappelletti, J. McCrosson, S. Macklow, F. Menosky, T. Murray, J. Laden, R. Cwik, B. Coyle, W. Fitzgibbon, J. Reilly. Fifth Row: R. Gale, J. Mascia, M. Jacoby, T. Tiernan, C. Whelan, S. Jakab, L. Arpino, J. Lindsay, J. Geary, P. Strausbaugh, T. Rose, N. Nistri, T. McLaughlin, F. McQuade, B. Ahearn, C. Schumann. Sixth Row: R. Berchem, E. Fitzgerald, J. Burke, E. Manware, T. McGann, J. Levesque, T. Baldyga, P. Menard, J. Diaz, J. Gallavan, P. Burns, L. O'Shea, R. Johnson, M. Hurley, J. Moore, P. Flanigan, V. DiBerardino.

Red blazers, cordiality and pleasant surroundings greeted us on that Sunday that began our "New Era" of life. The first week speedily followed with exams, Stag Night, activities displays, sports, Communion Breakfast, and the President's Tea, all to give us an insight into every phase of life as it exists here at Fairfield.

Soon after, we were in routines now so familiar to us, and in no time we elected our first class officers. Time hurried by and we were at mid-semester already. In that brief period we had a chance to see the university expand with the erection of the gymnasium. By December we were proving ourselves in areas of study, drama, writing, religion, as well as scientific, lingual, and business fields. Sporting abilities were quickly shown in an undefeated frosh track squad and soon to come basketball team. Final exams arrived and were an "experience," showing us that many needed improvement but also that we had our share of scholars. Semester break saw the Mid-Winter Carnival and an opportunity for those who attended to see college social life in full swing. Second semester proved the frosh squad tops in basketball; Glee Club saw our men contributing to a well-earned second place at Scranton, and the Drama Society came through with "Detective Story." In addition, our social life got off to a good start with the Spring Informal. Exams came . . . so did the summer, and so to our sophomore year.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS Daniel Browne, Vice-President; William Fitzgibbon, President; David Jones, Treasurer. Missing: William Sangiovanni, Secretary.

The spirit of '62 shone through when large numbers participated in and won the 'Sports Day' competition against the incoming freshmen. A successful mixer was run by the class early in the year, and with this most of us plunged into our predetermined majors to renew the academic battle of the previous year. The various clubs about the campus saw some of us obtaining a foothold in the major offices available. Throughout the year we watched the Glee Club take top honors in its field and the basketball team cop the Tri-State title and an N.C.A.A. berth. The K. of C installed the chimes in Loyola Tower, which serve to remind us that time is a precious commodity and we should use it accordingly. Second semester also saw the formation of the Orientation Committee, which from all indications would be highly successful. So, too, the elections of various clubs for '60-'61 saw our class gain top positions of responsibility in major as well as minor campus organizations. Once again . . . exams and summer, and so on to Junior Year.

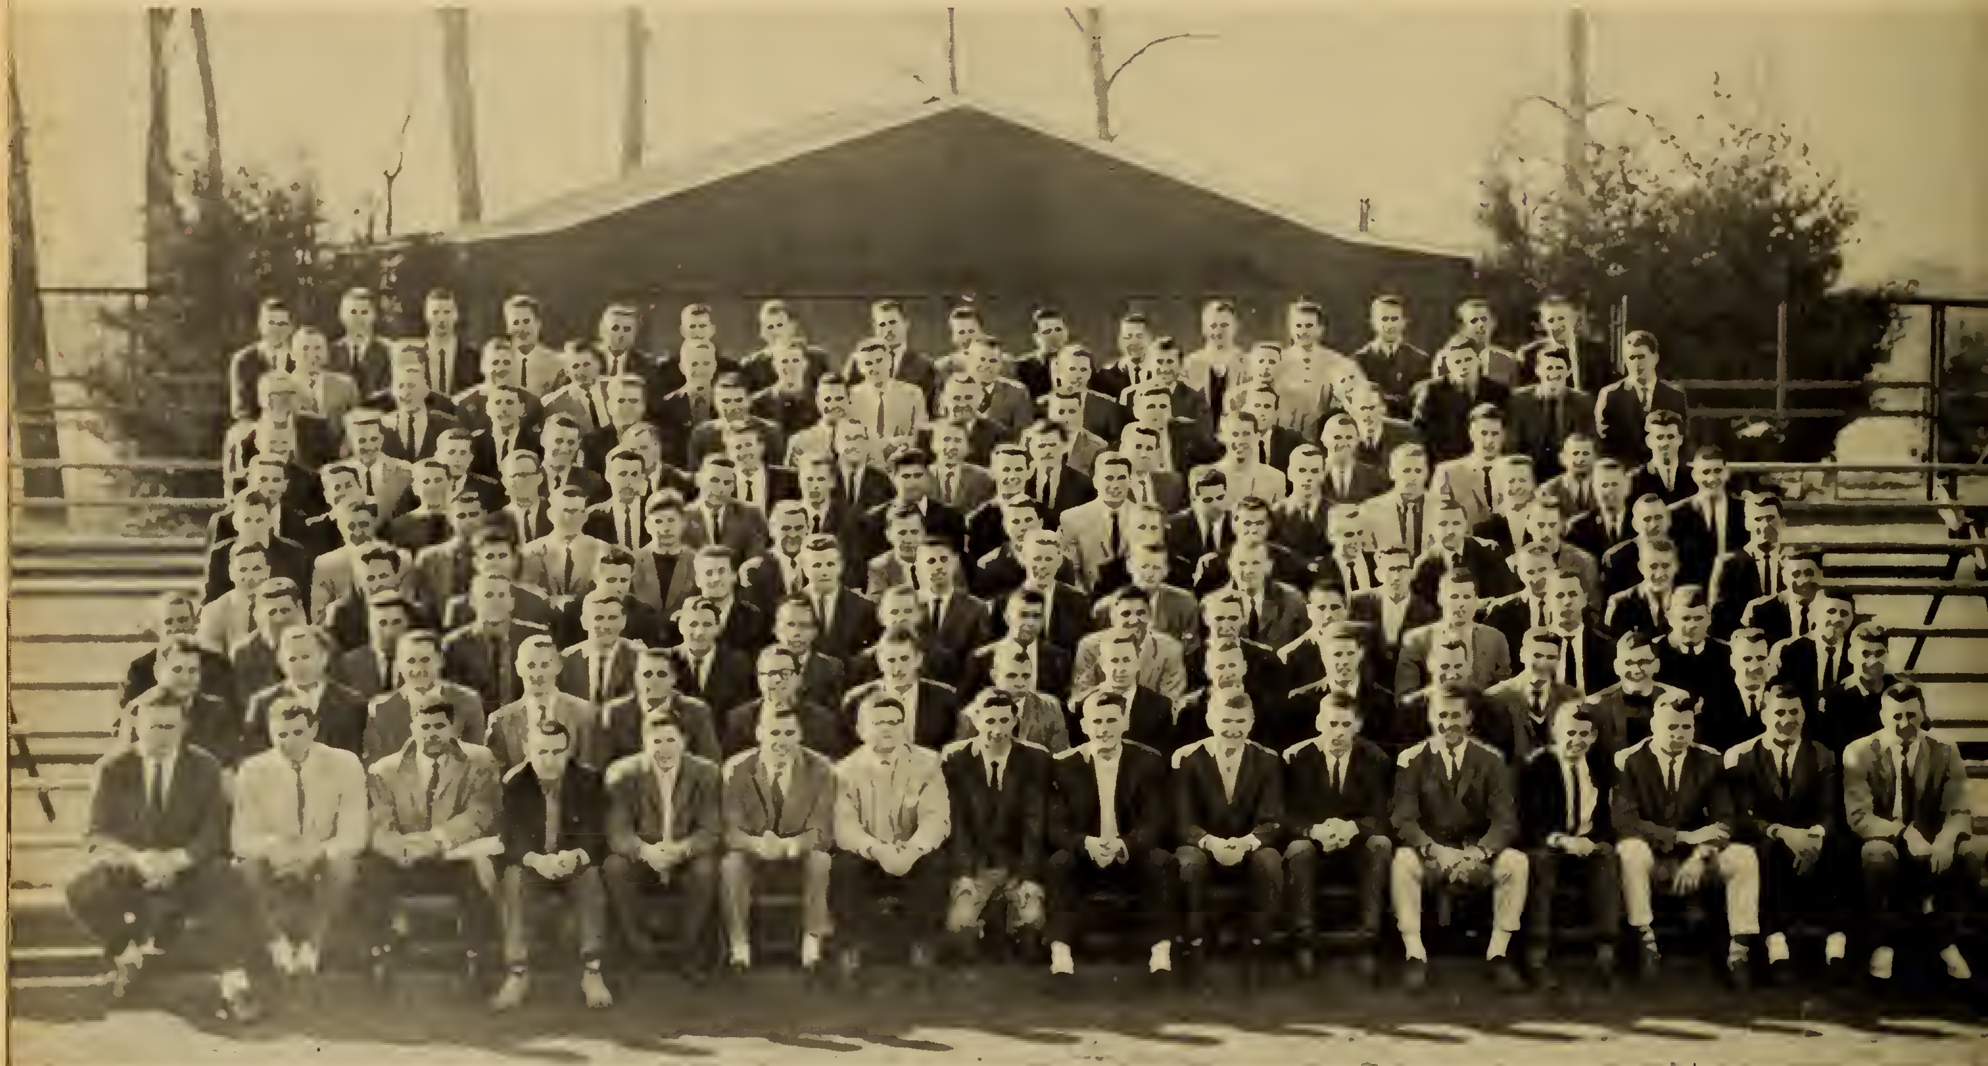
Men's trousers come with two pockets . . .

With close to one-third of the class returning early, we saw a well-organized and well-run reception for the incoming freshmen. The Young Dems and Young Republicans had a busy first semester, with juniors active on both fronts. With shades of Experimental '60 and Bizarre Tamasha fading, we were preparing for the Dogwood Festival. Exams, Mid-Winter Carnival and the like were soon gone and once again the "Red Stags" came home with Tri-State honors. And so with fond and memorable moments with Father Croft, S.J., Carolyn Hester, Hamlet, and especially the Dogwood Festival, we of the Class of 1962 can certainly look forward to unheralded success in our Senior Year.

John C. O'Reagan

STAGS
54

Class of 1963



First Row: T. McKeever, T. Rinaldi, J. Attenello, A. Dichello, W. Valieant, P. Reilly, T. Smerznak, S. Masiak, R. Warner, A. Rusnak, N. Burlinson, J. Bobinski, W. Bellows, D. Gianetti, J. DiSpalatro, N. Macarchuk. Second Row: A. Palladino, T. Reddy, J. Riddle, E. Duffy, W. Hald, M. Corsaro, W. Sanders, S. Francis, J. Safarik, R. Benny, J. D'Agostin, J. Mann, M. Glynn, P. Shaver, F. Mastrapasqua, D. Saccomanno. Third Row: T. Leonard, C. Filippone, R. Farrell, B. McAuley, D. Cook, R. Foy, M. Iovene, R. Kinney, R. Kolesnik, W. Masi, L. O'Connor, C. Cavalieri, T. Connor, A. Labesky, S. Meehan, J. Hughes. Fourth Row: R. Keogh, W. Florczak, J. Burcin, R. Comer, K. Maiocco, T. Ryan, S. Garro, C. Langlois, J. Byrne, R. Corcoran, R. Palinkas, L. Longua, J. Kovaleski, D. Torrillo. Fifth Row: T. Hartnett, E. Kuruc, K. Bondi, J. Higgins, P. Werthmann, E. Luchansky, R. Fagan, J. Kickham, S. Varholy, R. Macaluso, A. Sorensen, C. Daniels, A. Westerfield, W. Csontos, M. DeGennaro. Sixth Row: J. Fontanella, A. Kennedy, R. Gaydosh, E. Fitzgerald, S. Forster, M. Zapf, J. Deutsch, R. Aiello, J. Farrell, V. Oliviero, M. Lafitte, L. Archambault, S. Klukowski, L. O'Neill, T. Mosakowski, J. Tesoriero. Seventh Row: W. Glynn, A. Jarosko, R. Craig, D. Ulizio, P. Meah, J. Guerin, T. Fitzgerald, B. Dunn, J. Flatley, D. Smothergill, R. Lucey, R. Kopta, A. Piebel, T. Driscoll, J. McNeeley. Eighth Row: M. Quinlan, E. Corrigan, J. Donnelly, D. Bedding, L. Becker, G. Krug, J. Shea, E. Jascewsky, P. Hearn, P. Reiss, A. Smith. Ninth Row: R. Clarkin, R. Holt, G. McCarthy, W. Bruce, F. Harvey, M. Clarke, E. Bernacki, P. Kniffen, C. Luciano, V. Iosso, J. Yaglenski, F. Filloramo, A. Jerk, A. Nother-Jerk, P. Schauble. Tenth Row: J. Crowley, P. Toomey, R. Hannon, G. Groot, A. Marshall, G. O'Connell, J. Ferry, D. Emilia, J. Turecek, T. Porfido, J. DiChello, R. Link, D. Grosner, O. O'Donnell, R. Drake, F. McAnulty.

The year 1963 seems a long way off for many students at Fairfield University. In that year, one of the finest groups ever assembled at Fairfield will graduate.

From the time these men unified, their password has been spirit. It was a spirit of not merely cheering at basketball games voce magna. It went beyond that.

It really took hold in the fall of 1960. Therefore, let's take a brief look back over the past year in order to show how the spirit of '63 came to be.

At the time the present sophomores returned from their summer vacation, they had chosen and elected four of their best representatives to lead and channel their pervading spirit. At the head was Frank Mastrapasqua who, as Class President, proceeded above all others to mold his class into its present figure; Vice-President was Thomas Leonard, and he in turn was followed by Secretary Nick Macarchuk and Treasurer Anthony Palladino.

No sooner had these men assumed command, than they rapidly planned and materialized an intercollegiate mixer which ranks with the finest yet seen on Fairfield's campus. The details of the mixer need not be retold, as no one who attended has forgotten it.

The members themselves, guided by capable leaders, soon made their pressure felt and appreciated in every major activity on campus. They lent their talents not only to their own class, but also to almost every club, team, or society in need of them.

For the remainder of the first semester, the cultural activities of sophomores were limited, due in large part to the demands of other groups for time and space in which to promote their functions.

Whatever advances the class could not make culturally, it made scientifically and physically. While more colorful characters were occupying the Stag headlines, a group of obscure sophomores made a contribution that Fairfield, for all its greatness, lacked. A radio station was started, whose benefits, although enjoyed by fans in a small radius, drew nothing but praise.

The Class of '63 has proven itself to possess some of the campus's most versatile athletes. Besides the men who participate in varsity competition, the class boasts of men who have made a name for themselves in intramural sports. The class as a unit has risen and will rise to a severe athletic test. It defeated the highly-ranked freshmen in the annual orientation field day.

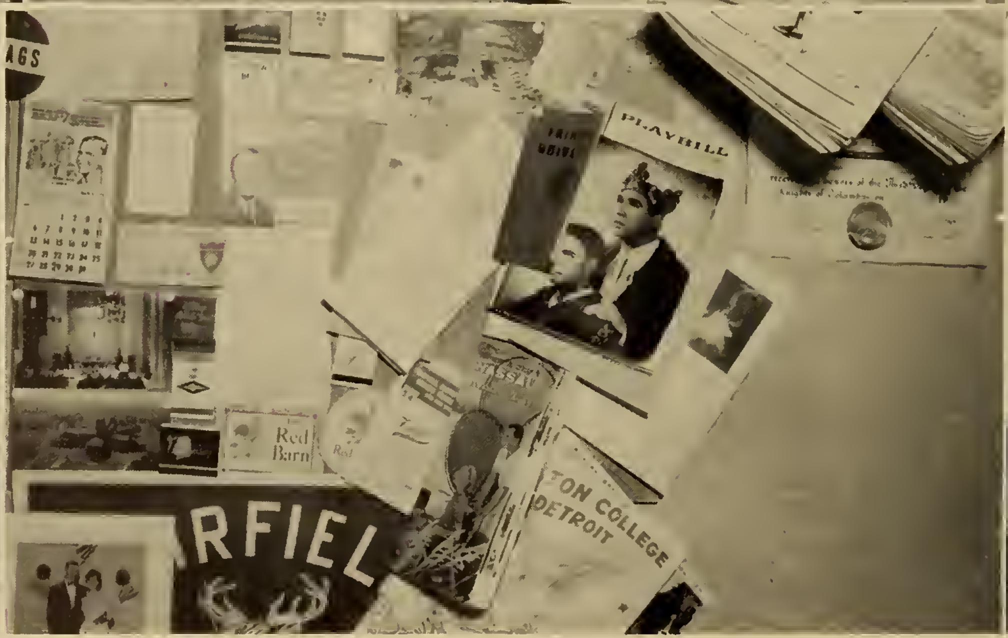
The class, along with the rest of the school, continued to be somewhat socially inactive during the early part of the second semester because of the lenten regulations. However, while most people were complaining and doing nothing, the sophomores were busy organizing a student directory for classmen and parents. Also, they have fixed their sights on another mixer to be held after Easter. The mixer will feature professional entertainment and expects to attain the same tribute given to the first one—great.

See, Mom, I really do study

And so, it is evident that the events mentioned above are by no means earth-shaking; nor are they in vain. I would leave their merit to you. Speaking as a proud member of the sophomore class, I think they are important. They have helped unify and mold our class; they have gained respect for us; but moreover, they have given us spirit: the spirit of '63.

Domenick Torrillo

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS Nicholas Macarchuk, Secretary. Frank Mastrapasqua, President. Thomas Leonard, Vice-President. Anthony Palladino, Treasurer.



BAGS
PLAYBILL
Red Barn
RFIEL
TON COLLEGE
DETROIT

Class of 1964

September is a warning prelude to Fairfield County, hinting with chill of coming winter—a beautiful but misleading time—one wakes up to frost on fields, and by afternoon is bemoaning the heat. It's a good time for beginnings—the beginning of fall, the beginning of work after a summer—and the beginning of a new school year—with this scene set, enter the Class of 1964 of Fairfield University.

Most of us arrived here on a dreary rainy Sunday—a poor omen we thought—but lo and behold, the next morning, registration, was a beautiful day, if one prefers hurricanes—all through the long boring process of registration it stormed—it might have been even a more depressing time, except for the spirited committee members of the Class of 1962—throughout this best of all weeks, complete with papers, forms, books, beanies, lectures, and classes, there always seemed to be a junior around, ready to help out in any way, answer any questions, questions which dealt with subjects from methods of teachers to mixers at Marymount—the week rounded out with a mixer given for us by the juniors; and a field day with the sophomores which we almost won, but contented

First Row: T. Low, J Quinn, J. Colwell, T. Meath, R. Rick, A. Horan, A. Salvato, J Tronolone, G. Simonelli, D. Speno, P. Jones, E. Purcell. Second Row: D Mazza, T. Molloy, J. McLaughlin, W. Sayles, R. Bednar, L. Palaia, J Pezzullo, J. Fontaine, T. O'Marra, L. Lavigne. Third Row: E. Faulkner, G.·Heine, J Dalton, P Goss, S. Adamowich, P. Sandine, K. Ecclesine, T. DeTullio, J. Cassella, P. Alogna. Fourth Row: J. Clairmont, J. Conboy, W. Albergo, M Felicetti, J Desmond, A Brooks, P. Walsh, P. Rooney, F. DeAngelo, J. DiMartino, L. DiMaria Fifth Row: P Hurley, B. Linsky, P. Haughey, C. Wulle, J. Willenborg, W White, R Manning, J O'Connell, E. Fort, J Curtin, J Campise. Sixth Row: J Sferra, J Wagner, D. McCarthy, D Nutile, T. Smith, F. Cunningham, M. Dwyer, J Bielaczye, J Skibo, C. Ferland, R Thornton Seventh Row: V. Costello, A Bendler, D Skuret, F. Palmieri, S Mango, J Esposito ourselves with the fact that at least we won the greased pole climb—the week fittingly closed with a communion breakfast, at which our respective deans spoke.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS: Peter Garry, Secretary; Kenneth Keane, President; Daniel Carney, Treasurer.

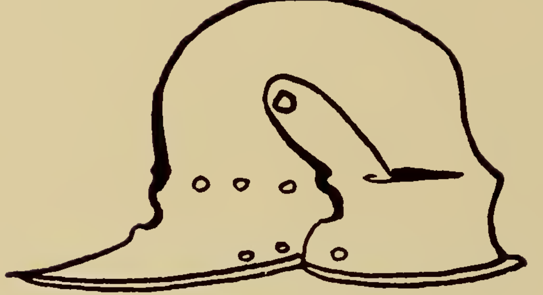
Academically, our year started slowly—momentum quickly built up until first marks—periodic panic was relieved by mixers and socials, both here and away—campus quieted for a few days of recollection and reflection during retreat in October, and Father Joseph W. Murphy, S.J., closely tied our spiritual and intellectual pursuits—retreat holiday gave many of us our first weekend home from college—November brought more cold, but somehow we seemed to retain our freshness of spirit for the U.—frosh elections brought four leaders forward—we received our marks from our newly-assigned counselors, who exhorted and encouraged us—finals loomed in the not-too-distant future and preparation began early—Thanksgiving and another break came—then began the hectic last weeks before Christmas—one bright spot was the "free" Glee Club concert—during this period we learned from every teacher that we are taking only his subject . . . enlightening—resolving to do much studying, we left for home again and Christmas holiday—however most of us had a too-good vacation, and we matured very fast in our first week of class in the new year—the "freshmanitis" seemed to leave us as we buckled down for exams—exams, exams, the torture of the damned—'nuf said—semester break gave us a long rest, and we momentarily forgot the past exams.

Canisius bull session

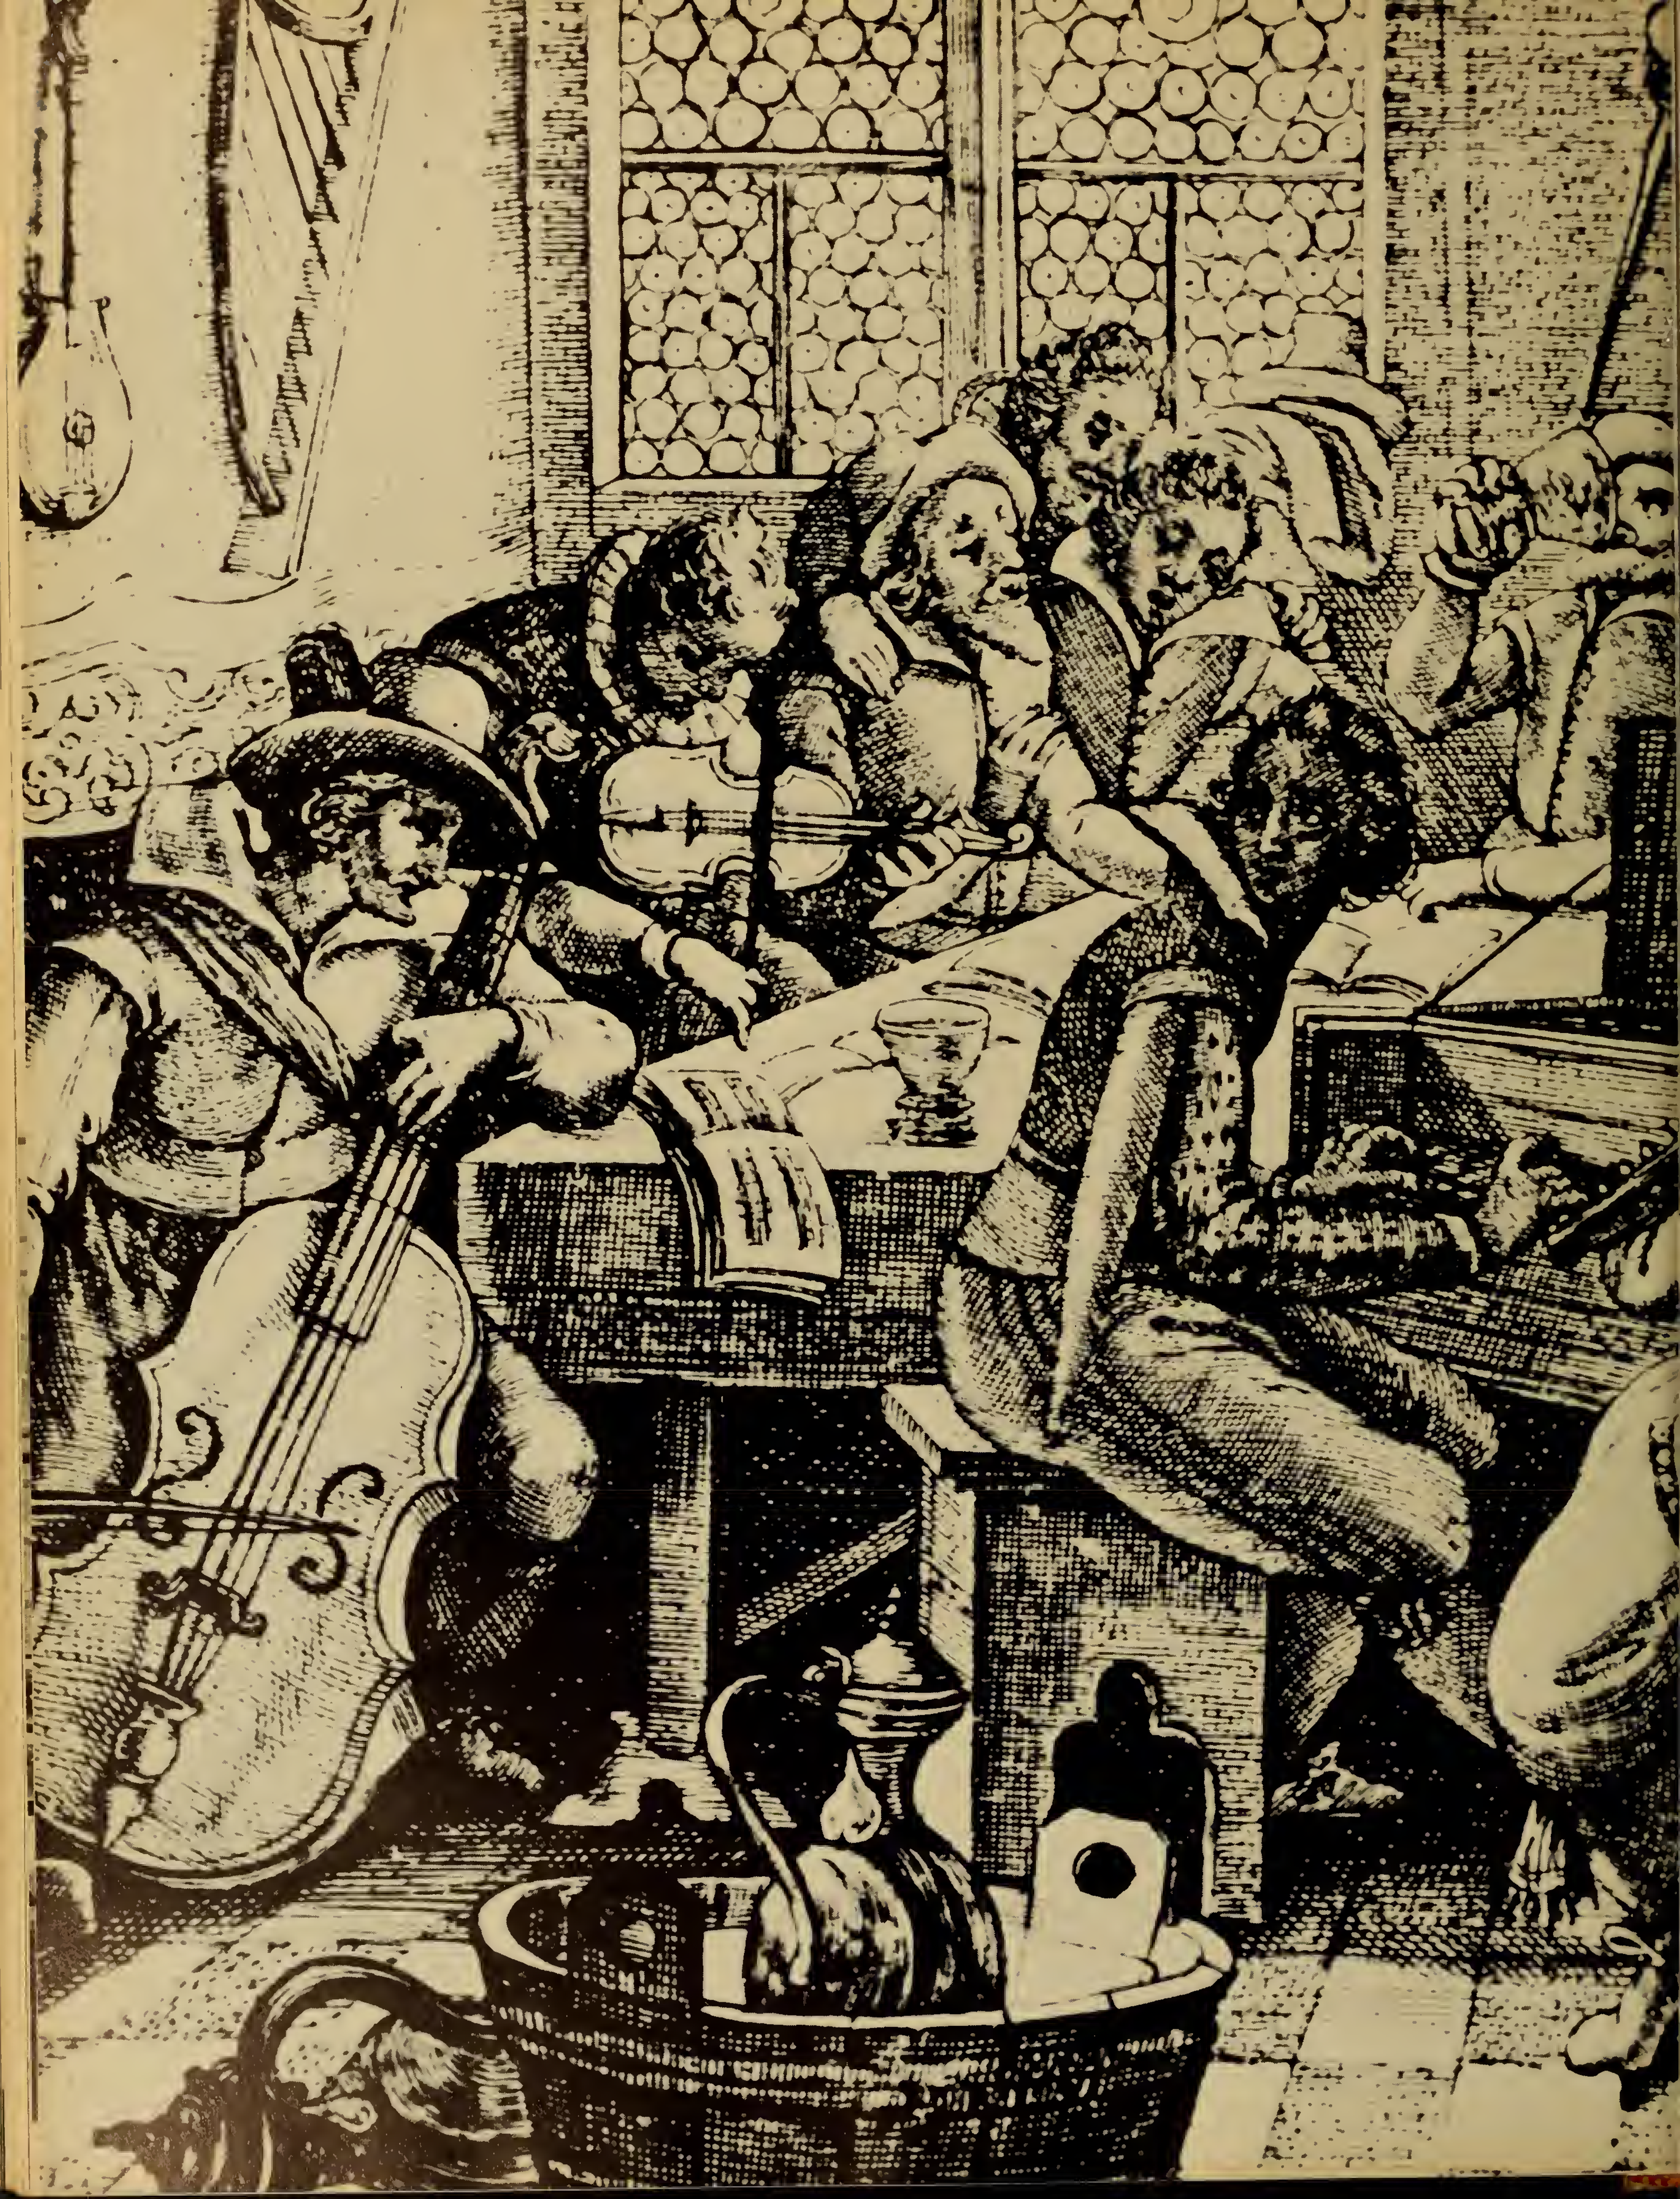
A long semester and new trials lay ahead, but new fun also—we looked back and could honestly say we were proud to be identified as Fairfield men—we came very green and immature, and yet were treated as gentlemen and friends—this meant a lot to us, and encouraged us to emulate and further stimulate, as much as we are able, the "Men in Red," and always to gain honor for Fairfield.

Richard M. Lawless



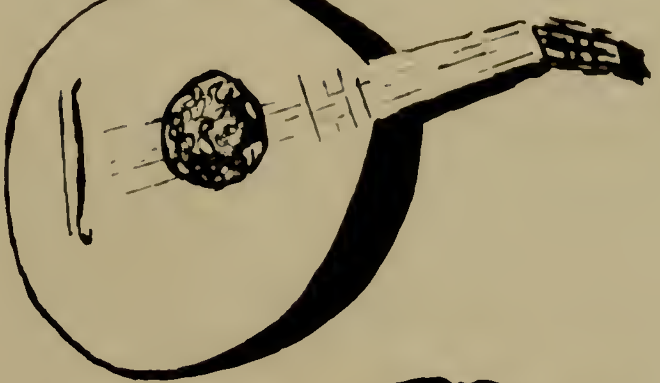
Freshman Beanie, ca. 1612

F



"I have recently discovered that you live dissolutely and slothfully, preferring license to restraint and play to work and strumming a guitar while the others are at their studies, whence it happens that you have read but one volume of law while your more industrious companions have read several. Wherefore I have decided to exhort you herewith to repent utterly of your dissolute and careless ways, that you may no longer be called a master and your shame may be turned to good repute."

Haskins, Charles Homer,
The Rise of the Universities, pp. 79-80



Activities

◄ Sunday afternoon concert in the University Dormitory. Engraving, ca. 1612

Front Row: R. Lawless, T. O'Marra, R. DeCanio, P. Walz, J. Condon, E. Coll, R. Berchem, D. Browne, Secretary; M. Kiernan, Vice-Prefect; J. Devlin, Prefect; R. Jorlett, Instructor of Candidates; J. O'Regan, Treasurer; R. Fleurant, S. Garro, R. Germano, T. Connor, D. Skuret, D. Attianese. Back Row: C. Roland, F. Hendricks, C. Lamb, R. Larsen, R. Crowley, J. Doyle, M. Oates, A. Sedensky, W. Masi, B. Dunn, A. Saulaitis, J. Horvath.

SODALITY OF OUR LADY

The Sodality of Our Lady of Fairfield, in accordance with the Common Rules, strives to increase the sanctity of its members, sanctify others, and defend the Church. The fulfillment of this objective is sought through the patronage of Mary, Our Mother, and under the guidance of Rev. Joseph W. Murphy, S.J., the Sodality Director. In this way each Sodalist seeks God's grace to grow interiorly, that he might participate more effectively in the apostolate of the Church—that all might be one in Christ.

Moderators
Revs. Joseph W. Murphy, S.J.,
and William G. Devine, S.J.

The Sodality apostolate here at Fairfield is three-fold. It is directed toward the betterment of the Sodalists, of the student body, and of the community.

To increase the Sodalist's knowledge of his Way of Life, delegates were sent to the Sodality Congress of the Lay Apostolate, held in New York during the first week of September. Here ideas were interchanged with other college and professional Sodalists. One of the tangible results of the Congress was the strengthening of the Tri-College Sodality Union, composed of the Fairfield, Boston College, and Holy Cross Sodalities.

Bringing Christ to the student body is the second objective of the Sodality's apostolate. This year two new programs were initiated. Under the auspices of the Liturgy Committee, a daily Missa Recitata was begun, and plans were laid for the formation of a choral group to sing a Sunday High Mass. The Sodality manifested its social mindedness by running a very successful Harvest Mixer, with the proceeds going toward our proposed shrine of Our Lady of the Way on Campus. The older committees, e.g., the Mission and the Catholic Truth, continued their campus work.

In addition to its work among the student body, the Sodality continued working in various parishes of the area through the CCD Committee. The Dactylology Committee gave the deaf-mutes of the Bridgeport Diocese the opportunity to socialize and receive spiritual benefits through instructions and a Day of Recollection. These are but a few examples of the Sodality's community apostolate.

It is the sincere desire of the Sodality that every member continue to increase in holiness and apostolic zeal as they have during this scholastic year. In this way the Sodality will be able to contribute ever so much more to Fairfield University and fulfill its high purpose, which, with Mary's aid, can and will be obtained for the greater glory of God.

OFFICERS: Wanis Ganim, Vice-President; David Royston, President; Robert Aquavia, Treasurer; Robert Slattery, Corresponding Secretary. Missing: Frank Nash, Recording Secretary.

STUDENT COUNCIL

W. Fitzgibbon, P. Garry, D. Carney, K. Keane, G. McCarthy, S. Sullivan, M. Maher, R. Aquavia, D. Royston, F. Nash, R. Slattery, F. Furey, E. Anderson, F. Mastrapasqua, A. Westerfield, J. Cannizzaro.

Rev. Richard L. Rooney, S.J., Moderator

Bert Anderson checks point with Dave Royston

Concentration . . . .

The Student Council of Fairfield University is a deliberative and executive board of 23 members elected from the four classes of the college. The general aims of the Council, dictated by the necessities of college life, are four: to initiate and coordinate all extracurricular and social activities which pertain to the entire student body; to set the standard of scope and operation for student organizations; to establish and maintain rules for all elections sponsored by the Council; to reflect to the Administration student opinion on matters over which the Council has no legislative authority.

The present Council, under the leadership of President Dave Royston, has directed its authority in two specific directions. It is attempting to reorganize all extracurricular organizations on campus which come under its jurisdiction. All clubs are required to submit a constitution for approval by the Council. The reviewing of these documents is currently under way in hope of providing the student body a clear picture of all campus organizations. The Council is also trying to organize past Council minutes to provide a code which will aid all those interested in its activity.

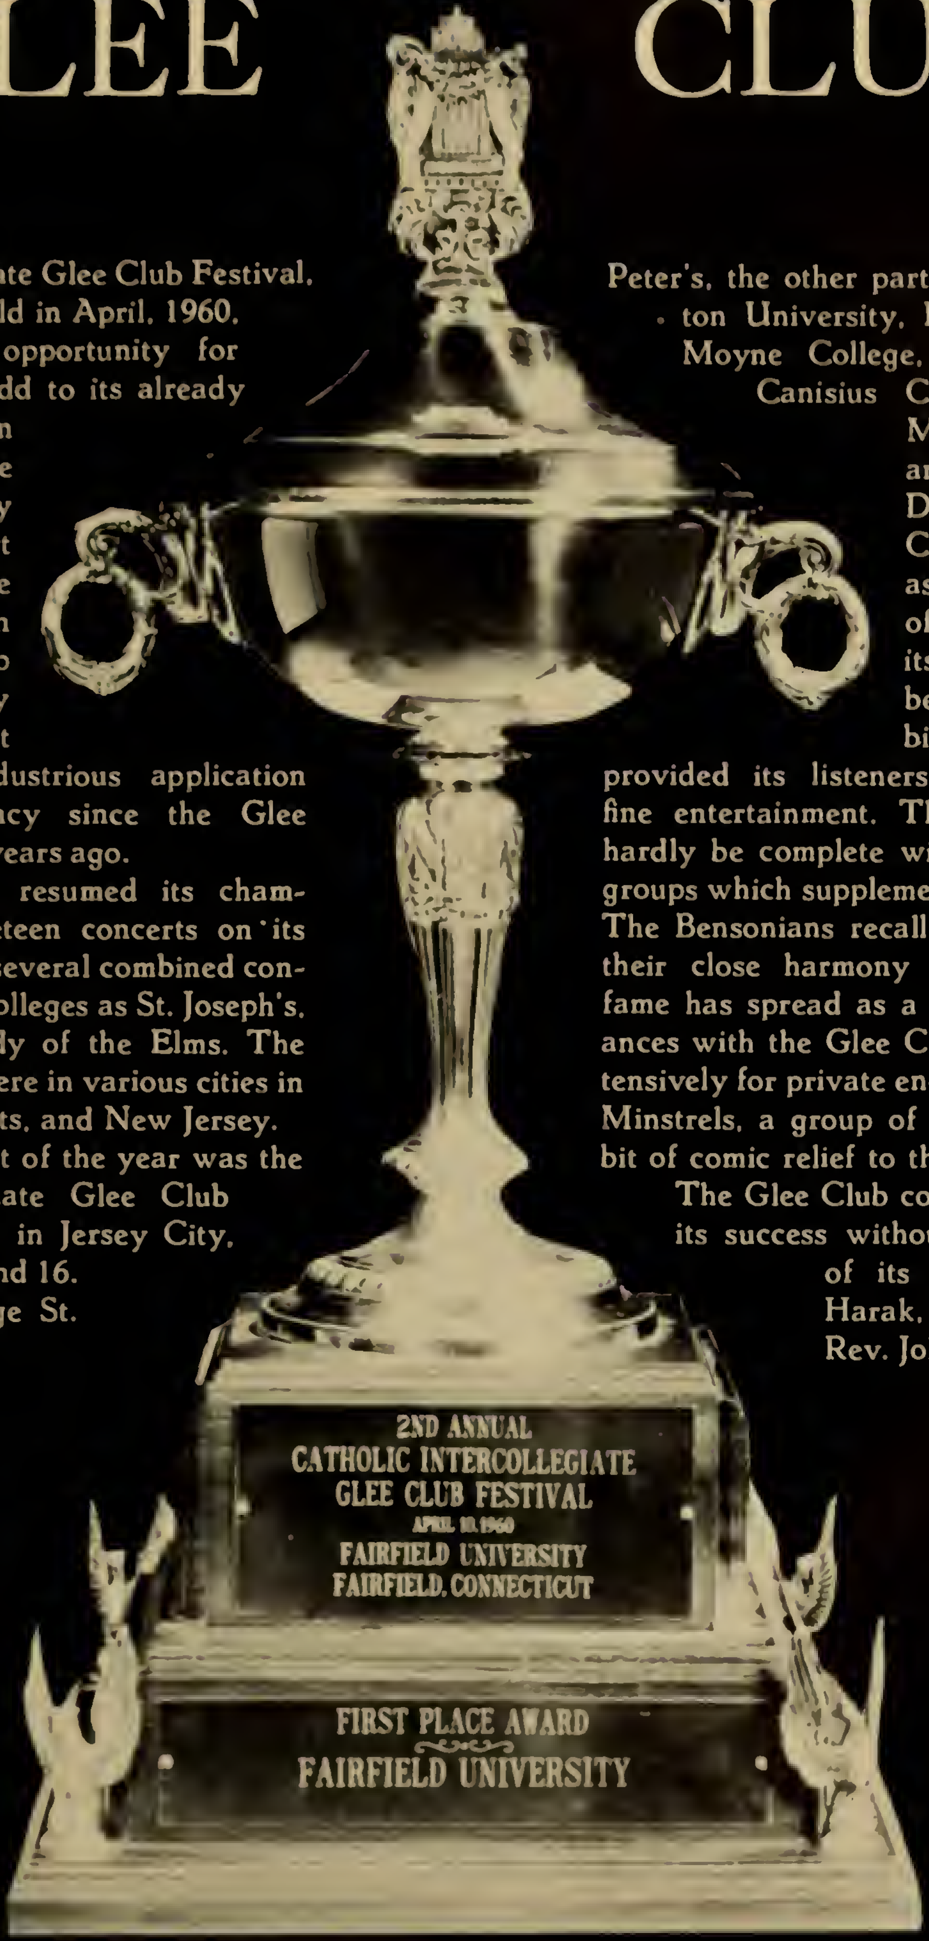
This year's Council has produced many changes and improvements while continuing, as it has in past years, to provide financial backing to the Winter Carnival and other student activities. The Council has felt the necessity of the institution of a major fall sport here at the University. In regard to this, the possibilities of a soccer team are being investigated and plans are being laid to bring about its formation. Also in reference to the Athletic Department, the Council has donated funds to be spent in purchasing Gymnasium equipment for the use of the student body.

The Council also works in academic areas. This year it is attempting to formulate a more effective method for controlling the extracurricular point system. These points are obtained through participation in activities at the college. They act as a complement to academic average, and a minimum number are required for admission into the Honor Society.

The first bill passed by this year's Council provided for the institution of a scholarship program in conjunction with the Student Assessment Tax. The program provides a partial scholarship of varying amount, to be given at the end of each academic year to a student enrolled in the University.

Contemplation . . . .

GLEE CLUB



The Catholic Intercollegiate Glee Club Festival, which was held at Fairfield in April, 1960, provided an excellent opportunity for Fairfield University to add to its already prominent reputation in college music circles. The Fairfield Glee Club, by means of an all-out effort by each of its eighty-five members, succeeded in coming away with top honors. This victory seemed to be an almost inevitable result of industrious application and increasing proficiency since the Glee Club's inception thirteen years ago.

In 1961 the Glee Club resumed its championship form, with nineteen concerts on its schedule. These included several combined concerts with such women's colleges as St. Joseph's, Emmanuel, and Our Lady of the Elms. The remaining engagements were in various cities in Connecticut, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

Once again, the high point of the year was the third annual Intercollegiate Glee Club Festival, which was held in Jersey City, New Jersey, on April 15 and 16.

In addition to host college St. Peter's, the other participants included Scranton University, Providence College, LeMoyne College, St. John's University, Canisius College, King's College, Mount St. Mary's College, and Fairfield.

During the year the Glee Club's repertoire reflected, as usual, the wide variety of musical tastes of both its audience and its members. This variety, combined with genuine ability, provided its listeners with many hours of fine entertainment. The performances would hardly be complete without the two specialty groups which supplement the Glee Club proper. The Bensonians recall musical memories with their close harmony ballads. This quartet's fame has spread as a result of their performances with the Glee Club, and they travel extensively for private engagements. The Campus Minstrels, a group of fourteen singers, add a bit of comic relief to the program.

The Glee Club could never have attained its success without the dedicated efforts of its conductor, Mr. Simon Harak, and faculty moderator Rev. John P. Murray, S. J.

1960-61 Intercollegiate Glee Club Champions

Rev. John P. Murray, S.J., Moderator

Mr. Simon Harak, Director

UNIVERSITY

OFFICERS Robert Bitar, Treasurer; Edward Kane, Vice-President; Stephen Dempsey, President; Mr. Simon Harak, Director; Carl Cofini, Secretary.

Stephen J. Delehanty, Accompanist

CAMPUS MINSTRELS. First Row: P. Olander, W. Walsh, S. Rashid, D. Carney, P. Jones, K. Ecclesine, J. O'Reilly. Center: D. Lupo. Second Row: J. LaTerra, R. Fleurant, E. Nishball, F. Hendricks, D. Gannon, C. Lops, R. Bitar, S. Kristofak, A. Archambault.

Soloists: D. Lupo, D. Carney, E. Kane, S. Kristofak, S. Dempsey.

Take ten

Bensonians: P. Jones, F. Hendricks, W. Walsh, S. Kristofak.

. . . But oh how we could har-mo-nize . . .

Have voice, will sing

EXPERIMENTAL '60

DRAMA SOCIETY

"I will never do it again," the Stag quoted Rev. John L. Bonn, S.J., as saying.

But he did.

He directed the Drama Society players in a show the likes of which had never been seen before at Fairfield: William Shakespeare's Hamlet. This was the most recent in a long series of Drama Society successes.

It all began in 1956, when a group of students interested in theatre at Fairfield decided to form the Drama Society. Their first task was to seek a moderator, and fortunate indeed were they to find Rev. Laurence S. Mullin, S.J. This done, they started casting around for a director. Who they discovered was a Godsend: former stage manager for "Your Hit Parade" on N.B.C., President of Pygmalion Productions, Robert G. Emerich had just joined the Fairfield faculty. Thus the Drama Society was born.

After its brilliant freshman year production of The Caine Mutiny Court Martial, the Drama Society became firmly entrenched in Fairfield life in 1957, under the leadership of President Bob Carroll. It travelled down to Fordham with a one-act play, The Rising of the Moon, and staged Time Limit, a show for which the local critics had nothing but praise.

By the 1958 season the society had grown in both numbers and experience. The job of direction, handled solely by Bob Emerich, had also grown. More players, and the larger productions which were planned, called for more work than one man could handle. The answer (in syllogistic form naturally) came thusly:

The Drama Society has grown in size to the point where it needs a technical director.

But I happen to like striped shirts!

Sticks and stones. . . .

I'm getting a raw deal!

Saturday night is the loneliest night of the week

But Frank Barrett, brother of our President, Dave Barrett, is a technical director, having worked in summer stock as well as in New York.

Therefore . . .

And he did.

It was a hectic year, 1958. The fall production (this year there were to be two) was Teahouse of the August Moon. It called for nine set changes, and had a "cast of thousands," including one goat. A lot of work went into the show, but it paid off in audience response, and Frank Barrett's sets were something to rival My Fair Lady. For the spring production, Detective Story, he designed and supervised the building of a set that looked as if it could have been lived in. Indeed, those who constructed it almost did! All the work was not backstage though; the firm hand of Bob Emerich and the natural talents of his players combined with the stage crews to give the Drama Society one of its most rewarding years.

But what of Father Mullin? Up until now he had been producer, a thankless job at best. In 1959, due to the unfortunate illness of Bob Emerich, the Drama Society was left without a director. At this point Father Mullin said to President Larry Laitres, "I think I'll try this one," and so he produced and directed An Enemy of the People, the 1959 offering of the Society. Fortunately, Mr. E's illness did not prevent him from starting the Actor's Workshop, a series of weekly classes in method acting for a select group of seven Drama Society members.

When this year rolled around, Hank O'Hagan took to the throne as President. Seated with him were John O'Regan, Gene Honan, and Tony McCall. Mr. Emerich had recovered, and for the fall production he wanted to try something different: an evening of four one-act plays, each emphasizing a different aspect of the theatre. He was a very busy man this fall, Bob Emerich; not only was he producer, director, and technical director, he also wrote one of the plays himself. All four shows were banded together under the title Experimental '60. Was it a success? Just ask anyone who saw it.

For its spring production, the Drama Society became really ambitious: it decided to do Hamlet. To direct it, the Society got none other than Rev. John L. Bonn, S.J. . . . but this is where we came in.

The future? Ours is not the job to predict, but a drama group is only as good as its talent. The Drama Society's leaders have already proven their worth, and it is up to them to maintain the standards which they have set. Judging from the present calibre of Fairfield men, they should have no trouble, and the Drama Society should go on to reap even more glory for its school.

Stage crew at work

Paint . . .

Props . . .

Player.

Men behind the scenes. E. Honan and J. McCall

How are we going to tell mother?

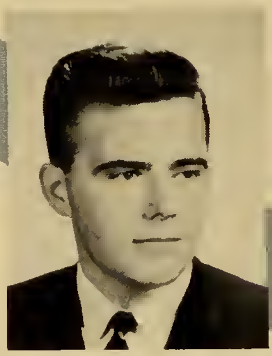
The 1960-61 Drama Society

HONOR

Fred J. Abbate
A.B.

Egbert W. Anderson
B.S.

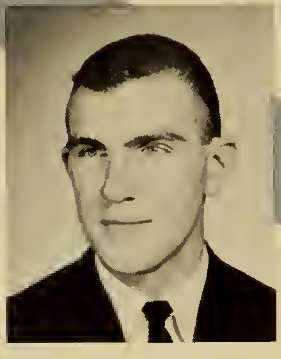
Bruce D. Beaudin
A.B.



Robert V. Biroschak
B.S.

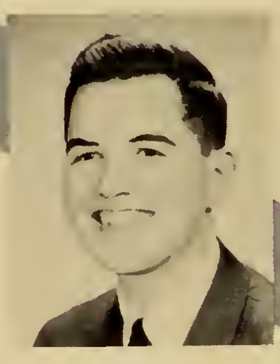
Joseph F. Charlow
B.B.A.

John E. Faulkner
B.S.S.

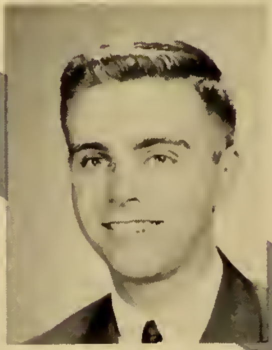


Denis E. Gannon
A.B.

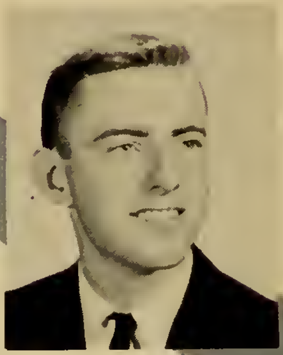
Richard D. Germano
B.S.S.



Jeffrey S. Jalbert
B.S.

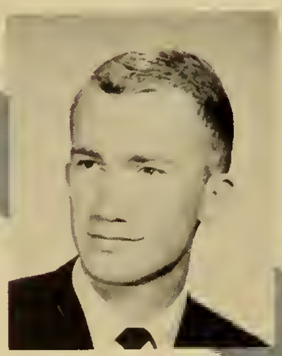


Paul D. Jones
A.B.



Robert J. MacMurray
B.S.

1961



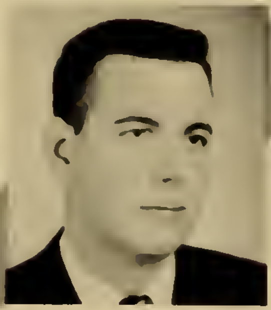
Arthur J. Mannion
A.B.

Frank J. McDonald
A.B.

SOCIETY

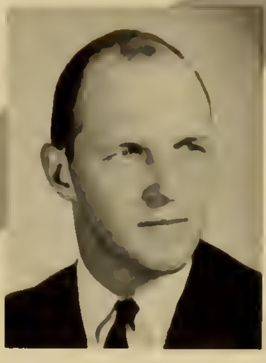
Robert J. Michael
B.S.S.

Raymond F. Nalewajk
A.B.



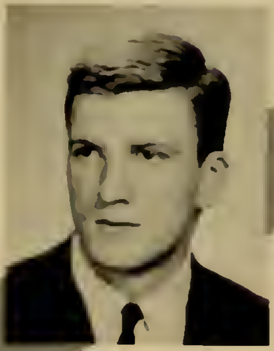
Richard E. Nanfeldt
B.S.

Michael D. Oates
A.B.



Louis F. Parent
B.B.A.

Rocco M. Pugliese
B.S.S.



David M. Royston
A.B.

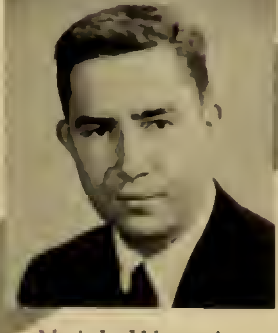
Antanas V. Saulaitis
B.S.

Lawrence J. Skane
A.B.

Geoffrey C. Stokes
A.B.

Richard E. Trabert
A.B.

John W. Vaitkus
A.B.



Ned J. Wisneski
B.S.

Hey Mannion, why don't you comb your hair?

ALPHA SIGMA NU

R. MacMurray, J. Vaitkus, J. Charlow, A. Mannion, F. McDonald.

Alpha Sigma Nu, the National Jesuit Honor Society, was founded in 1915 to honor students who have distinguished themselves in scholarship, loyalty, and service. Its members strive to promote the best interests of the college in all areas of student activity. A third purpose is to band together alumni who exemplify the ideals of Jesuit education, and who will promote these ideals.

This year saw the founding of an Alpha Sigma Nu chapter at Fairfield, largely through the efforts of Rev. Mr. Neil P. O'Keefe, S.J. Five members of the Class of '61 were elected charter members. They were President Frank McDonald, Vice-President Joseph Charlow, Treasurer Robert MacMurray, and Secretaries John Vaitkus and Art Mannion.

This year's activities were confined, for the most part, to problems of organization, and to drafting a Constitution and By-laws for the campus chapter. Thus it was hoped to lay a solid foundation for future years. A good deal of time was also spent on the selection of next year's members, on whom will devolve the major burden of initiating an active program.

CARDINAL KEY SOCIETY

S. Dempsey, P. Rudd, V. Botarelli J. Charlow, G. Muller, F. Abbate.

J. Rhatigan, D. Royston, R. Berchem, W. Fitzgibbon, R. Spring, S. Carberry, B. Dunn, E. Coll, B. Beaudin.

L. Parent, A. Mannion, R. Germano, P. Bucciarelli, D. Shay, R. Picardi, S. Kristofak, F. Mastrapasqua.

The purpose of the Cardinal Key Society, as stated in its constitution, is "to foster loyalty and devotion to Fairfield University and an increased school spirit among all her students; to plan, sponsor, and conduct all such affairs, activities, and events as are calculated to increase such school spirit; to provide the opportunities and encouragement necessary to foster a fuller participation of students in all phases of college life; and to demonstrate by force of example the attitude and spirit consistent with the concept of a Catholic College Man' of Fairfield University."

The difficult job of put-

Seniors in the Key:

L. Parent. S Dempsey.

V. Botarelli. F. Abbate.

D. Royston. J. Charlow.

B. Beaudin. A. Mannion.

P Bucciarelli. R. Germano. D Shay.

Warden and trustees

Stop rolling those big brown eyes at me, Joe.

We need six men for three hours Saturday night.

Need a laxative, Lou?

ting these high ideals into practice was ably executed this year under the direction of Lou Parent, President, and Rev. John L. Gallagher, S.J., Moderator. Among the tangible results produced by the Key this year were an intercollegiate mixer, basketball rallies, subsidized bus trips to off-campus functions, arranging accommodations for visiting teams, ushering at basketball, Glee Club, and Dramatic Society events, formation of cheerleader squads and Booster Clubs, and the sale of soft drinks at a concession in the Gym. Also included in the Society's activities were a sports banquet, Senior Parent's Weekend, sale of Christmas seals, and participation in the Heart Fund and Bloodmobile drives.

The Key is composed of students who have distinguished themselves in both the academic and extra-curricular programs of the University. Membership is limited to 34 men, of whom 30 are voting members and 4 are ex-officio. The voting members are drawn from the three upper classes of the College of Arts and Sciences and are proportioned as follows: Seniors—16; Juniors—10; Sophomores—4. The ex-officio members are the Presidents of the Student Council, and the senior, junior, and sophomore classes. Charter members of the Society in the Class of '61 were Vincent Botarelli, Peter Bucciarelli, Stephen Dempsey, Robert MacMurray, Arthur Mannion, Louis Parent, William Scully, and Dave Shay.

In evaluating the accomplishments of the Key during the first two years of its existence, outgoing president Lou Parent said, "Despite its youth, I feel that the Society has succeeded in the tasks that were set before it. It is my sincere wish that the organization will continue to prosper in the years to come. The groundwork has been laid, and it is for the future members of the Society to build upon it."

Watch it, Lou, behind you!

THE MANOR

I want the eyebrows exactly 2½ inches long

Rev. John W. Ryan, S.J., Moderator

The car will be parked here in the back of Loyola with the lights out

"A yearbook should tell the story of a class in pictures and words," so the editor's handbook starts. What these pictures are and what these words say are supposed to be self evident to the editorial board. They aren't.

A yearbook can be a stereotyped, square pictured, cliché riddled, straight history of a class, or it can be the creative work of literary and artistic talents which tells the story of a group of men joined in the bond of a school esprit de corps. The latter has been our goal, the end that made the long nights, the anguish, and the frustration worthwhile.

Our subjects were the men and the happenings of the Class of 1961, Fairfield University. Their successes and failures, their laughter and their tears, their work and their women were all to be put between the covers of this one book.

Our creative tools were the pen, the camera, and the agile minds and imaginations of twenty or more men. These raw materials had never been used in this work before, so it was slow going at first. Eventually the first section layout was completed, the pictures put in, and the copy ready. Crisis—some of the editors were dissatisfied. We ripped the whole section apart and started over. And so it went. Plan, draw, fit, and rip it apart. Finally, the

You do the singing, I'll do the ads!

I'll bet that it doesn't even make the yearbook

It's beautiful, but what it is?

"Signed, Robert J. Crowley"

deadline was here. The book had to go in. The final layout emerged from the welter of unrejected ideas. The right pictures had been taken, the art work tied in, the lit was ready. The book went to New York.

All this time, while the editors made plans to spend thousands, the Business Manager schemed to filch parents, relatives, friends, and enemies out of their hard-earned cash. His staff used any and all approaches. For example, there was the salesman who called an air conditioning firm to say that the school was interested in air conditioners for all the class rooms, then went down to solicit an ad from the firm.

With the business staff keeping one jump ahead of the police, the layout, art, and lit staffs were one jump behind the printer. Great globs of blue pictures assailed the MANOR office. Rubber cement was stuck to everything from the pictures to the soles of our shoes. The mockup was completed, messy but finished. We retired to the Center.

The page proofs were read and reread, and read once more before being sent to the publisher. Ours was now but to sit and wait. The task is ended. The 1961 MANOR is on its way to becoming a reality.

Flash! Junior weekend now paid for Boo!

This is a camera .

MANOR STAFF

LITERARY STAFF
Frank McDonald, Editor
Robert Berchem
James Churchill
Paul Coughlin
James Czarzasty
Roderick Dowling
John Fitzgerald
Michael Fratantuno
Robert Garofalo
J. Robert Heller
George Kourkounas
James McConville
James O'Brien
Ralph Okenquist
David Shay
John Vaitkus

ART STAFF
William Scully, Editor
Devin Doolan
Paul Jones

BUSINESS STAFF
Robert Crowley, Manager
Joseph Cannizzaro
Peter Carolan
Richard Davis
Stephen Dempsey
Francis Feehan
Gerald Ferris
Denis Gannon
Michael Maher
John Murray
Gerald O'Keeffe
Thomas Ryan

LAYOUT STAFF
Paul Fargis, Editor
Paul Best
William Brady
James Coffey
Carl Cofini
Edmund Korpas
Vincent LaBella
John LaTerra
Charles Lops

PHOTOGRAPHY STAFF
Arthur Funk, Editor
Robert Aherne
Joseph Distinti
Richard Fleurant
James Hill
Louis Ockey
John Perrine
Thomas Phelan
John Reilly

The Stag

EDITORS. Seated: John F. X. Warburton, Editor-in-Chief. Standing: G. Stokes, Features; P. Fargis, Exchange; L. Parent, Managing; M. Kiernan, News; R. Crowley, Business; A. Funk, Photography. Missing: T. Ungerland, Sports.

Itchy-Kitchy Koo

The Stag, the campus newspaper, is published on alternate Fridays during the school year.

The purpose of a college newspaper is a singularly elusive thing to define. There are two extremes of thought on the question. One stresses that it is a newspaper, a vehicle for bringing the various happenings at the college to the notice of the student body. This is often called the "bulletin board" approach.

The other school points out that, as the purpose of the college is to prepare the student for life in contemporary society, so the college newspaper should complement this function by keeping the student aware of those happenings in the outside world which closely affect him, such as, for example, the sit-in and picketing campaigns which were conducted by college students throughout the country in support of the Negro drive for racial equality in the South. And in a Catholic college, the newspaper has the further duty of forming the student's conscience on such matters. Moreover, new developments in the fields of art and literature, politics, philosophy, etc., ought to be brought to the attention of the student body. This is the major, if not the exclusive, function of a college newspaper.

It is not the purpose of this short article to present any definitive solutions. The problem was set forth so extensively simply because the Class of '61 has witnessed a rather turbulent period in the Stag's history, with the main point of controversy revolving around this very problem. Members of the Class of '61 who served on the Stag's editorial board during this period were John F. X. Warburton, Lou Parent, Geoff Stokes, Tom Ungerland, Bob Crowley, Art Funk, and Paul Fargis.

Seated: E. Coll. Standing: P. McGorty, K. Dorsey, T. Phelan, J. Heller, R. Lawless, C. Lamb, W. Hoehler, J. Faulkner, A. McCall, J. Distinti, R. Manning, A. Westerfield, F. Abbate, F. McDonald, J. Lynch, R. Fleurant.

This is . . .

the way that . . .

we write . . .

The Stag.

Seated: G. Stokes, Editor. Standing: H. Jacek, J. Faulkner, A. Mannion, A. Saulaitis, A. Westerfield, D. Preziosi, F. McGorty.

New Frontiers

This was New Frontiers' sixth year of publication, a year in which its scope and distribution were increased far beyond the ambitions of its founders. New Frontiers began as simply a medium for student expression; however, with the new policy of accepting contributions from outside the University in full effect, such nationally known writers as Phyllis McGinley and Rev. Martin C. D'Arcy S.J., were represented in its pages.

When this new policy was inaugurated last year, it was feared that the students would gradually find themselves squeezed out of print altogether. The converse has instead proven true, as the volume—and the quality—of student contributions rose to meet the strict standards set by the professional authors.

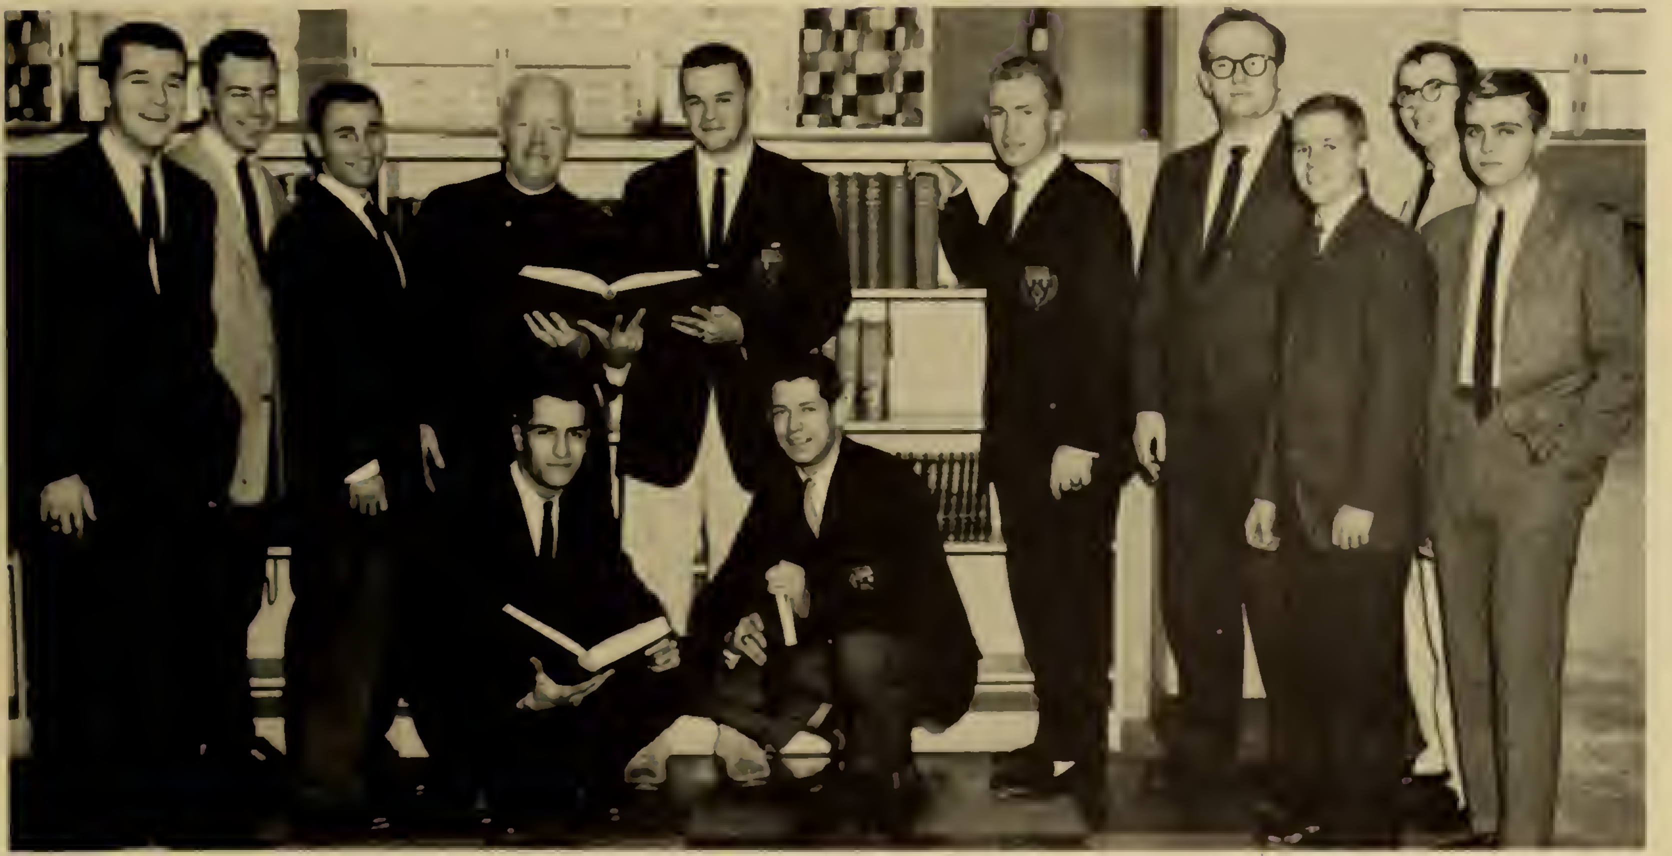
Another change for the better was the elimination of the cumbersome departmental system used during past years. Instead an editorial board of John F. X. Warburton, Ron Cappelletti, John Faulkner, Dick Tino, and Don Preziosi worked directly with editor Geoff Stokes and moderators Rev. John L. Bonn, S.J., and Mr. Arthur R. Riel. The change removed many of the difficulties involved in an overclogged system, and speeded up the handling of manuscripts. As the year closed and its listings in The Writer and other national magazines continued, New Frontiers was developing into a well-known "little" mag.

Ashes don't belong on the floor, Don.

AQUINAS ACADEMY

The purpose of any academy is intellectual stimulation, and in one dedicated to philosophical pursuits that experience reaches its absolutely highest level. The realm of ideas may be a vast ground to cover, but to the members of the Aquinas Academy the venture is a rewarding one. By research into the philosophies of the more important thinkers, the men of this society seek to acquire a wider knowledge of those systems and theories which have had salient effect on world thought. By free discussion of these opinions, they endeavor to sift and evaluate them in common scrutiny.

The group topic for this year has been Existentialism, and members have examined the writings of men like Kierkegaard, Sartre, Marcel, Tillich, Buber, and others. The organization has also chosen to keep its activity immanent rather than transient this year, and has therefore foregone the traditional symposium held to reveal some of its findings. However, many meetings at which reports on these important philosophers were featured were open to outsiders. The Academy has also allowed some deserving and interested underclassmen into its ranks with great success, although the club originally existed for seniors alone. But as any member will attest, philosophy is not something that can be restricted to a particular class of individuals, for every man is a philosopher.



Kneeling: F. Abbate, President; B. Beaudin, Vice-President. Standing: H. Hickey, Treasurer; J. Devlin, R. Germano, Rev. John D. Donoghue, S.J., Moderator; J. Vaitkus, Secretary; A. Mannion, F. McDonald, J. Luning, G. Stokes, P. Jones.

CANISIUS ACADEMY

J. Charlow, F. McDonald, R. Jorlett, R. Germano, A. Saulaitis.

R. Jorlett, Treasurer; A. Saulaitis, Vice-President; J. Charlow, President.

The Canisius Academy is a theology academy whose purpose, as stated in its Constitution, is "to provide the more able students with an opportunity to broaden and deepen the knowledge of theology already gained in the classroom, through added lectures, discussions, and personal research of a scholarly nature." Academy meetings are held bi-weekly, and last about an hour and a half. Membership is by invitation, and is restricted to those students whose name has appeared on the Dean's List at least once. Others may gain admittance only by submitting their name to a vote of the entire Academy. Moreover, the student's marks must remain at a high level in order to retain membership.

In keeping with its purpose as stated above, each year the Academy, under its moderator, Rev. Richard Rousseau, S.J., chooses a general topic of present theological importance and interest. A good portion of each meeting is devoted to lectures and discussions on the topic. In addition, each individual member chooses a topic of particular interest to himself, and does private research in it under the guidance of the moderator. One of the highlights of the Academy's program is the presentation of a symposium to the Senior Class on April 27th, the feast of its patron, St. Peter Canisius.

N F C C S

Front Row: J. Faulkner, Senior Delegate; R. Melican, Regional Treasurer; R. Lucey, Junior Delegate. Back Row: S. Carberry, R. Jorlett, G. McCarthy.

Pros and cons of Pluralism.

The National Federation of Catholic College Students is the united voice of Catholic college undergraduates in the United States. Beyond this, the Federation seeks, as a national organization, on the intercollegiate level of the region, and in the campus units, to develop lay Catholic leadership, to stimulate the student in his intellectual, social, and religious concerns, in sum, to supplement his formal education in preparing him for his role as a Catholic graduate in our American society.

The Fairfield campus unit, coinciding in this intent, adopted for its theme "varied aspects of Catholicism in the context of American pluralism." Campus activity has reflected this theme, while continuing to focus upon events and movements of timely interest, and areas of student concern. This year's activity has been additionally highlighted by the foundation of the student-faculty-administration academic conference. And, as in the past, its services have been at the disposal of a variety of campus organizations.

Though participation in N.F. has been limited to regional affiliation, Fairfield has upheld its tradition of New England leadership in the persons of Robert Melican, Regional Treasurer, and Steve Carberry, N.E. Religious Affairs Coordinator. Representing Fairfield's student body to the fifteen thousand students of the region have been Senior Delegate John Faulkner and Junior Delegate Richard Lucey. They, assisted by Robert Jorlett and Gerald McCarthy, have directed the campus program.

Front Row: R. Sherwin, A. Mannion, J. McCall, J. Burke, D. Royston. Back Row: D. Shay, T. McMahon, R. Berchem, G. Sender, S. Carberry, R. Scarpetti.

C. I. S. L.

Junior Delegate Tony McCall.

The organization dedicated to practical politics for the student, C.I.S.L. enables the student to participate in a mock General Assembly in the state capital at Hartford, Connecticut.

Led by Senior Delegate Vincent Carrafiello and Junior Delegate Tony McCall, the Fairfield legislators again dominated the Hartford session. Although the elections didn't quite go the way that the delegation wanted, the Stags dominated the floor of the House through power politics and a command of rhetoric.

This year the most controversial bill on the floor was a bill to abolish capital punishment in the state. Even though the bill's proponents gained much sentimental support by their impassioned plea that mankind was beyond using the death penalty, the logic and the truth of the Fairfield argument won the day.

Since this year's club was made up mainly of freshmen and sophomores, Fairfield seems certain to dominate the assembly to an even greater extent in the years to come.

The Fairfield University Young Democratic Club was organized with the intention of giving students interested in politics and the Democratic Party the opportunity of gaining valuable experience, while aiding the party at the same time. Under the able leadership of its current president, Robert Sherwin, this intention has been more than fulfilled. The club has presented interesting and varied guest speakers, sent delegates to the state convention, and has been well represented at state Executive Board meetings. During the past election campaign, club members worked with the senior party in order to assure the success of the Democratic ticket on local, state, and national levels.

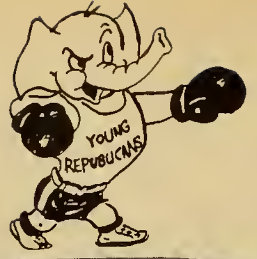
It seems appropriate to mention here the fine work done by the Kennedy-for-President Club during the national campaign. Although an independent organization, this club, under the leadership of Sean Dunphy and Tom Tierney, carried on most of its activities in conjunction with the regular Young Dems. During the first two months of the school year it was far and away the most active club on campus. The highlight of its activities was the sponsoring of a talk by Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., the nationally renowned Harvard historian and Kennedy advisor.

Unaccustomed as I am to public speaking. . .

YOUNG DEMOCRATS

The victors. . . .

YOUNG REPUBLICANS



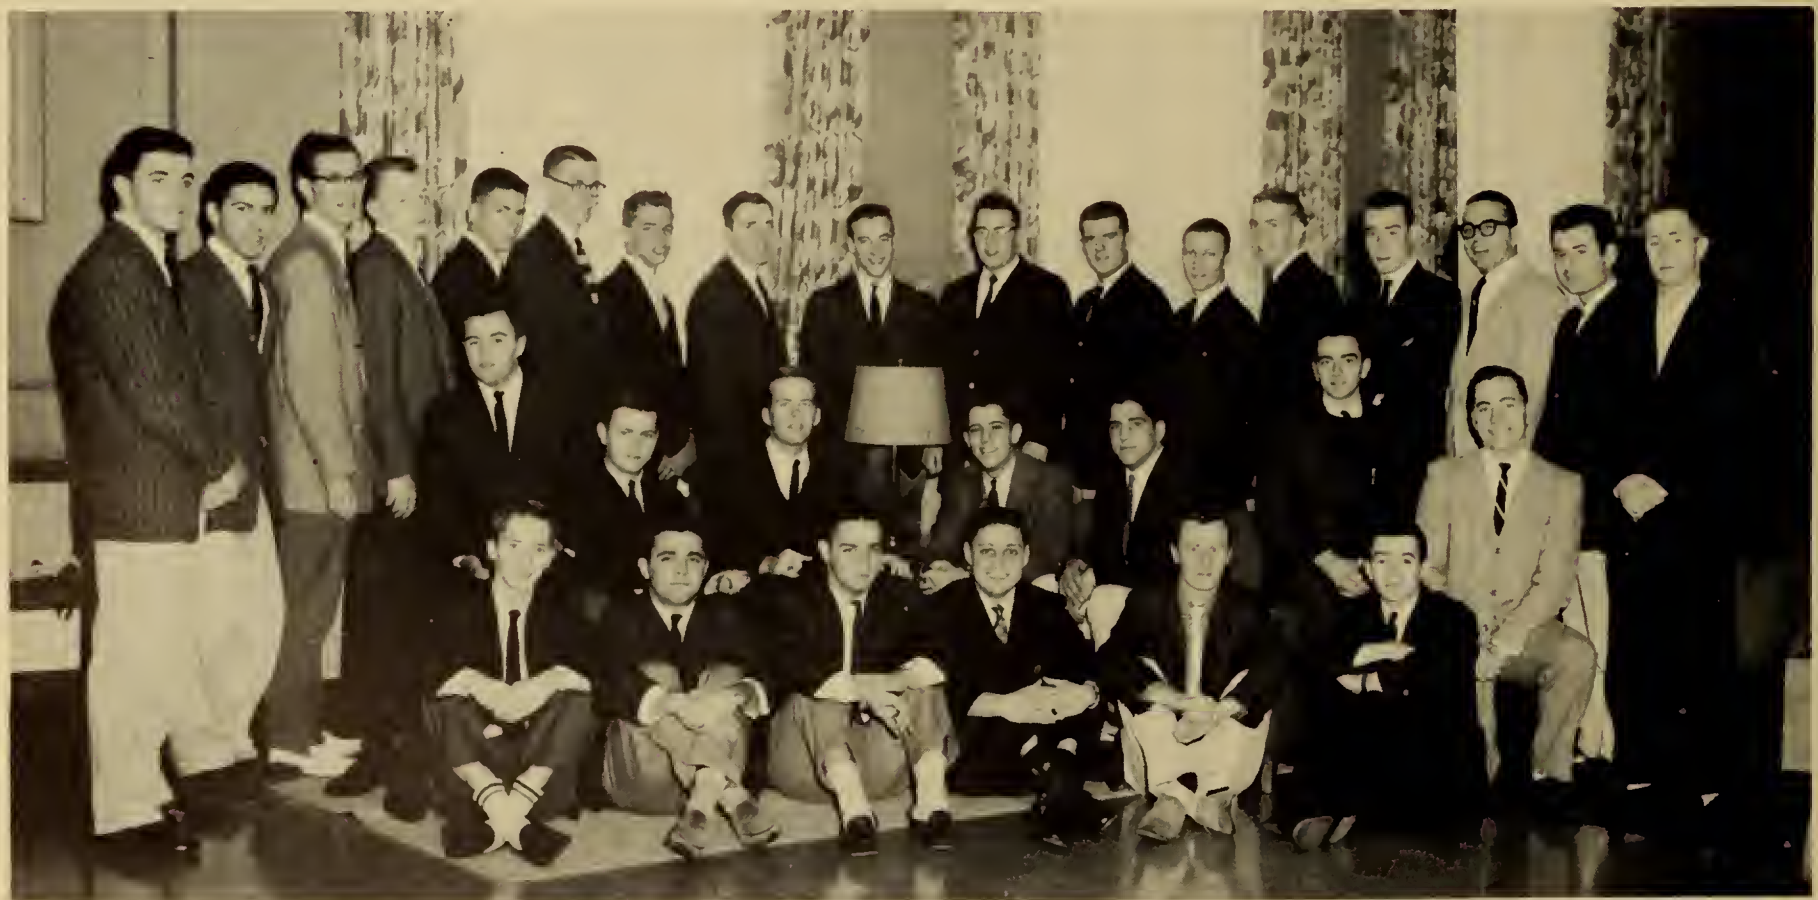
NIXON
FOR PRES
FAIRFIELD U

But Fairfield already has a president.

The Fairfield University Young Republican Club was organized during the presidential election campaign of 1956. The purpose of the organization is to provide a vehicle through which young people who are interested in good government under Republican principles and candidates may become better informed citizens, and to provide a training ground for effective political leadership.

The first few months of this year were especially busy ones for club members, as they participated very actively in the Nixon presidential campaign. A campus Nixon-for-President Club was organized under the chairmanship of Jack Morrison. Campaign activities were directed chiefly toward the towns of Fairfield, Westport, and Norwalk, and included phoning, mailing, and door to door canvassing. A student rally was held on November 2. In addition to their role in the Nixon campaign, club members also gave active support to local and state candidates in the surrounding communities.

With the conclusion of the national campaign, the club limited its activities to the campus. Included among these activities were a student date dance, student banquet, and guest lecturers.



First Row: G. Baxter, T. Porfido, J. Simpson, E. Korpas, T. Spota, P. Heimbuch. Second Row: W. Timmeny, E. Sullivan, Treasurer; W. Sangiovanni, President; R. Picardi, Vice-President; C. Cavalieri, Secretary; P. Keener, J. Cervini. Third Row: M. Tuohy, M. Guglielmo, J. Sande, J. Moran, P. Jones, T. O'Marra, C. Smith, R. Cook, T. Arnold, J. Carway, M. Roccasalvo, J. Duffy, P. Kujawski, D. Marino, L. Williams, J. Safarik.

BELLARMINE DEBATING SOCIETY

No, you've got it wrong. He's Trade and I'm Mark.

The St. Robert Bellarmine Debating Society has as its purpose to develop the speaking and reasoning ability of its members by means of competitive debates on both the intramural and intercollegiate levels.

Senior debaters Fred Abbate, Bob Melican, Dave Royston, Geoff Stokes, and John F. X. Warburton formed the nucleus of this year's Society. These men, each with at least two years' experience in tournament debating, comprised the membership of the varsity teams which represented Fairfield in intercollegiate contests.

In the Brown National Debate Tournament, Fairfield, with Fred Abbate and Dave Royston upholding the affirmative and Geoff Stokes and John F. X. Warburton arguing the negative position, finished fifth in a field of thirty colleges. Among the teams defeated were Amherst, Colgate, M.I.T., and the University of Rhode Island.

A major event of the second semester schedule was the schoolwide public speaking contest sponsored by the Society. It is hoped that such contests will stimulate interest in public speaking and attract more students to the debating team, so that the high standards set by this year's senior members might be prolonged.

Seated: R. Berchem, G. Stokes, R. Melican, F. Abbate, R Ritter. Standing: D. Royston

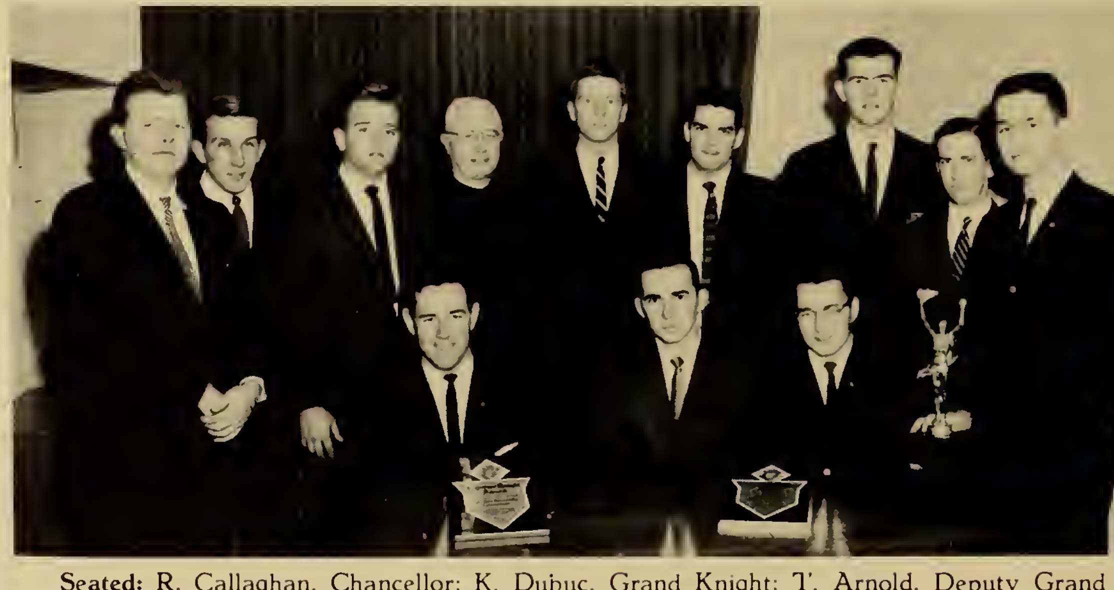
IGNATIAN COUNCIL #4203

First Row: J. McCall, R. Badolato, D. Doolan, J. D'Agostin, G. Ferugia, M. Maloney, J. Rhatigan, W. Gerstner, L. Agostino, J. Perrine, M. Fratantuno, L. Mazzaferro. Second Row: A. Funk, J. Doyle, D. Jones, R. Jorlett, R. Callaghan, B. Coyle, J. Distinti, H. O'Hagan, Rev. T. E. McPeake, S.J., K. Dubuc, T. Arnold, J. O'Leary, J. Barbieri, J. Heller. Third Row: J. Duffy, G. Muller, R. Fleurant, C. Lops, J. Devlin, L. Parent, J. Reilly, J. Charlow, P. Houser, J. Moore. Fourth Row: R. Crowley, R. Garofalo, R. Dowling, R. Cagnassola, F. McDonald, R. Lapierre, G. O'Keeffe, D. Browne, J. O'Brien, N. Willson, B. Slayne, A. Clemintino, D. Gannon, R. Shea, S. Sullivan.

Ignatian Council #4203, Knights of Columbus, is located on campus with an office in Gonzaga Hall. It was chartered in 1956 by the Supreme Council in New Haven, and complies with the rules and regulations of the Knights of Columbus. The Council officers and committee chairmen are students, and are elected or appointed by the Council. In keeping with the standards of the Knights of Columbus, members are taught to practice the basic principles of the Order: Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism.

The Council sponsors activities on the religious, social, fraternal, and educational levels. Among its activities this year were a closed retreat, Communion Breakfasts, Catholic Information Centers, post-prom parties, dances, and a Council newspaper.

In the past five years, the Council's membership has grown to over 420. As a Catholic organization, its aims are practical Catholicism and the training of future leaders in Columbianism. Delegates attend conventions and state meetings. Awards to the Council from the New Haven Supreme Office for its outstanding achievements are numerous. One of these was the Star Council Award, which is the highest award the Supreme Council bestows on local Councils.



Seated: R. Callaghan, Chancellor; K. Dubuc, Grand Knight; T. Arnold, Deputy Grand Knight. Standing: H. O'Hagan, Advocate; J. Barbieri, Trustee; B. Coyle, Outside Guard; Rev. T. E. McPeake, S.J., Chaplain; F. Hendricks, Inside Guard; J. O'Leary, Warden; R. Crowley, Lecturer; J. Heller, Trustee; J. Distinti, Recorder.

First Row: E. Gleason, J. Conroy, R. Gaboury, R. Michael, M. Jasmin, R. Smith. Second Row: J. Renaud, B. MacDonnell, R. Loughlin, E. Fletcher, L. Williams, M. Fiore, M. Speer, A. Scacco. Third Row: F. Cimino, W. Blake, E. Kane, R. Carpenter, R. Yoston, A. Ward, G. Kourkounas, V. DeMarco.

SOCIOLOGY CLUB

The Sociology Club attempts to actualize the principles of Christian Sociology, based on the intrinsic dignity of man, through the personal actions of the club members and the organized actions of the club. Meetings are held every second week for discussion and business purposes.

One of the main functions of the Sociology Club is to familiarize Sociology majors with the unlimited opportunities in the field. This is accomplished chiefly by frequent guest speakers. Topics of interest have included Social Work, City Planning, Insurance Investigation, Personal Survey Work, Guidance (schools), Parole Investigation, and Fund Raising (Charity and Community Organizations). Occasional field trips are another means designated by the club to supplement the theoretical knowledge of the textbook with practical experience.

By these means the Sociology Club hopes to instill in its members a vivid awareness and appreciation not only of the opportunities, but also of the obligations of Sociology.

R. Gaboury, J. Conroy, E. Gleason, R. Michael, M. Jasmin, B. MacDonnell, R. Loughlin.

First Row: M. Oates, J. Simpson, H. Pronovost, P. Slason, President; C. Marvin, G. Sender, K. Mulcahy, J. Devlin, J. Higgins. Second Row: Rev. T. E. McPeake, S.J., Moderator; A. Pricenor, P. Best, C. Keenan, S. Garro, R. Sherwin, F. Marcucio, K. Cavanagh, T. Hintlemann, T. McLaughlin, W. Kane. Third Row: J. Luning; P. Olander, H. Migliore, R. McQuiggan, F. Adinolfi, L. Totte, R. Morse, R. Garofalo, G. Heffernan, R. Ross, J. Lojko, T. Ragozzino, J. Higgins.

STUDENT NEA

A major decision has been reached by a number of students at Fairfield University—to enter the field of teaching upon graduation. A teacher is more than a person well versed in History, Math, or English; he is also what is commonly called a "professional man." The purpose of the Education Club is to prepare its members for the professional side of a teacher's life.

How does the club fulfill this objective? One means is tours of local high schools, which are arranged to give the student an opportunity to view and discuss problems and techniques with accomplished teachers. A bi-weekly newspaper is published, featuring articles by outstanding educators, new methods in teaching, and professional news. The club is affiliated with the S.E.A.C. (Student Education Association of Connecticut), of which Fairfield's Michael Oates is 1960-61 president. This affiliation gives club members the opportunity to attend various local, state, and national conferences dealing with topics related to the teaching profession. Last but not least is the speaker's program, which brings in school officials from the surrounding communities to address the club at its bi-weekly meetings. Thus the club enables its members to become better acquainted with their chosen field, and with the people with whom they shall one day work.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS CLUB

G. Tolmie, D. Shay, P. Best, D. Royston, A. Mannion, W. Timmeny.

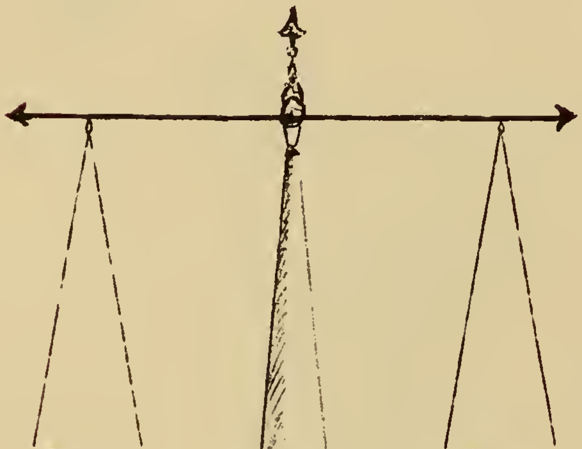
The purpose of the Public Affairs Club is to promote interest in, and provide information on, contemporary political, social, and economic issues. This year the club opened on a bad note, and after a few months of school, President George Tolmie officially announced the abandonment of the club's activities.

With the beginning of the second semester, Tom Tierney, '62, took over the reins of leadership with the hope of rejuvenating student interest in the club, once a main source of good lectures on campus. Rev. William Hohmann, S.J., and Dr. John Norman, co-moderators, gave their official approval to the reorganization.

As we go to print, Mr. Tierney is planning a talk by a guest lecturer on the Cuban Revolution. Next year a renewed membership drive is planned, to restore the Public Affairs Club to its former prominence among campus activities.

First Row: R. Pugliese, R. Jaros, W. Timmeny. Second Row: T. Foley, R. Michael, R. Gaboury, W. Blake, J. Colette, M. Twarkins. Third Row: L. Albee, J. Saffo, D. Shay, D. Royston, H. Millbauer, P. Best.

ST. IVES GUILD



The St. Ives Guild was organized in the fall of 1958 by a group of students interested in law as a possible field of future study and employment. The purpose of the Guild is to cultivate this interest, and furnish the student practical assistance as he advances towards his goal.

In view of this purpose, catalogues from most of the country's major law schools were collected and placed in Canisius Library. Recognizing the need among prospective lawyers for knowledge of the functions and problems of law school life, the Guild sponsors talks by representatives from these various schools. Lectures by local attorneys, many of them Fairfield graduates, are also part of the Guild's program. Finally, students taking the Law School Admission Test are aided by the experience and observations of those who have gone before.

The St. Ives Guild, still a young organization, hopes that its growth will correspond with that of the University, and that it may offer ever increasing assistance to those students whose interests fall within its scope.

BUSINESS CLUB

First Row: A. Verrilli, R. Calabrese, R. Okenquist, E. Jablonsky. Second Row: D. Ciampi, C. Bard, T. Foley, R. McCarthy, R. Bassett, E. Gniadek, A. Koines, R. Balcerzak, J. D'Agostin, C. Eppig, J. Pavlis, J. Charlow, T. Flanagan, A. Samor. Third Row: R. Ferriolo, G. Streff, T. Ryan, H. Millbauer, P. Weberg, M. O'Donnell, J. Mulford, L. Romanczuk, W. Timmeny. Fourth Row: A. Grande, J. Spodnick, P. Houser.

First Row: J. Gabriel, C. Smith, S. Csontos, V. Geisler, B. Johnson, J. Tiscornia. Second Row: T. Hartnett, W. Fagan, P. Vath, F. Tracy, T. McCue, R. Tarantino, J. Broemer, L. Beal. Third Row: M. Lafitte, A. Salcito, L. Merly, C. Lamb, R. Theroux, K. Rossi.

Jesuit educators have always encouraged their students to learn more about their chosen field by planning activities connected with the subject of their choice. This is one of the primary reasons for the establishment of the Business Club of Fairfield University.

Founded in 1951 as a means of co-ordinating classroom theory with practical business insight, the Business Club has consistently presented a program of well-integrated activities in a social-business vein for the interest of its members. Toward that end, the club holds bi-weekly campus meetings and occasional business dinners at local restaurants, at which prominent businessmen are invited to speak. In February of 1960, the club was incorporated under Connecticut State Laws as a non-profit corporation.

Membership is open to all students who have chosen a major field of concentration in Accounting, Economics, or Business. Recently Marketing and Management majors have formed organizations of their own; nevertheless, they are still cordially invited to become members of the Business Club.

MARKETING CLUB

The 1960-61 Marketing Club

The Marketing Club, one of the newer campus organizations, was founded last year under the watchful eye of Mr. Thomas J. Pinkman, moderator. The club has the distinction of being one of the few nationally affiliated organizations on campus. Last year's activities included a number of guest speakers, and field trips and tours to such places as the Columbia Record Company, Carpenter Steel, and the Warner Brothers Box Company. During its first year of existence, the club's membership ranked eleventh in the nation. Plans are now under way for another very active year this year, including a similar program of dinners, guest speakers, field trips, and films.

Give this to the man, and tell him your mother said . . .

The aim of the club is to broaden the student's knowledge of Marketing by presenting problems which are actually met in the business world, and to develop sound thinking in the solution of these problems. The club also sponsors a Marketing Medal, which is awarded at the commencement exercises to the outstanding senior Marketing major.

First Row: G. Streff, J. Mulford, H. Millbauer, J. Charlow, President; J. Bruzas, J. Distinti, T. Foley, Mr. Robert O'Neil, Moderator. Second Row: J. Gabriel, P. Connolly, W. Blake, E. Jablonsky, R. McCarthy, J. Condon, R. Bassett, T. Spota, V. Camilli. Third Row: G. Stratton, C. Schumann, E. O'Brien, T. Hartnett, R. Balcerzak, W. Csontos, R. Schauster. Fourth Row: R. Calabrese, A. Sorensen, T. Rinaldi, J. Devine, R. Lucas. Fifth Row: W. Bruce, T. Leahy, L. Romanczuk, L. Merly, T. Ryan, K. Agnello, W. Peterson, F. Kane.

S.A.M.

The University Chapter program of S.A.M., under the guidance of the various Senior Chapters throughout the country, was established to strengthen management education and further the growth of all students, regardless of their academic major, by stimulating their thinking, widening their knowledge, and developing in them a better understanding of business and the free enterprise system.

Under the guidance of Mr. Robert O'Neil, the faculty advisor, and with the assistance of the Bridgeport Senior Chapter S.A.M., the Fairfield University Chapter attempts to accomplish this objective by bringing together executives in business and students preparing to go into business. This is done through dinner meetings, plant tours, and informal meetings with outside speakers. At the same time the students are given the opportunity to participate in the organizing, planning, directing and controlling of the activities of the organization. In this way they learn to apply good-management principles by doing.

I DON'T HAVE AN ORGANIZATION WIFE;

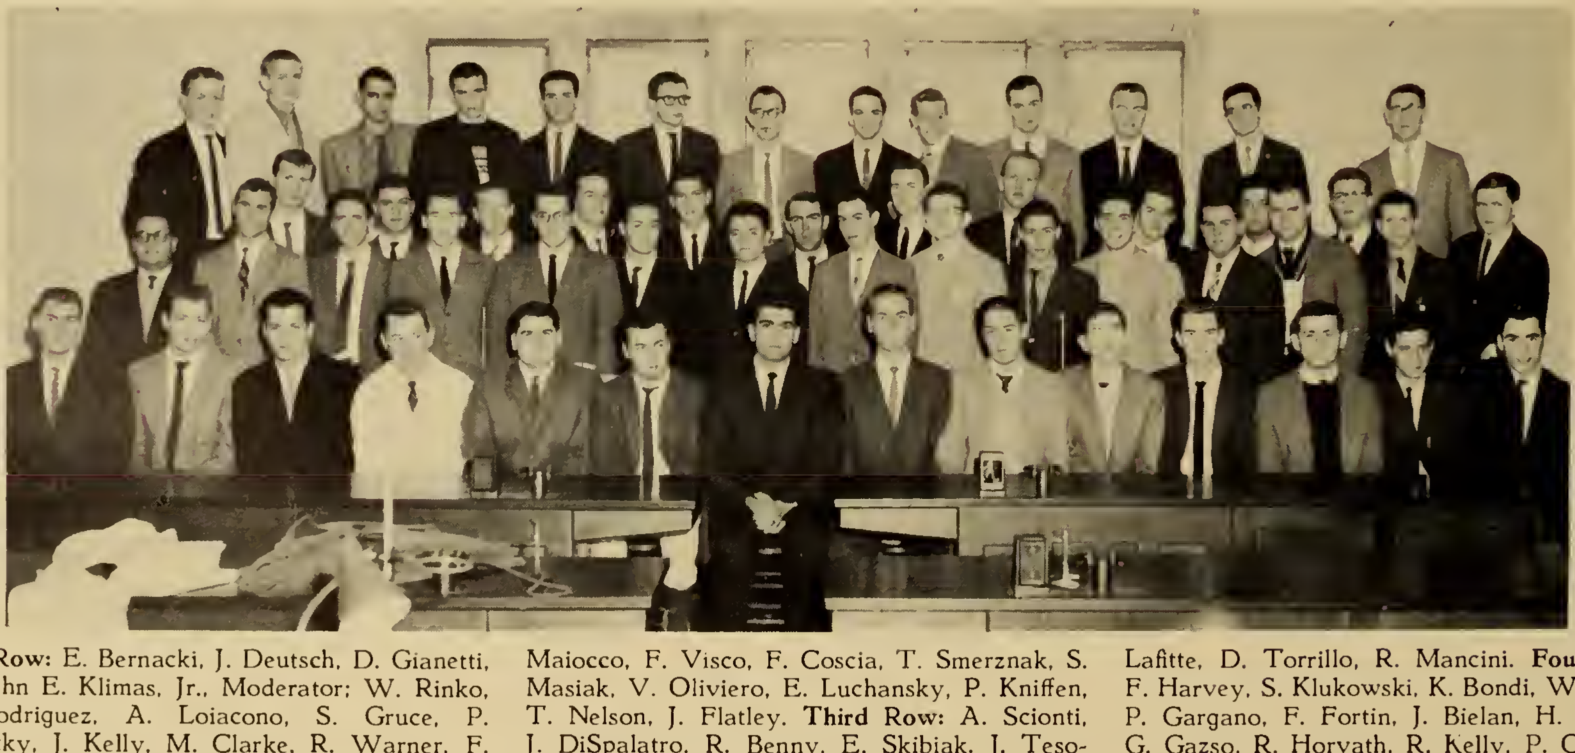
MENDEL CLUB

First Row: R. McCarthy, M. Corcoran, Dr. John E. Klimas, Jr., Moderator; V. Gamba, Treasurer; A. Cuomo, Vice-President; A. Fezza, President; R. Davis, J. D'Apice, Secretary; A. Palladino, R. Resta, R. MacMurray, J. LaTerra. Second Row: F. Federico, C. McDowall, B. Nero, W. Kaczmarczyk, V. Cianci, J. Cannizzaro, S. Stern, P. Maher, G. Lardizzone, T. Maguder, M. Rinaldi, R. Lovanio, R. Trabert, R. Cook, R. Lund, V. Fazio, E. Molloy, R. Cwik. Third Row: J. Rhatigan, E. Sella, A. Fappiano, A. Clemintino, N. Wisneski, T. Beatty, A. Vallone, J. Gamba, R. Ferreira, F. Baumann, B. Shubert, J. Clabby.

The Mendel Club, named after Augustinian monk Gregor Mendel, an outstanding botanist and scientist who first formulated the three principles which govern the laws of heredity, was established as an official school organization in 1949. Since its institution, the seedling organization of a handful of pioneers has germinated and grown into a flourishing club consisting of over one hundred active members.

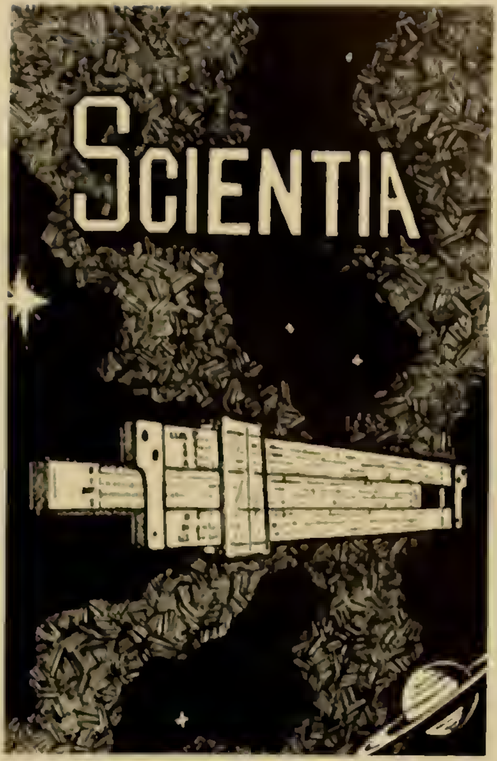
It is the purpose of the club to stimulate individual research, and to cultivate a deeper interest in the biological sciences by emphasizing the fact that not all knowledge is merely routine "book-learning." Meetings are conducted bi-monthly for the presentation of original student papers or projects on the ethical, social, and economic aspects of Biology, as well as technical papers on recent medical research. Evening socials enhance and supplement the regular meetings. These may feature prominent guest lecturers, movies, or perhaps an occasional mixer or date dance. The members of the Mendel Club publish biannually The Nucleus, an informative student magazine consisting of interesting and original reports on timely and informative biological topics.

It was the pleasure of the current administration of the club to have established an award, to be given to a junior member judged to have most aided the club in fulfilling its ideals and goals. This accolade was instituted in memory of the late Rev. Francis X. Wilkie, S.J., former Mendel Club moderator, to whom all members, past, present, and to come, owe so very much.



First Row: E. Bernacki, J. Deutsch, D. Gianetti, Dr. John E. Klimas, Jr., Moderator; W. Rinko, P. Rodriguez, A. Loiacono, S. Gruce, P. Krenicky, J. Kelly, M. Clarke, R. Warner, F. Forte, P. Reilly. Second Row: M. Corsaro, J. Bobinski, B. Dietz, T. Kravis, F. DeAngelo, K. Maiocco, F. Visco, F. Coscia, T. Smerznak, S. Masiak, V. Oliviero, E. Luchansky, P. Kniffen, T. Nelson, J. Flatley. Third Row: A. Scionti, J. DiSpalatro, R. Benny, E. Skibiak, J. Tesoriero, T. Leonard, B. Podurgiel, T. Reddy, M. Lafitte, D. Torrillo, R. Mancini. Fourth Row: F. Harvey, S. Klukowski, K. Bondi, W. LaBore, P. Gargano, F. Fortin, J. Bielan, H. DiMeola, G. Gazso, R. Horvath, R. Kelly, P. O'Connell, R. Wild.

MATH-PHYSICS SOCIETY



First Row: R. Biroschak, Vice-President; T. Hayes, J. Distinti, F. Murphy, G. Vojacsek, E. Anderson, President; J. Stanizeski, R. Keough, D. Johnson, W. Menosky. Second Row: E. Smith, J. Jalbert, T. Ungerland, J. Healey, A. Funk, J. Tokarski, P. Lenart, L. Skane, T. Ryan, J. Lesko.

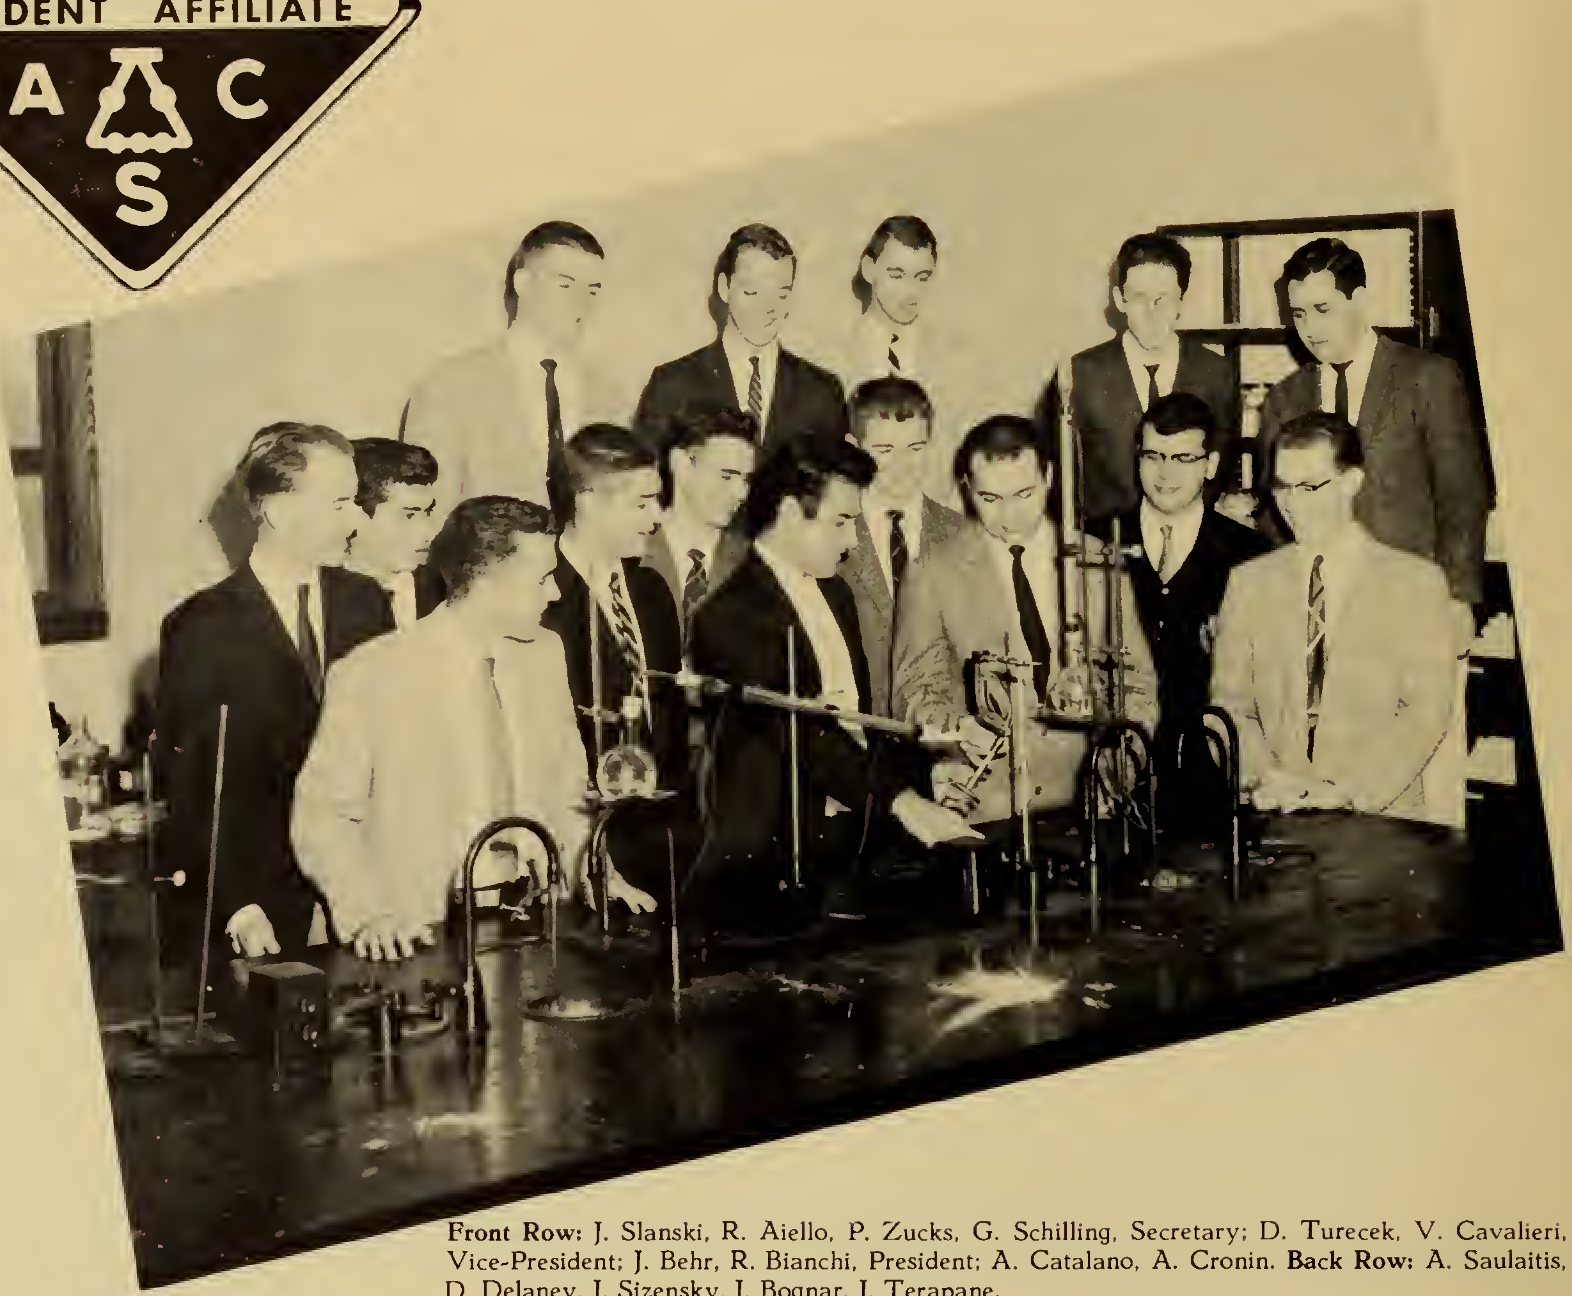
The Math-Physics Society might be briefly described as a semi-informal gathering of scientists-to-be with the common aim of broadening their knowledge in physics and applied mathematics, and also developing a sense of professional pride in their chosen field of study. Ever mindful of the statement of purpose in its constitution, "the advancement and diffusion of knowledge of the science of physics and its applications to human welfare," the Society in the past year undertook a varied and extensive program.

One of the major components of this program was the formation of a workable "Rocket Division," headed by senior physics majors J. Jalbert and J. Tokarski. The project was to fully design, construct, and fire a solid-fuel rocket capable of performing a few physics experiments at high altitudes. Many difficulties were encountered in the design structure, but thanks to E. Smith, '61, and some of the senior math majors, the rocket was successfully fired at the U. S. Army Missile Range in Maryland. It was certainly one of the most notable achievements in the Society's brief history.

Another major accomplishment for the Society was the broadening in scope of its quarterly journal, Scientia. Formerly the journal's contents had been limited to papers by undergraduate physicists and mathematicians. However, under the editorship of R. Biroschak, and assistant R. Cappelletti, Scientia obtained full administration approval and financial support, and became the undergraduate scientific journal for the entire University, supplanting the individual magazines of the various science clubs.

The third part of the Society's program was to sponsor, in cooperation with the University's other science clubs, the second annual Science Forum. The central topic was "Cancer," and it was approached from the chemical, biological, and physical aspects. Participating colleges included Fordham University, Boston College, and Holy Cross, with guest speakers and films provided by the American Institute of Physics and the American Cancer Society. Also among the Society's activities were field trips, student lectures and demonstrations, and the showing of special scientific movies provided by the Atomic Energy Commission, the Bell Telephone Laboratories, and the A.I.P.

Thus we can say that the 1960-61 Math-Physics Society, under the presidency of E. W. Anderson, was active, varied, instructive, and, most of all, successful!



Front Row: J. Slanski, R. Aiello, P. Zucks, G. Schilling, Secretary; D. Turecek, V. Cavalieri, Vice-President; J. Behr, R. Bianchi, President; A. Catalano, A. Cronin. Back Row: A. Saulaitis, D. Delaney, J. Sizensky, J. Bognar, J. Terapane.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The Fairfield University Chapter of Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society, better known as the Chemistry Club, has as its purpose "to stimulate in the members a greater interest in chemistry, and to provide an opportunity to increase and widen their knowledge of chemistry." Bi-weekly meetings are held at which student papers are presented, thereby accustoming the student to presenting technical material before chemical audiences, as well as providing a stimulus for individual research. Visits to chemical plants and lectures by professional men are intended to secure that intellectual stimulation that arises from professional association, and to foster professional spirit among members.

This year's club, headed by President Robert Bianchi, began the year with a revision of the club's Constitution and By-Laws. The chapter publication, The Condenser, newly arranged and edited by Antanas Saulaitis and assistant John Slanski, appeared three times, with one of the issues dedicated to the tenth anniversary of the founding of the club. A tour of the chemistry laboratories was arranged for the Preparatory School students. Members of the club participated fully on the committee for the second annual Science Forum. The club, under the able guidance of its moderator, Rev. Gerald F. Hutchinson, S.J., also began a move to provide direct and close contact with alumni chemistry majors.

As its name implies, this organization is dedicated to the study of those phenomena concerned with living organisms. Its purpose is to stimulate interest in the natural sciences among non-science majors. Thus, membership is open to all who are not connected with the Biology Department.

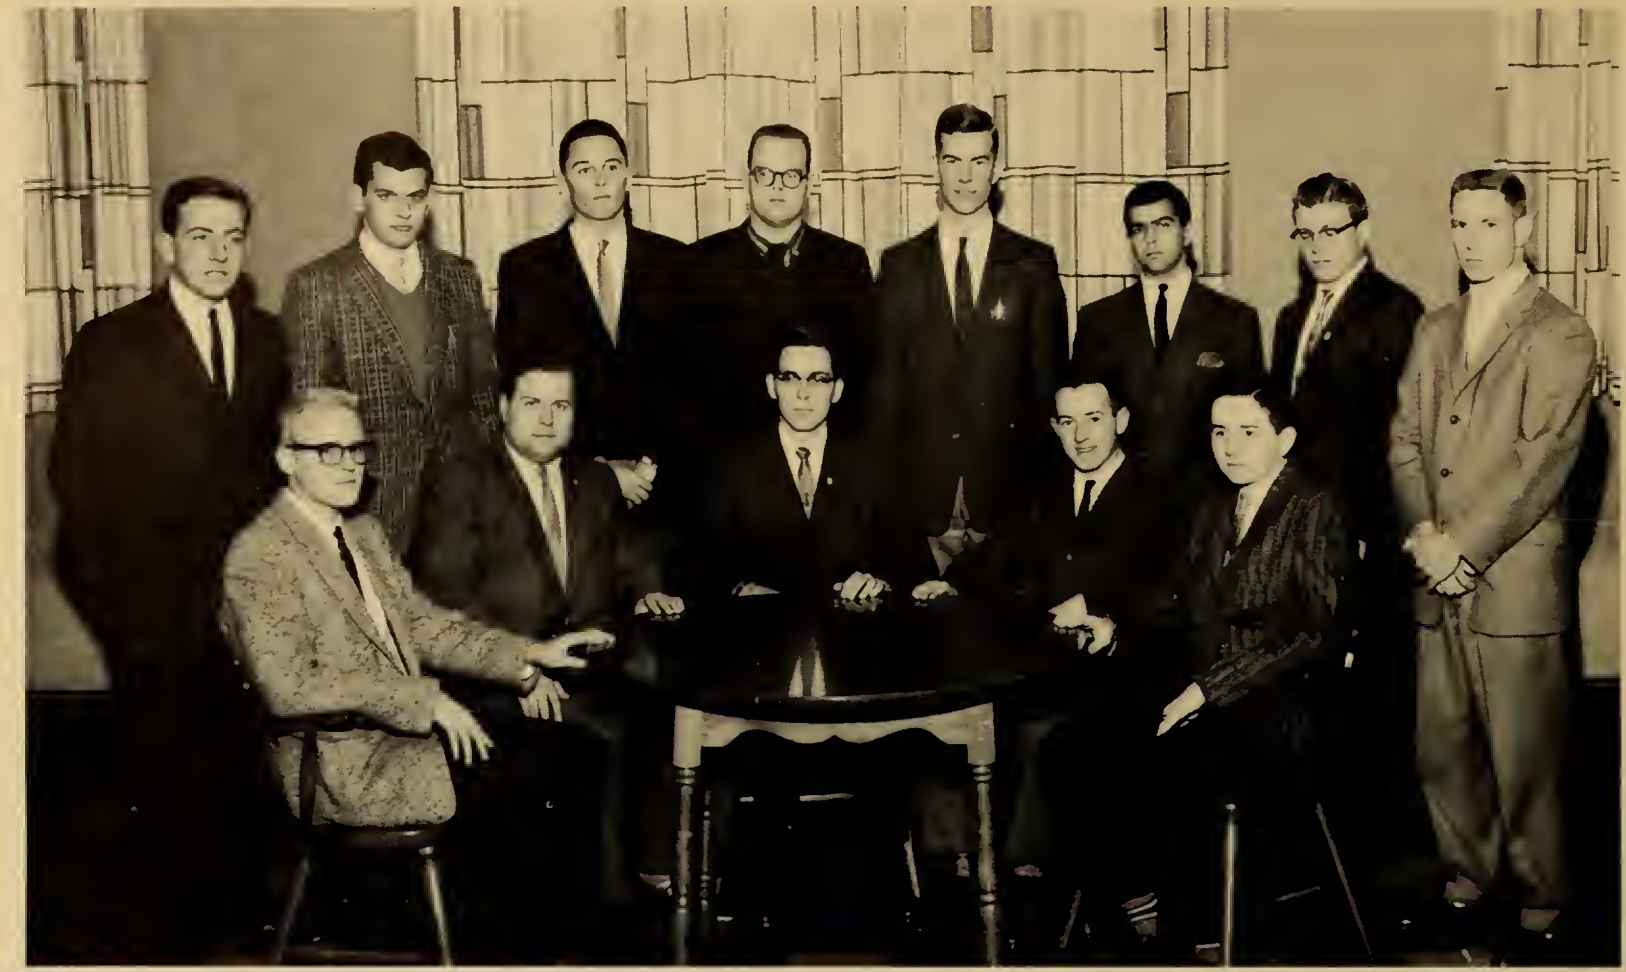
Meeting twice monthly, the members deliver papers concerned with their particular interest in Biology. These papers are a result of research and study conducted by the student, in which he is guided by members of the Biology Department. A question and answer period follows the delivery of each paper. To date, the members of the Academy have presented papers on such topics as mental illness, cancer, Caesarian birth, normal cardiac function, psychosomatic disorders, and the relation of various organic disorders to procuring life insurance.

The Academy presents a unique opportunity to students to develop research and dissertation skills, as well as advancement in the theoretical and practical knowledge of the field.

Watch what happens when I squeeze.

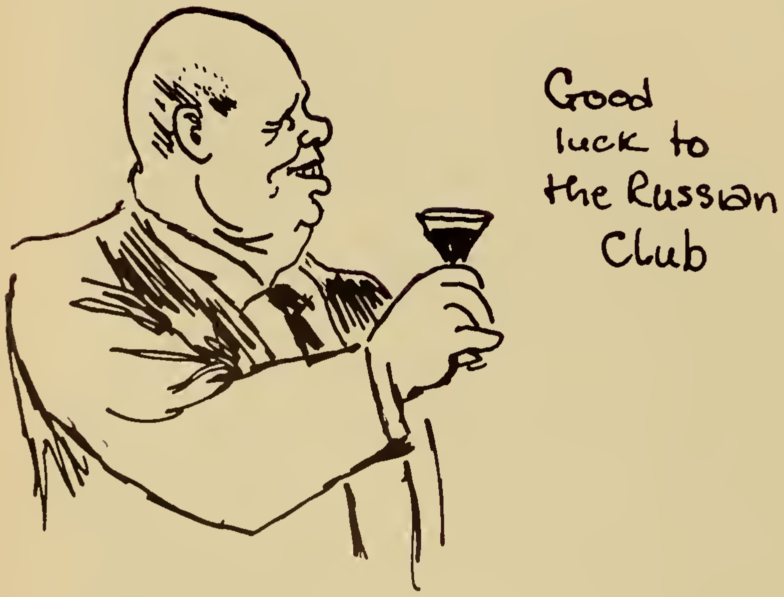
BIOS LOGOS ACADEMY

"Good evening, Ed."



Seated: P. Behuniak, Secretary; Mr. Wolfe M. Czamansky, Moderator; P. Best, President; R. DeAngelis, Vice-President; M. Smerznak, Treasurer. Standing: J. Russoniello, J. Bogacz, N. Balthasar, R. Serafin, F. Crowley, R. Kolesnik, F. Klecha, E. Murphy.

RUSSIAN CIRCLE



Good luck to the Russian Club

Realizing that the study of a language must not be confined merely to grammar, translation, and the like, but must be accompanied by the study of the people and the country in which the language is used, the first students of the Russian language at Fairfield banded together and formed the Russian Circle.

Today Russian cannot be just an academic discipline; it has great political overtones. Russian Communism is a fact of today's life. The Russian Circle was instituted to spread the knowledge of this basic fact and its manifold implications, not only among the students of the language, but to the campus at large. We are particularly indebted to those members of the faculty who lectured on various aspects of the Soviet scene. Among them were Dr. Buczek, speaking on Poland and the U.S.S.R., and the Yalta agreements, Dr. Norman, on the U.N. and Russian Communist Tactics, Mr. Lilienthal, on the Soviet Man, and Mr. Petry, on Russian Music. Our Moderator, Mr. Wolfe M. Cyzmansky, has taught us much about philology, and the place of the Russian Language in the Indo-European Group.

FRESHMAN ORIENTATION

The Orientation for the Class of 1963 was the first really big orientation at Fairfield. Dances, a stag night, psychological testing, intramurals, a field day, classes, a communion breakfast, and the Presidential Tea combined to give the freshman a hurried, frenetic look at the life of which they would be a part at F.U.

The planning board for the Orientation was chairmanned by Art Mannion and seated John Vaitkus, Dave Royston, Bob Melican, Dave Shay, Ray Nalewajk, Jim Coffey, Ed Korpas, Lou Parent, and Rocco Pugliese. These men schemed a terrific week of activities to keep the frosh occupied.

After registration was completed the frosh swung into the activities with a lot of yelling and cheering that helped build their class spirit. Wednesday night they were treated to a twelve act Stag night featuring Joe Monahan, Steve Dempsey, and four rock 'n roll bands. Thursday saw the start of the ten team Orientation Football Tournament. Friday night, eight girls' colleges invaded the campus to begin their search for the ideal Fairfield man.

Saturday afternoon the 1st Annual Freshman-Sophomore Field Day took place. It started with a track meet, proceeded to a greased pig chase (the pig was too big for this nonsense so he chased the frosh), a greased pole climb, and a tug of war over the sweet waters of Bellarmine pond. The frosh won the tug of war by snubbing their end of the rope around a tree and pulling half the sophomore class into the drink. Following their victory, the happy frosh unceremoniously dumped the chairman into the pond, twice.

The Class of '61 started the tradition of an Orientation Week that sparked co-operation and class spirit among the frosh. Our hope is that the Orientations of the future will be bigger and better in achieving these ends.

ST. CECILIA SOCIETY

J. Tuite, J. Bognar, A. Westerfield, A. Catalano, D. Preziosi.

The St. Cecilia Society is a group of students who meet once a week to listen to distinguished compositions from all periods of musical history. At each meeting a volunteer presents a program of his own choice of records that he would like the other members to hear. He may make any remarks that he wishes to make about the music, or he may refer to critical comments. Thus the members hear and learn about a great many musical scores with which they might not otherwise be familiar, including famous masterpieces as well as little known compositions of great merit.

The Society welcomes as members people with all grades of musical knowledge, from the sophisticated, long-time student to the man with a rather vague desire to hear some good music. The Society's purpose is not only to entertain those who know music, but also to educate, in the most enjoyable way, those who do not know it. In such a manner the St. Cecilia Society attempts to make its own particular contribution to the cultural life of Fairfield University. The Society is also in the process of building its own record collection.

J. Bognar puts on record, with J. Tuite, A. Westerfield watching.

DANTE ACADEMY

V. LaBella, Vice-President; D. Preziosi, President; C. Lops, Treasurer; R. Garofalo, Secretary.

Seated: J. Bognar, W. Brady, V. LaBella. Standing: J. Churchill, R. Garofalo, D. Preziosi, R. Tino, J. Tuite, E. Nishball, C. Lops.

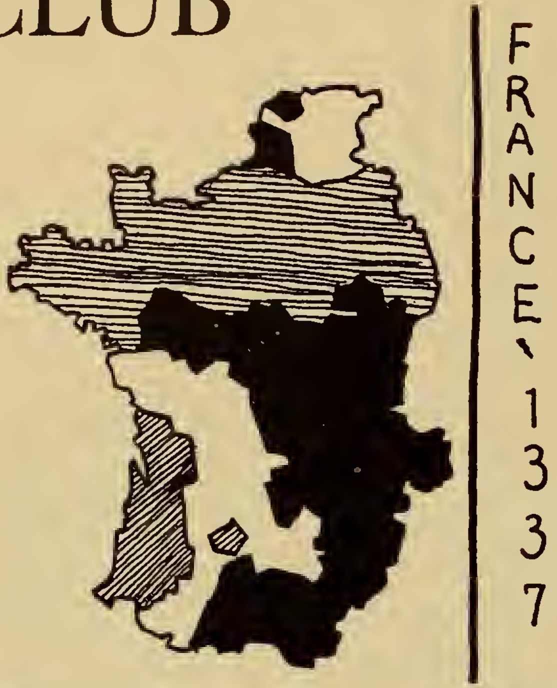
In September of 1958, a group of upperclassmen approached the Chairman of the Modern Languages Department, Rev. Victor F. Leeber, S.J. with the proposal that a new club be founded with the general purpose of studying and appreciating the great masterpieces of Italian Literature. This was immediately approved by Fr. Leeber, who went on to suggest that, instead of an ordinary club, they should found an academy of serious students dedicated to the life and works of Dante Alighieri—in particular, his immortal masterpiece, the Divine Comedy. With this quiet beginning there came into existence the Dante Academy.

Its purpose, then, is "to study and appreciate the masterpiece of world literature, the Divina Comedia, in its various aspects: literary, theological, philosophical and historical." Membership is open to all interested students with or without a background in the Italian language.

Conducted on a seminar basis, the Academy last year studied the Purgatorio; this year it is undertaking the Paradisio of the Divine Comedy, after which the three-year cycle will begin again with the Inferno. Each weekly meeting of one hour is divided into a short business session or a lesson in Italian grammar by the moderator, and a major talk on a selected Canto by a member of the Academy, followed by a period of discussion.

In addition to lectures by each member of the Academy, there are occasional guest lecturers who speak on such topics as "The Historical Background of Dante's Works," and "Milton and Dante." Certain members become engaged in writing special research papers; and, during the year, the Academy as a whole offers a symposium on "Dante and his Divine Comedy" for the benefit of the student body.

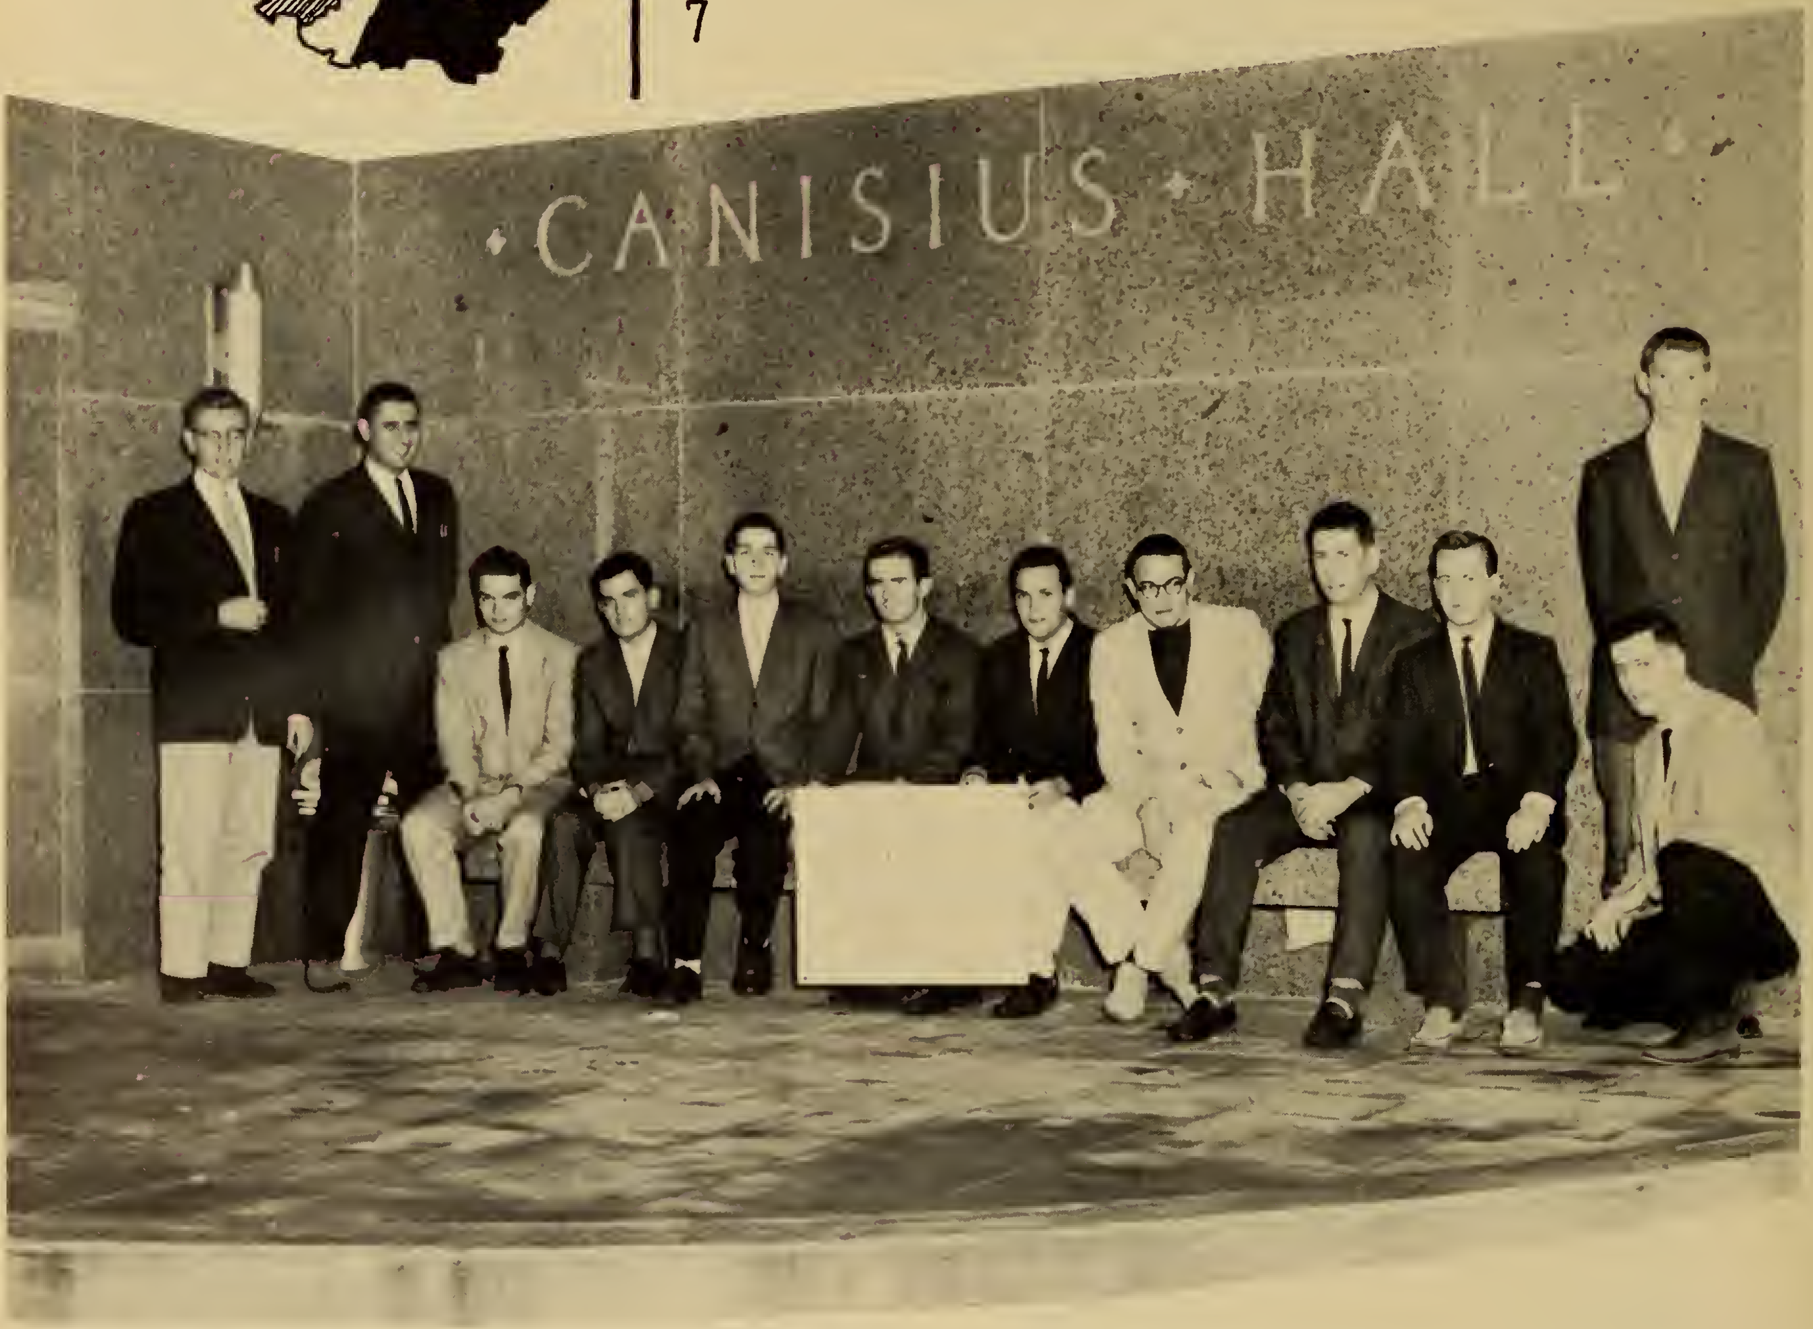
FRENCH CLUB



The French Club strives to increase the knowledge of its members about France, its citizens, language, and cultural heritage, and to promote a spirit of interest, appreciation, and understanding towards the major role France has played in the formation of the Western World.

To achieve these ends, the club sponsors bi-weekly lectures and films on all the varied aspects of French civilization. It also conducted a trip to Quebec to allow its members a personal sampling of the French way of life. In an effort to stimulate interest in these areas on the part of young people, an annual contest on French civilization is held for the high-school students of the state.

The faculty moderator of the club is Dr. Gerard B. McDonald. This year's slate of officers includes President William Coyle, Vice-President Michael Oates, Secretary James Tuite, and Treasurer John Murphy.



J. Tuite, R. Tino, C. Wulle, T. Tiernan, R. Bethke, M. Oates, V. Camilli, J. Sneider, E. Scully, R. Thornton, C. Bialowas, W. Coyle.

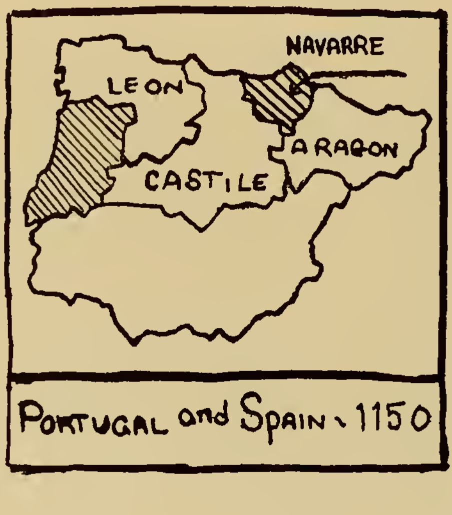
Deutschland über alles.

GERMAN CLUB

The German Club seeks to arouse in its members an active interest in various aspects of German life and literature. In line with this purpose, members are urged not only to develop a fluent reading and speaking knowledge of German, but also to pursue independent research beyond the confines of the classroom in such areas as music, folklore, and political organization and leaders.

Last year witnessed an increased interest in the club, due to the increasing number of students studying German. The resulting increase in activity included a monthly German newspaper written entirely by the club members, and the regular showing of German movies. Thus the club fosters a greater awareness of German intellectual life, and a better understanding of the German people and their manner of living.

SPANISH CLUB



A more profound understanding of Spanish culture has been created at Fairfield University through the efforts of the Spanish Club. The purpose of the club is to "provide students of Spanish with the means of supplementing their knowledge of the Spanish language, of the Spanish-speaking peoples, and of the culture of these people."

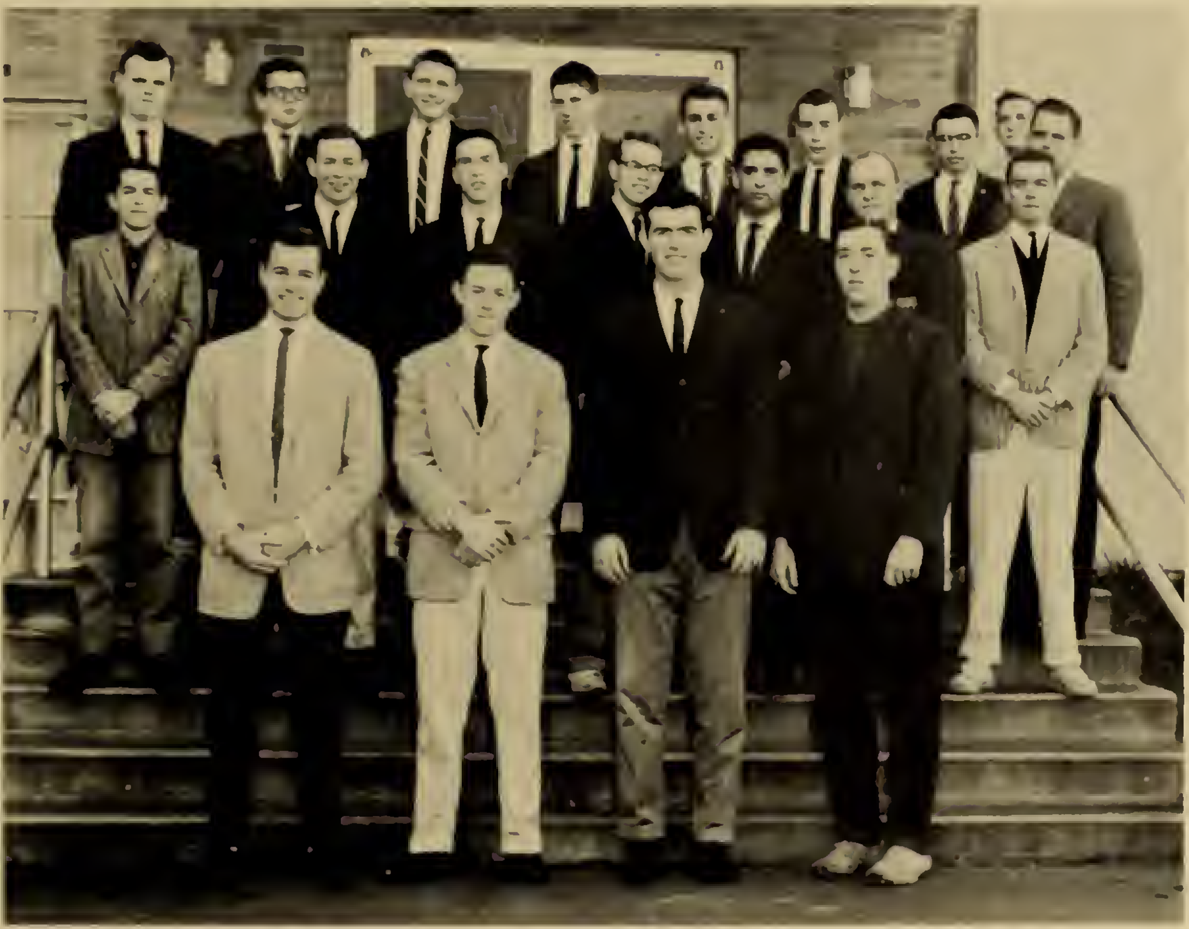
Although it is one of the University's most recently formed organizations, the club has enjoyed a very successful year. At the bi-weekly meetings, guest speakers and student reports provide the members with increased knowledge of Spanish contributions to the Western World. Occasionally films are shown on different aspects of Spanish life. As a means of becoming more proficient in speaking and understanding the language, the club has use of the language laboratory, one of the best-equipped and most modern in the United States. Students record passages on the tape recorder and then play them back, listening for exact pronunciation and accent.

Although the club is still in the early stages of growth, its accomplishments in such a brief period of time have been considerable.

Seated: M. Quinlan, S. Kolbay, Moderator Mr. Mario Guarcello, E. Burke. Standing: T. Fitzgerald, T. Phelan, J. Ambrose.

BAY STATE CLUB

I refuse to answer on the grounds . . . .



First Row: J. Burke, S. Dunphy, R. Crowley, B. Lawler. Second Row: J. Pronovost, F. Lee, R. Corcoran, J. Faulkner, W. Masi, L. Parent, W. Murphy. Third Row: J. Diemand, F. Fortin, J. Larkin, E. Fort, J. Curtin, P. Kujawski, J. Davidson, G. Sender, G. Duff.

The Bay State Area Club was founded for the purpose of conducting fraternal, social, and intellectual activities during the academic year as well as during vacations. Its sixty-five dues paying members come not only from Massachusetts, but also from Rhode Island, Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont.

The organization sponsors activities in Boston, Worcester, Springfield, and in the greater campus area. In the past the club has sponsored a Glee Club Concert and lectures on various topics, as well as the customary dances and dinner meetings. The club participated in the orientation of this year's freshman class by hosting the Bay State freshmen at a ball-game and dinner in Boston. The annual Christmas Dance was held at the Hillcrest Country Club in Worcester.

The officers for the 1960-61 club are Brian J. Lawler, '61, of New Bedford, President; Jerome Burke, '62, of Springfield, Vice-President; Sean M. Dunphy, '62, of Northampton, Secretary; Robert J. Crowley, '61, of Dorchester, Treasurer. Faculty moderator is Rev. Henry Murphy, S.J.

BRIDGEPORT CLUB

First Row: F. Forte, K. Cavanagh, E. Fitzgerald, D. Royston, L. Zowine. Second Row: M. Glynn, E. Kuruc, A. Kennedy, L. Williams, J. Saffo. Third Row: D. Radile, A. Verrilli, W. Csontos, J. Stanizeski, M. Jasmin. Fourth Row: D. Shay, P. Best, R. Morse, R. Whelan, R. Violetta. Fifth Row: R. Eagan, K. Bogan, J. Clune, R. Hannon, J. Maturo. Sixth Row: J. Waldeyer, D. Marino, R. Thornton, L. Lavigne, R. Metzger. Seventh Row: W. Sayles, J. Ambrose, J. Pezzullo, L. O'Connor, J. Rooney. Eighth Row: E. Pagano, G. Gazso, D. Emilia, J. Tokarski, R. Keough. Ninth Row: R. Lyman, S. Csontos, T. McMahon, C. Ahern, W. Fitzgibbon. Tenth Row: E. Nishball, H. Millbauer, H. Werthmann, T. Catalano. Eleventh Row: R. Bazata.

You're a lovely couple and I hope you win the prize

"To promote fraternal ties among its members and to cooperate with the University in the betterment of student relations." This, the purpose and goal of the Bridgeport Area Club, was fully realized during the past school year by its numerous dances, stag nights, and awards to students.

Under the capable leadership of Mr. Kenneth M. Kunsch, Moderator, and Lou Zowine, President, the club functioned very smoothly and efficiently in the performance of its activities. These activities included dances at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter, and an outstanding player award at the Fairfield-University of Bridgeport basketball game.

The Bridgeport Area Club is proud that through its activities it has, in a small way, made Fairfield University a better place for its students.

Take it easy, there's enough to go around

HARTFORD AREA CLUB
FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY

Kneeling: A. Forte, L. DiMaria, R. Clarkin, P. Maher, J. Doyle, E. Bleau, A. Wilson, E. Bernacki, F. Filloramo, K. Agnello. Standing: T. Mettling, E. Massey, W. Keegan, C. Smith, V. LaBella, R. Lapierre, E. Bader, F. Perrone, J. Campise, W. Blake, M. Twarkins, R. O'Donnell, R. Manning, P. McNulty, J. Charlow, S. Garro, P. O'Connell, E. Coll, R. Lucas.

Since its inauguration in the early years of the University, the Hartford Area Club has sought to provide social activities throughout the year, in order to promote closer friendships among its members. This year the club initiated an ambitious annual scholarship award. Two scholarships, each worth two hundred dollars, were awarded at the club's first event of the year, the Freshman Welcoming Party. During the year the club held several parties and dances. Most notable of these was a Post-Ball Party following the Intercollegiate Dance in Hartford. Contact has been made with the Hartford papers so that any noteworthy accomplishments of club members may be published. This year the undergraduate section, in conjunction with the Alumni Club, sponsored a Glee Club Concert in Hartford. For a club of its size and resources, this was a most ambitious project.

The Hartford Area Club hopes that through its functions it has made Fairfield University a better place for the students from the Hartford Area.

B. Beaudin, A. Wilson, E. Bleau reminisce about the Intercollegiate.

Seniors and Officers Seated: E. Bleau, Treasurer, J Doyle, President, A. Wilson, Corresponding Secretary, P. Maher, Recording Secretary Standing: K. Agnello, R Lucas, C. Smith, J. Charlow, R O'Donnell, W. Blake, M Twarkins, V LaBella.

NEW ΒΑΣ YORK

Sorry, fellas, we're sick of typing captions . . .

METROPOLITAN CLUB

The "Met Club" is a permanent, active, social organization, established to protect and promote the welfare of its members, and to provide a basis for a strong alumni organization.

Each fall the incoming freshmen from the New York area are invited to attend a stag held in a prominent New York hotel, where they are welcomed to Fairfield University as students and as members of the New York Metropolitan Club. The friendships made at this time last through the years, and are a stepping stone towards the student's orientation to college life.

However, in the respected opinion of the president . . .

Now that you've finished shoveling the parking lot . . .

During the school year the club sponsors several dances, the largest of which is the annual Christmas Dance at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City. The school year is brought to a close with a beach party at Jones Beach.

The club is presided over by six officers who are elected each Spring. This year's officers were: Jim O'Brien, President; Pete Houser, Vice-President; Brian Slayne, Treasurer; Bob Ross, Publicity Director; John Moore, Recording Secretary; Dom Torrillo, Corresponding Secretary.

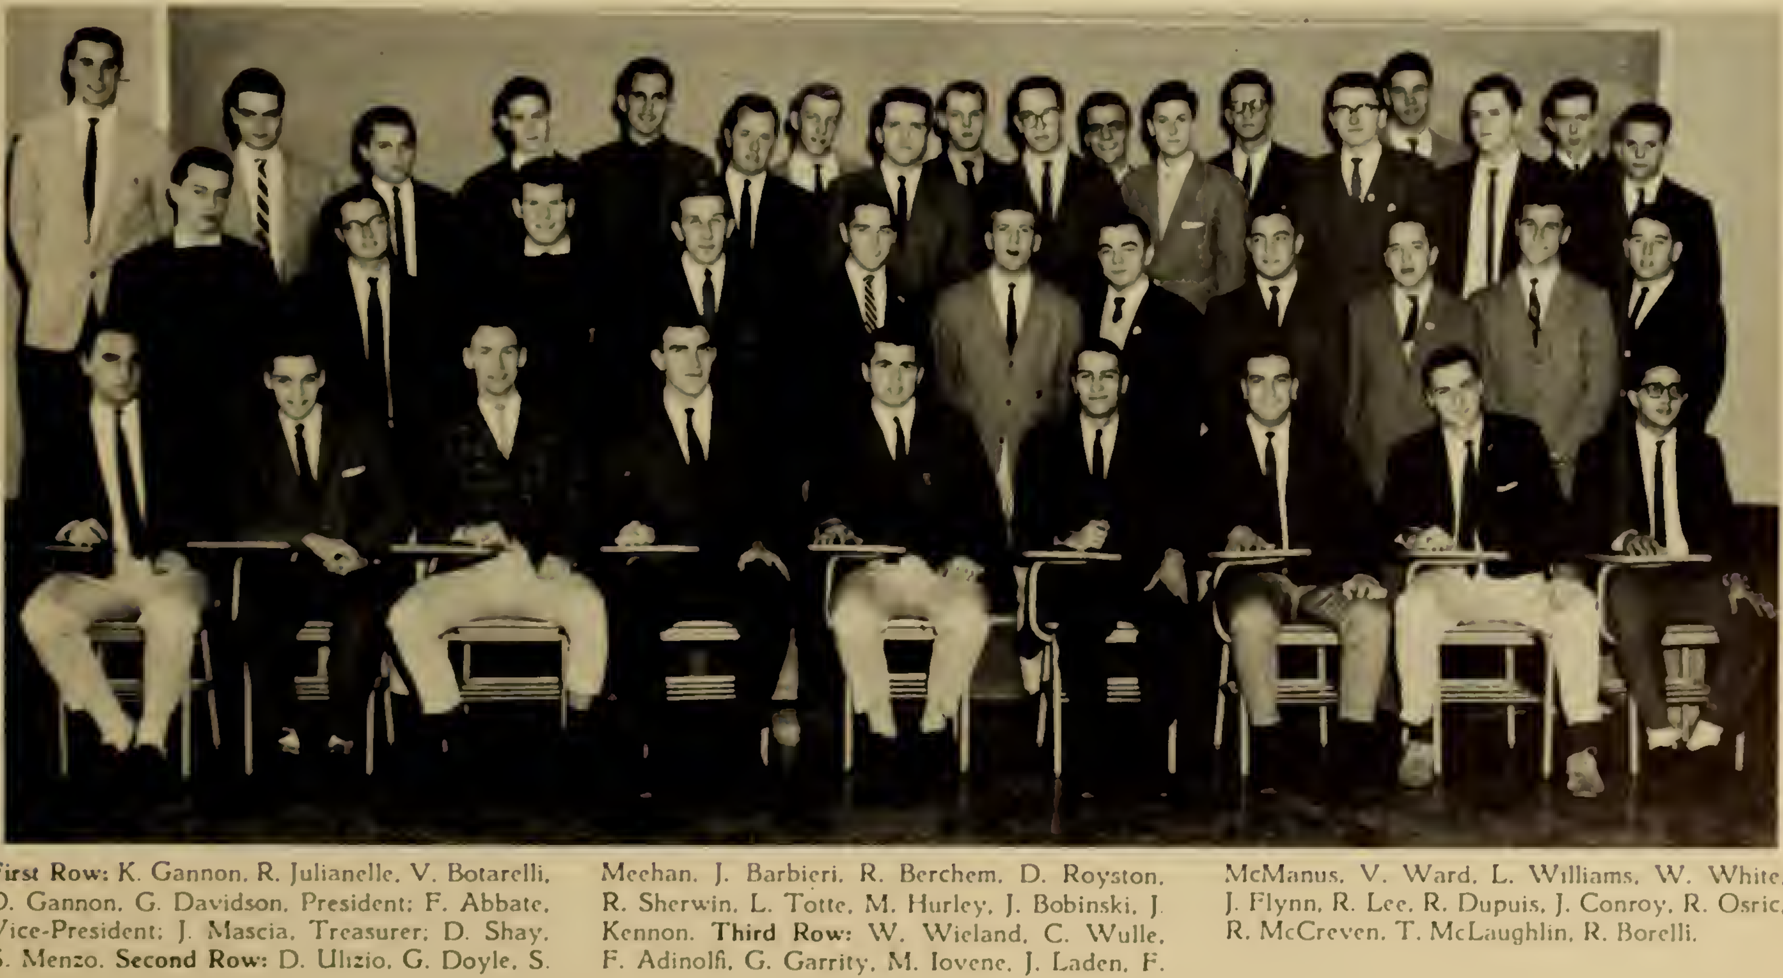
NEW HAVEN CLUB

Officers?

There is much more than a territorial boundary holding the New Haven Area Club together and keeping it in common purpose. Its success and rapid growth are explained by the camaraderie which has existed as far back as one can remember, and which pervades every social and organizational activity undertaken. Some of these activities have already established themselves as strong traditions, not only within the club itself, but for the numerous "outsiders" who naturally associate good times and old friends with a New Haven Club function.

One such reunion is the ever-returning New Year's Eve gathering, done on a somewhat spectacular scale, and an extravaganza which calls for and gets the cooperation of every participating member in the club. Another is the party given at Thanksgiving, a conviviality with historical roots stretching to the Pilgrims.

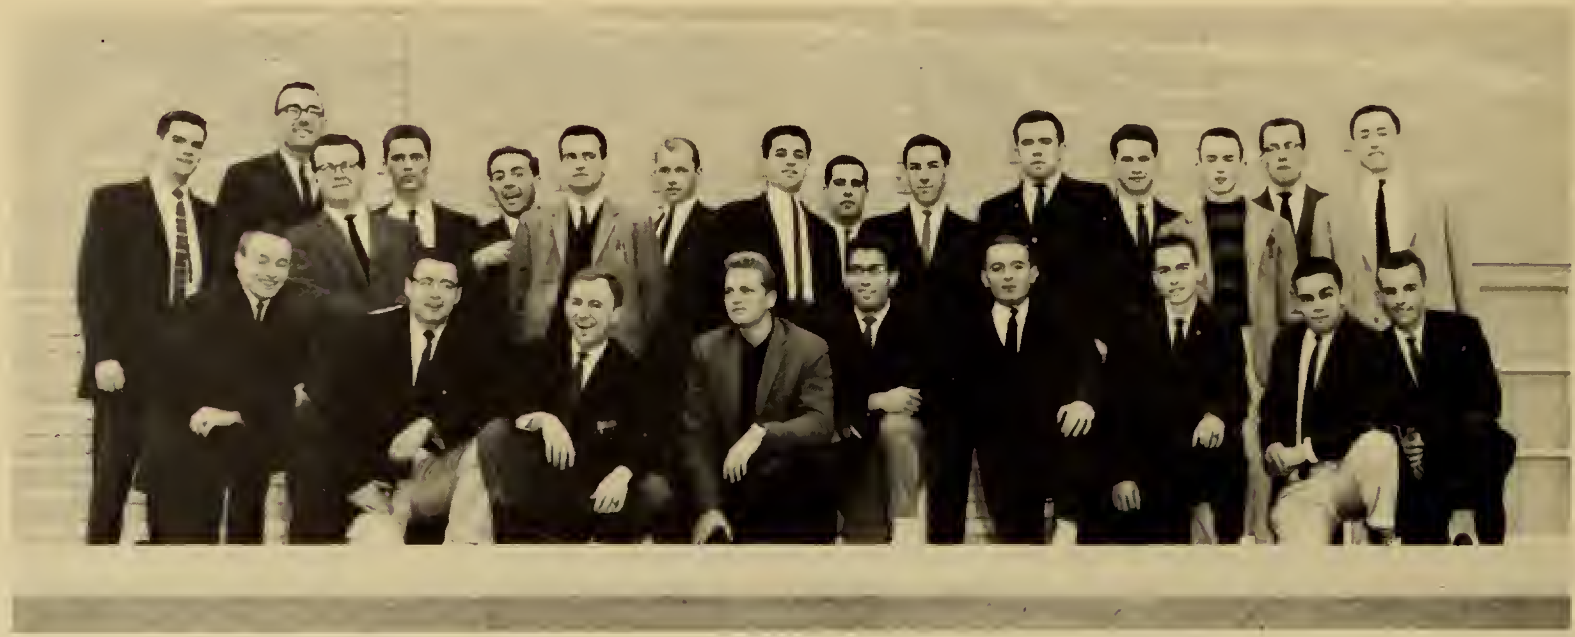
But the New Haven Area Club means far more than this to far more people. To some it is an outlet for imaginative experiment. To others it is a society of coordinated fun. To all it is a certain something which is fathomable only when one sits in on the assemblage in action.



First Row: K. Gannon, R. Julianelle, V. Botarelli, D. Gannon, G. Davidson, President; F. Abbate, Vice-President; J. Mascia, Treasurer; D. Shay, S. Menzo. Second Row: D. Ulizio, G. Doyle, S. Meehan, J. Barbieri, R. Berchem, D. Royston, R. Sherwin, L. Totte, M. Hurley, J. Bobinski, J. Kennon. Third Row: W. Wieland, C. Wulle, F. Adinolfi, G. Garrity, M. Iovene, J. Laden, F. McManus, V. Ward, L. Williams, W. White, J. Flynn, R. Lee, R. Dupuis, J. Conroy, R. Osric, R. McCreven, T. McLaughlin, R. Borelli.

THE NEW JERSEY AREA CLUB

Γ Σ Χ



Kneeling: F. Murphy, T. Arnold, F. Nash, C. Messaros, L. Agostino, R. Badolato, R. Jorlett, J. Simpson, T. Hintlemann. Standing: J. O'Leary, G. O'Keeffe, M. Fratantuno, D. Eberhard, J. Russoniello, J. Bebie, G. Lalley, G. Ferugia, J. LaTerra, P. McAneny, R. Loughlin, W. Hoehler, A. Westerfield, J. Tiscornia, J. Riddle.

The New Jersey Area Club was founded to give its members a means of establishing permanent friendships with other students from the same geographical region. With over two hundred men from the New Jersey area attending the University, the club has acted as a vehicle to channel their activities in the proper direction, so as to help both their personal psychological development and the development of Fairfield University. The members of the University family who have come, and who will come, from the Garden State can be proud of the services that the members are rendering by their active participation on all levels of scholastic life. The undergraduate body gives proof of this by the large number of Jersey residents who are leaders or prospective leaders of campus clubs and organizations. The club also spreads Fairfield's reputation by the large assortment of functions it sponsors in all areas of the Garden State.

Fairfield University
THE NEW JERSEY AREA CLUB
Γ Σ Χ

NORWALK CLUB

Seated: J. Fitzgerald, President; P. Bucciarelli, Vice-President. Standing: C. Keenan, Treasurer; J. Stanizeski, Secretary.

It has often been said that good things come in small packages. If this is true, then those of the Norwalk Area Club have much to be proud of.

The organization took form in the early days of a still young university. Its initial membership was composed of some dozen stalwarts who felt the need for at least an informal off-campus union. Since that time the body has increased to fifty members.

The feeling among most of the members is that size is not important, although it does limit the functions of any organization. In the past the club has conducted sports nights, socials, and occasional card games. A particular strengthening element is frequent Communion.

As we noted above, good things come in small packages. The Norwalk Area Club may be small, but the spirit is there.

Front Row: K. Cavanagh, D. Shay, D. Royston. Middle Row: J. O'Reilly, M. Jasmin, G. Casavecchia, C. Keenan, P. Bucciarelli, J. Fitzgerald, J. Stanizeski, P. Best, R. Germano. Back Row: T. Driscoll, G. Sender, L. Williams, R. Morse, M. Pugliese, R. Metzger, R. Keough, J. Tokarski, C. Bard, T. Ryan, N. Nistri.

Seniors and Officers: R. Garofalo, M. Oates, Secretary; R. McCarthy, President; G. Sender.

VALLEY CLUB

Front Row: M. Oates, R. McCarthy, R. Garofalo, G. Sender. Second Row: L. Williams, J. Higgins, K. Petroski, M. Petro, H. Jacek, W. Timmeny. Back Row: P. Best, D. Shay, D. Royston, B. Lawler, J. Skibo

Just bought another valley

Prominent among area clubs having less than fifty members is the Naugatuck Valley Club. Its membership is composed of students from Shelton, Derby, Ansonia, Seymour, Oxford, and Orange.

An admirable list of activities is carried on yearly by the club. Included among them are an annual Communion Breakfast, to which alumni from the Valley area are invited, a Glee Club concert, and two dances, one at Christmas, and the other a post-concert social. Proceeds from the Glee Club performance are used to finance a scholarship, which is given annually to some deserving student living in the Valley.

Officers for this year were: Robert McCarthy, President; Joseph Flynn, Vice-President; Michael Oates, Secretary; William Carey, Treasurer.

Waterbury Seniors: H. Phelan. J. D'Angelo. J. Vaitkus. R. Pugliese. P. Carolan. D. Ciampi. R. Pruchnicki. R. Calabrese. H. Pronovost. N. Mencio. D. Cipriano.

WATERBURY CLUB

Established in 1948 for the purpose of uniting the students in the Waterbury area and providing them with social activities, the Waterbury Club has expanded into one of the largest and most active clubs at Fairfield. Through the efforts of its members, the club has done much in spreading the name and ideals of Fairfield University throughout the Waterbury area.

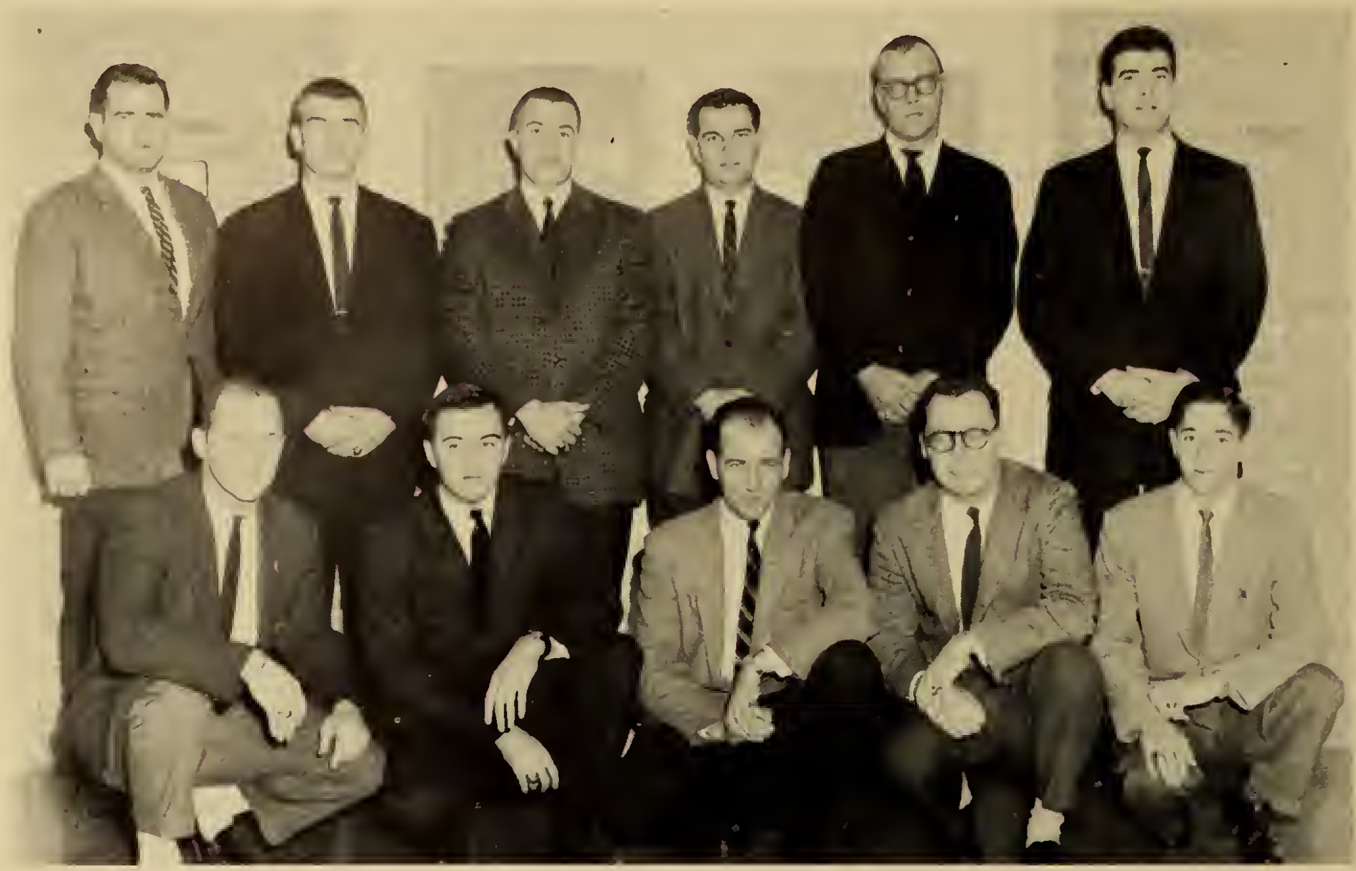
The success of the club is largely accounted for by the interest and cooperation of officers and members. In May of 1960, Donald Ciampi was elected president for the 1960-61 year. An excellent organizer and worker, Don has succeeded in carrying out his program to further familiarize the people of Waterbury with the name of Fairfield University.

The annual Senior Farewell Dance held in June was the first activity for the new officers. Returning to Fairfield in September, the club sponsored a stag party for the purpose of acquainting the incoming freshmen with the older members. This event was followed by a memorable Halloween costume party. Assistance was given the March of Dimes campaign in Waterbury during the Christmas recess.

The main social events of the year are the annual Christmas Dance and Glee Club Concert. With a large alumni crowd in attendance, this year's Christmas Dance was the most successful ever. The club will continue to correspond with the growing Waterbury Alumni Association to promote co-attended functions.

An annual Glee Club Concert, (this year's was the twelfth), is held to provide funds to obtain scholarships for deserving youths from the Waterbury area. Other events of the year include a post-concert party and several socials.

First Row: J. D Angelo. R. Aquavia. P. Quilter. L. Krodel. H. Pronovost. N. Mencio. T. Levesque. D. Ciampi. J. Vaitkus. R. Pugliese. H. Phelan. D. Cipriano. P. Carolan. R. Kolesnik. Second Row: J. Geary. D. Brady. J. Kovaleski. J. Breen. J. Deleppo. M. Arcovio. G. Donovan. L. Mazzaferro. J. Crocicchia. R. Pruchnicki. J. Reilly. R. Calabrese. P. Toomey. L. Mullen. M. Charbonneau.

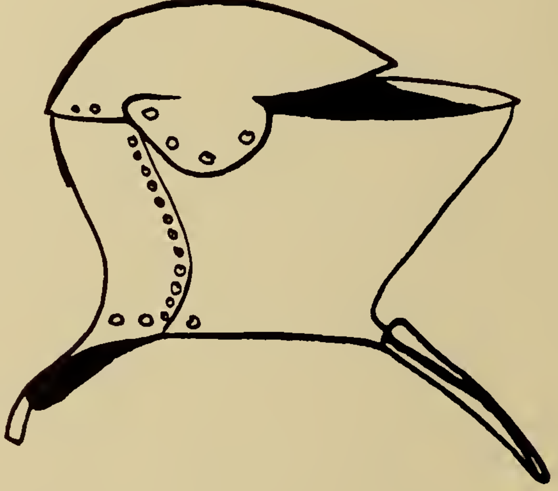


Kneeling: L. Parent, W. Timmeny, J. Conroy, C. Bard, R. Calabrese. Standing: G. Duff, T. Ryan, R. Gaboury, L. Romanczuk, R. Balcerzak, R. Scarpetti.

VETS CLUB

With the large influx of veterans into Fairfield's halls in September, 1954, a need was felt for a special organization of those men whose previous enrollment in the Armed Forces had brought them to college at an age and level of maturity far beyond those of most of their classmates. This prompted the club founders to set as its prime function "the perpetuation and advancement of social activities and as an aid for veterans in coping with the unfamiliar rigors of academic life." The club's best known activity is the Post-Carnival Party, which it sponsors annually after the formal dance of the Winter Carnival.

In recent years the membership has decreased substantially, due to the fact that there are fewer veterans because of the smaller peacetime armed services enlistment. Nevertheless, the cordial quality of the Veterans' Club has remained, due mostly to the eager endeavors to promote convivial social activities which include not only its own members, but also the entire student body.



The beards and the balladeers

SEVEN ARTS SOCIETY

"Mah poor dawg died."

The Seven Arts Society is the youngest organization on campus, having been founded in January by Hank O'Hagan and Geoff Stokes.

It is primarily a service organization attempting to correct the modern view which sees culture and entertainment as mutually exclusive terms. To accomplish this aim, the Society intends to tap the vast pool of talented young performers within the New York metropolitan area, not to mention exhibits, motion picture showings, etc.

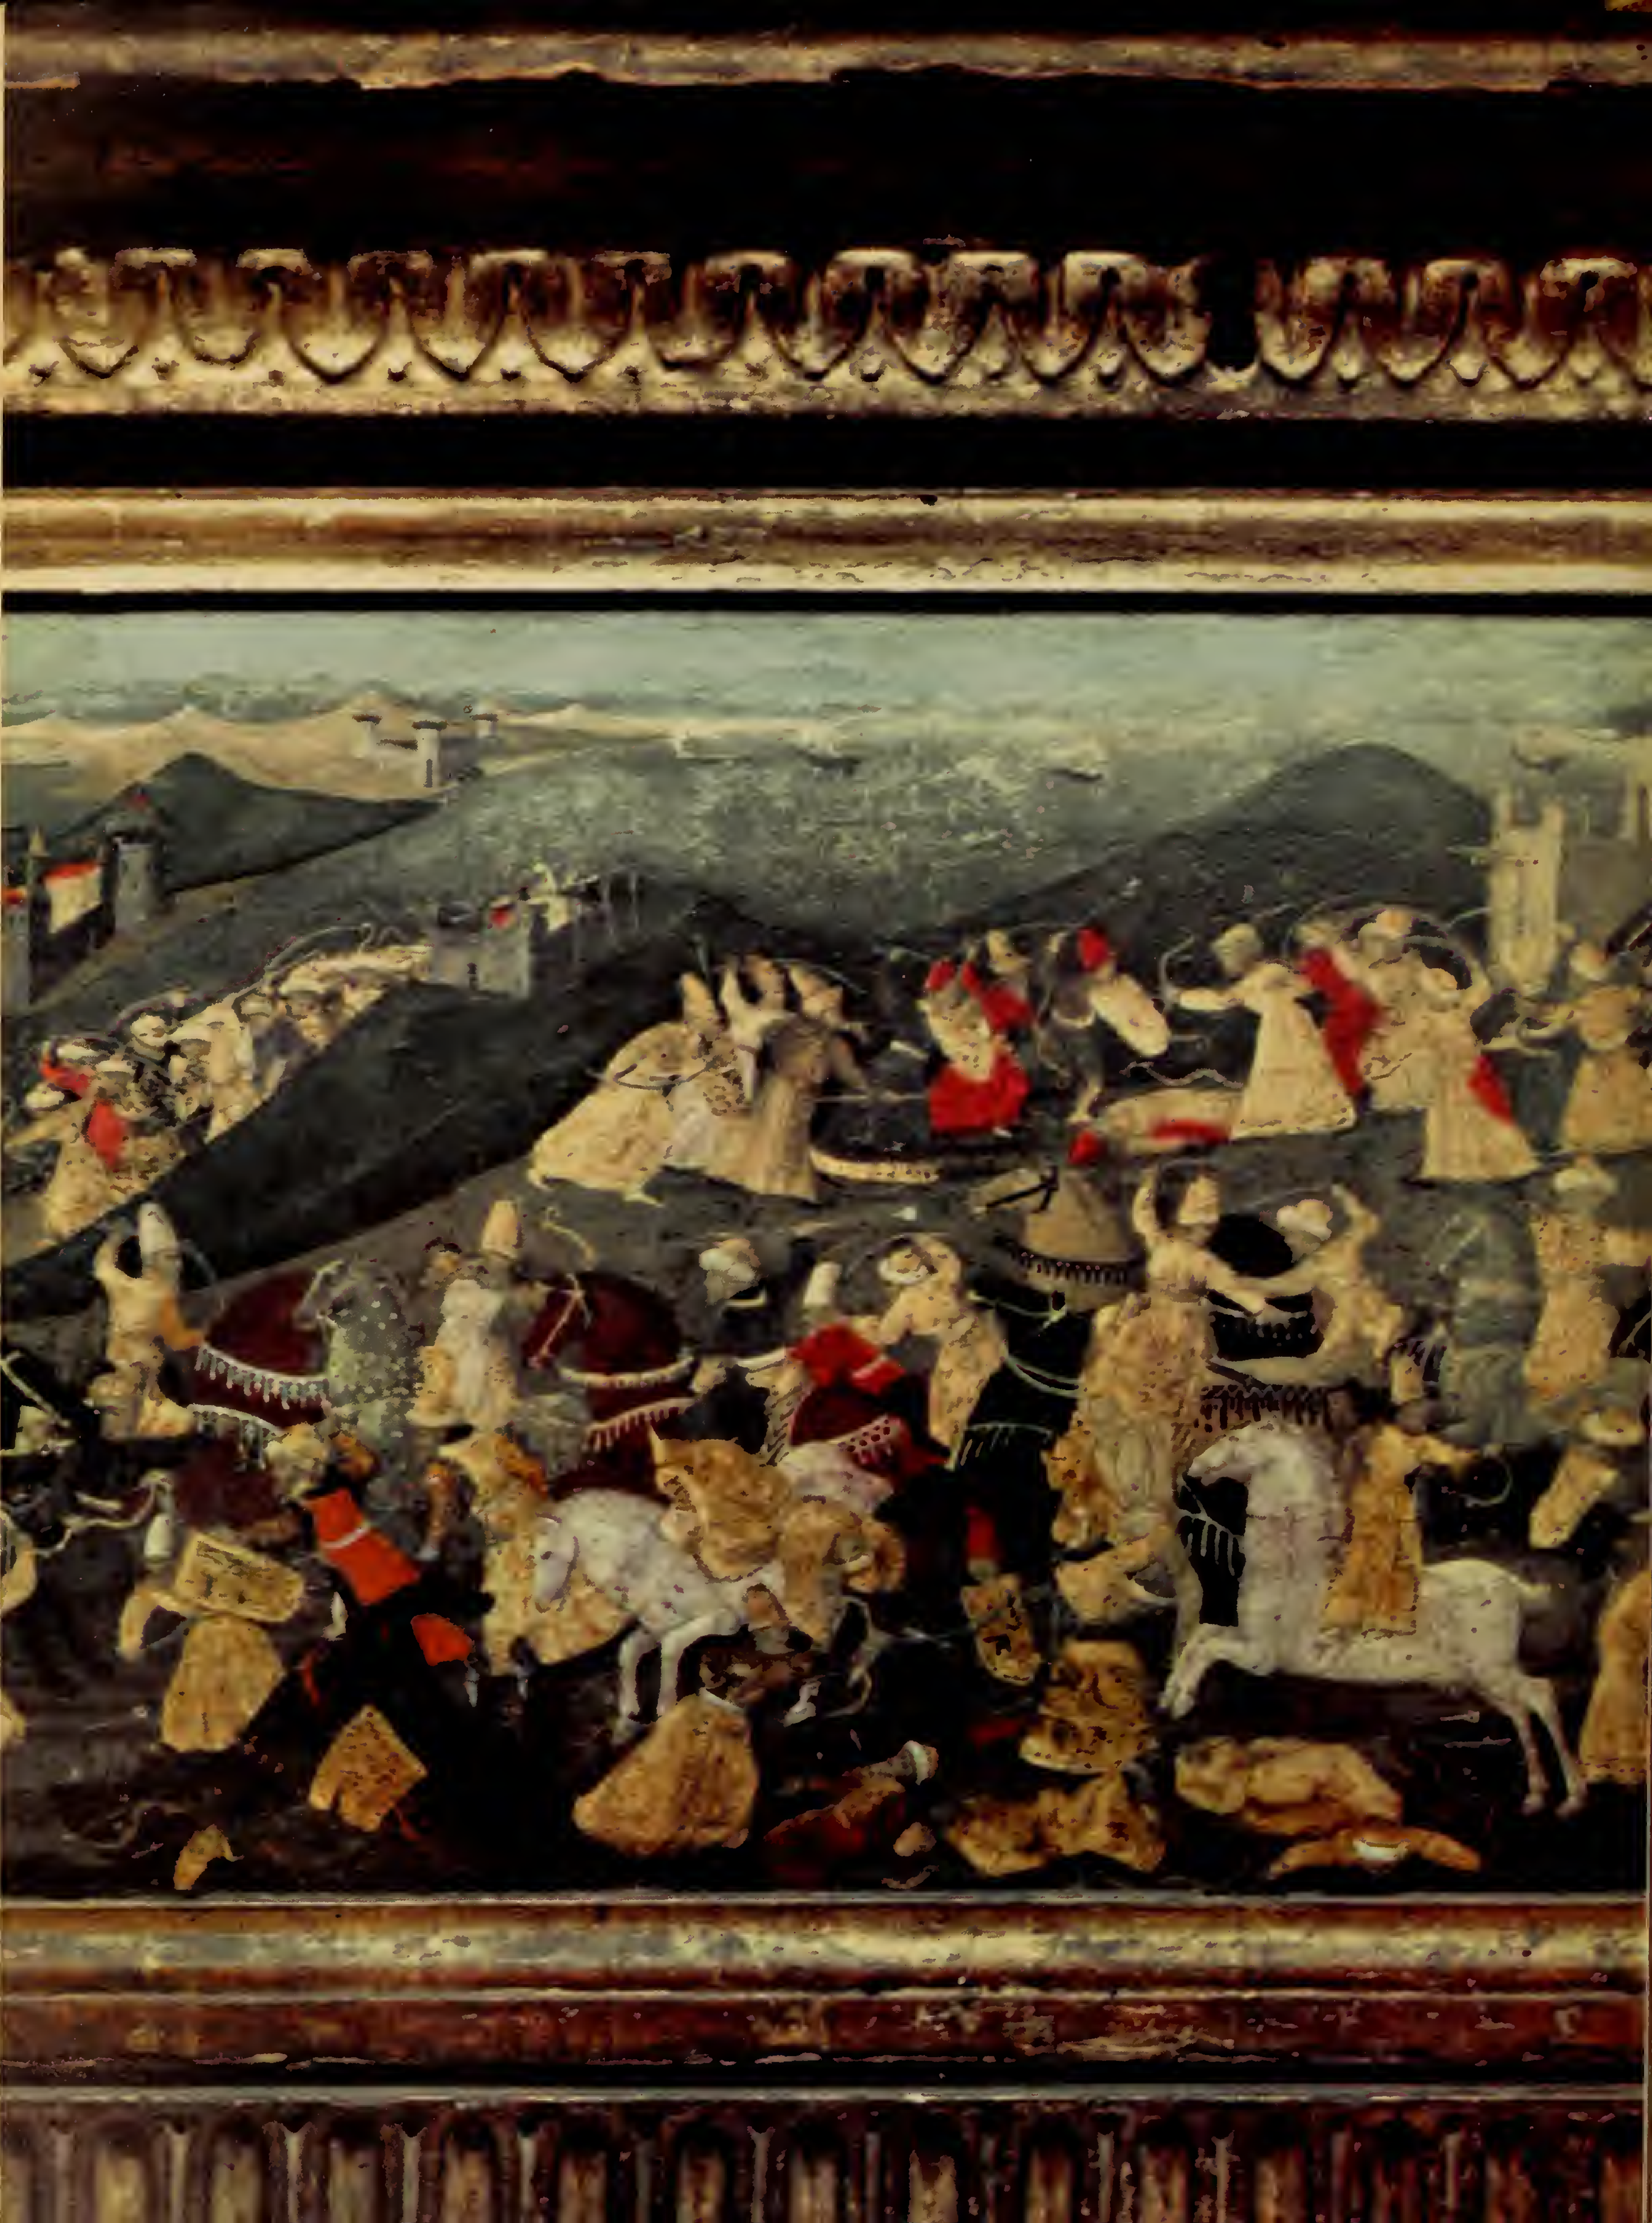
Since this has been the Society's freshman year, it has been run as a "benevolent dictatorship" by the aforementioned gentlemen, not as a matter of policy, but to avoid the red tape and intramural wranglings which often dooms ventures of this type before they even get off the ground.

As the Society benefits the school through presentation rather than participation, membership is small, exclusive, and by invitation only. Members are chosen for their knowledge, both practical and theoretical, in one or more of the seven arts, and for their organizational talents.

The Society's first effort was a concert of Folk Music held on March 7, and featuring Carolyn Hester, a young folk singer from Waco, Texas. It was an outstanding success—as evidenced by the large sale of her record album on campus.

The prospects of the Seven Arts Society are unlimited. It has, quite literally, opened up a whole new world to our sometimes intellectually cloistered campus. Through its observance of traditional Christian standards of morality, and by a combination of intelligence and ingenuity, the Society may well be the harbinger of a new wave of growth at Fairfield University.

Geoff Stokes, Dave vonRonk, Carolyn Hester and Hank O'Hagan pose after initial success

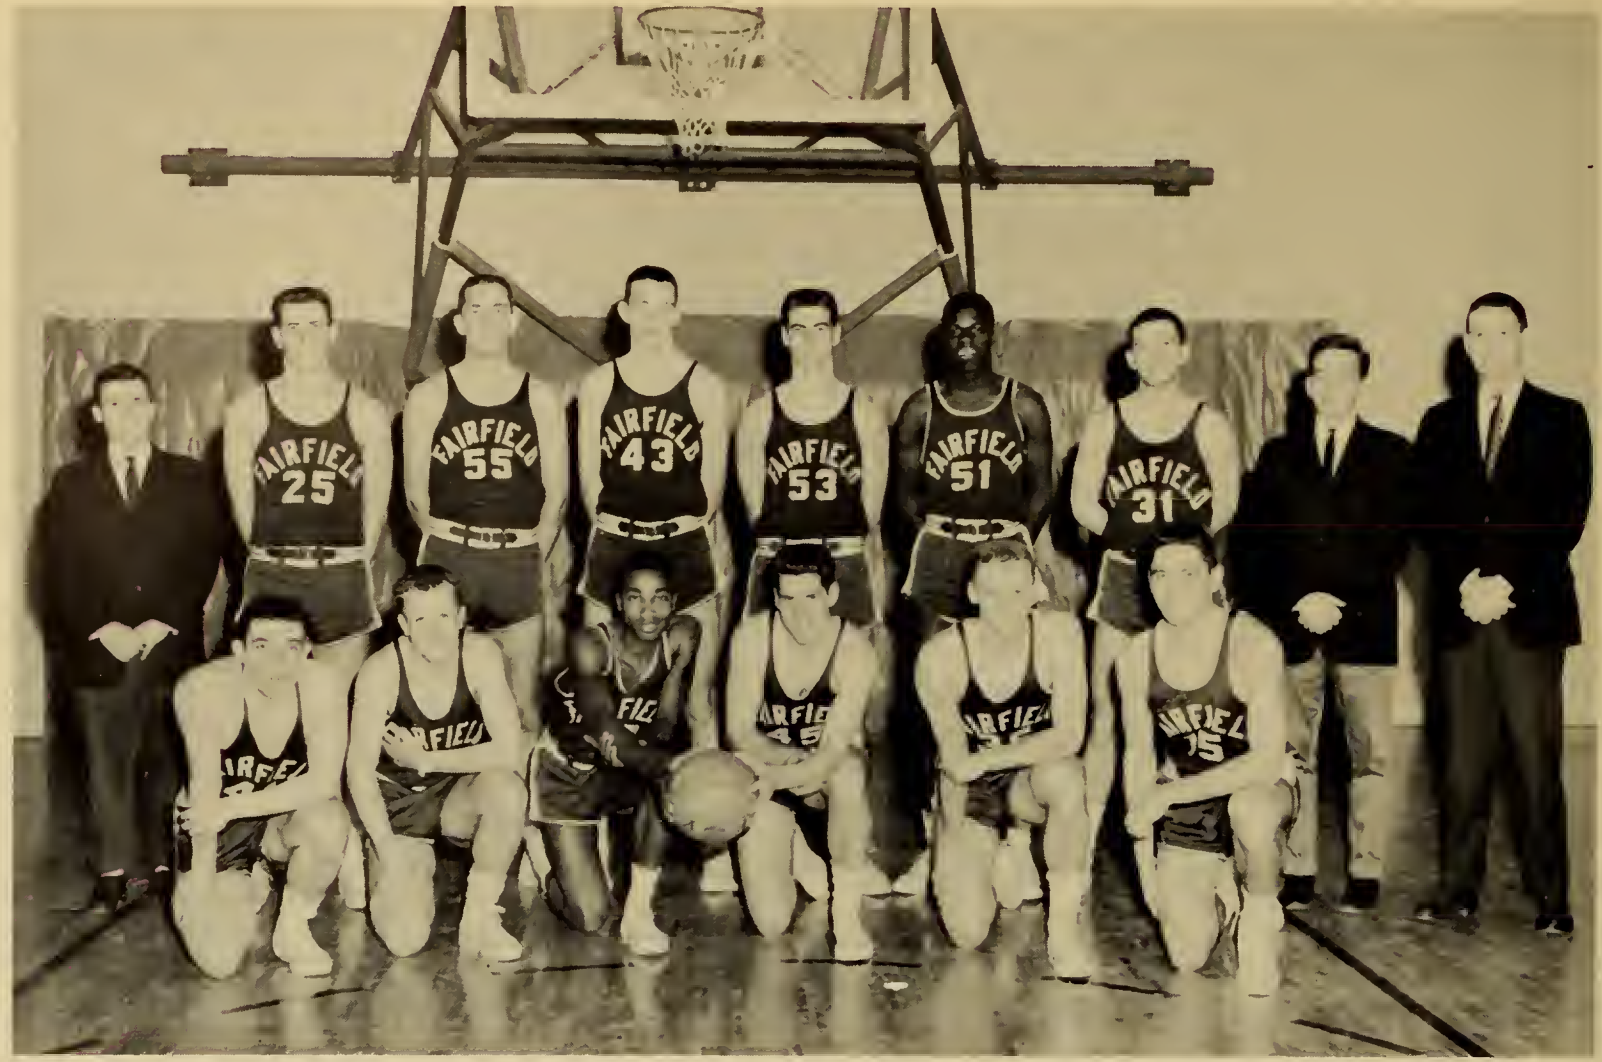


"'I have learned—not from your master, although he ought not to hide such things from me, but from a certain trustworthy source—that you do not study in your room or act in the schools as a good student should, but play and wander about, disobedient to your master and indulging in sport and in certain other dishonourable practices which I do not now care to explain by letter.'"

Haskins, Charles Homer, The Rise of the Universities, p. 80

Sports

◄ The Conquest of Trebizond.
Tempera on wood, ca. middle XV century.



Kneeling: M. Tuohy, F. Weismiller, R. Jenkins, J. D'Agostin, R. Panuczak, R. Riescher. Standing: J. Giblin, Manager; N. Macarchuk, W. Shin, F. McAnulty, R. Hutter, A. Crawford, Captain; D. Doolan, J. Russoniello, Manager; G. Bisacca, Coach.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Rev. Thomas F. Lyons, Athletic Director, displays basketball trophies.

When the 1960-61 basketball season began, Coach George Bisacca's Stags had two objectives: to win their second straight Tri-State crown, and to establish Fairfield as a power among small colleges. Both were accomplished by the greatest season in Fairfield history.

On December 3 the Stags opened by travelling to highly-rated Boston College to take on the B. C. Eagles. Led by their great forward, Jim Hooley, who poured in 34 points, the Eagles outclassed the Stags in this initial game for both schools. In their next game, also away, the Stags met with a hot-handed St. Peter's club, who easily defeated them, 82-63.

After this discouraging start, the home season began against Rider College, also the first Tri-State foe. The Stags began defense of their league crown with a 90-82 win. After the Seton Hall game was cancelled because of snow, Fairfield topped visiting Stonehill College for their second and record-evening win.

During the Christmas holidays the team travelled to New York twice to defeat Tri-State opponents Yeshiva and Hunter. The outcomes were never in doubt, as the Stags ran their winning streak to four and remained undefeated in league play with 63-50 and 83-70 wins, mainly on the scoring and rebounding of Senior Captain Art Crawford.

In their first contest of the new year, Coach Bisacca's red-hot team defeated Brooklyn College, 97-71. The next two encounters were road games with Fairleigh Dickenson and Iona. Finding no difficulty with either of them, the Stags ran their streak to seven with 96-82 and 94-79 triumphs.

Returning home with a seven game winning streak and 7-2 record, the Stags met a weak C.W. Post team. But with Fairfield playing lacklustre ball throughout, a fine shooting Post club won a last second upset victory when their Mike Brandeis popped in a jumper.

Bouncing back from this reversal, the Stags proceeded to set a new school record by winning their next eight games and running their season record to 15-3. The skein started at home with a 94-90 win over arch-rival Bridgeport, and ended on the road with a high-scoring loss to Holy Cross, 122-94. The streak was climaxed by the clinching of the Stags' second straight Tri-State crown in an 89-83 overtime win over L.I.U. With the 76-47 defeat of C.C.N.Y., the Stags finished the Tri-State schedule unbeaten and ran their league winning streak to seventeen.

The regular season ended with a second win over U.B., 87-75, a 94-64 larruping of A.I.C., and an 81-59 defeat by future N.I.T. champion Providence. The following Friday the Stags travelled to Reading for the Eastern Regionals of the N.C.A.A. College tournament. Playing Albright in the first round, they lost 85-67, and dropped the consolation round the next night to Virginia Union. Thus ended the most successful season in Fairfield history, with the final record standing at 17 wins and 7 losses.

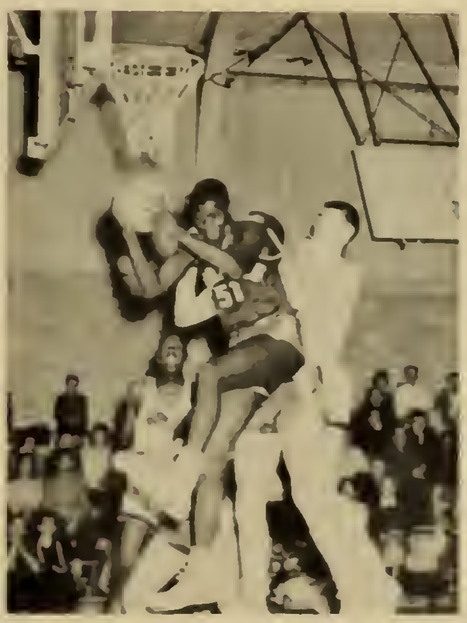
1960-61
WON-LOST RECORD

F.U.
70	Boston College	83
63	St. Peter's	82
90	Rider	82
97	Stonehill	85
63	Yeshiva	50
83	Hunter	70
97	Brooklyn College	71
96	Fairleigh Dickinson	82
94	Iona	79
76	C. W. Post	78
94	Bridgeport	90
88	Adelphi	59
88	Long Island University	83
75	C.C.N.Y.	46
91	St. Francis	83
75	Southern Connecticut	62
82	Assumption	76
84	St. Michael's	73
94	Holy Cross	122
87	Bridgeport	75
94	A.I.C.	64
59	Providence	81
	N.C.A.A. Tournament
67	Albright	85
66	Virginia Union	70

Captain Artie Crawford

FAIRFIELD
35

Dick Panuczak



Leading Tri-State Rebounder

FAIRFIELD
41

Mike Tuohy

Top Scorer

Bobby Jenkins

Nick Macarchuk

Smaller they are,
the higher they go

Bob Hutter

STAGS

Touhy for two!

IN

Warmup for victory

Heads I win, tails you lose

ACTION

Crawford off right tackle, Jenkins through the slot

Actually, the ball is glued to the rim

IDGEPORT
12
FAIRFIEL
25

Bann takes the worry out of being close

SOMEBODY GOOFED

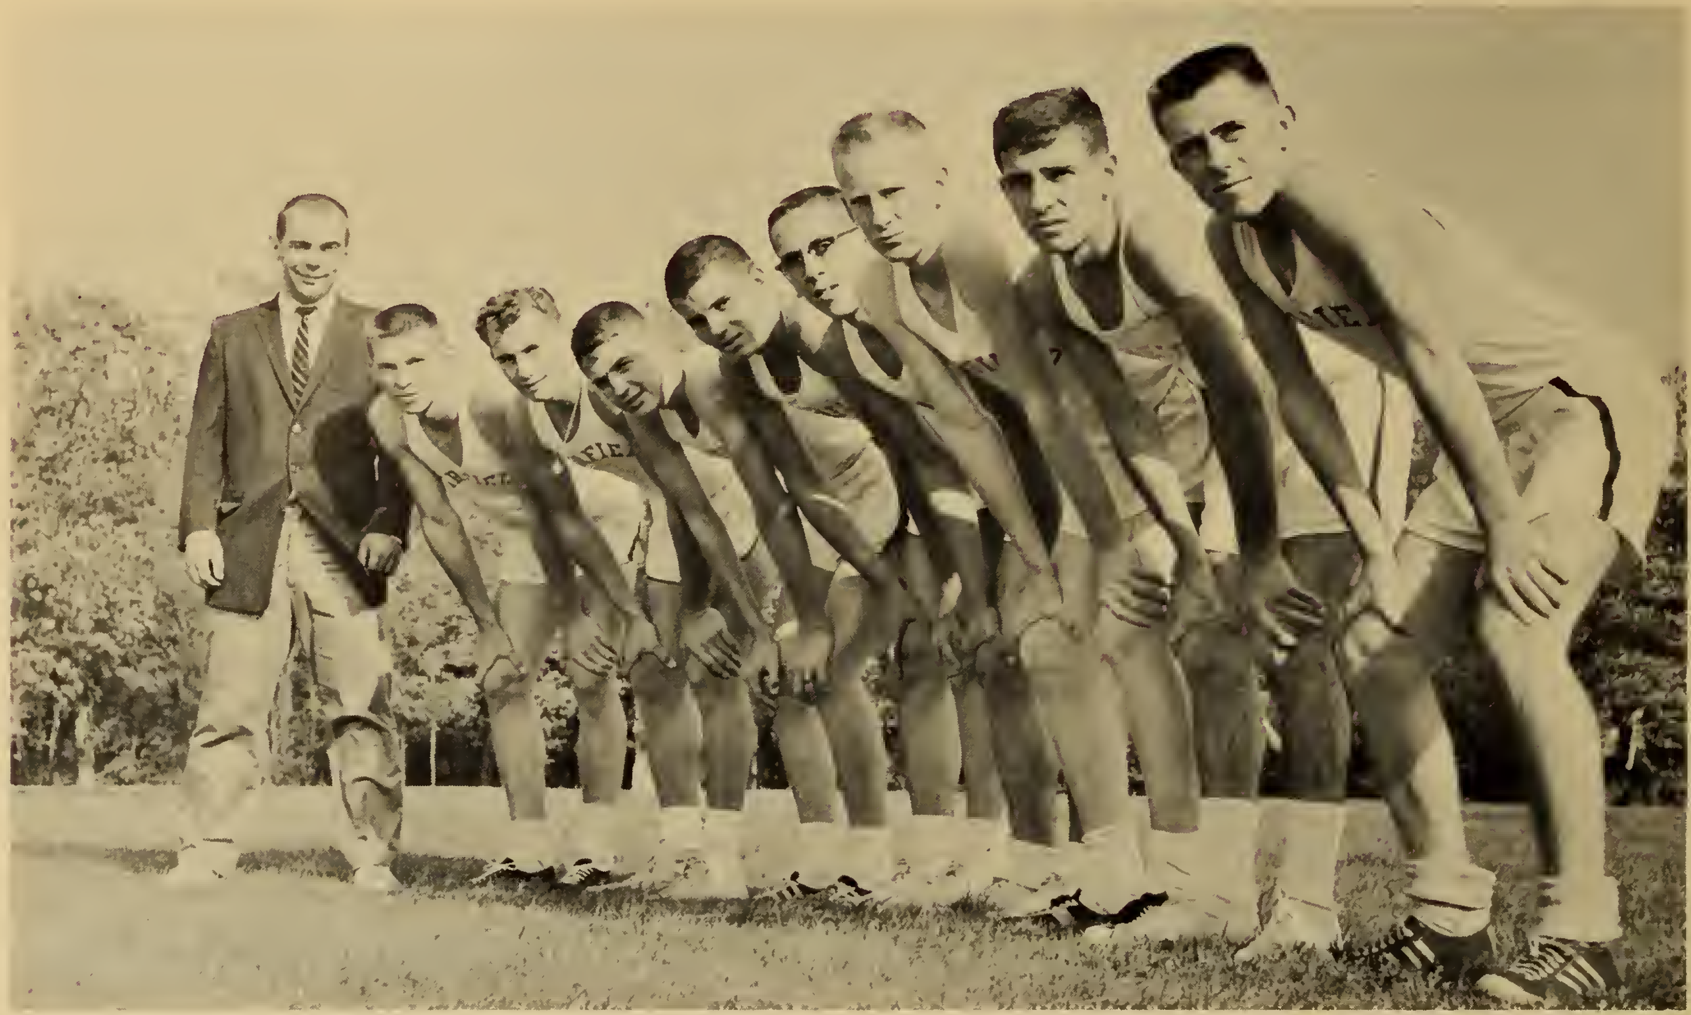
FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

This year's Frosh hoop team had one of those seasons which make a coach's hair turn grey. After losing their first three contests, two of them by one point, they went on to win nine in a row, including a two-point squeaker against arch-rival Bridgeport. Then, doing a complete and unexplainable about-face, they lost six of their last eight and closed the season with a so-so 11-9 record.

Despite the unimpressibe record, however, the freshman squad exhibited many members who should help next year's varsity. Nelson Grillo, a 6'4" jumping jack from Washington, D.C., was the leading scorer and rebounder, and set a single game record with 37 points in the first U.B. game. Using a wide variety of shots off the pivot, he was especially effective in the Providence game, when he was pitted against the Friars' seven-foot behemoth, John Thompson. Walt Donnelly, a tall back-court man from Long Island, combined fine court savvy with excellent ball control and a good scoring touch. Hartford's Kurt Kilty displayed a wide and accurate assortment of shots until arm trouble hampered his scoring effectiveness in the latter part of the season. This, indeed, was largely responsible for the yearlings' late-season demise. Larry Rafferty's long push shots from the corner put him in double figures for most of the games. Ken Wagner, the fifth starter, featured a long two-handed set shot and an aggressive defense. These boys, added to the large number of returning lettermen, should make next year's Red Stags a formidable foe for any opponent.

1960-61 RECORD

F.U.		Opp.
55	Boston College	72
80	St. Peter's	81
83	Rider	84
70	Dixwell Community House	49
67	Hunter	51
67	Brooklyn College	55
73	Fairleigh Dickinson	64
63	Iona	61
89	C.W. Post	71
86	Univ. of Bridgeport	84
86	Adelphi	52
77	C.C.N.Y.	61
70	St. Francis (Bklyn.)	74
67	So. Connecticut State	69
75	Assumption	36
60	Westchester Community House	67
70	Holy Cross	82
61	Bridgeport	78
70	St. John's	63
68	Providence	85



1961

CROSS COUNTRY

1961 RECORD

F.U.		Opp.
44	Boston College	16
20	Westchester Community College	39
24	Hunter	35
21	Queens	39
29	Central Connecticut State	30
24	Adelphi	33
15	Southern Connecticut State	45

Captain Jack Barry

FAIRFIELD
FAIRFIELD
FAIRFIELD

Over hill, over dale. . . .

There they go . . .

This year's cross-country squad achieved the best record of any varsity team, six wins against only an opening loss to Jesuit rival Boston College for a percentage of .857. Junior Jack Barry again led the way, just as he had as a soph. Although he failed to improve on his record time of 22:11 set last year, Jack became a much more consistent runner, with an average time in the low 22's. Following close behind Barry in most meets was another junior, Lou Ockey. Both Barry and Ockey were medal-winners in the Collegiate Track Conference Championships, finishing eleventh and tenth, respectively, over the five-mile Van Cortlandt Park course.

The third, fourth, and fifth positions, where most meets are won or lost, were shared by sophs Larry Longua, Tom Marra, Ray Schuster, and Mickey Kinney. Kinney, a sprinter by trade, turned in a surprisingly strong performance to counter mid-season injuries to Longua and Marra. These six, plus a very strong freshman squad, should make next year's Stag harriers practically unbeatable.

and here they come.

One if by land, two if by sea

1961 TRACK TEAM

Big Bill with an oooomph

1961 RECORD

F.U.		Opp.
52 2/3	Fairleigh Dickinson	69 1/3
80	Adelphi	46
62	So. Connecticut State	69
66	Hunter	65
71 1/2	Univ. of Bridgeport	54 1/2

Hauser on the high ones

After last year's undefeated season, the first in the school's history for any varsity team, the Stag trackmen began practice this April with high hopes for another triumphant year. These hopes were quickly shattered by an opening loss to Fairleigh Dickinson, and received another blow when Southern Connecticut State eked out a win in the third dual meet of the season. This meet lasted until 7:30 in the evening, when a mile relay finally provided a decisive margin between the two teams. Then the Stags bounced back to snap a five-meet Hunter College victory skein, and closed with a win that always gives the most satisfaction, one over U.B.

Despite the disappointing record, however, there were many individual stand-outs. Junior Jack Barry consistently finished high in the distance runs. Bob McCarthy, another junior, used his wide variety of talents to place in events ranging from the 220-yard hurdles to the pole vault. Senior co-captain Pete Houser won points in the dashes and hurdles, where he was joined by friend Pete Vath when the latter finally recovered from his Bermuda jaunt. Soph Larry Longua also finished high in the short dashes.

It was in the weight events, however, where the Stags, led by a quartet of heavy seniors, were unstoppable. Co-Captain Bill (big beer barrel Bill") Melahn, leading the weight men in all respects, displayed amazing consistency in sweeping to another undefeated shot-put season with a series of 45'1" heaves. Rick Medve was another perennial winner in the javelin, and Matt Pugliese and Bob Bitar spread their talent through the shot-put, discus, and javelin competition.

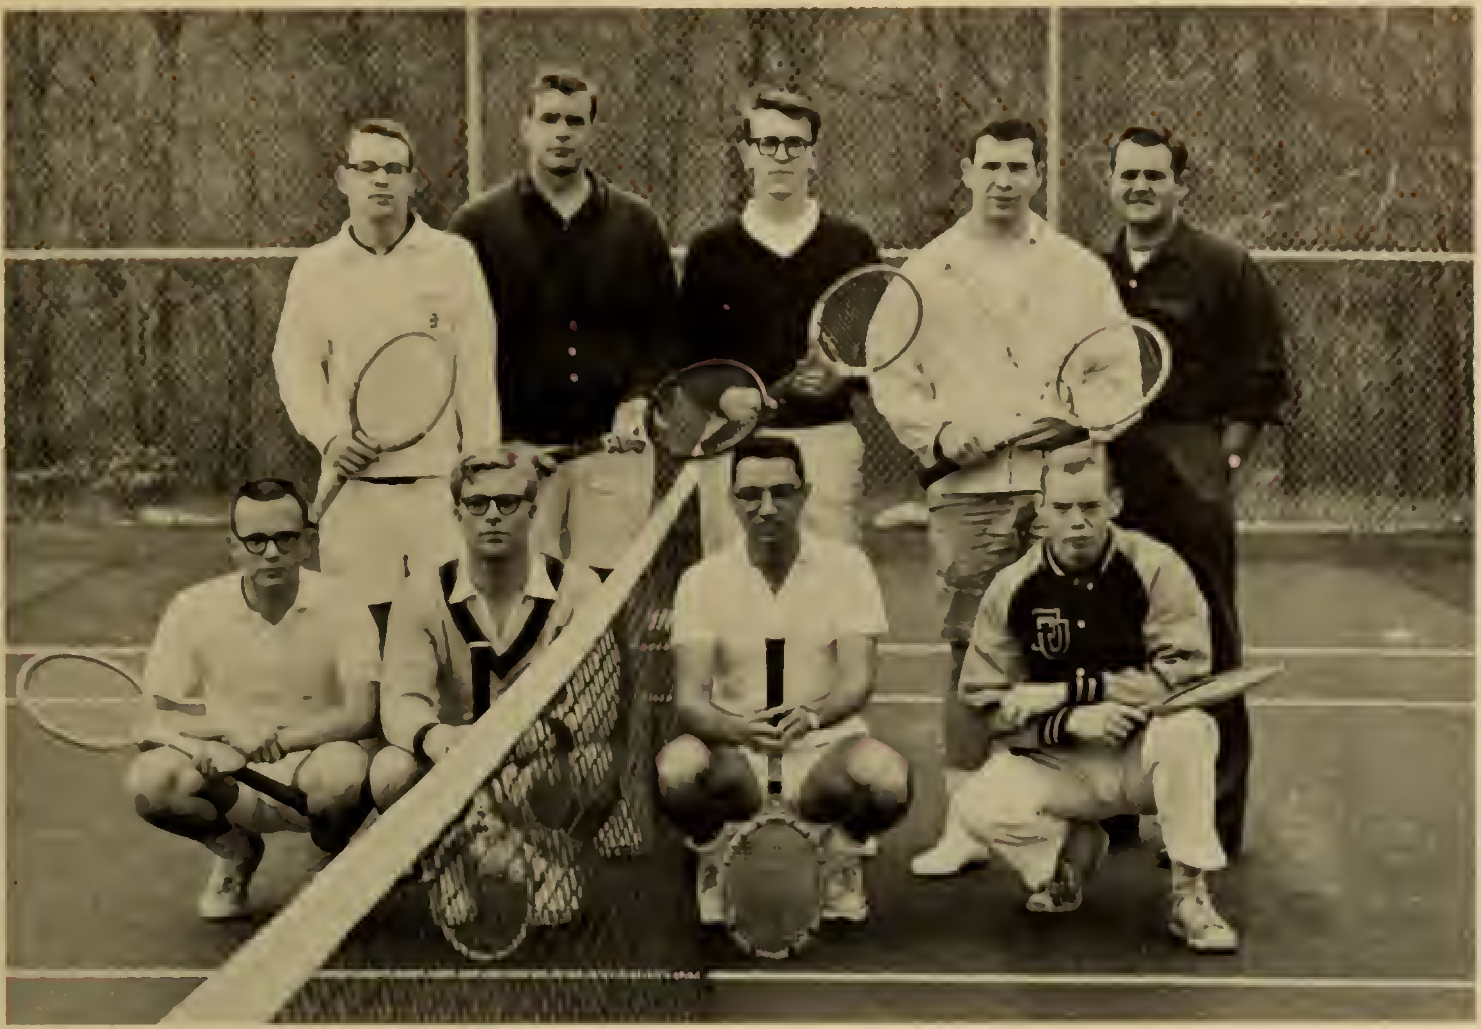
Nice try, fellas, but we lost

Who said sawdust is soft?

Alley-oop . . .

Caesar wants you

I'm walking, yes indeed, I'm walking . . .



Standing: J. Faulkner, J. Dowd, R. Melican, J. Poole, J. Duff, Mgr. Front: J. O'Reagan, G. Towell, A. Fappiano, J. Barrett

TENNIS TEAM – 1961

Brains and brawn of the racquet club

This year's tennis team, hit hard by the graduation of three of last year's four top men, had a disastrous season of four straight losses. A set of tennis courts were constructed on campus this year, but their late completion date, plus abominable spring weather (which accounted for the severely abbreviated schedule) made their value to the varsity team minimal, except for the 'historic' event of the first truly 'at-home' match, played against Bridgeport. Also, number two man Gary Towell's role in Hamlet forced him to miss the Southern Connecticut match, where his absence might easily have made the difference between victory and defeat.

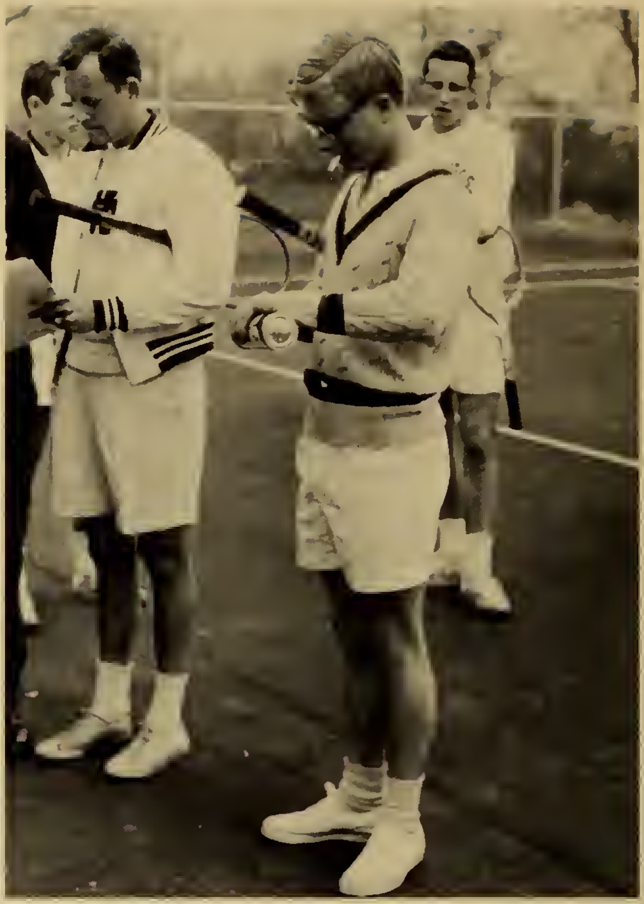
In the matches against Massachusetts and Holy Cross, two of the top teams in New England, the Stags were simply outclassed, as is evident from the final results. The other two matches, however, were extremely close, and a few breaks could easily have swung them the other way.

Senior captain John Dowd played in the number one position and was the team's top point-getter. Gary Towell was the regular number two man, and Bob Melican, another senior, played in the third slot. The fourth, fifth, and sixth positions were filled at various times during the year by John Faulkner, Jim Poole, Ed Nishball, Tony Fappiano, John Eichler, and George Krug.

1961 RECORD

F.U.		Opp.
2	Univ. of Massachusetts	7
3 1/2	Univ. of Bridgeport	5 1/2
4	So. Connecticut State	5
0	Holy Cross	9

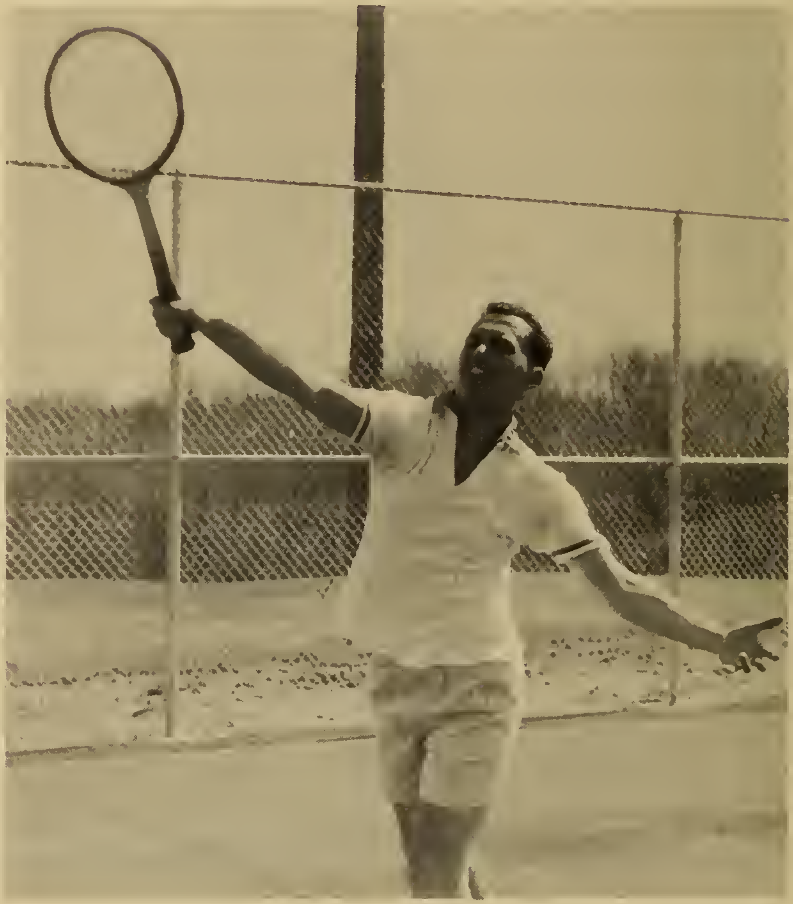
A bullet to the gut



Schaeffer or Spaulding?

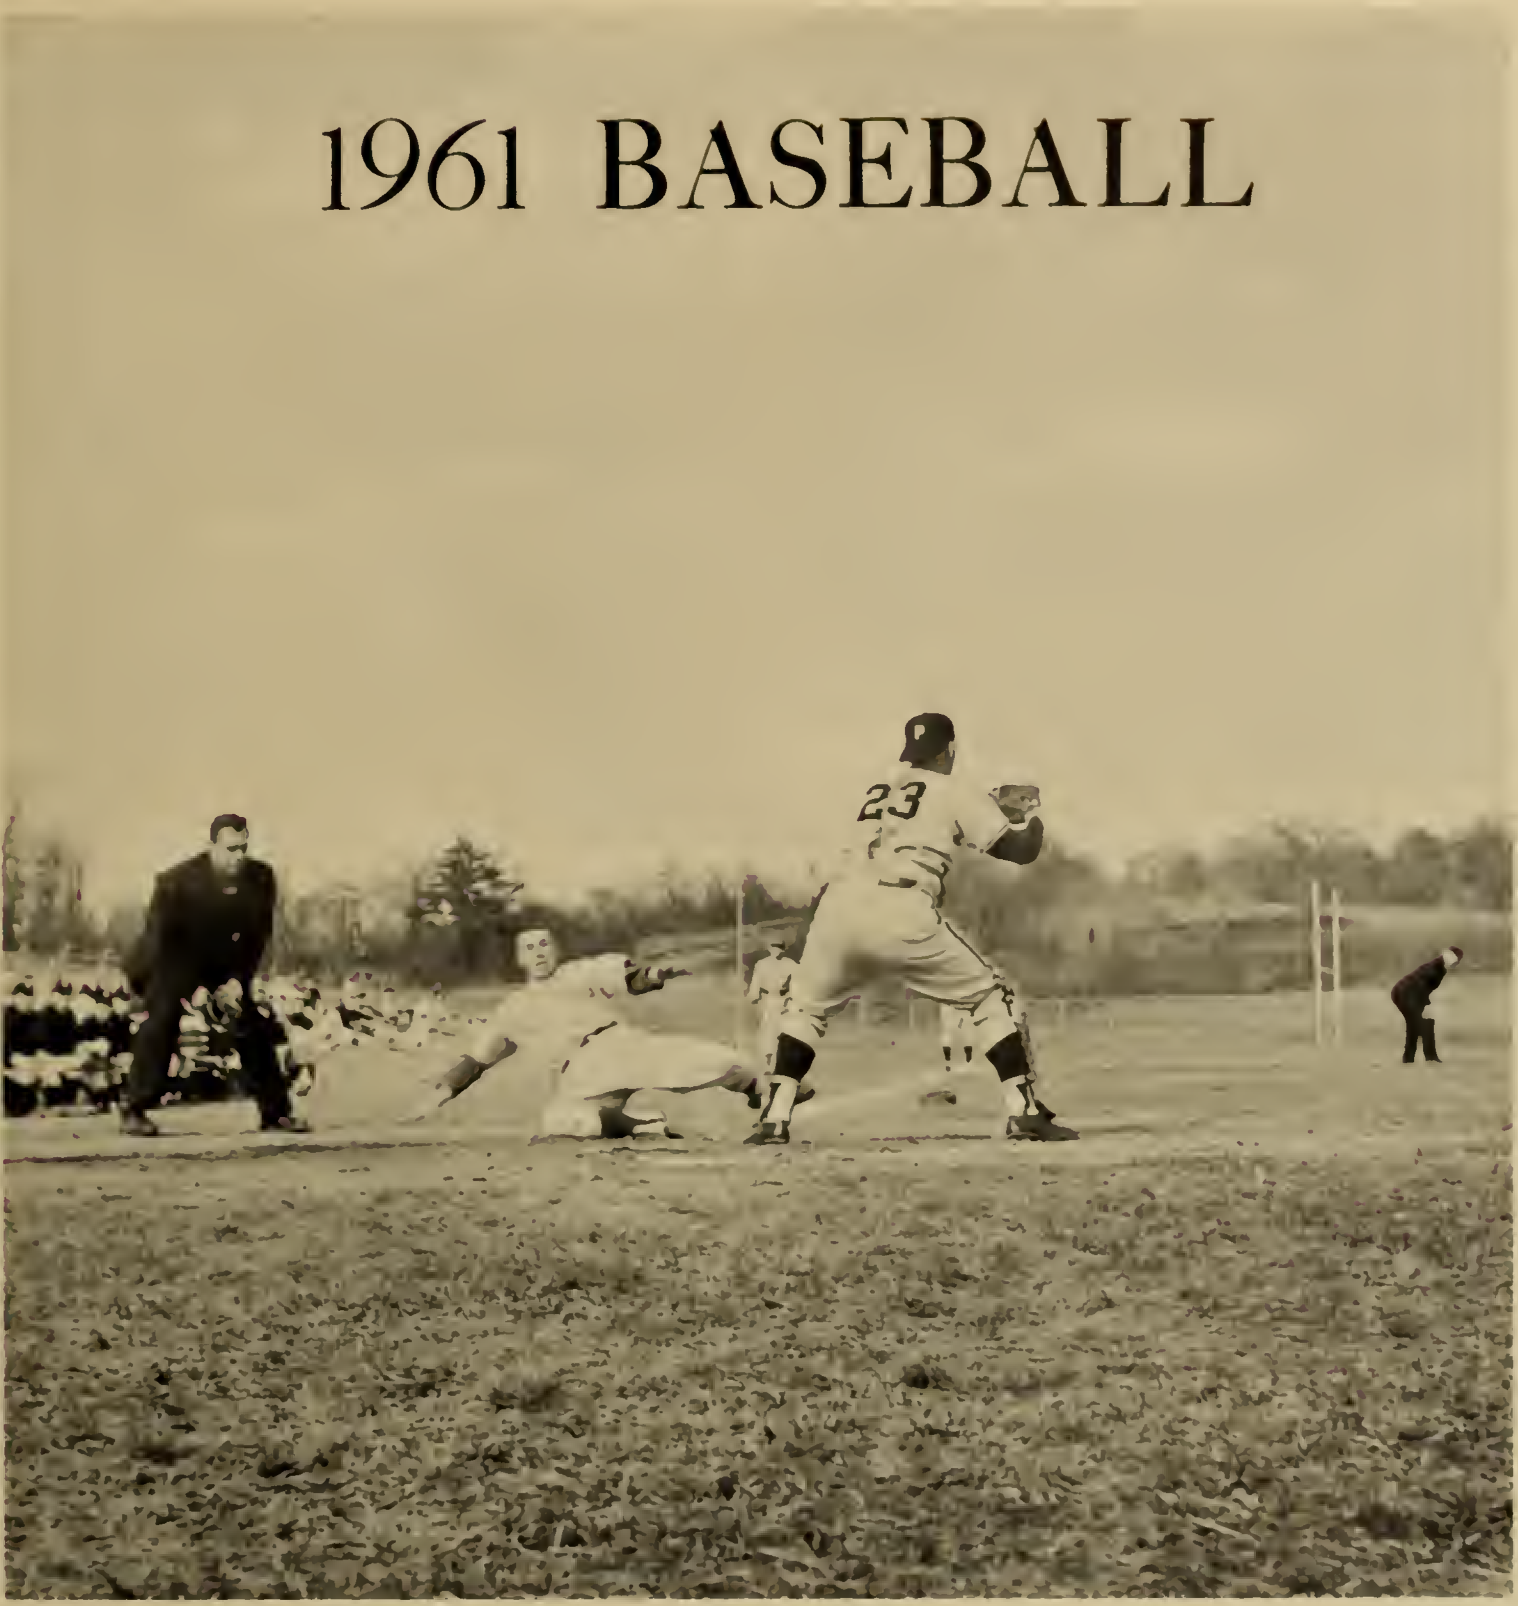
I say, is this Forest Hills?

Now appearing in Swan Lake



Grrrrr . . . . . .

1961 BASEBALL



This year's baseball team, hampered by a soph-studded lineup, weather conditions that wreaked havoc with the schedule, and the perennial nemesis of all losing diamond squads—good hitting and good pitching, but never both in the same game, got off to a disastrous start, losing their first eight games, including five in the Collegiate Baseball League.

Senior captain John Bruzas' strong pitching effort against St. Peter's, however, proved to be a herald of better things to come when soph Wayne Baldino stopped Iona on eight hits in the next game. Then another soph hurler, Ed Skibiak, who had been out of action with a sore elbow since the Seton Hall game, returned to the mound with a one-hit shutout over the University of Hartford. In this first shutout by a Stag pitcher since 1955, Skibiak struck out fifteen and walked but two, and the only hit he allowed was a bunt single with one out in the ninth. After a sixth straight League loss to Upsala, the Stags closed the season with a 9-0 shellacking of perennial rival Bridgeport. This late season spurt, plus the fact that only three seniors—Bruzas, Dick Lorenzo, and Bob Ritter—will be lost, indicate that next year's team should be able to reverse this year's poor record.

1961 RECORD

F.U.		Opp.
3	Seton Hall	8
1	Hunter	4
1	So. Connecticut State	5
1	Quinnipiac	6
9	Rider	10
7	Univ. of Bridgeport	9
1	Fairleigh Dickinson	9
0	St. Peter's	1
2	Iona	1
2	Univ. of Hartford	0
3	Upsala	5
9	Univ. of Bridgeport	0

DIAMOND CLOSEUPS

INTRAMURALS

GRIDIRON

GREATS

BASKETBALL

Hilltop Rest.
Hilltop Rest.

Now, where could that be?

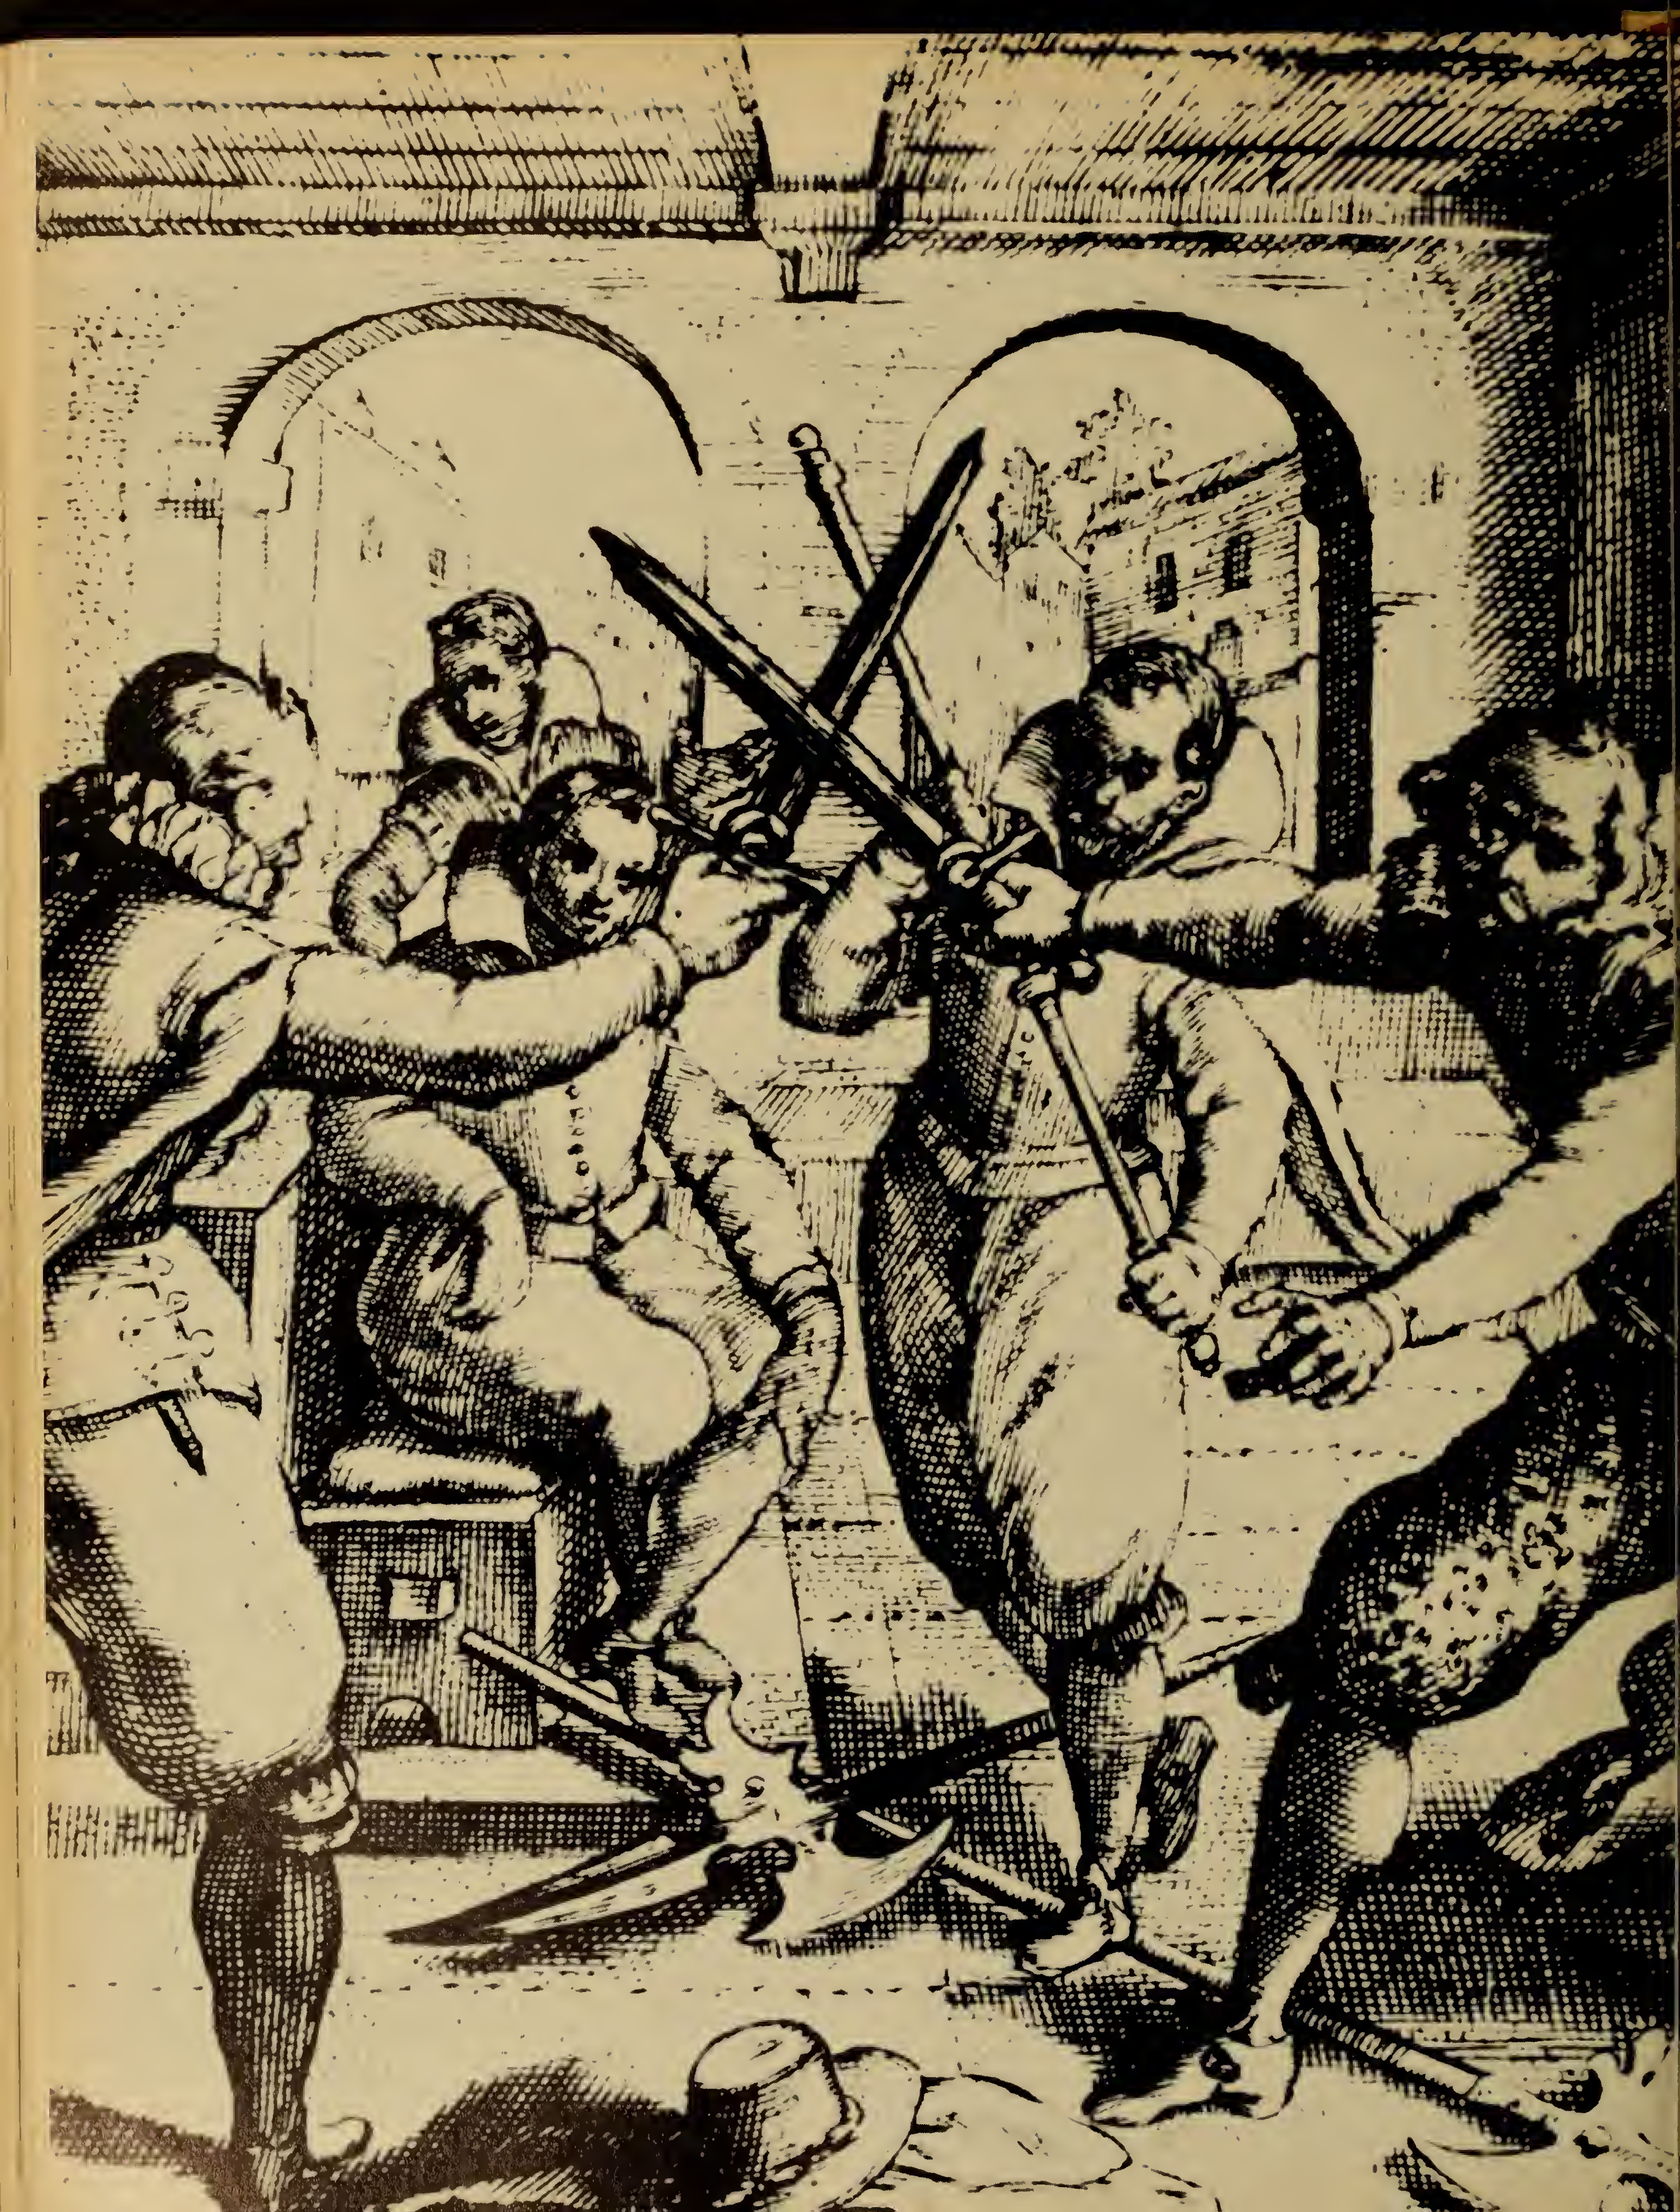
Anyone for volleyball?

So where's the ball?

Hi, Mom

Madras vs. olive drab

SOFTBALL



"'They are so litigious and quarrelsome that there is no peace with them; wherever they go, be it Paris or Orleans, they disturb the country, their associates, even the whole university.' Many of them go about the streets armed, attacking the citizens, breaking into houses, and abusing women. They quarrel among themselves over dogs, women, or what-not, slashing off one another's fingers with their swords, or, with only knives in their hands and nothing to protect their tonsured pates, rush into conflicts from which armed knights would hold back. Their compatriots come to their aid, and soon whole nations of students may be involved in the fray."

Haskins, Charles Homer,
The Rise of the Universities, p. 62

Features

◄ For the Honor of Dear Old . . . !
Engraving, ca. 1612

Last of the big time spenders

A little more coke, my dear ⬆

DOGWOOD

Come out to the GARRRRR-DENNNNN

FAIRFIELD
UNIVERSITY

Lovely to look at, delightful to hold

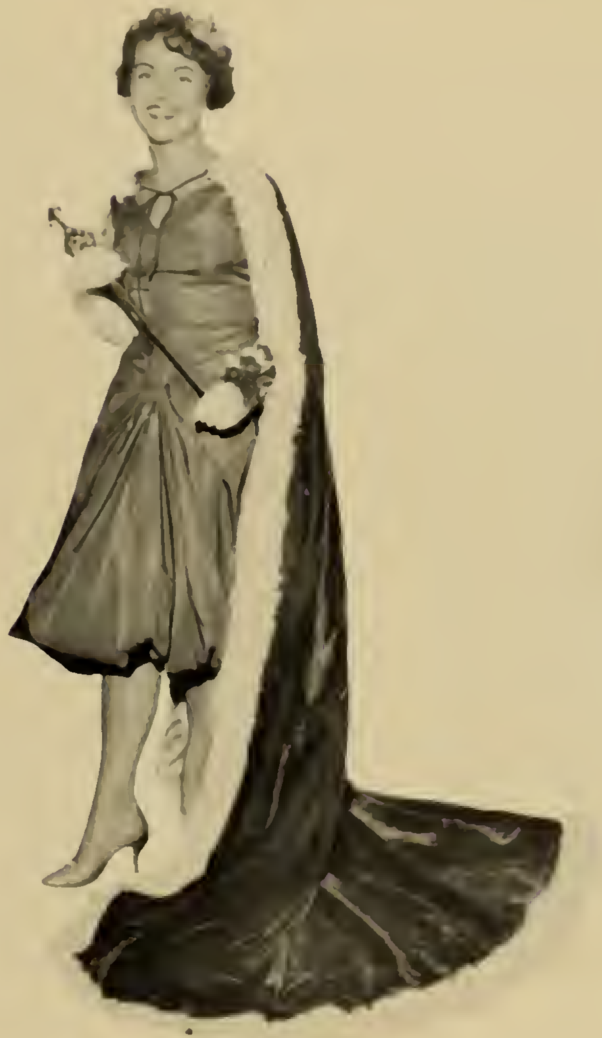
Next we have Boom Boom Larue

Hey, look what I won!

Click.

FESTIVAL

1960



The Queen, Gerri Janik

Lock the door, Martha, here they come again

Jimmy, make the room stop spinning

Tails we go inside, heads we go to the beach

Disaster, Incorporated

As the sun set slowly in the West . . .

The 1960 Junior Weekend, the annual Dogwood Festival, was, as usual, the highlight of the spring social season at Fairfield.

On Friday night, April 29th, the weekend officially began as the couples danced to the music of the Joe Carroll Orchestra at the Fairfield Inn. The spotlight then turned to the crowning of the Queen, beautiful Gerri Janik, who, along with her escort, John Murray, was to reign over the weekend activities.

The enthusiastic crowd, eager to continue in their party atmosphere, proceeded on to a Post-Formal Party, where they dined and danced to the refreshing music of the Herman Parrish Quartet.

Saturday dawned with a bright new promise. The revellers rose at the crack of noon and headed for the sun at Sherwood Island. The afternoon's activities included softball, limboing, and tossing various girls on handy parachutes, which brought on an appetite and thirst which were quickly satisfied by the plentiful refreshments.

PICNIC

Hey Bill, you got a beer?

Softball? Are you kidding me?

The more you eat, the more you want

JAZZ CONCERT

The Newtones start the show

Get serious, O'Keeffe, we're losing our shirts

The piece de resistance of the weekend, Jazz on Campus, was presented on Saturday night, with Carmen McRae and the Newport Youth Band entertaining the pleased audience with a wide selection of songs and arrangements. The hiring of top-name jazz talent to appear on campus as part of the Dogwood Festival was innovated by the Class of 1961, and is well on its way to becoming a tradition at Fairfield.

Sunday, the last day of the weekend, commenced with a Communion Breakfast. A few hours later the crowd assembled for the final event of the weekend, a dixieland jazz concert featuring Eli's Chosen Six. The revelry lasted until sunset, when the tired but dauntless merrymakers left the last scheduled event, and continued the festivities in many separate groups.

The chairman of the Dogwood Festival, Gerry O'Keeffe, termed the weekend a "social success," but declined to comment on the financial aspect.

Miss Carmen McRae sings "Misty"

JAZZ ON CAMPU
Little men, big sound

The crowd loved it

Mr. and Mrs. Glamour

UNIVERSITY
Richard Linson and His Orchestra
RL

Turn on the bubble machine

MID-WINTER

I'm glad I'm not judging

Their Majesties

Want me to smoke it for you?

That's not a birdie, that's your hand

Any more like you at home?

This must be the place

Ring around the rosie

One-two, quick-quick-quick

CARNIVAL

The 1961 Mid-Winter Carnival engraved itself in Fairfield University's short but lively history as the greatest social event ever to arrive on campus. The dates of January 27-29 will long be imbedded in our memories as a dream come true.

Under the guidance of Fr. William Carr, S.J., and the leadership of Bill Russell, the committee moulded together a weekend of excitement and gaiety while retaining all the splendour which one might desire.

The Formal Dance, held for the first time in the new Gymnasium, was the initial sellout of the weekend. As the Richard Linson Orchestra filled the night air with the "Glen Miller" sound, the enchanted couples danced about the lavishly decorated gym which hinted of the winter season. It was at this event that a surprised Miss Arlene Sebastian was crowned Queen and assumed her regal standing before the many in attendance, plus the Channel 8 T.V. audience. The night continued with a senior class-sponsored post-formal party at Woodland Grove.

After a short Friday night rest, all returned to the gym on Saturday afternoon for a most spectacular four hours of jazz. The St. James Dixieland Band set the tempo for the day with their great renditions of New Orleans Jazz. After multi-encores they finally yielded the stage to the Clancy Brothers, who presented their opulent talent in the form of Irish drinking songs. Picking up where the Clancy's left off, the Chad Mitchell Trio, sensing the anxiety of the crowd, gave forth with a barrage of folk songs which have made them the most versatile folk singing group in the nation.

The exceptionally fast pace that characterized the weekend continued as all headed back to Woodland Grove for Saturday night's informal dance. The Starliters splashed music from wall to wall as the couples danced within the same area. A buffet was served to the tremendous crowd, which was now looking forward to the 1:00 A.M. skating party at the Westport Rink.

The sub-zero weather failed to detain a single person from reaching the even colder ice. The SRO crowd skated to the piped music into the wee hours of the morning, when finally, exhausted from a long and active day, they returned to their respective quarters anticipating no tomorrow.

But there was a tomorrow, and an astounding number of wide-eyed couples completely filled Loyola cafeteria for the 11:30 A.M. Communion Breakfast. After a short intermission, all filed into Canisius auditorium for the seventh consecutive sold-out activity of the weekend.

Among the capacity crowd, not a person was disappointed, as the Fairfield University Glee Club performed in its true championship form, presenting a concert with all the finesse of a professional group.

Thus ended the 1961 Mid-Winter Carnival. But its spirit shall live among our most precious college moments.

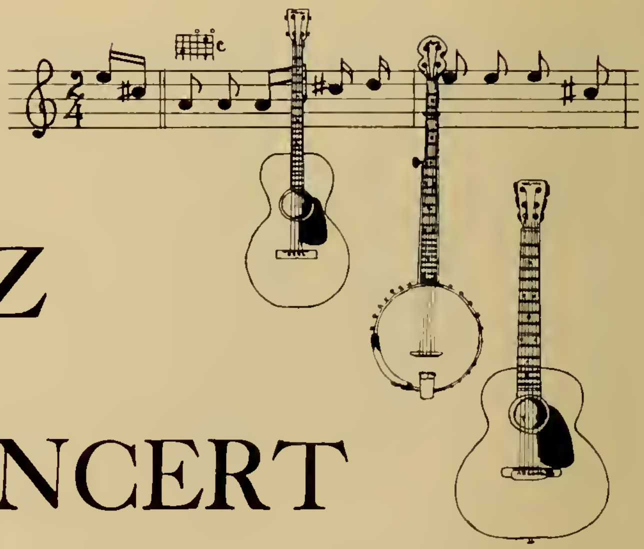
How you gonna keep 'em down on the farm

Shades of Tad Dowd

Glug, Glug, Glug

St. James in Dixieland

JAZZ CONCERT



And the Romans thought they could throw a party

Wine, women, and jazz

Here comes the 5:09

Got a match?

Look, Ma, no cavities!

"But I'm here, John, and she's gone."

SENIOR CANDIDS

I came here so they can study me

This is my round

Man most likely to succeed

Agere sequitur esse

"Peg, I'm home."

Please don't feed the animals

Six-pax personified.

The famous Crowley trial

You sly devil, you

Short legs, but man what a torso!

Hey, Angie, I really did forget my draft card!

I'll take it intravenously

But we love you, Charley Brown

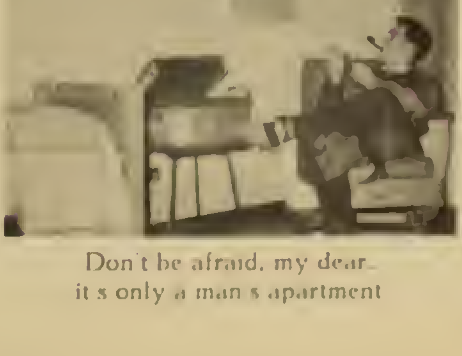
No, chest out, stomach in . . .

Off to another mixer

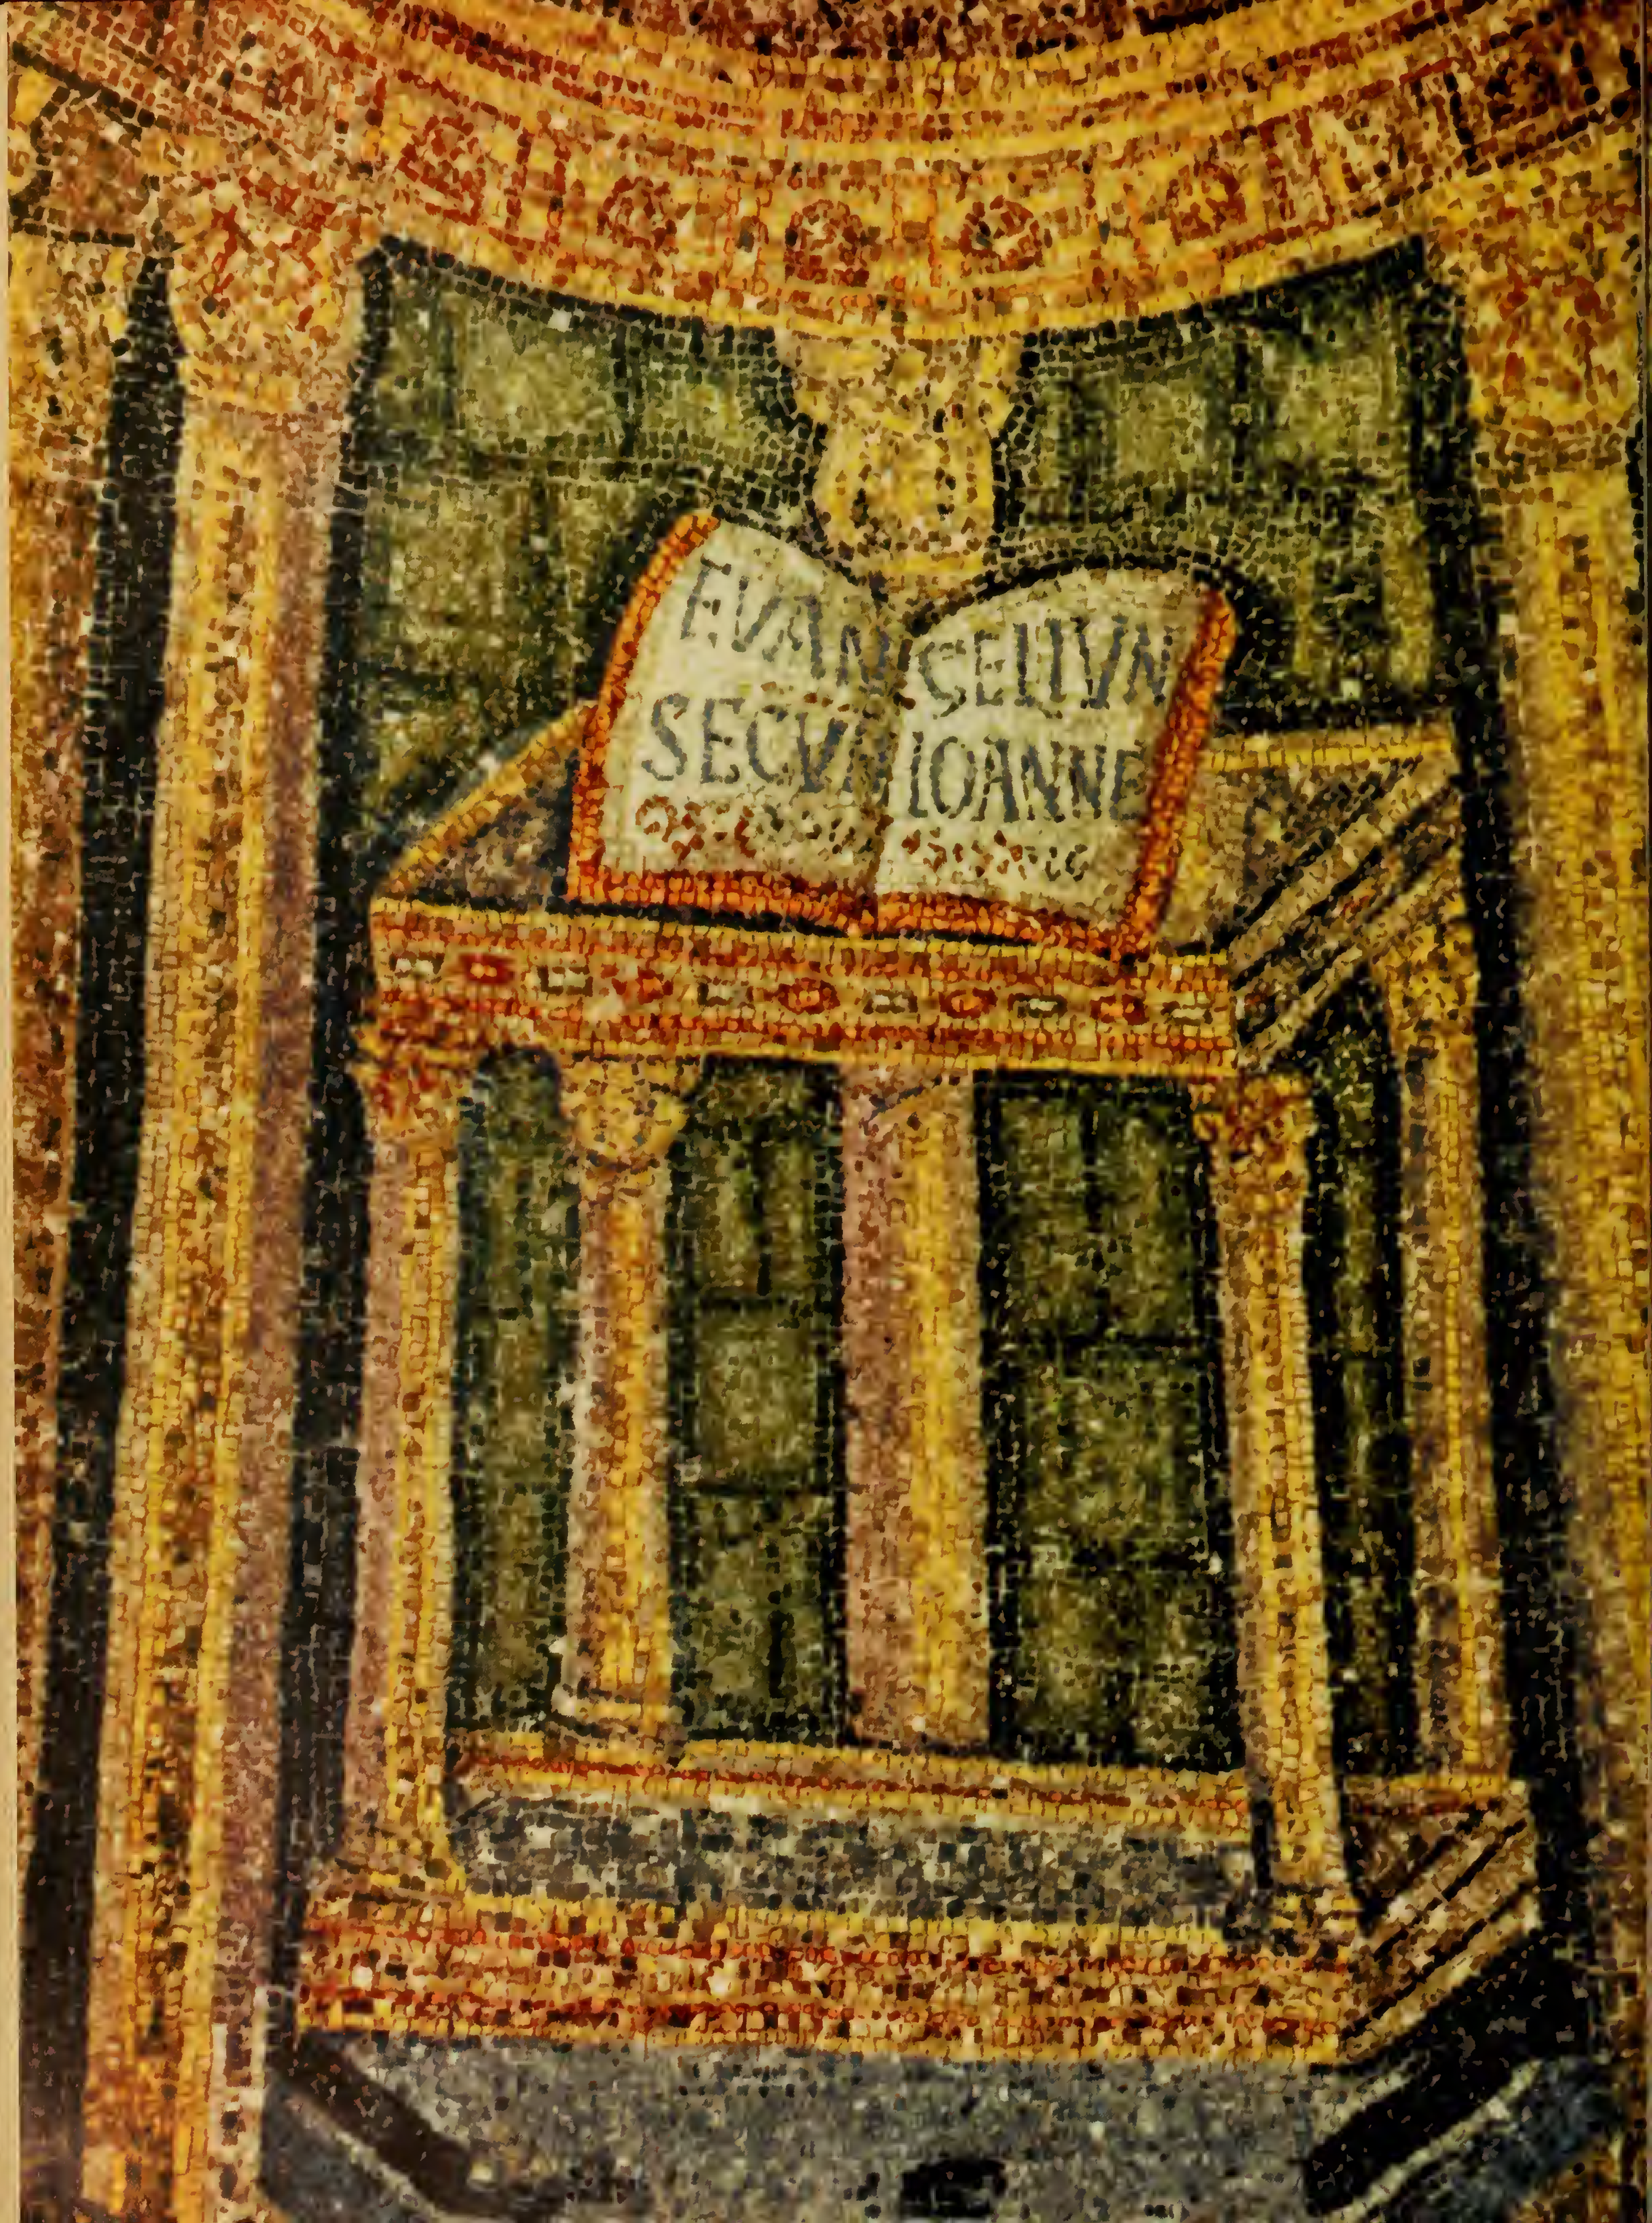
Hello

"Enuf" said?

Ah, Doctor, we're on camera two



Don't be afraid, my dear,
it's only a man's apartment



EVANGELIVM
SECVM IOANNE

"The beginning of learning, therefore, is in reading, its consummation is in meditation. If anyone learns to love it intimately, and wants to have time for it more often, it bestows an exceedingly pleasant life, and offers the greatest consolation in time of trouble. For that is best which removes the spirit from the clash of earthly tumults, and also makes it possible in a certain sense to taste in this life the sweetness of everlasting peace. And then through those things which have been created, one will learn to seek and to know Him who created all things; then, equally, knowledge will instruct and joy will fill the mind."

Hugh of St. Victor. On Study and Teaching (quoted in Ross, J. B. and McLaughlin, M. M., The Portable Medieval Reader, pp. 581-2).

Commencement

◄ The Baptistery of the Cathedral—
Altar with the Gospel of St. John.

VALEDICTORY ADDRESS

Delivered by Denis E. Gannon
June 12, 1961, Fairfield University, Fairfield, Connecticut

Very Reverend Father Rector, Your Excellency Bishop Sheehan, Right Reverend Monsignori, Reverend Fathers, members of the faculty, honored guests, parents and friends, and members of the graduating class.

The class of 1961—at last it is a reality. There were times when all of us doubted that this day would ever come. It wasn't long after we stepped hesitantly onto these grounds as bewildered freshmen that we realized how little we knew, and how much we had to learn.

But our able professors wasted no time. They took the raw ore of our youth and showed us how to separate the slag of adolescence from the pure iron of manhood. They helped us mold our character until it began to take on the straight, clean-cut lines which set off a man who has become a sword of Christ, a weapon of Christianity. Throughout this period of trial, we all showed that our basic metal is true and firm, for our teachers did not have to discard us reluctantly as faulty and unready to continue in the test of knowledge. No, we progressed steadily until we reached this day, the culmination of our efforts. Now, at last, we can look back with a smile and say, "It was worth it."

But even in our pride and happiness, we realize that our diplomas are not the result of our work alone. We know and appreciate the sacrifices which you, our parents, teachers, and friends have made for us. We are aware that you have given up much for our benefit, and we thank you for the opportunities which your sacrifices have enabled us to grasp and use to our advantage.

We have just one more request to make of you. We are young and green, somewhat like freshmen at their first mixer. Many have told us what to expect from the world into which we are now boldly striding. Yet, we have had no real experience of it. We still have much to learn. And so we must, at one and the same time, be cautious, but not timid; daring, but not reckless; thoughtful, but not passive. We shall undoubtedly make mistakes. But they will be mistakes of action, not apathy. There will be many times when you might disagree with our ideas, our plans, our actions. At times like these, your wisdom will be an invaluable aid to us. But remember, now we are men, and must make our own decisions. You must counsel us, but not command us; guide us, but not pull us along by the hand. These are crucial times, and we shall all have to make crucial decisions – our own decisions.

Denis E. Gannon, Valedictorian

I don't think that it is necessary for me to dwell at any great length upon the critical situation which exists in the world today. Every radio and T.V. report and every newspaper hammers into us a deeper awareness of the struggle to the death which is raging all over the globe. This earth is a huge arena, in which two armies of gladiators are contesting. If the army of the democracy does not fight well, and we find the sword of Communism at our throats, there will be no thumbs up for mercy, but thumbs down for slavery and death.

We, the youth of today, realize this. We have spent all our college days grinding out theoretical answers to theoretical questions, with an insurmountable wall between us and the rest of the world. We understand what is happening, and we know that our generation will probably decide whether the human race will continue to grow, or disappear from the universe with one great convulsion. We are ready to don the cloak of responsibility which marks mature men. You, our elders, must give us the chance to prove ourselves. We shall succeed. We have to. There is so much at stake that we cannot afford to fail.

This may seem like the desperate expression of futile hopes by those unprepared to act. But you must remember that we don't step completely unguided into the world, like lost and bewildered children stepping off a curb into rush hour traffic. For the last four years, we have been preparing for this transition. Men with knowledge and experience have been helping us arm ourselves with ideals, with principles, with a true and strong set of values which will protect us against the sly and deceptive methods of opposing philosophies. We have strengthened our minds and our wills in the ways of truth and freedom while here at Fairfield.

No matter how the strings of our lives may unravel, Fairfield University has prepared us for success. Whether we finally settle in business, medicine, law, or the all-important field of education . . . as many of those here today have already done . . . we shall do well, because, at Fairfield, we have learned well.

Of course, for this invaluable service, we shall always remember our Alma Mater with pride and affection. We have developed here; we have changed from boys to men, and have enjoyed the process. The love and loyalty which we, as alumni, shall feel toward her will provide us with another reason for making our own decisions, right decisions. For whatever we do will reflect upon her. Just as a great painting, statue, or symphony displays the artistic worth of its creator, so too shall we display the educational worth of our college. It is through us that Fairfield will gain the recognition that she deserves. All we need . . . all we ask . . . is time.

Finally, before we scatter like fire-born sparks in the breeze, let us take one more look around this campus which we have come to know and love so well. Let us get one last impression of the place which has made so many impressions upon us. In the future years, we shall remember with fondness the classes, the deans and teachers, the concerts and ball games, the plays and lectures, the carnivals, and above all, the classmates with whom we have shared so much. Today we are getting the last and most important impression of all. Today the Class of 1961 is a reality.

The happy warrior
at the end of the trail

Bron, would you please wait for grace?

CLASS BANQUET

Quantico in full dress

Yes, and Brutus was an honorable man

Gimme your salad or I'll call the Mafia

You are now men . . .

Joe, what would Emily Post say?

Of course you're kidding about not paying your alumni dues

Pleased to meet you, now that I'm leaving

Anyone for water?

Togetherness

LOBSTER BAKE

Starting a harem the hard way

Les Miserables

FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY

Every man for himself,
ladies to the rear

Same harem, different caliph

Penny for your thoughts

You mean people eat that stuff?

FORMAL

Her mother never told her

Wait a minute, folks . . . my public

He looks the way he played

DANCE

You owe your crowning glory to . . .

Paul Bunyan had nothing on me

Buddhist prayer clasp

Bermuda . . . with icicles

BEACH PARTY

Go away, you bother me

When the tide rushes in . . .

What am I offered for this specimen?

What can I say

CLASS

About the yearbook . . .

DAY

So who gets what?

These have been pleasant years . . .

Making of the organization man

They ushered us in, now they usher us out

You are Christian men

BACCALAUREATE EXERCISES

God before man

Exit . . . the brass

GRADUATION AND HONORS

The beginning of the end

Four years for ten seconds and a piece of paper

"Know your inner self . . ."

Number one

AMEN

To the Faculty

The Class of 1961 thanks the members of the faculty, both lay and religious, for the sacrifices which they have undergone that we might be exposed to the classical system of education.

Through your classroom and private instruction we have truly grown in wisdom, age, and grace. These have been our formative years, in the struggles of life we might do our best for the years when we absorbed knowledge so that in the struggles of life we might do our best for our God and our country. We are glad that we spent them under your tutelage. We hope that we have absorbed enough to make you proud of our future actions.

Sincerely,

The Class of 1961

Acknowledgments

Our theme, the Birth of a University, was chosen to show how, by word and picture, Fairfield University was slowly, gradually evolving into an institution of learning that fulfills the classical ideal of a university, tempered to meet the challenges of the nuclear age.

Even in today's hurry-hurry, competitive, ambitious, ruthless world of cold war and advertising, there remain many people blessed with the age-proven virtues of friendliness, perseverance, charity, and fortitude. Speaking for the Class of 1961, I thank them.

Rev. John Ryan, S.J., moderator of the MANOR

Paul Fargis, layout editor, whose creative talents played a major part in building the MANOR.

Frank McDonald, literary editor, who either wrote or edited every word in the book.

Bob Crowley, business manager, whose clever money raising schemes and hard work kept us in the black.

Bill Scully, art editor, whose drawings bring alive the theme of the book.

Art Funk, photography editor, whose camera work recorded the class story.

Staff members of the MANOR, who gave freely of their time and talents to bring this book to fruition.

And to:

Sister Maria Joseph of the Regina Laudis Monastery in Bethlehem, Connecticut, who willingly lent us several paintings to be photographed for the MANOR.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art, for their help and cooperation in finding art masterpieces to fit our theme.

Mrs. Stanchina, Miss Mickett, and the rest of the secretarial staff, for their help in typing, mimeographing, and record searching.

Charles Clegg, of The Comet Press, for his advice and patience.

Harry Horton, of the Apeda Studio, for his fine cameramen and his quick solutions to our photographic problems.

All the friends of Fairfield University and the Class of 1961 for their time, money, and aid which made this book possible.

We hope that you will find this book worthy of the Class of 1961. All of us have done our best.

Sincerely yours,

Art Mannion
Editor-in-chief
1961 MANOR

Page 2 . . . Courtesy of the Reginis Laudis Monastery, Bethlehem, Connecticut

Pages 9, 97, 111, 193 . . . The Bettman Archive, 215 E. 57 Street, New York City

Page 24 . . . Courtesy of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Fletcher Fund, 1923

Page 64 . . . Courtesy of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Gift of J. Pierpont Morgan, 1917

Page 173 . . . Courtesy of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Kennedy Fund, 1913

Page 205 . . . Courtesy of the Reginis Laudis Monastery, Bethlehem, Connecticut

Honored Benefactors

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Condon
Mr. and Mrs. John G. Crowley
Countess F. de Bearn
Mr. John Dichello
Dr. Walter G. Donnelly
Mr. and Mrs. John F. Eichler
Mr. E. P. Gannon
Mr. and Mrs. John W. Giblin
Mr. William Heller
Howard Clothes
Dr. and Mrs. Charles Kichham
Mr. and Mrs. Edmund X. Korpas
Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Krodel, Sr.
Hon. and Mrs. Francis J. Lawler
Mr. John Lingua
Mr. and Mrs. T. Gerald Magner
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nash
Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. O'Hagan
Mr. and Mrs. John P. O'Keeffe
Charles Orlando Corp.
Mr. and Mrs. Jose M. Ossorio
Mr. and Mrs. Gerard A. Reynolds
Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Romanczuk
Dr. and Mrs. John H. Rowland
Mr. and Mrs. Daniel D. Skuret
Mr. Francis Speno
Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Will

Patrons

Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Albergo
Mrs. Lillian Antonioli
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Balcerzak
Mr. R. W. Beatty
Mr. and Mrs. Aldo Bianchi
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Biega
Mr. Andrew I. Bitar
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Bleau
Mr. Vincent Botarelli
Mr. and Mrs. John W. Brady
Mrs. Francis Carberry
Mr. Francis Carley, Sr.
Mr. and Mrs. Michael Catalano
Mr. Joseph F. Charlow
Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Ciampi
Dr. and Mrs. Vincent A. Cianci
Mr. and Mrs. Morris Clark
Mrs. Roseline Cofini
Mr. V. C. Cogswell
Mr. Nicholas Colette
Mr. Thomas M. Connors
Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Contino
Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Crawford
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Cronin
Mr. Frank Daly
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dausch
Mr. Stephan J. Dempsey
Mr. and Mrs. Edmund T. Duffy
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dunne
Mr. and Mrs. Daniel V. Eberhard
Mr. George A. Ecclesine
Mr. John J. Eppig
Dr. and Mrs. Honorato Estello
Mr. and Mrs. George B. Fargis
Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Feehan
Mr. and Mrs. A. Ferris

Mr. Americo Filippone
Mr. and Mrs. Edmund T. Flanagan
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flanagan
Mr. P. J. Fleurant
Dr. and Mrs. M. Fratantuno
Mr. Joseph Funk
Mr. Joseph P. Gabriel
Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gallagher
Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Gamba
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Garity
Mr. and Mrs. John W. Geary
Mrs. Antoinette Geisler
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gelston
Mrs. Josephine V. Gianetti
Mr. Edward Gniadek
Mr. and Mrs. James Hackett
Mr. Edward E. Haigh, Jr.
Miss Margaret Harvey
Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hawkins
Mr. and Mrs. John Healy
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Hickey
Mr. Peter J. Houser
Mr. J. P. Hurley
Mr. George M. Jasmin
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones
Mrs. William P. Kane
Mr. Daniel V. Kilfoyle
Kingsway Bowling Lanes
Mr. and Mrs. C. Kronenberger
Mr. George Kujawski
Mr. and Mrs. Guy LaBella
Mr. and Mrs. Michael La Conte
Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Lang
Mr. Domenick Lardizzone
Mr. and Mrs. John LaTerra
Mrs. Elizabeth A. LaVigne

Dr. James P. Lawlor
Mr. and Mrs. Peter P. Lenart
Mr. John Lesko, Sr.
Mr. and Mrs. Locke
Mr. and Mrs. Theodore E. Locke
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lops
Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Loughlin
Mr. Edward J. Luchansky
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lund
Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Lynch
Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence K. Maher
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Malloy
Col. and Mrs. Arthur A. Maloney
Mr. and Mrs. John P. Maney
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Mannion
Mr. William Mansfield, Sr.
Mr. Alexander S. McDonald
Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. McGough
Mrs. Robert McGraw
Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Melican
Mr. and Mrs. Alexander A. Micklos, Sr.
Mr. Lawrence Monerio
Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Monks
Mr. James Moran
Mr. Lawrence Moraw
Mr. Robert Morse
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Murphy
Mrs. Margaret Murphy
Mrs. Wallace V. Murray
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Nalewajk
Mr. and Mrs. Eric Nanfeldt
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nelson
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nycz
Mr. and Mrs. John F. Oates
Mr. and Mrs. James T. O'Brien
Mr. and Mrs. John L. O'Hallohan
Mr. and Mrs. George Okenquist
Dr. Charles H. O'Regan
Mr. and Mrs. Martin Panuczak, Jr.
Mr. Louis Parent
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Paulson
Mr. and Mrs. J. Pavlis
Pembroke Laundry and Cleaners, Inc.
Mr. J. Franklin Perrine
Plymouth Oil Service
Mr. and Mrs. Anton Porfido
Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Preziosi
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Quinlan
Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reidy
Mrs. John T. Reilly
Dr. Walter R. Reiss
Mr. Joseph Rinaldi
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ross
Mrs. Katherine P. Ryan
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Ryan, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Salcito
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Samorajczyk
Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Schaefer
Mr. and Mrs. John A. Scott
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sedensky
Mr. Andrew Sender
Mrs. Helen B. Shay
Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sherwin
Mr. and Mrs. John F. X. Skane
Mrs. Emma H. Smith
Mr. and Mrs. John T. Smith
Mr. Stephan Spodnick
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stephanak
Dr. and Mrs. Vincent J. Tesoriero
Mr. and Mrs. John Tiernan
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tota
Bernard A. Towell
Mr. Frank Tracy
Mrs. Joseph Ungerland
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wallin
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warburton
Mrs. Fred Weed
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whelan
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wisneski
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Yoston

Sponsors

Mrs. Veronica Aetanno
Dr. and Mrs. Paul Ambrose
Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Antoniolli
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Archambault
Mrs. M. Arcovio
Mr. Dominick Arillo
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Balthasar
Mr. Martin F. Bardof
Mr. Francis N. Beaudin
Mr. and Mrs. Watson C. Bellows
Mr. Armando Bianchi
Mrs. John Bielaczyc
Mrs. Kathryn M. Bigham
Mr. and Mrs. V. Biroschak
Mr. Michael Carsella
Mrs. Elizabeth J. Casper
Mr. G. P. Chave
Mr. Angelo Cirasuolo
Mr. and Mrs. John J. Clark
Mrs. Miriam Clark
Mr. and Mrs. James D. Clarkin
Mr. Jerome T. Collins
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colomello
Mrs. G. V. Conboy
Mr. William F. Connelly
Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Coughlin
Mrs. Theresa Curley
Mr. John J. Dalton
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D'Angelo
Mr. and Mrs. Anthony D'Antonio
Mr. and Mrs. John Della Pietra
Mr. William De Lullio
Mrs. Rosaline De Palma
Mr. William Detullio
Mr. Martin J. Devine
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Diana
Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Dietz
Mr. and Mrs. William J. Dillon
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Donnelly
Mrs. Josephine P. Donnelly
Mr. Leo P. Donovan
Mr. Archibald J. Driscoll
Mr. and Mrs. C. Stuart Dubé
Mr. Thomas Dunn
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Duplessie
Mr. Robert T. Eagan
Mr. Frederick Edieterle
Mr. Stephan Elliott
Mr. John Empoliti
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Esposito
Mr. and Mrs. Benedict R. Falsetti
Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fappiano
Mr. and Mrs. Aime P. Ferland
Mrs. Sadie V. Fisher
Dr. F. Frederick Fortin
Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Gannon
Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Garro, Sr.
Mr. Thomas F. Glynn
Mrs. Sebastian Goracy
Mr. and Mrs. George L. Goss
Mrs. George E. Greller
Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Guarnieri
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hoehler
Mrs. Agnes Hogan
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hutter
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jablonsky
Mr. Henry J. Jacek
Mr. and Mrs. William J. Jones
Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Joseph
Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kane
Mrs. Eileen Kavanagh
Mr. John J. Keane
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Kearney
Mrs. Helen Koenig

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kopta
Mrs. Oscar Krug
Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Lafferty
Mr. and Mrs. Roland R. Lareau
Mr. John J. Larkin
Mr. and Mrs. John E. Leary
Mr. John Leary
Mr. Kenneth F. Lee
Mr. Albert Linsky
Mr. and Mrs. M. Lyman
Mr. William T. Manning
Mr. William R. Masi
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Massey
Mr. and Mrs. Mauro Mastrapasqua
Mr. Michael Maunsell
Mr. Frank B. McAneny
Mr. Alfred McCarthy
Mr. Francis J. McCrosson
Mr. Thomas J. McGann
Mr. and Mrs. George McGinn
Mrs. F. J. McLaughlin
M. and Mrs. John J. McNeeley
Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Monahan
Mrs. Martha Montano
Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Morrissey
Mr. William D. Mullaney
Mrs. John O'Connor
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred L. Olsen
Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Orintas
Mr. Christopher Parillo
Mr. and Mrs. Francis Perrone
Mr. and Mrs. James Pezzullo
Mr. and Mrs. L. Piskorski
Mr. and Mrs. H. Pruchnicki
Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Quadretti
Mr. Thomas Reddy
Mrs. Mary Reemsnyder
Mr. and Mrs. James J. Rhatigan
Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Richardson

Mrs. Marie Roberts
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson
Mrs. Paul Rooney
Mr. and Mrs. J. Sande
Mr. and Mrs. William J. Sanders
Mr. Herbert R. Sandine
Mrs. Ona Saulaitis
Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Schuster
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scionti
Mr. Nicholas J. Scobbo
Mr. and Mrs. Libero Sella
Mr. Robert F. Shea
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Simpson
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Skibo
Mrs. Joseph F. Slayne
Mrs. Emma H. Smith
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith
Mr. Joseph Sneider
Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Spota
Mr. Ralph E. Stanco
Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Stone
Mr. William Sullivan
Mr. and Mrs. Francis Suman
Mr. Robert K. Swatland
Mr. E. A. Tehan
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Titus
Mr. and Mrs. P. Torrillo
Mr. A. J. Tronolone
Mr. Victor Urbanowicz
Mr. and Mrs. R. Violetta
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Visco
Mrs. Cecilia M. Wagner
Mr. H. S. Walz
Mr. Frederick A. Weismiller
Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Werthmann
Mr. John Willenborg
Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Williston
Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse A. Zucks

Manor Advertisers

ALEXANDER M. BORRIE
FRANK H. McDONALD

Borrie & McDonald

SURVEYORS and MUNICIPAL ENGINEERS

Established 1870

972 McCARTER HIGHWAY
Newark 2, N. J.

MArket 3-1009

FAIRFIELD CENTER JEWELERS

JEWELRY - GLASSWARE

1498 POST ROAD
Fairfield Center

QUALITY SERVICE

MERLY CONSTRUCTION COMPANY

GENERAL CONTRACTORS

JOSEPH E. MERLY
EDison 5-6236

Residence - 154 ALDINE AVENUE
Bridgeport 4, Conn.

COMPLIMENTS

- of -

The MacMURRAY AGENCY

895 WEST BEACH STREET

Long Beach, New York

The Ignatian Council, Knights of Columbus, wishes the Class of 1961 a most happy and successful future. We especially thank our departing brother knights for the work that they have put in to make this council one of the best college councils in the United States. We will try to preserve and, if possible, better your record. Good luck. . . .

Congratulations

and

Best Wishes

to the Class of '61

Ignatian Council #4203

Knights of Columbus

Congratulations to the Class of 1961

THE CARDINAL KEY SOCIETY

CONGRATULATIONS
to the Class of '61

FAIRFIELD
Motor Inn

417 Boston Post Road
Fairfield, Connecticut

TAP ROOM - RESTAURANT

CENTER

1418 POST ROAD
Fairfield

Congratulations!

On A Job Well Done

the

Bay State
Area Club

GREEN COMET DINER

"TOPS IN TOWN"

90 KINGS HIGHWAY CUT-OFF
Fairfield, Conn.
Tel. FO 8-9471

Read's

BRIDGEPORT, CONN.

extends heartiest congratulations and cordial good wishes to the Graduation Class of 1961

more than a store . . . a community institution since 1857

Compliments of

E & F CONSTRUCTION CO.

Bridgeport, Connecticut

THE BERNARD J. DOLAN CO., INC.

COAL - FUEL - RANGE OIL

Mason Supplies - Ready Mix Concrete

207 GREENWOOD AVENUE
Bethel, Conn.
PIoneer 8-9231

FULTON CLOTHIERS

1455 MAIN STREET
Bridgeport, Connecticut

Specialists in FORMAL WEAR

Catholic Supply Co.
and
Catholic Information Center

1126 BROAD STREET
EDison 3-7272 Bridgeport 3, Conn.

Religious Articles & Church Goods

EDison 6-0537 JAMES DUNNE

Store Hours
Mon. to Fri. 9 a.m. - 8 p.m. - Sat. to 6 p.m.
Parking in Rear - Vine Street

H. G. DUNNE
"HOWIE" DUNNE

MEN'S QUALITY CLOTHING - FURNISHINGS

1226 PARK AVENUE
Bridgeport, Conn.

CITY SAVINGS BANK OF BRIDGEPORT, CONN.
"The Family Bank"

948 MAIN STREET, Bridgeport
3621 MAIN STREET, Stratford
1997 BLK. ROCK TPKE., Fairfield
HUNTINGTON CENTER, Huntington

Member F.D.I.C.

WALSH and STURGES

REALTORS IN FAIRFIELD SINCE 1926

1326 POST ROAD
Fairfield

FAIRFIELD LAUNDROMAT

1227 POST ROAD
(Opp. Post Office)
Fairfield, Connecticut
CLearwater 9-7286

The BARBER of SERVILLE

1426 POST ROAD
Fairfield, Connecticut

CL 9-3893

Best of luck to all the Graduates

BELLARMINE MOTHERS GUILD

Best Wishes to the Class of 1961

RICKEY'S CAFE

202 FULTON ST. NEW YORK CITY

Your host, Tony Cuomo

THE BLUE BIRD SHOP

1310 POST ROAD
Fairfield, Connecticut

SOCIAL STATIONERY and ENGRAVING
GREETING CARDS - DISTINCTIVE GIFTS

Only Four Doors from the Post Office

TOWN CLEANERS

3 HOUR DRY CLEANING SERVICE and 6 HOUR SHIRT SERVICE

1225 POST ROAD
Fairfield, Connecticut

On behalf of the entire student body

the

STUDENT COUNCIL

wishes the best of everything

to the Class of '61

Your "FRESH UP"
7up
REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

7-UP
BOTTLING COMPANY
Norwalk
Connecticut

D. Galluzzo
Travel Agency

670 EAST MAIN STREET

Bridgeport, Connecticut

"YOUR TICKET TO BERMUDA"

Compliments of
Leverty & Hurley Company
260 BOSTWICK AVENUE
Bridgeport, Connecticut

To the Class of 1961

Best wishes to you in the years to come. We know that whatever you do, your actions will reflect credit on your school. Again best wishes and good luck, down the years to come.

The

MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

MECHANICS & FARMERS Savings BANK

"the Friendly BANK"

DRIVE-UP, WALK-UP AT BRANCHES • MONDAY-THURSDAY 9:00 TO 4:30

Your best bet for

ONE STOP

SHOPPING is

HOWLAND'S

Southern Connecticut's Largest Department Store

MAIN and CANNON STREETS

Bridgeport, Connecticut

CONTRACT

PLATING CO.,

INC.

◆

540 LONGSBROOK AVENUE

Stratford, Connecticut

Compliments of

THE HIGGINS
FUNERAL HOME

Congratulations to the Class of 1961 from the

FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

President: Bronislaw Orlowski

Vice-President: John Bigley

Treasurer: Richard Bepko

Secretary: James Stapelton

Executive Board

Fred Tartaro
Robert Petrucelli
Dr. Robert Murphy
Frank DiScala
John McNamara
Frank Ireland
Charles Rose
Rocco Forte
Donald Waterworth
Walter Sachrison
Edmund Gubbons

Congratulations and Best Wishes

to the

CLASS OF 1961

from

The BRIDGEPORT AREA CLUB

O'Connor and Gazley Agency

INC.

REAL ESTATE - INSURANCE

1660 BARNUM AVENUE

Stratford, Connecticut

VILLAGE PHARMACY

FRANCIS W. BURNS, Reg. Pharm.; Mgr.
JOSEPH F. MACH, Lic. Pharm.
1460 POST ROAD
Fairfield, Connecticut
CL 9-5919

Compliments of

J. GERALD PHELAN

Compliments of

Mrs. JOSEPH J. NEIDERMEIER

and Family

Best of Luck to the Graduates

from the

Class of 1962

Compliments of

Reeves Soundcraft Corp.

DANBURY, CONN.

Congratulations to the Class of 1961

from the

NEW HAVEN AREA CLUB

Raybestos

"SERVES THE YOUTH OF THE COMMUNITY"

- Sponsors of -

STRATFORD LITTLE LEAGUE STRATFORD FARM LEAGUE
RAYBESTOS KNOT HOLE CLUB
SEA SCOUT SHIP #37
RAY-CO. JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

RAYBESTOS DIVISION of RAYBESTOS MANHATTAN, INC.

Compliments of

THE WATERBURY
AREA CLUB

Dworken's Cleaners

881 POST ROAD

Fairfield Shopping Center

"The extras in printing at no extra cost."

Why pay more when we can insure the best in creative quality and service?

Books . . . Booklets . . . Catalogues
Reports

Business or Personal Stationery

The FAIRFIELD PRESS

division of

Fairfield County Publications

Offices:

1150 Post Road, Fairfield
CL 9-3366
73 East State Street, Westport
CA 7-4171

CONGRATULATIONS and BEST WISHES

to the

CLASS OF 1961

The Marketing Club

HOLIDAY DINER

"Now Two HOLIDAYS"

BLACK ROCK TURNPIKE

POST ROAD

THE INFLUENTIAL AMERICANS

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops."

—The Education of Henry Adams

Long after many of the experiences of our school days have become vague memories, the personalities of our teachers remain vividly with us. Some thought they have shared with us, some word they have spoken, still guides and shapes our lives and, through us, the lives of others. "A teacher . . . can never tell where his influence stops." But that influence is undeniably great – upon our values, upon our purposes in life, even upon our national destiny.

Let us honor every dedicated member of the teaching profession. Let America raise up more of their kind!

Progress Is Our Most Important Product

GENERAL ELECTRIC

GRAY LINE
BUS CO.

137 Dover Street
Bridgeport, Conn.

Best Wishes

The Hartford Area

Club

Hoffman
Fuel
Company

156 EAST WASHINGTON AVENUE

Bridgeport, Connecticut

The Marsh Press, Inc.

GOOD PRINTING SINCE 1918

230 WOOD AVENUE
Bridgeport, Connecticut

VILARDI TAILORS

GREENWOOD AVENUE
Bethel, Connecticut

TUXEDOS FOR HIRE

"Worsted-Tex Custom Fitting"

COMPLIMENTS

- of -

JAMES V. JOY,
INC.

GENERAL INSURANCE

excellent design skilled craftsmanship

superb quality

RINGS

PINS

MEDALS

CHARMS

CUPS

PLAQUES

TROPHIES

YOUR CLASS JEWELER

DIEGES & CLUST

226 PUBLIC ST., PROVIDENCE, R. I.

PENNSYLVANIA

NEW YORK

MANUFACTURING JEWELERS

BEST WISHES

WIRETEX MFG. CO.

10 MAXIN STREET
Bridgeport 5, Connecticut

FABRICATORS of BASKETS and FIXTURES for the Heat Treating and Plating Industries

CONGRATULATIONS

CLAMPETTS SPORT CENTER

POST ROAD
Fairfield, Connecticut

"If you think of sporting equipment, think of CLAMPETTS . . ."

GOOD LUCK,

GRADUATES

from the

CLASS OF 1963

Glass Table Tops - Mirrors - Safety Auto Glass Structural Glass

SAMUEL J. KLAHR, INC.

PLATE GLASS WINDOW
Glass of Every Description
Metal Store Front Construction

220 N. WASHINGTON AVENUE
Bridgeport, Connecticut

ED 4-7225 FO 6-0653
Res. ED 5-4815

ALL SUCCESS IN THE FUTURE

RELIABLE SANITATION

ENGINEERS OF SANITATION

DISPOSAL

COMPLIMENTS

- of -

SAVOY LAUNDRY &
LINEN SUPPLY, INC.

425 WOODEND ROAD
Stratford, Connecticut

A Complete Line of

Laundry, Dry Cleaning, and Rental Service

CONGRATULATIONS AND BEST WISHES

to

Fairfield University's

Class of 1961

the

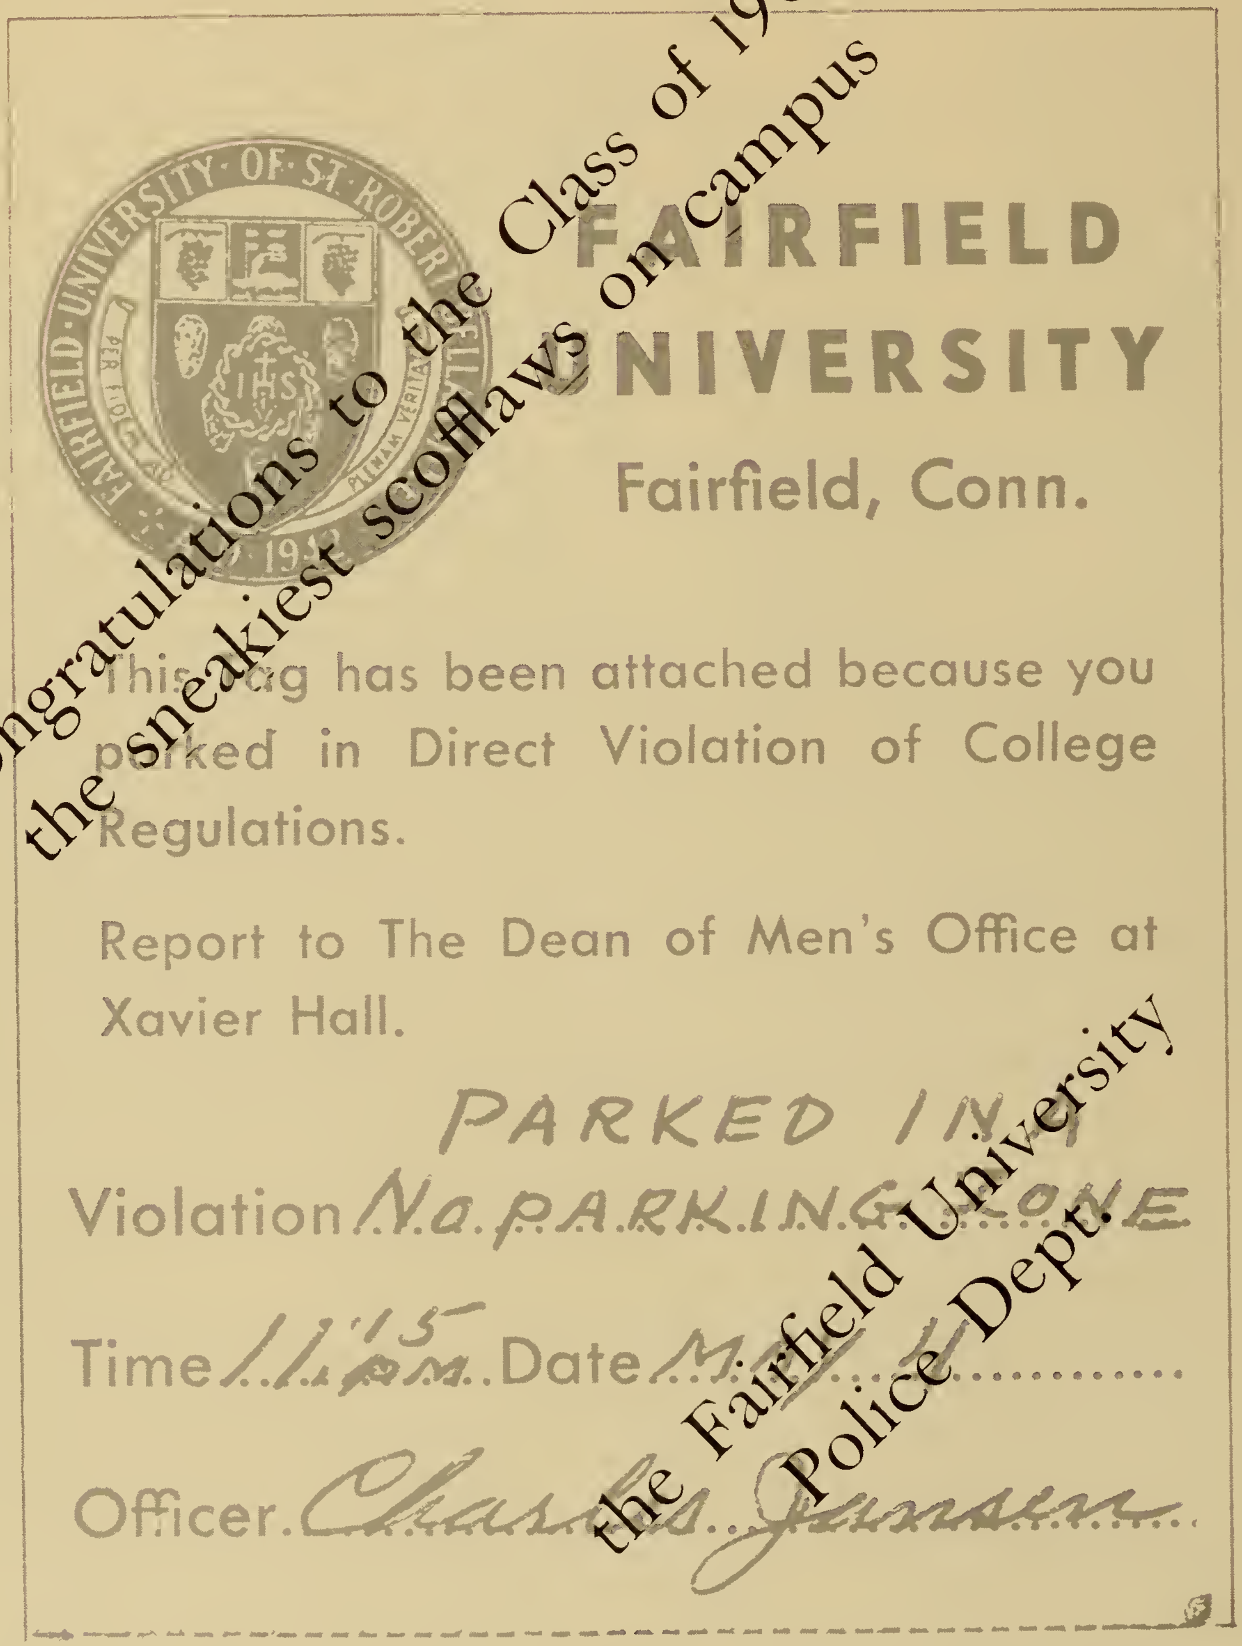
BELLARMINE FATHERS CLUB

Officers

President — Alfred J. Jennings
First Vice-President — Edwynn Sumn
Second Vice-President — Raymond J. O'Connor
Recording Secretary — Edward Burlinson
Corresponding Secretary — John Vasse
Treasurer — Edward Duffy
Moderator — Reverend Eugene Brissette, S.J.

THE FAIRFIELD INN
BANQUETS
TESTIMONIALS
DANCING
PRIVATE PARTIES
ANNIVERSARIES
WEDDINGS

Congratulations to the Class of 1961,
the sneakiest scofflaws on campus



FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY

Fairfield, Conn.

This tag has been attached because you parked in Direct Violation of College Regulations.

Report to The Dean of Men's Office at Xavier Hall.

PARKED IN A

Violation NO PARKING ZONE

Time 11:15 pm Date MAY 4

Officer Charles Jensen

the Fairfield University
Police Dept.

U. S. MARINE OFFICER PROGRAMS
FRESHMEN
SOPHOMORES

LIKE
BEAT
THE CROSS
MAN

Best Wishes to the Class of 1961

APEDA STUDIO

Official Photographers

* * *

212 West 48th Street
New York 36, New York

individual service

Perhaps tender, loving care would be a better way to put it. For forty years now, Comet Press representatives have been mopping brows, calking seams, holding forts, balancing budgets, keeping noses to grindstones, putting shoulders to the wheel so that hundreds of colleges and high schools throughout the East might have superb yearbooks. We are particularly proud to have helped with The 1961 Manor

THE COMET PRESS, INC.
200 Varick Street
New York 14, N.Y.
WAtkins 4-6700